Government of Wales Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 32

An Act to make provision about the government of Wales. [25th July 2006]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Act power to apply or incorporate (with modifications) conferred (15.9.2011) by Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 (c. 13), s. 58(1)-(3), (7)

C2 Act power to apply or incorporate (with modifications) conferred (25.4.2012) by Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 (c. 13), s. 54(2)-(5), 157(1); S.I. 2012/1129, art. 2(b)

[F1 PART A1

PERMANENCE OF THE ASSEMBLY AND WELSH GOVERNMENT

Textual Amendments

F1 Pt. A1 inserted (31.3.2017) by Wales Act 2017 (c. 4), ss. 1, 71(2)(a) (with Sch. 7 paras. 1, 6)

A1 Permanence of the Assembly and Welsh Government

(1) The Assembly established by Part 1 and the Welsh Government established by Part 2 are a permanent part of the United Kingdom's constitutional arrangements.

(2) The purpose of this section is, with due regard to the other provisions of this Act, to signify the commitment of the Parliament and Government of the United Kingdom to the Assembly and the Welsh Government.
(3) In view of that commitment it is declared that the Assembly and the Welsh Government are not to be abolished except on the basis of a decision of the people of Wales voting in a referendum.

A2 Recognition of Welsh law

(1) The law that applies in Wales includes a body of Welsh law made by the Assembly and the Welsh Ministers.

(2) The purpose of this section is, with due regard to the other provisions of this Act, to recognise the ability of the Assembly and the Welsh Ministers to make law forming part of the law of England and Wales.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES

The Assembly

1 The Assembly

(1) There is to be an Assembly for Wales to be known as the National Assembly for Wales or Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru (referred to in this Act as “the Assembly”).

(2) The Assembly is to consist of—
   (a) one member for each Assembly constituency (referred to in this Act as “Assembly constituency members”), and
   (b) members for each Assembly electoral region (referred to in this Act as “Assembly regional members”).

(3) Members of the Assembly (referred to in this Act as “Assembly members”) are to be returned in accordance with the provision made by and under this Act for—
   (a) the holding of general elections of Assembly members (for the return of the entire Assembly), and
   (b) the filling of vacancies in Assembly seats.

(4) The validity of any Assembly proceedings is not affected by any vacancy in its membership.

(5) In this Act “Assembly proceedings” means any proceedings of—
   (a) the Assembly,
   (b) committees of the Assembly, or
   (c) sub-committees of such committees.
2 Assembly constituencies and electoral regions

(1) The Assembly constituencies are the constituencies specified in the Parliamentary Constituencies and Assembly Electoral Regions (Wales) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/1041) as amended by—
   (a) the Parliamentary Constituencies and Assembly Electoral Regions (Wales) (Amendment) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/1791), and
   (b) any Order in Council under the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 giving effect (with or without modifications) to a report falling within section 13(3) or (4) of the Parliamentary Voting System and Constituencies Act 2011.

(2) There are five Assembly electoral regions.

(3) The Assembly electoral regions are as specified in the Parliamentary Constituencies and Assembly Electoral Regions (Wales) Order 2006.

(4) There are four seats for each Assembly electoral region.

3 Ordinary general elections

(1) The poll at an ordinary general election is to be held on the first Thursday in May in the fifth calendar year following that in which the previous ordinary general election was held, unless—
   (a) subsection (1A) prevents the poll being held on that day, or
   (b) the day of the poll is determined by a proclamation under section 4.

F6(1A) The poll is not to be held on the same date as the date of the poll at—
   (a) a parliamentary general election (other than an early parliamentary general election), or
   (b) a European Parliamentary general election.
(1B) Where subsection (1A) prevents the poll being held on the day specified in subsection (1), the poll is to be held on such day, subject to subsection (1A), as the Welsh Ministers may by order specify unless the day of the poll is determined by a proclamation under section 4(2) as modified by section 4(2A).]

(2) If the poll is to be held on the first Thursday in May [F7 or on the day specified by an order under subsection (1B) ], the Assembly—
   (a) is dissolved by virtue of this section at the beginning of the minimum period which ends with that day, and
   (b) must meet within the period of seven days beginning immediately after the day of the poll.

(3) In subsection (2) “the minimum period” means the period determined in accordance with an order under section 13.

(4) In calculating any period of days for the purposes of subsection (2)(b), the following days are to be disregarded—
   (a) Saturday and Sunday,
   (b) any day which is a bank holiday in Wales under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (c. 80), and
   (c) any day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

[F9(5) No order is to be made under subsection (1B) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.]
(b) require the poll at the election to be held on the day proposed, and
(c) require the Assembly to meet within the period of seven days beginning immediately after the day of the poll.]

F9(2A) Where a day is specified by an order under section 3(1B), subsection (1) applies as if the reference to the first Thursday in May were a reference to that day.

(3) In calculating any period of days for the purposes of provision made by virtue of subsection F10(2)(c), the following days are to be disregarded—
(a) Saturday and Sunday,
(b) Good Friday,
(c) any day which is a bank holiday in Wales under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (c. 80), and
(d) any day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

F10(4) The Welsh Ministers may by order make provision for—
(a) any provision of, or made under, the Representation of the People Acts, or
(b) any other enactment relating to the election of Assembly members, to have effect with such modifications or exceptions as the Welsh Ministers consider appropriate in connection with the alteration of the day of the poll under this section.

F11(5) ..................................................

F12(6) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

5 Extraordinary general elections

(1) The Presiding Officer must propose a day for the holding of a poll at an extraordinary general election if subsection (2) or (3) applies.
(2) This subsection applies if—
   (a) the Assembly resolves that it should be dissolved, and
   (b) the resolution of the Assembly is passed on a vote in which the number of Assembly members voting in favour of it is not less than two-thirds of the total number of Assembly seats.

(3) This subsection applies if any period during which the Assembly is required under section 47 to nominate an Assembly member for appointment as the First Minister ends without such a nomination being made.

(4) If the Presiding Officer proposes a day under subsection (1), Her Majesty may by proclamation under the Welsh Seal—
   (a) dissolve the Assembly and require an extraordinary general election to be held,
   (b) require the poll at the election to be held on the day proposed, and
   (c) require the Assembly to meet within the period of seven days beginning immediately after the day of the poll.

(5) If a poll is held under this section within the period of six months ending with the day on which the poll at the next ordinary general election would be held (disregarding section 4), that ordinary general election is not to be held.

(6) But subsection (5) does not affect the year in which the subsequent ordinary general election is to be held.

(7) In calculating any period of days for the purposes of subsection (4)(c), the following days are to be disregarded—
   (a) Saturday and Sunday,
   (b) Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and Good Friday,
   (c) any day which is a bank holiday in Wales under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (c. 80), and
   (d) any day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

6 Voting at general elections

(1) Each person entitled to vote at a general election in an Assembly constituency has two votes.

(2) One (referred to in this Act as a “constituency vote”) is a vote which may be given for a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for the Assembly constituency.
(3) The other (referred to in this Act as an “electoral region vote”) is a vote which may be given for—
   (a) a registered political party which has submitted a list of candidates to be Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region in which the Assembly constituency is included, or
   (b) an individual who is a candidate to be an Assembly regional member for that Assembly electoral region.

(4) The Assembly constituency member for the Assembly constituency is to be returned under the simple majority system.

(5) The Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region are to be returned under the additional member system of proportional representation provided for in this Part.

(6) In this Act “registered political party” means a party registered under Part 2 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c. 41).

7 Candidates at general elections

(1) At a general election a person may not be a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for more than one Assembly constituency.

(2) Any registered political party may submit a list of candidates for return as Assembly regional members for a particular Assembly electoral region at a general election.

(3) The list must be submitted to the regional returning officer.

(4) The list must not include more than twelve persons (but may include only one).

(5) The list must not include a person—
   (a) who is included on any other list submitted for the Assembly electoral region or any list submitted for another Assembly electoral region,
   (b) who is an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region or another Assembly electoral region,
   (c) who is a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for an Assembly constituency which is not included in the Assembly electoral region, or
   (d) who is a candidate to be the Assembly constituency member for an Assembly constituency included in the Assembly electoral region but is not a candidate of the party.

(6) A person may not be an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region if that person is—
   (a) included on a list submitted by a registered political party for the Assembly electoral region or another Assembly electoral region,
   (b) an individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for another Assembly electoral region,

8  Calculation of electoral region figures

(1) This section and section 9 are about the return of Assembly regional members for an electoral region at a general election.

(2) The person who is to be returned as the Assembly constituency member for each Assembly constituency in the Assembly electoral region is to be determined before it is determined who are to be returned as the Assembly regional members for the Assembly electoral region.

(3) For each registered political party by which a list of candidates has been submitted for the Assembly electoral region—
   (a) there is to be added together the number of electoral region votes given for the party in the Assembly constituencies included in the Assembly electoral region, and
   (b) the number arrived at under paragraph (a) is then to be divided by the aggregate of one and the number of candidates of the party returned as Assembly constituency members for any of those Assembly constituencies.

(4) For each individual candidate to be an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region there is to be added together the number of electoral region votes given for the candidate in the Assembly constituencies included in the Assembly electoral region.

(5) The number arrived at—
   (a) in the case of a registered political party, under subsection (3)(b), or
   (b) in the case of an individual candidate, under subsection (4), is referred to in this Act as the electoral region figure for that party or individual candidate.
9  Allocation of seats to electoral region members

(1) The first seat for the Assembly electoral region is to be allocated to the party or individual candidate with the highest electoral region figure.

(2) The second and subsequent seats for the Assembly electoral region are to be allocated to the party or individual candidate with the highest electoral region figure after any recalculation required by subsection (3) has been carried out.

(3) This subsection requires a recalculation under paragraph (b) of section 8(3) in relation to a party—
   - (a) for the first application of subsection (2), if the application of subsection (1) resulted in the allocation of an Assembly seat to the party, or
   - (b) for any subsequent application of subsection (2), if the previous application of that subsection did so, and a recalculation is to be carried out after adding one to the aggregate mentioned in that paragraph.

(4) An individual candidate already returned as an Assembly constituency member or Assembly regional member is to be disregarded.

(5) Seats for the Assembly electoral region which are allocated to a party are to be filled by the persons on the party's list in the order in which they appear on the list (disregarding anyone already returned as an Assembly constituency member, including anyone whose return is void).

(6) Once a party's list has been exhausted (by the return of persons included on it as Assembly constituency members or by the previous application of subsection (1) or (2)), the party is to be disregarded.

(7) If (on the application of subsection (1) or any application of subsection (2)) the highest electoral region figure is the electoral region figure of two or more parties or individual candidates, the subsection applies to each of them.

(8) However, if subsection (7) would mean that more than the full number of seats for the Assembly electoral region were allocated, subsection (1) or (2) does not apply until—
   - (a) a recalculation has been carried out under section 8(3)(b) after adding one to the number of votes given for each party with that electoral region figure, and
   - (b) one has been added to the number of votes given for each individual candidate with that electoral region figure.

(9) If, after that, the highest electoral region figure is still the electoral region figure of two or more parties or individual candidates, the regional returning officer must decide between them by lots.

Constituency vacancies

(1) This section applies if the seat of an Assembly constituency member returned for an Assembly constituency is vacant.

(2) Subject to subsection (7), an election must be held in the Assembly constituency to fill the vacancy.

(3) At the election, each person entitled to vote only has a constituency vote; and the Assembly constituency member for the Assembly constituency is to be returned under the simple majority system.

(4) The date of the poll at the election must be fixed by the Presiding Officer.

(5) The date must fall within the period of three months beginning with the occurrence of the vacancy.

(6) But if the vacancy does not come to the Presiding Officer's notice within the period of one month beginning with its occurrence, the date must fall within the period of three months beginning when it does come to the Presiding Officer's notice.

(7) The election must not be held if it appears to the Presiding Officer that the latest date which may be fixed for the poll would fall within the period of three months ending with the day on which the poll at the next ordinary general election would be held (disregarding section 4).

(8) The standing orders must make provision for determining the date on which a vacancy occurs for the purposes of this section.

(9) A person may not be a candidate in an election to fill a vacancy if the person is—

(a) an Assembly member, or

(b) a candidate in another such election.

Electoral region vacancies

(1) This section applies if the seat of an Assembly regional member returned for an Assembly electoral region is vacant.

(2) If the Assembly regional member was returned (under section 9 or this section) from the list of a registered political party, the regional returning officer must notify to the Presiding Officer the name of the person who is to fill the vacancy.

(3) A person's name may only be so notified if the person—
(a) is included on the list submitted by the registered political party for the last general election,
(b) is willing to serve as an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region, and
(c) is not a person to whom subsection (4) applies.

(4) This subsection applies to a person if—
(a) the person is not a member of the registered political party, and
(b) the registered political party gives notice to the regional returning officer that the person's name is not to be notified to the Presiding Officer as the name of the person who is to fill the vacancy.

(5) But if there is more than one person who satisfies the conditions in subsection (3), the regional returning officer may only notify the name of whichever of them was the higher, or the highest, on that list.

(6) A person whose name is notified under subsection (2) is to be treated as having been declared to be returned as an Assembly regional member for the Assembly electoral region on the day on which notification of the person's name is received by the Presiding Officer.

(7) The seat remains vacant until the next general election—
(a) if the Assembly regional member was returned as an individual candidate, or
(b) if that Assembly regional member was returned from the list of a registered political party but there is no-one who satisfies the conditions in subsection (3).

(8) For the purposes of this section, a person included on the list submitted by a registered political party for the last general election who—
[F24
(a) was returned as an Assembly member at that election (even if the return was void), or
(b) has subsequently been returned under section 10 or this section (even if the return was void),] is treated on and after the return of the person...[F25 as not having been included on the list.

12 Entitlement to vote

(1) The persons entitled to vote at an election of Assembly members (or of an Assembly member) in an Assembly constituency are those who on the day of the poll—
(a) would be entitled to vote as electors at a local government election in an electoral area wholly or partly included in the Assembly constituency, and
(b) are registered in the register of local government electors at an address within the Assembly constituency.

