

International Development (Reporting and Transparency) Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 31

Annual reports

6 Transparency

- (1) The Secretary of State shall include in each annual report such observations as he thinks appropriate about the contribution by Government departments to the promotion of transparency in—
 - (a) the provision of aid, and
 - (b) the use made of aid provided.
- (2) He shall include, in particular, observations about progress in relation to the following—
 - (a) specifying future allocations of aid,
 - (b) securing that aid supports clearly identified development objectives, agreed between those providing and those receiving the aid,
 - (c) promoting the better management of aid, including the prevention of corruption in relation to it,
 - (d) securing improvements in monitoring the use of aid.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Development (Reporting and Transparency) Act 2006, Section 6.