(2) But a person is not entitled as an elector—
(a) to cast more than one constituency vote, or more than one electoral region vote, in the same Assembly constituency at any general election,
(b) to vote in more than one Assembly constituency at any general election, or
(c) to cast more than one vote in any election held under section 10.

[13] Power of the Welsh Ministers to make provision about elections etc

(1) The Welsh Ministers may by order make provision that would be within the legislative competence of the Assembly, if included in an Act of the Assembly, as to—
(a) the conduct of elections of Assembly members,
(b) the questioning of an election of Assembly members and the consequences of irregularities, and
(c) the return of an Assembly member otherwise than at an election.

(2) The provision that may be made under subsection (1)(a) includes, in particular, provision—
(a) about the registration of electors,
(b) for disregarding alterations in a register of electors,
(c) about the limitation of the election expenses of candidates (and the creation of criminal offences in connection with the limitation of such expenses),
(d) for the combination of polls,
(e) for modifying the application of sections 6 and 8(2) where the poll at an election for the return of an Assembly constituency member is abandoned (or notice of it is countermanded), and
(f) for modifying section 9(7) to ensure the allocation of the correct number of seats for the region.

(3) The provision that may be made under subsection (1)(c) includes, in particular, provision modifying section 11(3) to (5).

(4) An order under this section may—
(a) apply or incorporate, with or without modifications or exceptions, any provision of or made under the election enactments, and
(b) so far as may be necessary in consequence of any provision made by an order under this section, make modifications of any provision made by or under any enactment relating to the registration of parliamentary electors or local government electors.

(5) In subsection (4)(a) “the election enactments” means—
(a) the Representation of the People Acts,
(b) the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000,
(c) the European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002, and
(d) any other enactments relating to parliamentary elections, European Parliamentary elections or local government elections.

(6) No return of an Assembly member at an election may be questioned except by an election petition under the provisions of Part 3 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 as applied or incorporated in an order under this section.

(7) No order is to be made under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.

[^F26]13A Power of the Secretary of State to make provision about the combination of polls

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for—
(a) the combination of polls at ordinary general elections of Assembly members with polls at the elections listed in subsection (2), and
(b) the combination of polls at extraordinary general elections of Assembly members, and by-elections for the return of Assembly members, with polls at the elections listed in subsections (2) and (3).

(2) The elections are—
(a) early parliamentary general elections,
(b) parliamentary by-elections, and
(c) European Parliamentary by-elections.

(3) The elections are—
(a) parliamentary general elections, and
(b) European Parliamentary general elections.

(4) The Secretary of State may not make regulations under this section without the agreement of the Welsh Ministers.

(5) Regulations under this section may—
(a) apply or incorporate, with or without modifications or exceptions, any provision made by or under the election enactments, and
(b) modify any form contained in, or in regulations or rules made under, the Representation of the People Acts so far as may be necessary to enable it to be used both for the original purpose and in relation to elections of Assembly members.

(6) In subsection (5)(a) “"the election enactments"” has the meaning given by section 13(5).

(7) No regulations are to be made under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.]
Duration of membership

14 Term of office of Assembly members

The term of office of an Assembly member—
(a) begins when the Assembly member is declared to be returned, and
(b) ends with the dissolution of the Assembly.

Disqualification

16 Disqualification from being Assembly member

(1) A person is disqualified from being an Assembly member if that person—
[F27(za)] is a member of the House of Commons (but see sections 17A and 17B),
(a) is disqualified from being a member of the House of Commons under paragraphs (a) to (e) of section 1(1) of the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (judges, civil servants, members of the armed forces, members of police forces and members of foreign legislatures),
(b) holds any of the offices for the time being designated by Order in Council as offices disqualifying persons from being Assembly members,
(c) holds the office of Auditor General,
(d) holds the office of Public Services Ombudsman for Wales, or
(e) is employed as a member of the staff of the Assembly.

(2) Subject to section 17(1) and (2), a person is also disqualified from being an Assembly member if that person is disqualified otherwise than under the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (either generally or in relation to a particular constituency) from being a member of the House of Commons or from sitting and voting in it.
(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the references to the Republic of Ireland in section 1 of the Representation of the People Act 1981 (c. 34) (disqualification of offenders detained in, or unlawfully at large from detention in, the British Islands or the Republic of Ireland) are to be treated as references to any member State (other than the United Kingdom).

(4) A person who holds office as lord-lieutenant, lieutenant or high sheriff of any area in Wales is disqualified from being an Assembly member for any Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region wholly or partly included in that area.

(5) An Order in Council under paragraph (b) of subsection (1)—
   (a) may designate particular offices or offices of any description, and
   (b) may designate an office by reference to any characteristic of a person holding it, and in that paragraph and this subsection “office” includes any post or employment.

(6) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under subsection (1)(b) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.

17 Exceptions and relief from disqualification

(1) A person is not disqualified from being an Assembly member merely because that person is—
   (a) a peer (whether of the United Kingdom, Great Britain, England or Scotland), or
   (b) a Lord Spiritual.

(2) A citizen of the European Union who is resident in the United Kingdom is not disqualified from being an Assembly member merely because of section 3 of the Act of Settlement (1700 c. 2) (disqualification of certain persons born outside United Kingdom).

(3) The Assembly may resolve that the disqualification of any person who was, or is alleged to have been, disqualified from being an Assembly member on a ground within section 16(1) or (4) is to be disregarded if it appears to the Assembly—
   (a) that the ground has been removed, and
   (b) that it is proper so to resolve.

(4) A resolution under subsection (3) does not—
   (a) affect any proceedings under Part 3 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2) as applied by or incorporated in an order under section 13, or
(b) enable the Assembly to disregard any disqualification which has been established in such proceedings or in proceedings under section 19.

[28]17A Exception from disqualification by virtue of being an MP: recently elected members

(1) A person returned at an election as an Assembly member is not disqualified under section 16(1)(za) (disqualification by virtue of being an MP) at any time in the period of 8 days beginning with the day the person is so returned.

(2) Subsection (3) applies where a person—
   (a) is returned at an election as an Assembly member,
   (b) on being so returned is a candidate for election to the House of Commons, and
   (c) is subsequently returned at that election as a member of that House.

(3) The person is not disqualified under section 16(1)(za) at any time in the period of 8 days beginning with the day the person is returned as a member of the House of Commons.

(4) A person is a “candidate for election to the House of Commons” if the person's nomination paper for election as a member of the House of Commons has been delivered to the returning officer under rule 6 of Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983 (parliamentary election rules).

17B Exception from disqualification by virtue of being an MP: general election of Assembly members within 372 days

(1) This section applies if—
   (a) an Assembly member is returned as a member of the House of Commons, and
   (b) the expected day of the next general election of Assembly members is within the period of 372 days beginning with the day the person is so returned (“the return day”).

(2) The member is not disqualified under section 16(1)(za) (disqualification by virtue of being an MP) at any time in the period—
   (a) beginning with the return day,
   (b) ending immediately before the day of the next general election of Assembly members.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) the expected day of the next general election of Assembly members is to be determined by reference to the circumstances as at the beginning of the return day (“the relevant time”).
(4) Where, at the relevant time, section 5(2) or (3) (extraordinary general elections) applies—
   (a) if an Order in Council under section 5(4) has been made, the expected day is the day on which the poll is required to be held in accordance with that Order;
   (b) if no Order in Council under section 5(4) has been made but a day has been proposed under section 5(1), that is the expected day;
   (c) otherwise, the expected day is to be treated as being within the period mentioned in subsection (1)(b).

(5) For the purpose of determining the expected day, no account is to be taken of the possibility of—
   (a) an order under section 4 (power to vary date of ordinary general election) being made after the relevant time, or
   (b) section 5(2) or (3) (extraordinary general elections) first applying after that time.

(6) References in this section to the “day” of the election are to the day on which the poll at the election is held.]

18  Effect of disqualification

(1) If a person who is disqualified from being an Assembly member is returned as an Assembly member, the person's return is void and the person's seat is vacant.

(2) If a person who is disqualified from being an Assembly member for a particular Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region is returned as an Assembly member for that Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region, the person's return is void and the person's seat is vacant.

(3) If a person who is an Assembly member becomes disqualified—
   (a) from being an Assembly member, or
   (b) from being an Assembly member for the Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region for which the person is sitting, the person ceases to be an Assembly member (so that the person's seat is vacant).

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) have effect subject to any resolution of the Assembly under section 17(3).

(5) In addition, subsection (3) has effect subject to—
   F29(a) ................................................
   (b) section 427 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (c. 45) (bankruptcy etc.).

(6) If, in consequence of the provision mentioned in subsection (5), the seat of a person who is disqualified from being an Assembly member is not vacant, the person does not cease to be an Assembly member until the person's seat becomes vacant.

(7) But for any period for which the person is disqualified but the person's seat is not vacant—
(a) the person must not participate in any Assembly proceedings, and
(b) any of the person's other rights and privileges as an Assembly member may be withdrawn by the Assembly.

(8) The validity of any Assembly proceedings is not affected by the disqualification of any person—
(a) from being an Assembly member, or
(b) from being an Assembly member for the Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region for which the person purports to sit.

19 Judicial proceedings as to disqualification

(1) Any person who claims that a person purporting to be an Assembly member is, or at any time since being returned as an Assembly member has been, disqualified from being—
(a) an Assembly member, or
(b) an Assembly member for the Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region for which the person purports to sit, may apply to the High Court for a declaration to that effect.

(2) An application under subsection (1) in respect of any person may be made whether the grounds on which it is made are alleged to have subsisted at the time when the person was returned or to have arisen subsequently.

(3) No declaration may be made under this section in respect of any person—
(a) on grounds which subsisted when the person was returned, if an election petition is pending or has been tried in which the person's disqualification on those grounds is or was in issue, or
(b) on any ground, if a resolution of the Assembly under section 17(3) requires that any disqualification incurred by the person on that ground is to be disregarded.

(4) On an application under this section—
(a) the person in respect of whom the application is made is to be the respondent, and
(b) the applicant must give such security for the costs of the proceedings as the court may direct.

(5) The amount of the security may not exceed £5,000 or such other sum as the Welsh Ministers may specify by order.

(6) The decision of the court on an application under this section is final.
(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (5) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

20 Remuneration of Assembly members

(1) [F31] Provision must be made for the payment of salaries to Assembly members.

(2) [F32] Provision may be made for the payment of allowances to Assembly members.

(3) [F33] Provision may be made for the payment of pensions, gratuities or allowances to, or in respect of, any person who—
   (a) has ceased to be an Assembly member, or
   (b) has ceased to hold office as the Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer, or such other office in connection with the Assembly as the Assembly may determine, but continues to be an Assembly member.

(4) Such provision may, in particular, include provision for—
   (a) contributions or payments towards provision for such pensions, gratuities or allowances, and
   (b) the establishment and administration (whether by the Assembly Commission or otherwise) of one or more pension schemes.

(5) Sums required for the making of payments by virtue of provision under subsection (1) or (3) to or in respect of a person who holds or has held the office of Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

[F34] (6) Provision under this section is to be made by determination made by the Board.

[F35] (7) The Assembly Commission must give effect to any determination made by the Board under this section.

(8) In this section (and in sections 22, 24, 53 and 54) “the Board” means the National Assembly for Wales Remuneration Board established by section 1 of the National Assembly for Wales (Remuneration) Measure 2010 (nawm 4 —). [ ]

21 Limit on salaries of Assembly members

(1) The Assembly must make provision to ensure that the amount of the salary payable to an Assembly member in accordance with section 20 is reduced if a salary is payable to the Assembly member—

[F36(za)] under section 4 of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 (salaries of members of the House of Commons),

(a) pursuant to a resolution (or combination of resolutions) of [F37]the House of Lords relating to the remuneration of members of that House, or

(b) under section 1 of the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979 (c. 50) (remuneration of United Kingdom MEPs).

(2) The provision made must ensure that the amount of salary is reduced—

(a) to a particular proportion of what it otherwise would be or to a particular amount, or

(b) by the amount of any salary payable to the Assembly member as mentioned in subsection [F38(1)(za), (a)] or (b), by a particular proportion of that amount or by some other particular amount.

(3) Provision may be made under this section by—

(a) the standing orders, or

(b) resolutions of the Assembly, and may include provision conferring functions on the Assembly Commission.

22 Remuneration: supplementary

(1) Different provision may be made under section 20 or 21 for different cases.

(2) The Assembly Commission must ensure that information concerning—
   (a) the amounts paid to each Assembly member as salary and allowances, and
   (b) the total amount paid to Assembly members as salaries and allowances, is published for each financial year.

(3) The Assembly Commission must lay before the Assembly every determination made by the Board under section 20(6) as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is made.

(4) For the purposes of sections 20 and 21 a person who—
   (a) ceases to be an Assembly member when the Assembly is dissolved, but
   (b) is nominated as a candidate at the subsequent general election, is to be treated as an Assembly member until the end of the day on which the poll at the election is held.

(5) Where a person—
   (a) ceases to be an Assembly member when the Assembly is dissolved, but
   (b) continues to hold office as Presiding Officer or as a member of the Assembly Commission by virtue of paragraph 1(1) or (2) of Schedule 2, the fact that the person is no longer an Assembly member does not affect any entitlement under sections 20 and 21 in respect of the holding of office as Presiding Officer or as a member of the Assembly Commission (or both) until the end of the day on which the person ceases to hold it.

(6) Provision made under section 20(3) does not affect pensions or allowances in payment

23 Oath or affirmation of allegiance

(1) An Assembly member must take the oath of allegiance in the form set out in section 2 of the Promissory Oaths Act 1868 (c. 72) (or make the corresponding affirmation) as soon as is reasonably practicable after being returned as an Assembly member (whether for the first time or subsequently).

(2) The standing orders must specify the person before whom the oath is to be taken (or the affirmation made).

(3) Subsection (1) does not require an Assembly member to take the oath of allegiance (or make the corresponding affirmation) again if it has been taken (or made) by the Assembly member in compliance with section 55(2) since being returned (or last returned).

(4) Until an Assembly member has taken the oath (or made the affirmation) the Assembly member must not do anything as an Assembly member, other than—
   (a) take part in proceedings of the Assembly at which Assembly members take the oath or make the affirmation, or
   (b) take part in any earlier proceedings for the election of the Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer.

(5) If an Assembly member has not taken the oath (or made the affirmation) within—
   (a) the period of two months beginning with the day on which the Assembly member was declared to be returned, or
   (b) such longer period as the Assembly may have allowed before the end of that period of two months, at the end of that period of two months or longer period the Assembly member ceases to be an Assembly member (so that the Assembly member's seat is vacant).

(6) Until an Assembly member has taken the oath (or made the affirmation), no salary, allowance, gratuity or payment towards the provision of a pension, allowance or gratuity is to be paid under this Act to or in respect of the Assembly member.

(7) But subsection (6) does not affect any entitlement to payments in respect of the period before the Assembly member took the oath (or made the affirmation) once the Assembly member has done so.

(1) The Assembly Commission must make to (or in respect of) political groups to which Assembly members belong such payments [F42] as the Board from time to time determines for the purpose of assisting Assembly members who belong to those political groups to perform their functions as Assembly members.

(2) A determination under subsection (1) may make provision—
   (a) for calculating the amount of any payment to (or in respect of) a political group,
(b) for the conditions subject to which payments to (or in respect of) a political group are to be made, and

(c) for claims for such payments to be made to the Assembly Commission.

(3) A determination under subsection (1) may make different provision for different political groups.

(4) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

(5) The standing orders must include provision for determining for the purposes of this Act whether any Assembly member belongs to a political group and, if so, to which; and (in particular)—

(a) may include provision for treating an Assembly member as not belonging to a political group unless a specified number of Assembly members belong to it, and

(b) must include provision requiring the Presiding Officer to decide any questions arising under the provision included by virtue of this subsection.

[F44(6) The Assembly Commission must lay before the Assembly every determination made by the Board under section 24(1) as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is made.]

[F45(7) The Assembly Commission must ensure that information concerning the sums paid under this section is published for each financial year.]

Presiding Officer and administration

25 Presiding Officer etc.

(1) The Assembly must, at its first meeting following a general election, elect from among the Assembly members—
(a) a presiding officer (referred to in this Act as “the Presiding Officer”), and
(b) a deputy presiding officer (referred to in this Act as “the Deputy Presiding Officer”).

(2) The person elected under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) is to be known as the Presiding Officer or by such other title as the standing orders may provide; and the person elected under paragraph (b) of that subsection is to be known as the Deputy Presiding Officer or by such other title as the standing orders may provide.

(3) The Presiding Officer holds office until the conclusion of the next election of a Presiding Officer under subsection (1).

(4) The Deputy Presiding Officer holds office until the Assembly is dissolved.

(5) But the Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer—
   (a) may at any time resign,
   (b) ceases to hold office on ceasing to be an Assembly member otherwise than by reason of a dissolution, and
   (c) may be removed from office by the Assembly.

(6) If the Presiding Officer or the Deputy Presiding Officer ceases to hold office under subsection (5) (or dies), the Assembly must elect a replacement from among the Assembly members.

(7) Subject to subsection (9), the Presiding Officer and the Deputy Presiding Officer must not belong to—
   (a) the same political group, or
   (b) different political groups both of which are political groups with an executive role.

(8) For the purposes of this Act a political group is a political group with an executive role if the First Minister or one or more of the Welsh Ministers appointed under section 48 belong to it.

(9) The Assembly may resolve that subsection (7) is not to apply for so long as the resolution so provides; but if the motion for the resolution is passed on a vote it is of no effect unless at least two-thirds of the Assembly members voting support it.

(10) The Presiding Officer's functions may be exercised by the Deputy Presiding Officer if—
    (a) the office of Presiding Officer is vacant, or
    (b) the Presiding Officer is for any reason unable to act.

(11) The Presiding Officer may (subject to the standing orders) authorise the Deputy Presiding Officer to exercise functions of the Presiding Officer.

(12) The standing orders may include provision for the Presiding Officer's functions to be exercisable by any person specified in, or determined in accordance with, the standing orders if—
    (a) the office of Presiding Officer is vacant or the Presiding Officer is for any reason unable to act, and
    (b) the office of Deputy Presiding Officer is vacant or the Deputy Presiding Officer is for any reason unable to act.
(13) The standing orders may include provision as to the participation (including voting) in Assembly proceedings of the Presiding Officer and Deputy Presiding Officer and any person acting by virtue of subsection (12).

(14) The validity of any act of a person as Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer, or of any person acting by virtue of subsection (12), is not affected by any defect in the person's appointment by the Assembly.

(15) Subsections (10) to (12) are subject to paragraph 11 of Schedule 2.

(1) There is to be a body corporate to be known as the National Assembly for Wales Commission or Comisiwn Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru (referred to in this Act as “the Assembly Commission”).

(2) The members of the Assembly Commission are to be—
   (a) the Presiding Officer, and
   (b) four other Assembly members.

(3) The standing orders must make provision for the appointment of the four other Assembly members as members of the Assembly Commission.

(4) The provision included in the standing orders in compliance with subsection (3) must (so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so) secure that not more than one of the members of the Assembly Commission (other than the Presiding Officer) belongs to any one political group.
(5) The Assembly Commission must—
   (a) provide to the Assembly, or
   (b) ensure that the Assembly is provided with, the property, staff and services required for the Assembly's purposes.

(6) The Assembly may give special or general directions to the Assembly Commission for the purpose of, or in connection with, the exercise of the Assembly Commission's functions.

(7) Any property, rights or liabilities acquired or incurred in relation to matters to which the Assembly would otherwise be entitled or subject are to be treated for all purposes as property, rights or liabilities of the Assembly Commission.

31  Standing orders

(1) Assembly proceedings are to be regulated by standing orders (referred to in this Act as “the standing orders”).

(2) The standing orders must include provision for preserving order in Assembly proceedings, including provision for—
   (a) preventing conduct which would constitute a criminal offence or contempt of court, and
   (b) a sub judice rule.

(3) The standing orders may include provision for excluding an Assembly member from Assembly proceedings.
(4) The standing orders may include provision for withdrawing from an Assembly member any or all of the rights and privileges of membership of the Assembly.

(5) The standing orders—
   (a) must include provision requiring the proceedings of the Assembly to be held in public, and for proceedings of a committee of the Assembly or a sub-committee of such a committee to be held in public except in circumstances provided for in the standing orders, and
   (b) may include provision as to the conditions to be complied with by members of the public attending the proceedings (including provision for excluding any member of the public who does not comply with the conditions).

(6) The standing orders must include provision—
   (a) for reporting the proceedings of the Assembly, and for reporting proceedings of committees of the Assembly and sub-committees of such committees which are held in public, and
   (b) for publishing the reports of proceedings as soon as reasonably practicable after the proceedings take place.

(7) The Assembly may by resolution remake or revise the standing orders; but if the motion for a resolution to remake or revise the standing orders is passed on a vote, it has no effect unless at least two-thirds of the Assembly members voting support it.

(8) The Clerk must from time to time publish the standing orders.

35 Equality of treatment

[F49] (1) The Assembly must, in the conduct of Assembly proceedings, give effect, so far as is both appropriate in the circumstances and reasonably practicable, to the principle that the English and Welsh languages should be treated on a basis of equality.]

[F49] (1) The official languages of the Assembly are English and Welsh.

(1A) The official languages must, in the conduct of Assembly proceedings, be treated on a basis of equality.

(1B) All persons have the right to use either official language when participating in Assembly proceedings.

(1C) Reports of Assembly proceedings must, in the case of proceedings which fall within section 1(5)(a) (proceedings of the Assembly), contain a record of what was said, in the official language in which it was said, and also a full translation into the other official language.

(1D) Paragraph 8 of Schedule 2 makes provision about how the Assembly Commission must enable effect to be given to subsections (1) to (1C).

(2) The Assembly must make appropriate arrangements with a view to securing that Assembly proceedings are conducted with due regard to the principle that there should be equality of opportunity for all people.

36 Integrity

(1) The standing orders must include provision—
   (a) for a register of interests of Assembly members, and
   (b) for the register to be published and made available for public inspection.

(2) The standing orders must require Assembly members to register in the register of interests registrable interests, as defined for the purposes of this subsection.

(3) The standing orders must require any Assembly member who has—
   (a) a financial interest, as defined for the purposes of this subsection, or
   (b) any other interest, or an interest of any other kind, as so defined, in any matter to declare that interest before taking part in Assembly proceedings relating to that matter.

(4) The standing orders may include provision for preventing or restricting the participation in any Assembly proceedings of an Assembly member who has an interest within subsection (2) or (3) in any matter to which the proceedings relate.

(5) The standing orders must include provision prohibiting an Assembly member from—
   (a) advocating or initiating any cause or matter on behalf of any person, by any means specified in the standing orders, in consideration of any payment or benefit in kind of a description so specified, or
   (b) urging, in consideration of any such payment or benefit in kind, any other Assembly member to advocate or initiate any cause or matter on behalf of any person by any such means.

(6) The standing orders must include provision about (or for the making of a code or protocol about) the different roles and responsibilities of Assembly constituency members and Assembly regional members; and—
   (a) Assembly constituency members must not describe themselves in a manner which suggests that they are Assembly regional members, and
   (b) Assembly regional members must not describe themselves in a manner which suggests that they are Assembly constituency members.

(7) An Assembly member who—
   (a) takes part in Assembly proceedings without having complied with, or in contravention of, any provision included in the standing orders in pursuance of subsections (2) to (4), or
   (b) contravenes any provision included in the standing orders in pursuance of subsection (5), commits an offence.

(8) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (7) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(9) A prosecution for an offence under subsection (7) cannot be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(10) The validity of any Assembly proceedings is not affected by any contravention or failure to comply with any provision included in the standing orders in pursuance of this section.

(11) In this section—
(a) references to an Assembly member (apart from those in subsection (6)) include the Counsel General, if not an Assembly member, and
(b) “financial interest” includes a benefit in kind.

Witnesses and documents

37 Power to call

(1) Subject as follows, the Assembly may require any person—
   (a) to attend Assembly proceedings for the purpose of giving evidence, or
   (b) to produce for the purposes of the Assembly (or a committee of the Assembly or a sub-committee of such a committee) documents in the possession, or under the control, of the person, concerning any matter relevant to the exercise by the Welsh Ministers of any of their functions[^50], relevant to the exercise of any of the Auditor General for Wales’ functions, or relevant to the oversight and supervision of the Auditor General for Wales, or to the oversight and supervision of the exercise of any of his or her functions].

(2) The Assembly may not impose a requirement under subsection (1) on a person who is not involved in the exercise of functions, or the carrying on of activities, in relation to Wales[^51] or the Welsh zone[^51].

(3) The Assembly may not impose a requirement under subsection (1) on a person who—
   (a) is or has been a Minister of the Crown, or
   (b) serves or has served in the department of a Minister of the Crown, in relation to the exercise of any functions of a Minister of the Crown.

(4) The Assembly—
   (a) may not impose a requirement under subsection (1) on a person who is a full-time judge of any court, and
   (b) may not impose such a requirement on a person who is not within paragraph (a) but who is or has been a member of any court or tribunal in connection with the exercise of functions as such a member.

(5) Where a requirement under subsection (1) is imposed on a person who is or has been a member of the staff of the Welsh[^52]... Government (or a person seconded to work for the Welsh[^52]... Government) in relation to the exercise of any functions of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, any of them may issue a direction under subsection (6).

(6) A direction under this subsection is a direction—
   (a) that the person on whom the requirement was imposed need not comply with it, and
   (b) that the requirement is instead to be complied with by another person specified in the direction.
FS3 Subsection (1) applies in relation to requirements imposed on a person in connection with the discharge of the functions of the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority in relation to Wales with the omission of the words after paragraph (b).

(7) The powers conferred by subsection (1)—

   (a) may be exercised by and for the purposes of the Audit Committee, and

   (b) may be exercised by and for the purposes of any other committee of the Assembly, or any sub-committee of any committee of the Assembly, if the committee or sub-committee is expressly authorised to do so by the Assembly (whether by the standing orders or otherwise).

(8) A person is not obliged under this section to answer any question or produce any document which the person would be entitled to refuse to answer or produce in or for the purposes of proceedings in a court in England and Wales.

(9) A person acting as prosecutor in criminal proceedings is not obliged under this section to answer any question or produce any document concerning the operation of the system of criminal prosecution in any particular case if the appropriate officer—

   (a) considers that answering the question or producing the document might prejudice criminal proceedings in the case or would otherwise be contrary to the public interest, and

   (b) has authorised the person to decline to answer the question or produce the document on that ground.

(10) In subsection (9) “the appropriate officer” means—

   (a) if the proceedings were instituted by or on behalf of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, the Counsel General, and

   (b) otherwise, the Attorney General.

38 Notice

(1) A requirement under section 37 is to be imposed on a person by the Clerk giving the person notice in writing specifying—

   (a) whether the requirement is imposed for the purposes of the Assembly or a specified committee or sub-committee, and

   (b) the matters mentioned in either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (2).
(2) Those matters are—
  (a) the time and place at which the person is to attend and the particular subject concerning which the person is required to give evidence;
  (b) the documents, or types of documents, which the person is to produce, the date by which and person to whom they are to be produced and the particular subject concerning which they are required.

(3) Notice under subsection (1) is to be given—
  (a) in the case of an individual, by sending it in accordance with subsection (4) addressed to the person at the person's usual or last known address or, where the person has given an address for service of the notice, at that address, or (b) in any other case, by so sending it addressed to the person at the person's registered or principal office.

(4) A notice is sent in accordance with this subsection if it is sent—
  (a) by a registered post service (within the meaning of the Postal Services Act 2000 (c. 26)), or
  (b) by a postal service which provides for its delivery by post to be recorded.

(5) If a direction is issued under subsection (6) of section 37 in relation to a requirement imposed under subsection (1) of that section, the person or persons by whom it is issued must give notice in writing that the direction has been
  (a) if the requirement was imposed for the purposes of the Assembly, to the Presiding Officer, and
  (b) otherwise, to the person who chairs the committee or sub-committee for the purposes of which it was imposed.

39 Offences

(1) A person to whom a notice under section 38(1) has been given commits an offence if the person—
    (a) refuses or fails without reasonable excuse to attend proceedings as required by the notice,
    (b) refuses or fails without reasonable excuse, when attending proceedings as required by the notice, to answer any question concerning the subjects specified in the notice,
    (c) refuses or fails without reasonable excuse to produce any document required to be produced by the notice, or
    (d) intentionally alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys any such document.

(2) Subsection (1) is subject to sections 34(3) and 37(5), (6), (8) and (9).

(3) If a person charged with an offence under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) adduces evidence of a reasonable excuse for the refusal or failure, it is for the prosecution to prove that the person did not have such an excuse.

(4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction—
(a) to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale,
(b) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks, or
(c) to both.

(5) Where an offence under subsection (1) which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of—
   (a) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
   (b) any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against accordingly.

(6) In subsection (5) “director”, in the case of a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of the body corporate.

52  Staff

(1) The Welsh Ministers may appoint persons to be members of the staff of the Welsh Government.
(2) Service as a member of the staff of the Welsh Government is service in the civil service of the State.

(3) See Part 1 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (in particular, sections 3 and 4) for provision affecting—
   (a) subsection (1), and
   (b) any other enactment about the appointment of persons as members of the staff of the Welsh Government.

(4) See also section 1 of the Civil Service (Management Functions) Act 1992 under which functions conferred on the Minister for the Civil Service by section 3 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 may be delegated to the Welsh Ministers etc.

(5) The Welsh Ministers are to pay the salaries and expenses of the members of the staff of the Welsh Government.

(6) Section 1(2) and (3) of the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) (delegation of functions relating to civil service superannuation schemes by Minister for the Civil Service to another Minister etc. and consultation by that Minister or another Minister) have effect as if the references to a Minister of the Crown other than the Minister for the Civil Service included the Welsh Ministers.

(7) The Welsh Ministers must make payments to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as the Minister for the Civil Service may determine, of such amounts as may be so determined in respect of—
   (a) the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities by virtue of section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 to or in respect of persons who are or have been members of the staff of the Welsh Government, and
   (b) the expenses incurred in administering those pensions, allowances and gratuities.

(8) The Welsh Ministers may make payments towards the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of any person who is or has been a member of the staff of the Welsh Government.

(9) Without prejudice to any rule of law with respect to the carrying out of functions by members of the civil service of the State under authority, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General may authorise the staff of the Welsh Government to carry out any function on their behalf.

55 Oath or affirmation

(1) On appointment as the First Minister, a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48 or the Counsel General a person must take the official oath in the form set out in section 3 of the Promissory Oaths Act 1868 (c. 72) (or make the corresponding affirmation).

(2) On appointment as the First Minister, a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48, the Counsel General or a Deputy Welsh Minister a person must take the oath of allegiance in the form set out in section 2 of the Promissory Oaths Act 1868 (or make the corresponding affirmation).

(3) But subsection (2) does not require a person who is an Assembly member to take the oath of allegiance (or make the corresponding affirmation) again if it has been taken (or made) in compliance with the person's duty on the person's return (or, if returned more than once, most recent return) as an Assembly member.

(4) An oath required by this section is to be taken (or the corresponding affirmation made)

(a) before one of the Presiding Judges for the Wales and Chester Circuit (or for any appropriate area which is specified in a direction under section 72(4) of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41)), or

(b) (if no such Presiding Judge is available) before another judge nominated by the Senior Presiding Judge for England and Wales.

(5) Until a person who is required to take an oath (or make an affirmation) by this section in respect of any office has done so, no salary, allowance, gratuity or payment towards the provision of a pension, allowance or gratuity is to be paid under this Act to or in respect of the person as a holder of that office.

(6) But subsection (5) does not affect any entitlement to payments in respect of the period before the person took the oath (or made the affirmation) once the person has done so.

57 Exercise of functions

(1) Functions may be conferred or imposed on the Welsh Ministers by that name.

(2) Functions of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister and the Counsel General are exercisable on behalf of Her Majesty.

(3) Functions of the Welsh Ministers are exercisable by the First Minister or any of the Welsh Ministers appointed under section 48.
(4) Any act or omission of, or in relation to, the First Minister or any of the Welsh Ministers appointed under section 48 is to be treated as an act or omission of, or in relation to, each of them.

(5) But subsection (4) does not apply in relation to the exercise of functions conferred or imposed on the First Minister alone.

(6) Where a function conferred or imposed on the Counsel General is (either generally or in particular circumstances) exercisable concurrently by the Welsh Ministers or the First Minister, subsection (4) applies in relation to the exercise of the function (or to its exercise in those circumstances) as if the Counsel General were included among the Welsh Ministers.

58 Transfer of Ministerial functions

(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council—

(a) provide for the transfer to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General of any function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to Wales or the Welsh zone,

(b) direct that any function so far as so exercisable is to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General—

(i) concurrently or jointly with a Minister of the Crown, or

(ii) only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, a Minister of the Crown,

(c) direct that any function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to Wales or the Welsh zone is to be exercisable by the Minister of the Crown only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General.

(1A) An Order in Council under this section may not make provision about a function of a Minister of the Crown exercisable in relation to the area of the Welsh zone beyond the seaward limit of the territorial sea unless the function is connected with fishing, fisheries or fish health.

(1B) Subsection (1A) does not have effect in relation to an Order in Council to the extent that it contains provision made by virtue of paragraph 4 of Schedule 3 (functions exercisable beyond the territorial sea).

(2) An Order in Council under this section may, in particular, provide for any function exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by virtue of an Order in Council under subsection (1)(a) or (b) to be exercisable either generally or in such circumstances as may be specified in the Order in Council, concurrently with any other of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General.

(2A) Her Majesty may by Order in Council—

(a) make provision modifying (by reference to geographical extent or otherwise) a previously conferred or transferred water-related function;

(b) provide for such a function to be exercisable—
(i) concurrently or jointly with a Minister of the Crown or the Welsh Ministers, or
(ii) only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, a Minister of the Crown or the Welsh Ministers.

(2B) In subsection (2A)—
"previously conferred or transferred function" means a function exercisable by—
(a) the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
(b) a Minister of the Crown, or
(c) any authority or other body, by virtue of provision contained in or made under this Act or any other enactment;
"water-related function" means a function exercisable in relation to water supply, water quality, water resources management, control of pollution of water resources, sewerage, rivers and other watercourses, land drainage, flood risk management or coastal protection.]

(3) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of—
(a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
(b) any other instrument or document,
as Her Majesty considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the Order in Council.

(4) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council—
(a) has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament, and
(b) has been approved by the Welsh Ministers.

(5) For further provision in connection with the transfer etc. of functions by Orders in Council under this section see Schedule 3.

Executive ministerial functions

(1) Executive ministerial functions, so far as exercisable within devolved competence, are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers.

(2) Executive ministerial functions that are ancillary to a function of the Welsh Ministers exercised outside devolved competence are also exercisable by the Welsh Ministers.

(3) Functions exercisable by the Welsh Ministers under subsection (1) or (2) are not exercisable by a Minister of the Crown unless they are functions to which subsection (4) applies.

If they are functions to which subsection (4) applies, they are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers concurrently with any relevant Minister of the Crown.

(4) This subsection applies to—

(a) functions ancillary to a function of the Welsh Ministers that is exercisable concurrently or jointly with a Minister of the Crown;
(b) functions ancillary to a function of a Minister of the Crown;
(c) functions that are not ancillary to another function;
(d) functions in relation to observing and implementing obligations under EU law.

(5) In this section—

“"executive ministerial function"” means a function of Her Majesty of a kind that is exercisable on Her behalf by a Minister of the Crown (including a function involving expenditure or other financial matters), but not a function conferred or imposed by or by virtue of any legislation or the prerogative;

“"within devolved competence"” and “"outside devolved competence"” are to be read in accordance with subsections (7) and (8).

(6) For the purposes of this section a function is “"ancillary to"” another function if or to the extent that it is exercisable with a view to facilitating, or in a way that is conducive or incidental to, the exercise of the other function.

(7) It is outside devolved competence—

(a) to make any provision by subordinate legislation that would be outside the legislative competence of the Assembly if it were included in an Act of the Assembly (see section 108A), or
(b) to confirm or approve any subordinate legislation containing such provision.

(8) In the case of a function other than a function of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation, it is outside devolved competence to exercise the function (or to exercise it in a particular way) if or to the extent that a provision of an Act of the Assembly conferring the function (or conferring it so as to be exercisable in that way) would be outside the legislative competence of the Assembly.]
Implementation of EU law: general

(1) Section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (secondary legislation implementing EU obligations, etc) applies to the Welsh Ministers as if they were a Minister of the Crown or government department designated by Order in Council under that provision.

(2) But subsection (1) confers no power to make provision that would be outside the legislative competence of the Assembly if it were included in an Act of the Assembly (see section 108A).

(3) In particular, it confers no power to make provision that may be included in an Act of the Assembly only—
   (a) with the consent of the appropriate Minister (see paragraphs 8(1), 10(1) and 11(1) of Schedule 7B), or
   (b) after consultation with the appropriate Minister (see paragraph 11(2) of that Schedule), unless that consent has been given or that consultation has been carried out.

(4) Subsection (1) does not restrict any power conferred on a Minister of the Crown or government department by an Order in Council under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972.

(5) In section 2(4) of the European Communities Act 1972 as it has effect by virtue of subsection (1) above, the reference to an Act of Parliament is to be read as a reference to an Act of the Assembly.

(6) A statutory instrument containing any order, rules, regulations or scheme made by virtue of this section, if made without a draft having been approved by resolution of the Assembly, is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly; and paragraph 2(2) of Schedule 2 to European Communities Act 1972 does not apply to such an instrument.

(7) In this section “appropriate Minister” has the same meaning as in paragraph 8 of Schedule 7B.
(2) Accordingly, the Welsh Ministers may exercise the power conferred by section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 in relation to any matter, or for any purpose, if they have been designated in relation to that matter or for that purpose, but subject to such restrictions or conditions (if any) as may be specified by the Order in Council designating them.

[F78(2A) Any such restrictions or conditions do not apply in relation to the power that the Welsh Ministers have under that section by virtue of section 58B above.]

(3) A statutory instrument containing provision made by the Welsh Ministers in the exercise of [F79 a power exercisable by virtue of a designation under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 ], if made without a draft having been approved by resolution of the Assembly, is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

(4) Paragraph 2(2) of Schedule 2 to the European Communities Act 1972 (Parliamentary procedure) does not apply to the statutory instrument unless it contains provision—

(a) made by a Minister of the Crown or government department (whether or not jointly with the Welsh Ministers),
(b) relating to an English border area, or
(c) relating to a cross-border body (and not relating only to the exercise of functions, or the carrying on of activities, by the body in or with respect to [F80 Wales, the Welsh zone or a part of Wales or the Welsh zone]).

(5) The power conferred by section 56 of the Finance Act 1973 (c. 51) (services provided in pursuance of [F76an] [F76EU obligation etc.) on the Minister in charge of a government department to make (with the consent of the Treasury) regulations prescribing, or providing for the determination of, fees and charges in respect of things done by the department may be exercised by the Welsh Ministers (with the consent of the Treasury) for prescribing, or providing for the determination of, fees and charges in respect of corresponding things done by the Welsh Ministers.

(6) A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Welsh Ministers in the exercise of that power is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

(7) Section 56(4) of the Finance Act 1973 does not cause the statutory instrument to be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament unless it contains regulations—

(a) made by a Minister of the Crown or government department (whether or not jointly with the Welsh Ministers),
(b) relating to an English border area, or
(c) relating to a cross-border body (and not relating only to the exercise of functions, or the carrying on of activities, by the body in or with respect to [F81 Wales, the Welsh zone or a part of Wales or the Welsh zone]).

60 Promotion etc. of well-being

(1) The Welsh Ministers may do anything which they consider appropriate to achieve any one or more of the following objects—

(a) the promotion or improvement of the economic well-being of Wales,

(b) the promotion or improvement of the social well-being of Wales, and

(c) the promotion or improvement of the environmental well-being of Wales.

(2) The power under subsection (1) may be exercised in relation to or for the benefit of—

(a) the whole or any part of Wales, or

(b) all or any persons resident or present in Wales.

(3) The power under subsection (1) includes power to do anything in relation to or for the benefit of any area outside Wales, or all or any persons resident or present anywhere outside Wales, if the Welsh Ministers consider that it is likely to achieve one or more of the objects in that subsection.

(4) The power under subsection (1) includes power—

(a) to enter into arrangements or agreements with any person,

(b) to co-operate with, or facilitate or co-ordinate the activities of, any person,

(c) to exercise on behalf of any person any functions of that person, and

(d) to provide staff, goods, services or accommodation to any person.
61 Support of culture etc.

The Welsh Ministers may do anything which they consider appropriate to support—
(a) archaeological remains in Wales,
(b) ancient monuments in Wales,
(c) buildings and places of historical or architectural interest in Wales,
(d) historic wrecks in Wales,
(e) arts and crafts relating to Wales,
(f) museums and galleries in Wales,

64 Polls for ascertaining views of the public

(1) The Welsh Ministers may hold a poll in an area consisting of Wales or any part (or parts) of Wales for the purpose of ascertaining the views of those polled about whether or how any of the functions of the Welsh Ministers (other than that under section 62) should be exercised.
(2) The persons entitled to vote in a poll under this section are those who—
   (a) would be entitled to vote as electors at a local government election in an electoral area wholly or partly included in the area in which the poll is held, and
   (b) are registered in the register of local government electors at an address within the area in which the poll is held.

(3) The Welsh Ministers may by order make provision—
   (a) as to the conduct of polls (or any poll) under this section, or
   (b) for the combination of polls (or any poll) under this section with polls at any elections.

(4) An order under subsection (3) may apply or incorporate, with or without modifications or exceptions, any provision of or made under any enactment relating to elections or referendums; and the provision which may be made under paragraph (a) of that subsection includes, in particular, provision for disregarding alterations in a register of electors.

(5) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

Where it appears to the Treasury that any information in the possession, or under the control, of the Welsh Ministers is required for the exercise of any function by the Treasury, the Treasury may require the Welsh Ministers to provide the information to the Treasury in such form as the Treasury may reasonably specify.
Provision of information to the Office for Budget Responsibility

(1) The Office for Budget Responsibility has a right of access at any reasonable time to all information held by—
   (a) the Welsh Ministers, or
   (b) any devolved Welsh authority within paragraph (a) or (b) of section 157A(1) that is specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State, that it may reasonably require for the purpose of the performance of its duty under section 4 of the Budget Responsibility and National Audit Act 2011 (duty to examine and report on the sustainability of the public finances).

(2) The Office is entitled to require from any person holding or accountable for such information any assistance or explanation that the Office reasonably thinks necessary for that purpose.

(3) No regulations are to be made under subsection (1)(b) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(4) This section is subject to any enactment or rule of law that operates to prohibit or restrict the disclosure of information or the giving of any assistance or explanation.

Contracts

(1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that the Local Government (Contracts) Act 1997 (c. 65) applies in relation to contracts entered into by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General but subject to any appropriate modifications.

(2) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
69 Charges for documents

(1) The Welsh Ministers may make a charge for supplying copies of (or of any part of) any document which they publish or make available for public inspection.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to any provision contained in, or made under, any enactment which makes provision for—
   (a) the making of charges for the inspection of documents,
   (b) the making of charges for supplying copies of documents (or parts of documents), or
   (c) the supply of copies of documents (or parts of documents) free of charge.

(3) This section applies to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers.

70 Financial assistance

(1) The First Minister may give financial assistance (whether by way of grant, loan or guarantee) to any person engaged in any activity which the First Minister considers will secure, or help to secure, the attainment of any objective which the Minister aims to attain in the exercise of any of the Minister’s functions.

(2) The First Minister may attach conditions to the giving of financial assistance by the Minister; and the conditions which may be attached include, in particular, conditions requiring the repayment of the whole or any part of a grant, or the making of any other payments, in any circumstances.

(3) This section applies in relation to the Counsel General as in relation to the First Minister.

(As regards the Welsh Ministers, see section 58A.)
71 Supplementary

(1) The persons to whom this section applies may do anything (including the acquisition or disposal of any property or rights) which is calculated to facilitate, or is conducive or incidental to, the exercise of any of their other functions.

[FS2] (2) This section applies to the First Minister and the Counsel General.

72 Partnership Council

(1) The Welsh Ministers must establish and maintain a body to be known as the Partnership Council for Wales or Cyngor Partneriaeth Cymru (“the Partnership Council”).

(2) The Partnership Council is to consist of members appointed by the Welsh Ministers from among—

    (a) the Welsh Ministers,
    (b) the Deputy Welsh Ministers, and
    (c) the members of local authorities in Wales.

(3) Before appointing members of the Partnership Council under subsection (2)(c), the Welsh Ministers must consult such associations of local authorities in Wales as they consider appropriate.

(4) The Partnership Council may—

    (a) give advice to the Welsh Ministers about matters affecting the exercise of any of their functions,
    (b) make representations to the Welsh Ministers about any matters affecting, or of concern to, those involved in local government in Wales, and
(c) give advice to those involved in local government in Wales.

(5) For the purposes of this section the following are local authorities in Wales—

(a) county councils, county borough councils and community councils in Wales,
(b) National Park authorities for National Parks in Wales,
(c) [F93 police and crime commissioners] for police areas in Wales,
(d) fire and rescue authorities for areas in Wales, and
(e) authorities of any description specified for the purposes of this paragraph by order made by the Welsh Ministers.

(6) No order may be made under subsection (5)(e) unless the Welsh Ministers have consulted the Partnership Council.

(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (5)(e) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

73 Local government scheme

(1) The Welsh Ministers must make a scheme ("the local government scheme") setting out how they propose, in the exercise of their functions, to sustain and promote local government in Wales.

(2) The Welsh Ministers—

(a) must keep the local government scheme under review, and
(b) may from time to time remake or revise it.

(3) In determining the provision to be included in the local government scheme, the Welsh Ministers must have regard to any advice which has been given, and to any representations which have been made, to them by the Partnership Council.

(4) The Welsh Ministers must publish the local government scheme when they make it and whenever they remake it; and, if they revise the scheme without remaking it, they must publish either the revisions or the scheme as revised (as they consider appropriate).

(5) If the Welsh Ministers publish a scheme or revisions under subsection (4) they must lay a copy of the scheme or revisions before the Assembly.

(6) After each financial year the Welsh Ministers must—

(a) publish a report of how the proposals set out in the local government scheme were implemented in that financial year, and
(b) lay a copy of the report before the Assembly.
Voluntary sector scheme

(1) The Welsh Ministers must make a scheme ("the voluntary sector scheme") setting out how they propose, in the exercise of their functions, to promote the interests of relevant voluntary organisations.

(2) In this section "relevant voluntary organisations" means bodies (other than local authorities or other public bodies) whose activities—

(a) are carried on otherwise than for profit, and

(b) directly or indirectly benefit the whole or any part of Wales (whether or not they also benefit any other area).

(3) In determining the provision to be included in the voluntary sector scheme, the Welsh Ministers must consider how they intend to exercise such of their functions as relate to matters affecting, or of concern to, relevant voluntary organisations.

(4) The voluntary sector scheme must specify—

(a) how the Welsh Ministers propose to provide assistance to relevant voluntary organisations (whether by grants, loans, guarantees or any other means),

(b) how the Welsh Ministers propose to monitor the use made of any assistance provided by them to relevant voluntary organisations, and

(c) how the Welsh Ministers propose to consult relevant voluntary organisations about the exercise of such of their functions as relate to matters affecting, or of concern to, such organisations.

(5) The Welsh Ministers—

(a) must keep the voluntary sector scheme under review, and

(b) may from time to time remake or revise it.

(6) Before making, remaking or revising the voluntary sector scheme, the Welsh Ministers must consult such relevant voluntary organisations as they consider appropriate.

(7) The Welsh Ministers must publish the voluntary sector scheme when they make it and whenever they remake it; and, if they revise the scheme without remaking it, they must publish either the revisions or the scheme as revised (as they consider appropriate).

(8) If the Welsh Ministers publish a scheme or revisions under subsection (7) they must lay a copy of the scheme or revisions before the Assembly.

(9) After each financial year the Welsh Ministers must—

(a) publish a report of how the proposals set out in the voluntary sector scheme were implemented in that financial year, and

(b) lay a copy of the report before the Assembly.
75  Business scheme

(1) The Welsh Ministers must make a scheme (“the business scheme”) setting out how they propose, in the exercise of their functions, to take account of the interests of business.

(2) The business scheme must specify how the Welsh Ministers propose—
   (a) to carry out consultation about the exercise of such of their functions as relate to matters affecting the interests of business, and
   (b) to consider the impact of the exercise of their functions on the interests of business.

(3) The Welsh Ministers—
   (a) must keep the business scheme under review, and
   (b) may from time to time remake or revise it.

(4) Before making, remaking or revising the business scheme, the Welsh Ministers must consult such organisations representative of business (including trade unions) and such other organisations as they consider appropriate.

(5) The Welsh Ministers must publish the business scheme when they make it and whenever they remake it; and, if they revise the scheme without remaking it, they must publish either the revisions or the scheme as revised (as they consider appropriate).

(6) If the Welsh Ministers publish a scheme or revisions under subsection (5) they must lay a copy of the scheme or revisions before the Assembly.

(7) The Welsh Ministers must—
   (a) within the period of two years beginning with the day on which the business scheme is first made, and
   (b) subsequently at intervals of no more than two years, publish a report of how the proposals set out in the business scheme have been implemented.

(8) The Welsh Ministers must lay before the Assembly a copy of each report published under subsection (7).

76  Regulatory impact assessments

(1) The Welsh Ministers must make a code of practice setting out their policy on—
   (a) the carrying out of regulatory impact assessments in connection with relevant Welsh subordinate legislation, and
   (b) the carrying out of consultation in connection with regulatory impact assessments,
   (“the regulatory impact assessment code”).

(2) For the purposes of this section—
   (a) a regulatory impact assessment is an assessment as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with relevant Welsh subordinate legislation, and
(b) subordinate legislation is relevant Welsh subordinate legislation if it is made by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General and the statutory instrument (or a draft of the statutory instrument) containing it is required to be laid before the Assembly.

(3) The Welsh Ministers—
   (a) must keep the regulatory impact assessment code under review, and
   (b) may from time to time remake or revise it.

(4) Before making, remaking or revising the regulatory impact assessment code, the Welsh Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(5) The Welsh Ministers must publish the regulatory impact assessment code when they make it and whenever they remake it; and, if they revise the code without remaking it, they must publish either the revisions or the code as revised (as they consider appropriate).

(6) If the Welsh Ministers publish a code or revisions under subsection (5) they must lay a copy of the code or revisions before the Assembly.

78 The Welsh language

(1) The Welsh Ministers must adopt a strategy (“the Welsh language strategy”) setting out how they propose to promote and facilitate the use of the Welsh language.

(2) The Welsh Ministers must adopt a scheme (“ the Welsh language scheme ”) specifying measures which they propose to take, for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3), as to the use of the Welsh language in connection with the provision of services to the public in Wales by them, or by others who—
   (a) are acting as servants or agents of the Crown, or
(b) are public bodies (within the meaning of Part 2 of the Welsh Language Act 1993 (c. 38)).]

(3) [F94 The purpose referred to in subsection (2) is that of giving effect, so far as is both appropriate in the circumstances and reasonably practicable, to the principle that in the conduct of public business in Wales the English and Welsh languages should be treated on a basis of equality.]

(4) The Welsh Ministers—

(a) must keep under review [F95 both] the Welsh language strategy [F99 and the Welsh language scheme], and

(b) may from time to time adopt a new strategy or [F96 revise it].

(5) Before adopting or revising a strategy [F97 or scheme], the Welsh Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(6) The Welsh Ministers must publish the Welsh language strategy [F98 and the Welsh language scheme] when they first adopt it and—

(a) if they adopt a new strategy [F99 or scheme] they must publish it, and

(b) if they revise the Welsh language strategy [F100 or the Welsh language scheme] (rather than adopting a new strategy [F99 or scheme]) they must publish either the revisions or the strategy [F99 or scheme] as revised (as they consider appropriate).

(7) If the Welsh Ministers publish a strategy [F101 or scheme], or revisions, under subsection (6) they must lay a copy of the strategy or scheme, or revisions, before the Assembly.

(8) [F102 After each financial year the Welsh Ministers must publish a report of how the proposals set out in the Welsh language strategy were implemented in that financial year and how effective their implementation has been in promoting and facilitating the use of the Welsh language and must lay a copy of the report before the Assembly.]

[F103(9) For each financial year, the Welsh Ministers must publish a plan setting out how they will implement the proposals set out in the Welsh language strategy during that year.

(10) The plan must be published as soon as reasonably practicable before the commencement of the financial year to which it relates.]

79 Sustainable development

[F104(1) The Welsh Ministers must, in the exercise of their functions, make appropriate arrangements to promote sustainable development.

(2) After each financial year the Welsh Ministers must publish a report containing a statement of the arrangements made in pursuance of subsection (1) that had effect during that financial year and must lay a copy of the report before the Assembly.

(3) The arrangements referred to in subsection (1) may be made by the Welsh Ministers exercising their functions under section (2) of the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 (duty of Welsh public bodies to set objectives and take steps to meet them in accordance with the sustainable development principle).

F[76EU] law, human rights and international obligations etc.

80 F[76EU] law

(1) F[76An]F[76EU] obligation of the United Kingdom is also an obligation of the Welsh Ministers if and to the extent that the obligation could be implemented (or enabled to be implemented) or complied with by the exercise by the Welsh Ministers of any of their functions.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in the case of F[76An]F[76EU] obligation of the United Kingdom if—

(a) it is an obligation to achieve a result defined by reference to a quantity (whether expressed as an amount, proportion or ratio or otherwise), and

(b) the quantity relates to the United Kingdom (or to an area including the United Kingdom or to an area consisting of a part of the United Kingdom which includes F[106]the whole or part of Wales or of the Welsh zone).
(3) But if such [F76]an[F76]EU obligation could (to any extent) be implemented (or enabled to be implemented) or complied with by the exercise by the Welsh Ministers of any of their functions, a Minister of the Crown may by order provide for the achievement by the Welsh Ministers (in the exercise of their functions) of so much of the result to be achieved under the [F76]EU obligation as is specified in the order.

(4) The order may specify the time by which any part of the result to be achieved by the Welsh Ministers is to be achieved.

(5) No order is to be made by a Minister of the Crown under subsection (3) unless the Minister of the Crown has consulted the Welsh Ministers.

(6) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(7) Where an order under subsection (3) is in force in relation to [F76]an[F76]EU obligation, to the extent that the [F76]EU obligation involves achieving what is specified in the order it is also an obligation of the Welsh Ministers (enforceable as if it were an obligation of the Welsh Ministers under subsection (1)).

(8) [F106]The Welsh Ministers have no power to make, confirm or approve any subordinate legislation so far as the legislation modifies retained EU law and the modification is of a description specified in regulations made by a Minister of the Crown.

(8A) But subsection (8) does not apply—

(a) so far as the modification would be within the Assembly's legislative competence if it were included in an Act of the Assembly, or

(b) to the making of regulations under Schedule 2 or 4 to the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

(8B) No regulations are to be made under subsection (8) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(8C) A Minister of the Crown must not lay a draft as mentioned in subsection (8B) unless—

(a) the Assembly has made a consent decision in relation to the laying of the draft, or

(b) the 40 day period has ended without the Assembly having made such a decision.

(8D) For the purposes of subsection (8C) a consent decision is—

(a) a decision to agree a motion consenting to the laying of the draft,

(b) a decision not to agree a motion consenting to the laying of the draft, or

(c) a decision to agree a motion refusing to consent to the laying of the draft; and a consent decision is made when the Assembly first makes a decision falling within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) (whether or not it subsequently makes another such decision).

(8E) In subsection (8C)—

“the 40 day period” means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which a copy of the draft instrument is provided to the Welsh Ministers, and, in calculating that period, no account is to be taken of any time during which the Assembly is dissolved or during which it is in recess for more than four days.
(8F) A Minister of the Crown who is proposing to lay a draft as mentioned in subsection (8B) must—
   (a) provide a copy of the draft to the Welsh Ministers, and
   (b) inform the Presiding Officer that a copy has been so provided.

(8G) See also section 157ZA (duty to make explanatory statement about regulations under subsection (8) including a duty to explain any decision to lay a draft without the consent of the Assembly).

(8H) No regulations may be made under subsection (8) after the end of the period of two years beginning with exit day.

(8I) Subsection (8H) does not affect the continuation in force of regulations made under subsection (8) at or before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (8H).

(8J) Any regulations under subsection (8) which are in force at the end of the period of five years beginning with the time at which they came into force are revoked in their application to the making, confirming or approving of subordinate legislation after the end of that period.

(8K) Subsections (8C) to (8I) do not apply in relation to regulations which only relate to a revocation of a specification.

(8L) The restriction in subsection (8) is in addition to any restriction in section 7 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 or elsewhere on the power of the Welsh Ministers to make, confirm or approve any subordinate legislation so far as the legislation modifies retained EU law.

(9) Subsections (1) and (8) apply to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers.

81 Human rights

(1) The Welsh Ministers have no power—
   (a) to make, confirm or approve any subordinate legislation, or
(b) to do any other act, so far as the subordinate legislation or act is incompatible with any of the Convention rights.

(2) Subsection (1) does not enable a person—
(a) to bring any proceedings in a court or tribunal, or
(b) to rely on any of the Convention rights in any such proceedings, in respect of an act unless that person would be a victim for the purposes of Article 34 of the Convention if proceedings were brought in the European Court of Human Rights in respect of that act.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the Attorney General, the Counsel General, the Advocate General for Scotland, the Advocate General for Northern Ireland or the Attorney General for Northern Ireland.

(4) Subsection (1)—
(a) does not apply to an act which, by virtue of subsection (2) of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (c. 42), is not unlawful under subsection (1) of that section, and
(b) does not enable a court or tribunal to award in respect of any act any damages which it could not award on finding the act unlawful under that subsection.

(5) Subsection (1) applies to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers.

(6) In subsection (2) “the Convention” has the same meaning as in the Human Rights Act 1998.

82 International obligations etc.

(1) If the Secretary of State considers that any action proposed to be taken by the Welsh Ministers would be incompatible with any international obligation, the Secretary of State may by order direct that the proposed action is not to be taken.

(2) If the Secretary of State considers that an action capable of being taken by the Welsh Ministers is required for the purposes of giving effect to any international obligation, the Secretary of State may by order direct the Welsh Ministers to take the action.

(3) If the Secretary of State considers that any subordinate legislation made, or which could be revoked, by the Welsh Ministers is incompatible with any international obligation or the interests of defence or national security, the Secretary of State may by order revoke the legislation.

(4) An order under subsection (3) may include provision for the order to have effect from a date earlier than that on which it is made; but—
(a) such a provision does not affect any rights or liabilities acquired or incurred before the date on which the order is made, and
(b) no person is to be guilty of an offence merely because of such a provision.
(5) The Secretary of State may make an order containing provision such as is specified in subsection (6) where—

(a) an international obligation is an obligation to achieve a result defined by reference to a quantity (whether expressed as an amount, proportion or ratio or otherwise), and

(b) the quantity relates to the United Kingdom (or to an area including the United Kingdom or to an area consisting of a part of the United Kingdom which includes [F107 the whole or part of Wales or of the Welsh zone]).

(6) The provision referred to in subsection (5) is provision for the achievement by the Welsh Ministers (in the exercise of their functions) of so much of the result to be achieved under the international obligation as is specified in the order.

(7) The order may specify the time by which any part of the result to be achieved by the Welsh Ministers is to be achieved.

(8) Where an order under subsection (5) is in force in relation to an international obligation, references to the international obligation in subsections (1) to (3) are to an obligation to achieve so much of the result to be achieved under the international obligation as is specified in the order by the time or times so specified.

(9) No order is to be made by the Secretary of State under subsection (2), (3) or (5) unless the Secretary of State has consulted the Welsh Ministers.

(10) An order under this section must state the reasons for making it.

(11) A statutory instrument containing—

(a) subject to subsection (12), an order under subsection (1), or

(b) an order under subsection (5), is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(12) A statutory instrument containing only an order under subsection (1) revoking a previous order under that subsection—

(a) is not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, but

(b) is to be laid before Parliament.

(13) No order is to be made under subsection (2) or (3) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(14) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) apply to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers; and where subsection (9) operates in relation to an order under subsection (2) or (3) relating to the First Minister or the Counsel General the reference in subsection (9) to the Welsh Ministers is to the First Minister or the Counsel General.

(15) In this section “action” includes making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation and in subsection (2) also includes introducing into the Assembly a proposed Assembly Measure or a Bill.
Agency arrangements and provision of services

(1) Arrangements may be made between the Welsh Ministers and any relevant authority for—

(a) any functions of one of them to be exercised by the other,
(b) any functions of the Welsh Ministers to be exercised by members of staff of the relevant authority,
(c) any functions of the relevant authority to be exercised by members of the staff of the Welsh Government, or
(d) the provision of administrative, professional or technical services by one of them for the other.

(2) Any arrangements under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) for the exercise of functions of the Welsh Ministers do not affect the responsibility of the Welsh Ministers; and such arrangements for the exercise of any functions of a relevant authority do not affect the responsibility of the relevant authority.

(3) The references in subsections (1) and (2) to functions do not include functions of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation contained in a statutory instrument.

(4) In this section “relevant authority” means any Minister of the Crown or government department, any public authority (including any local authority) in England and Wales or the holder of any public office in England and Wales.

(5) This section applies to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers.
(a) an enactment confers or imposes a function exercisable in relation to England and Wales, and
(b) the function is to any extent conferred or imposed on the Welsh Ministers by the enactment or transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers by or by virtue of this Act.

(2) The enactment is to be taken to permit—
(a) the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers whether or not it is exercised otherwise than by the Welsh Ministers, and
(b) the exercise of the function differently by the Welsh Ministers (on the one hand) and otherwise than by the Welsh Ministers (on the other).

(3) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to a function exercisable in relation to England and Wales includes a function exercisable in relation both to England and Wales and to another country or territory or other countries or territories.

(4) Subsection (2) is subject to—
(a) the enactment by which the function is conferred or imposed on the Welsh Ministers, or
(b) any provision by or by virtue of which the function is transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers.

(5) Subsection (2) does not limit any power to exercise a function in relation to Wales whether or not it is exercised in relation to England, or to exercise a function differently in relation to Wales and England, where this section does not apply.

(6) In this section “enactment” includes a future enactment.

(7) This section applies in relation to the First Minister and the Counsel General as to the Welsh Ministers.

Commencement Information

85 Construction of references to Ministers and departments

(1) So far as may be necessary for the purpose or in consequence of the exercise of any functions of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, any reference in any enactment or other document to—
(a) a Minister of the Crown, or
(b) a government department,
(whether by name or in general terms) is to be construed as being or including a reference to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General (according to by whom the function in question is exercisable).

(2) References in any enactment to property vested in or held for the purposes of a government department is to be construed as including references to property vested in or held for the purposes of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General (and in relation to property so vested or held the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General are each deemed to be a government department for the purposes of any enactment).
(3) In this section “enactment” includes a future enactment.

86  Laying of reports and statements

(1) This section applies where—
(a) any enactment makes provision ("provision for Parliamentary laying") for any report or statement to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament,
(b) the report or statement is not one which, by or by virtue of this Act, is to be made by or given to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission, and
(c) the report or statement relates to matters with respect to which functions are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission.

(2) If no functions relating to the matters are exercisable by a Minister of the Crown, the provision for Parliamentary laying is to be construed as provision for the report or statement to be laid before the Assembly instead of before Parliament or either House of Parliament.

(3) If any are, the provision for Parliamentary laying is to be construed as provision for the report or statement to be laid before the Assembly as well as before Parliament or either House of Parliament.

(4) In this section—
(a) references to a report or statement include any other document (except one containing subordinate legislation), and
(b) “enactment” includes a future enactment.

PART 3

ASSEMBLY MEASURES

Textual Amendments

F108 Pt. 3 ceases to have effect (5.5.2011) by virtue of Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32), s. 106(1)(1) (with ss. 106(2), 106A) (as amended (5.5.2011) by S.I. 2011/1011, art. 4; see S.I. 2011/1011, arts. 2, 3 for date of commencement of the Assembly Act provisions)

93 Assembly Measures

(1) The Assembly may make laws, to be known as Measures of the National Assembly for Wales or Mesurau Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru (referred to in this Act as “Assembly Measures”).

(2) A proposed Assembly Measure is enacted by being passed by the Assembly and approved by Her Majesty in Council.

(3) The validity of an Assembly Measure is not affected by any invalidity in the Assembly proceedings leading to its enactment.

(4) Every Assembly Measure is to be judicially noticed.

(5) This Part does not affect the power of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to make laws for Wales.

Commencement Information

I87 Ss. 1-94, 97-106 in force immediately after “the 2007 election” by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

94 Legislative competence

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, an Assembly Measure may make any provision that could be made by an Act of Parliament.

(2) An Assembly Measure is not law so far as any provision of the Assembly Measure is outside the Assembly’s legislative competence.

(3) A provision of an Assembly Measure is within the Assembly’s legislative competence only if it falls within subsection (4) or (5).

(4) A provision of an Assembly Measure falls within this subsection if—

(a) it relates to one or more of the matters specified in Part 1 of Schedule 5[F109] and does not fall within any of the exceptions specified in paragraph A1 of Part 2 of that Schedule (whether or not the exception is under a heading corresponding to the field which includes the matter), and

(b) it neither applies otherwise than in relation to Wales nor confers, imposes, modifies or removes (or gives power to confer, impose, modify or remove) functions exercisable otherwise than in relation to Wales.
(5) A provision of an Assembly Measure falls within this subsection if—
   (a) it provides for the enforcement of a provision (of that or any other Assembly Measure) which falls within subsection (4) or it is otherwise appropriate for making such a provision effective, or
   (b) it is otherwise incidental to, or consequential on, such a provision.

(6) But a provision which falls within subsection (4) or (5) is outside the Assembly's legislative competence if—
   (a) it breaches any of the restrictions in \[\text{F110}\] paragraphs 1 to 6 of Part 2 of Schedule 5, having regard to any exception in Part 3 of that Schedule from those restrictions,
   (b) it extends otherwise than only to England and Wales, or
   (c) it is incompatible with the Convention rights or with \[\text{EU}\] law.

(7) For the purposes of this section the question whether a provision of an Assembly Measure relates to one or more of the matters specified in Part 1 of Schedule 5 \[\text{F111}\] (or falls within any of the exceptions specified in paragraph A1 of Part 2 of that Schedule) is to be determined by reference to the purpose of the provision, having regard (among other things) to its effect in all the circumstances.

95 Legislative competence: supplementary

(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council—
   (a) amend Part 1 of Schedule 5 to add a matter which relates to one or more of the fields listed in that Part, or to vary or remove any matter,
   (b) amend that Part to add a new field or to vary or remove any field, or
   (c) amend Part 2 or 3 of that Schedule.

(2) An Order in Council under this section does not have effect to amend Part 1 of Schedule 5 by adding a field if, at the time when the amendment comes into force, no functions in the field are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General.
(3) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of—
   (a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
   (b) any other instrument or document,
   as Her Majesty considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the Order in Council.

(4) An Order in Council under this section may make provision having retrospective effect.

(5) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council—
   (a) has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly, and
   (b) having been so approved, has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(6) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the draft of an Order in Council under this section has been approved by a resolution of the Assembly, the First Minister must ensure that—
   (a) notice in writing of the resolution, and
   (b) a copy of the draft, is sent to the Secretary of State.

(7) The Secretary of State must, before the end of the period of 60 days beginning immediately after the day on which notice of the Assembly's resolution is received, either—
   (a) lay the draft before each House of Parliament, or
   (b) give notice in writing to the First Minister of the Secretary of State's refusal to do so and the reasons for that refusal.

(8) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the First Minister receives notice of the Secretary of State's refusal to lay the draft before each House of Parliament and the reasons for that refusal—
   (a) the First Minister must lay a copy of the notice before the Assembly, and
   (b) the Assembly must ensure that it is published.

(9) In reckoning the period of 60 days mentioned in subsection (7) no account is to be taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

(10) The amendment of Schedule 5 by an Order in Council under this section does not affect—
    (a) the validity of an Assembly Measure passed before the amendment comes into force, or
    (b) the previous or continuing operation of such an Assembly Measure.

96 Scrutiny of proposed Orders in Council

The Counsel General or the Attorney General may refer to the Supreme Court for decision the question whether a matter which a proposed Order in Council under section 95 proposes to add to Part 1 of Schedule 5 relates to a field listed in that Part.
Procedure

97 Introduction of proposed Assembly Measures

(1) A proposed Assembly Measure may, subject to the standing orders, be introduced in the Assembly—
   (a) by the First Minister, any Welsh Minister appointed under section 48, any Deputy Welsh Minister or the Counsel General, or
   (b) by any other Assembly member.

(2) The person in charge of a proposed Assembly Measure must, on or before the introduction of the proposed Assembly Measure, state that, in that person's view, its provisions would be within the Assembly's legislative competence.

(3) The Presiding Officer must, on or before the introduction of a proposed Assembly Measure in the Assembly—
   (a) decide whether or not, in the view of the Presiding Officer, the provisions of the proposed Assembly Measure would be within the Assembly's legislative competence, and
   (b) state that decision.

(4) A statement under this section must be made in both English and Welsh; but, subject to that, the form of the statement and the manner in which it is to be made are to be determined under the standing orders.

(5) The standing orders—
   (a) may provide for a statement under this section to be published, and
   (b) if they do so, must provide for it to be published in both English and Welsh.

Commencement Information

189 Ss. 1-94, 97-106 in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

98 Proceedings on proposed Assembly Measures

(1) The standing orders must include provision—
   (a) for general debate on a proposed Assembly Measure with an opportunity for Assembly members to vote on its general principles,
   (b) for the consideration of, and an opportunity for Assembly members to vote on, the details of a proposed Assembly Measure, and
   (c) for a final stage at which a proposed Assembly Measure can be passed or rejected.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the standing orders making provision to enable the Assembly to expedite proceedings in relation to a particular proposed Assembly Measure.

(3) The standing orders may make provision different from that required by subsection (1) for the procedure applicable to proposed Assembly Measures of any of the following kinds—
   (a) proposed Assembly Measures which restate the law,
   (b) proposed Assembly Measures which repeal or revoke spent enactments, and
(c) private proposed Assembly Measures.

(4) The standing orders must include provision for securing that the Assembly may only pass a proposed Assembly Measure containing provisions which would, if contained in a Bill for an Act of Parliament, require the consent of Her Majesty or the Duke of Cornwall if such consent has been signified in accordance with the standing orders.

(5) The standing orders must include provision for securing that the Assembly may only pass a proposed Assembly Measure if the text of the proposed Assembly Measure is in both English and Welsh, unless the circumstances are such as are specified by the standing orders as any in which the text need not be in both languages.

(6) The standing orders must provide for an opportunity for the reconsideration of a proposed Assembly Measure after its passing if (and only if)—
   (a) the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure under section 99 that the proposed Assembly Measure or any provision of it would not be within the Assembly's legislative competence,
   (b) a reference made in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure under section 99 is withdrawn following a request for withdrawal of the reference under section 100(2)(b), or
   (c) an order is made in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure under section 101.

(7) The standing orders must, in particular, ensure that any proposed Assembly Measure amended on reconsideration is subject to a final stage at which it can be approved or rejected.

(8) References in subsections (4), (5) and (6) of this section and sections 93(2) and 95(10) to the passing of a proposed Assembly Measure are, in the case of a proposed Assembly Measure which has been amended on reconsideration, to be read as references to its approval.

99 Scrutiny of proposed Assembly Measures by Supreme Court

(1) The Counsel General or the Attorney General may refer the question whether a proposed Assembly Measure, or any provision of a proposed Assembly Measure, would be within the Assembly's legislative competence to the Supreme Court for decision.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Counsel General or the Attorney General may make a reference in relation to a proposed Assembly Measure at any time during—
   (a) the period of four weeks beginning with the passing of the proposed Assembly Measure, and
   (b) any period of four weeks beginning with any subsequent approval of the proposed Assembly Measure in accordance with provision included in the standing orders in compliance with section 98(7).

(3) No reference may be made in relation to a proposed Assembly Measure—
(a) by the Counsel General if the Counsel General has notified the Clerk that no reference is to be made in relation to it by the Counsel General, or
(b) by the Attorney General if the Attorney General has notified the Clerk that no reference is to be made in relation to it by the Attorney General.

(4) But subsection (3) does not apply if the proposed Assembly Measure has been approved as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) since the notification.

100 ECJ references

(1) This section applies where—
   (a) a reference has been made in relation to a proposed Assembly Measure under section 99,
   (b) a reference for a preliminary European Court ruling has been made by the Supreme Court in connection with that reference, and
   (c) neither of those references has been decided or otherwise disposed of.

(2) If the Assembly resolves that it wishes to reconsider the proposed Assembly Measure—
   (a) the Clerk must notify the Counsel General and the Attorney General of that fact, and
   (b) the person who made the reference in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure under section 99 must request the withdrawal of the reference.

(3) In this section "a reference for a preliminary European Court ruling" means a reference of a question to the European Court under Article 234 of the Treaty establishing the European Community, Article 41 of the Treaty establishing the European Coal and Steel Community or Article 150 of the Treaty establishing the European Atomic Energy Community.

101 Power to intervene in certain cases

(1) This section applies if a proposed Assembly Measure contains provisions which the Secretary of State has reasonable grounds to believe—
   (a) would have an adverse effect on any matter which is not specified in Part 1 of Schedule 5 [F112(or falls within any of the exceptions specified in paragraph A1 of Part 2 of that Schedule)],
   (b) might have a serious adverse impact on water resources in England, water supply in England or the quality of water in England,
   (c) would have an adverse effect on the operation of the law as it applies in England, or
(d) would be incompatible with any international obligation or the interests of defence or national security.

(2) The Secretary of State may make an order prohibiting the Clerk from submitting the proposed Assembly Measure for approval by Her Majesty in Council.

(3) The order must identify the proposed Assembly Measure and the provisions in question and state the reasons for making the order.

(4) The order may be made at any time during—
   (a) the period of four weeks beginning with the passing of the proposed Assembly Measure,
   (b) any period of four weeks beginning with any subsequent approval of the proposed Assembly Measure in accordance with provision included in the standing orders in compliance with section 98(7), or
   (c) if a reference is made in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure under section 99, the period of four weeks beginning with the reference being decided or otherwise disposed of by the Supreme Court.

(5) The Secretary of State must not make an order in relation to a proposed Assembly Measure if the Secretary of State has notified the Clerk that no order is to be made in relation to the proposed Assembly Measure.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the proposed Assembly Measure has been approved as mentioned in subsection (4)(b) since the notification.

(7) An order in force under this section at a time when such approval is given ceases to have effect.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

107 Acts of the Assembly

(1) The Assembly may make laws, to be known as Acts of the National Assembly for Wales or Deddfau Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru (referred to in this Act as “Acts of the Assembly”).

(2) Proposed Acts of the Assembly are to be known as Bills; and a Bill becomes an Act of the Assembly when it has been passed by the Assembly and has received Royal Assent.

(3) The validity of an Act of the Assembly is not affected by any invalidity in the Assembly proceedings leading to its enactment.

(4) Every Act of the Assembly is to be judicially noticed.

(5) This Part does not affect the power of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to make laws for Wales.

[F115(6) But it is recognised that the Parliament of the United Kingdom will not normally legislate with regard to devolved matters without the consent of the Assembly.]

Textual Amendments

F115 S. 107(6) inserted (31.3.2017) by Wales Act 2017 (c. 4), ss. 2, 71(2)(a) (with Sch. 7 paras. 1, 6)

Commencement Information

I95 S. 107 in force at 5.5.2011 by S.I. 2011/1011, art. 3
(d) it breaches any of the restrictions in Part 1 of Schedule 7B, having regard to any exception in Part 2 of that Schedule from those restrictions;
(e) it is incompatible with the Convention rights or with EU law.

(3) But subsection (2)(b) does not apply to a provision that—
(a) is ancillary to a provision of any Act of the Assembly or Assembly Measure or to a devolved provision of an Act of Parliament, and
(b) has no greater effect otherwise than in relation to Wales, or in relation to functions exercisable otherwise than in relation to Wales, than is necessary to give effect to the purpose of that provision.

(4) For this purpose, a provision of an Act of Parliament is ““devolved”” if it would be within the Assembly's legislative competence if it were contained in an Act of the Assembly (ignoring any requirement for consent or consultation imposed under paragraph 8, 10 or 11 of Schedule 7B or otherwise).

(5) In determining what is necessary for the purposes of subsection (3), any power to make laws other than that of the Assembly is disregarded.

(6) The question whether a provision of an Act of the Assembly relates to a reserved matter is determined by reference to the purpose of the provision, having regard (among other things) to its effect in all the circumstances.

(7) For the purposes of this Act a provision is ancillary to another provision if it—
(a) provides for the enforcement of the other provision or is otherwise appropriate for making that provision effective, or
(b) is otherwise incidental to, or consequential on, that provision.

109 Legislative competence: supplementary

(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend [f117 Schedule 7A or 7B].

(2) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of—
(a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
(b) any other instrument or document,
as Her Majesty considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the Order in Council.

(3) An Order in Council under this section may make provision having retrospective effect.
(4) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council [F118 has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament and the Assembly.]

[F118] (5) Any alteration of Schedule 7A or 7B, whether by virtue of the making, revocation or expiry of an Order in Council under this section or otherwise, does not (unless an enactment provides otherwise) affect—
   (a) the validity of an Act of the Assembly passed before the alteration takes effect, or
   (b) the previous or continuing operation of such an Act of the Assembly.

Legislative competence: restriction relating to retained EU law

(1) An Act of the Assembly cannot modify, or confer power by subordinate legislation to modify, retained EU law so far as the modification is of a description specified in regulations made by a Minister of the Crown.

(2) But subsection (1) does not apply to any modification so far as it would, immediately before exit day, have been within the Assembly's legislative competence.

(3) No regulations are to be made under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(4) A Minister of the Crown must not lay a draft as mentioned in subsection (3) unless—
   (a) the Assembly has made a consent decision in relation to the laying of the draft, or
   (b) the 40 day period has ended without the Assembly having made such a decision.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) a consent decision is—
   (a) a decision to agree a motion consenting to the laying of the draft,
   (b) a decision not to agree a motion consenting to the laying of the draft, or
   (c) a decision to agree a motion refusing to consent to the laying of the draft; and a consent decision is made when the Assembly first makes a decision falling within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) (whether or not it subsequently makes another such decision).

(6) A Minister of the Crown who is proposing to lay a draft as mentioned in subsection (3) must—
   (a) provide a copy of the draft to the Welsh Ministers, and
(b) inform the Presiding Officer that a copy has been so provided.

(7) See also section 157ZA (duty to make explanatory statement about regulations under this section including a duty to explain any decision to lay a draft without the consent of the Assembly).

(8) No regulations may be made under this section after the end of the period of two years beginning with exit day.

(9) Subsection (8) does not affect the continuation in force of regulations made under this section at or before the end of the period mentioned in that subsection.

(10) Any regulations under this section which are in force at the end of the period of five years beginning with the time at which they came into force are revoked in their application to any Act of the Assembly which receives Royal Assent after the end of that period.

(11) Subsections (4) to (9) do not apply in relation to regulations which only relate to a revocation of a specification.

(12) In this section—

“the 40 day period” means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which a copy of the draft instrument is provided to the Welsh Ministers, and, in calculating that period, no account is to be taken of any time during which the Assembly is dissolved or during which it is in recess for more than four days.

F120 S. 109A inserted (26.6.2018 for specified purposes) by European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16), ss. 12(4), 25(2)(b) (with s. 19, Sch. 2 paras. 3(5), 14(5), Sch. 8 para. 37, Sch. 8 para. 41)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C12 S. 109A: power to repeal conferred (4.7.2018) by European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16), ss. 12(9)-(11), 25(4) (with s. 19, Sch. 8 paras. 37, 41); S.I. 2018/808, reg. 3(c)

110 Introduction of Bills

(1) A Bill may, subject to the standing orders, be introduced in the Assembly—

(a) by the First Minister, any Welsh Minister appointed under section 48 any Deputy Welsh Minister or the Counsel General, or

(b) by any other Assembly member.

(2) The person in charge of a Bill must, on or before the introduction of the Bill, state that, in that person's view, its provisions would be within the Assembly's legislative competence.

(3) The Presiding Officer must, on or before the introduction of a Bill in the Assembly—

(a) decide whether or not, in the view of the Presiding Officer, the provisions of the Bill would be within the Assembly's legislative competence, and

(b) state that decision.
(4) A statement under this section must be made in both English and Welsh; but, subject to that, the form of the statement and the manner in which it is to be made are to be determined under the standing orders.

(5) The standing orders—
(a) may provide for a statement under this section to be published, and
(b) if they do so, must provide for it to be published in both English and Welsh.

Commencement Information

S. 110 in force at 5.5.2011 by S.I. 2011/1011, art. 3

110A Introduction of Bills: justice impact assessment

(1) The standing orders must include provision requiring the person in charge of a Bill, on or before the introduction of the Bill, to make a written statement setting out the potential impact (if any) on the justice system in England and Wales of the provisions of the Bill (a “justice impact assessment”).

(2) The form of the justice impact assessment and the manner in which it is to be made are to be determined under the standing orders.

(3) The standing orders must provide for the justice impact assessment to be published.

Textual Amendments

F121 S. 110A inserted (1.4.2018) by Wales Act 2017 (c. 4), ss. 11, 71(4) (with Sch. 7 paras. 1, 6); S.I. 2017/1179, reg. 3(c)

111 Proceedings on Bills

(1) The standing orders must include provision—
(a) for general debate on a Bill with an opportunity for Assembly members to vote on its general principles,
(b) for the consideration of, and an opportunity for Assembly members to vote on, the details of a Bill, and
(c) for a final stage at which a Bill can be passed or rejected.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the standing orders making provision to enable the Assembly to expedite proceedings in relation to a particular Bill.

(3) The standing orders may make provision different from that required by subsection (1) for the procedure applicable to Bills of any of the following kinds—
(a) Bills which restate the law,
(b) Bills which repeal or revoke spent enactments, and
(c) private Bills.

(4) The standing orders must include provision for securing that the Assembly may only pass a Bill containing provisions which would, if contained in a Bill for an Act of Parliament, require the consent of Her Majesty or the Duke of Cornwall if such consent has been signified in accordance with the standing orders.
(5) The standing orders must include provision for securing that the Assembly may only pass a Bill if the text of the Bill is in both English and Welsh, unless the circumstances are such as are specified by the standing orders as any in which the text need not be in both languages.

(6) The standing orders must provide for an opportunity for the reconsideration of a Bill after its passing if (and only if)—

\[(F122)\]

- the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 111B(2)(b) (reference following Presiding Officer's decision that Bill does not contain protected subject-matter) that any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter,
- the Supreme Court decides on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 112 that the Bill or any provision of it would not be within the Assembly's legislative competence,
- a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 112 is withdrawn following a request for withdrawal of the reference under section 113(2)(b), or
- an order is made in relation to the Bill under section 114.

\[(F123)(6A)\]

The standing orders must provide for an opportunity for the reconsideration of a Bill after its rejection if (and only if), on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 111B(2)(a) (reference following Presiding Officer's decision that Bill contains protected subject-matter), the Supreme Court decides that no provision that is subject to the reference relates to a protected subject-matter.

\[(F124)(7)\]

The standing orders must, in particular, ensure that—

- any Bill amended on reconsideration in accordance with standing orders made by virtue of subsection (6)(a), (b) or (c), and
- any Bill reconsidered in accordance with standing orders made by virtue of subsection (6)(za) or (6A), is subject to a final stage at which it can be approved or rejected.

(8) References in subsections (4), (5) and (6) of this section and sections 107(2), 109(5) \[(F125, 111A(3) and (4), 111B(2)(b))\] \[(F126, 116(3) and 116C (4))\] to the passing of a Bill are, in the case of a Bill \[(F127)\] to which subsection (7)(a) or (b) applies, to be read as references to its approval.

111A Bills with protected subject-matter: super-majority requirement

(1) For the purposes of this Part a provision of a Bill relates to a protected subject-matter if it would modify, or confer power to modify, any of the matters listed in subsection (2) (but not if the provision is incidental to or consequential on another provision of the Bill).

(2) The matters are—
   (a) the name of the Assembly,
   (b) the persons entitled to vote as electors at an election for membership of the Assembly,
   (c) the system by which members of the Assembly are returned,
   (d) the specification or number of constituencies, regions or any equivalent electoral area,
   (e) the number of members to be returned for each constituency, region or equivalent electoral area, and
   (f) the number of persons who may hold the office of Welsh Minister appointed under section 48 or the office of Deputy Welsh Minister.

(3) The Presiding Officer must, after the last time when a Bill may be amended but before the decision whether to pass or reject it—
   (a) decide whether or not, in the view of the Presiding Officer, any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, and
   (b) state that decision.

(4) If the Presiding Officer decides that any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, the Bill is not passed unless the number of Assembly members voting in favour of it at the final stage is at least two-thirds of the total number of Assembly seats.

111B Scrutiny of Bills by the Supreme Court (protected subject-matter)

(1) The Counsel General or the Attorney General may refer the question whether any provision of a Bill relates to a protected subject-matter to the Supreme Court for decision.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Counsel General or the Attorney General may make a reference in relation to a Bill—
   (a) at any time during the period of four weeks beginning with the rejection of the Bill, if the Presiding Officer has decided under section 111A(3) that a provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, or
(b) at any time during the period of four weeks beginning with the passing of the Bill, if the Presiding Officer has decided under section 111A(3) that no provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter, unless the number of Assembly members voting in favour of the Bill at its passing is at least two-thirds of the total number of Assembly seats.

(3) No reference may be made in relation to a Bill—

(a) by the Counsel General if the Counsel General has notified the Presiding Officer that no reference is to be made in relation to it by the Counsel General, or

(b) by the Attorney General if the Attorney General has notified the Presiding Officer that no reference is to be made in relation to it by the Attorney General.

(4) But subsection (3) does not apply if the Bill has, since the notification, been approved or rejected in accordance with standing orders made by virtue of section 111(7).

114 Power to intervene in certain cases

(1) This section applies if a Bill contains provisions which the Secretary of State has reasonable grounds to believe—

(a) would have an adverse effect on a reserved matter,

(b) would have an adverse effect on the operation of the law as it applies in England, or

(c) would be incompatible with any international obligation or the interests of defence or national security.
(2) The Secretary of State may make an order prohibiting the Presiding Officer from submitting the Bill for Royal Assent.

(3) The order must identify the Bill and the provisions in question and state the reasons for making the order.

(4) The order may be made at any time during—
   (a) the period of four weeks beginning with the passing of the Bill,
   (b) any period of four weeks beginning with any approval of the Bill in accordance with provision included in the standing orders in compliance with section 111(7), or
   (c) if a reference is made in relation to the Bill under section 111B or 112, the period of four weeks beginning with the reference being decided or otherwise disposed of by the Supreme Court.

(5) The Secretary of State must not make an order in relation to a Bill if the Secretary of State has notified the Presiding Officer that no order is to be made in relation to the Bill.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the Bill has been approved as mentioned in subsection (4)(b) since the notification.

(7) An order in force under this section at a time when such approval is given ceases to have effect.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Royal Assent

(1) It is for the Presiding Officer to submit Bills for Royal Assent.

(2) The Presiding Officer may not submit a Bill for Royal Assent at any time when—
(a) the Attorney General or the Counsel General is entitled to make a reference in relation to the Bill under section 111B or 112,

(b) such a reference has been made but has not been decided or otherwise disposed of by the Supreme Court, or

(c) an order may be made in relation to the Bill under section 114.

(3) The Presiding Officer may not submit a Bill in its unamended form for Royal Assent if—

(a) the Supreme Court has decided on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 112 that the Bill or any provision of it would not be within the Assembly’s legislative competence, or

(b) a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 112 has been withdrawn following a request for withdrawal of the reference under section 113(2)(b).

(3A) The Presiding Officer may not submit a Bill for Royal Assent if the Supreme Court has decided on a reference made in relation to the Bill under section 111B(2)(b) (reference following Presiding Officer’s decision that Bill does not contain protected subject-matter) that any provision of the Bill relates to a protected subject-matter unless, since the decision, the Bill has been approved in accordance with standing orders made by virtue of section 111(7).

(4) A Bill receives Royal Assent when Letters Patent under the Welsh Seal signed with Her Majesty's own hand signifying Her Assent are notified to the Clerk.

(4A) The Keeper of the Welsh Seal (see section 116(2)) must make arrangements to send the Letters Patent to the National Library of Wales.

(5) The date of Royal Assent is to be written on the Act of the Assembly by the Clerk, and forms part of the Act.

(5A) On the copy of the Act of the Assembly on which the Clerk writes the date of Royal Assent the Clerk must write—

(a) the calendar year, and

(b) any prefix and number which has been assigned to that Act of the Assembly.

(5B) The information written on the Act of the Assembly in pursuance of subsection (5A) forms part of the Act.

(5C) The copy of the Act of the Assembly on which the date of Royal Assent and the information in subsection (5A) is written is to be known as the official print of the Act.

(5D) The Clerk must make a copy of the official print and certify it as a true copy.

(5E) The Clerk must send the certified copy to the Queen’s Printer and the official print to the National Library of Wales.

(5F) The National Library of Wales must ensure that the official prints and Letters Patent it receives are preserved and open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

(6) The standing orders must include provision for notification by the Clerk to the Assembly of the date of Royal Assent to an Act of the Assembly.

(7) The validity of an Act of the Assembly is not affected by any failure to comply with provision made by or by virtue of subsection (4), (5) or (6).
116 Welsh Seal [F147: Letters Patent and proclamations]

(1) There is to be a Welsh Seal.

(2) The First Minister is to be the Keeper of the Welsh Seal.

(3) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make provision as to—
   (a) the form and manner of preparation, and
   (b) the publication, of Letters Patent signed with Her Majesty's own hand signifying Her Assent to a Bill passed by the Assembly [F148] and all royal proclamations under section 4(2) and section 5(4), which have passed under the Welsh Seal.

(4) A statutory instrument containing an Order in Council under subsection (3) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.
PART 4A – TAXATION

CHAPTER 1 – Introductory

116A Overview of Part 4A

(1) In this Part—in

   (a) Chapter 2 confers on the Assembly power to set rates of income tax to be paid by Welsh taxpayers, and

   (b) Chapters 3 and 4 specify particular taxes as devolved taxes about which the Assembly may make provision in the exercise of the power conferred by section 107(1).

(2) The power to make provision about a devolved tax is subject to the restrictions imposed by—

   (a) subsection (3), and

   (b) the other provisions of this Part.

(3) A devolved tax may not be imposed where to do so would be incompatible with any international obligations.

(4) In this Act “ devolved tax ” means a tax specified in this Part as a devolved tax.

116B Status of officials of body that collects and manages devolved taxes

(1) This section applies where an Act of the Assembly establishes a body that is to be responsible for the collection and management of devolved taxes (whether or not the body is also to be responsible for local government finance or any other matter).

(2) In this section “ relevant official ” means an officer or member of staff of the body mentioned in subsection (1) who has no functions other than functions relating to—

   (a) the collection or management of devolved taxes, or

   (b) local government finance.

(3) If an Act of the Assembly provides that service as a relevant official is service in the civil service of the State, that provision is not to be regarded as falling outside the Assembly's legislative competence by virtue of section 108A(2)(b) or (c).
(4) In subsections (5) to (7), “relevant civil servant” means a relevant official whose service is service in the civil service of the State by virtue of provision of the kind mentioned in subsection (3).

(5) The Welsh Ministers must pay the salaries and expenses of relevant civil servants.

(6) The Welsh Ministers must make payments to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as the Minister for the Civil Service may determine, of such amounts as may be so determined in respect of—
   (a) the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities by virtue of section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 or section 1 of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 to or in respect of persons who are or have been relevant civil servants, and
   (b) the expenses incurred in administering those pensions, allowances and gratuities.

(7) The Welsh Ministers may make payments towards the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of any person who is or has been a relevant civil servant.

116C Power to add new devolved taxes

(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend this Part so as to—
   (a) specify, as an additional devolved tax, a tax of any description, or
   (b) make any other modifications of the provisions relating to devolved taxes which She considers appropriate.

(2) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of—
   (a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
   (b) any other instrument or document, as Her Majesty considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the Order.

(3) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament and the Assembly.

(4) The amendment of this Part by an Order in Council under this section does not affect—
   (a) the validity of an Act of the Assembly passed before the amendment comes into force, or
   (b) the previous or continuing operation of such an Act of the Assembly.]
INCOME TAX

Textual Amendments
F152 Pt. 4A Ch. 2 inserted (with effect in accordance with s. 14(3)-(5) of the amending Act) by Wales Act 2014 (c. 29), ss. 8(3), 14(2), 29(4); S.I. 2018/892, art. 3 (with arts. 5, 6, 8)

116D Power to set Welsh rates for Welsh taxpayers

(1) The Assembly may by resolution (a “Welsh rate resolution”) set one or more of the following—
   (a) a Welsh rate for the purpose of calculating the Welsh basic rate;
   (b) a Welsh rate for the purpose of calculating the Welsh higher rate;
   (c) a Welsh rate for the purpose of calculating the Welsh additional rate.

(2) See section 6B of the Income Tax Act 2007 for provision about the calculation of the Welsh basic, higher and additional rates and section 11B of that Act for provision about the income of Welsh taxpayers charged at those rates.

(3) A Welsh rate resolution applies—
   (a) for only one tax year, and
   (b) for the whole of that year.

(4) Any Welsh rate specified must be a whole number or half a whole number.

(5) A Welsh rate resolution—
   (a) must specify the tax year for which it applies,
   (b) must be made before the start of that tax year, and
   (c) must not be made more than 12 months before the start of that year.

(6) If a Welsh rate resolution is cancelled before the start of the tax year for which it is to apply—
   (a) the Income Tax Acts have effect for that year as if the resolution had never been made, and
   (b) the resolution may be replaced by another Welsh rate resolution.

(7) The standing orders must provide that only the First Minister or a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48 may move a motion for a Welsh rate resolution.

116E Welsh taxpayers

(1) For any tax year, a Welsh taxpayer is an individual (T)—
   (a) who is resident in the UK for income tax purposes for that year (see Schedule 45 to the Finance Act 2013), and
   (b) who, for that year, meets condition A, B or C.

(2) T meets condition A if T has a close connection with Wales (see section 116G).

(3) T meets condition B if—
(a) T does not have a close connection with England, Scotland or Northern Ireland (see section 116G), and
(b) T spends more days of that year in Wales than in any other part of the UK (see section 116H).

(4) T meets condition C if, for the whole or any part of the year, T is—
   (a) a member of Parliament for a constituency in Wales,
   (b) a member of the European Parliament for Wales, or
   (c) an Assembly member.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply if T is a Scottish parliamentarian for the whole or any part of the year (see section 116F).

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) and section 116F, T is a Scottish parliamentarian if T is a member as described in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 80D(4) of the Scotland Act 1998 (definition of a Scottish taxpayer).

(7) In this Chapter “the UK” means the United Kingdom.

116F Welsh taxpayers: Scottish parliamentarians

(1) An individual (T) who is a Scottish parliamentarian for the whole or any part of a tax year is a Welsh taxpayer for that tax year if—
   (a) T is resident in the UK for income tax purposes for that year (see Schedule 45 to the Finance Act 2013),
   (b) T meets condition C in section 116E for that year, and
   (c) T meets either of the following conditions for that year.

(2) T meets the first condition if—
   (a) the number of days in that year on which T is a member as described in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 116E(4),
   (b) the number of days in that year on which T is a Scottish parliamentarian.

(3) T meets the second condition if—
   (a) the number of days in that year mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) are the same, and
   (b) T meets condition A or B in section 116E for that year.

116G Close connection with Wales or another part of the UK

(1) To find whether, for any year, T has a close connection with any part of the UK see—
   (a) subsection (2) (where T has only one place of residence in the UK), or
   (b) subsection (3) (where T has 2 or more places of residence in the UK).

(2) T has a close connection with a part of the UK if in that year—
   (a) T has only one place of residence in the UK,
   (b) that place of residence is in that part of the UK, and
   (c) for at least part of the year, T lives at that place.

(3) T has a close connection with a part of the UK if in that year—
   (a) T has 2 or more places of residence in the UK,

(b) for at least part of the year, T’s main place of residence in the UK is in that part of the UK,
(c) the times in the year when T’s main place of residence is in that part of the UK comprise (in aggregate) more of the year than the times when T’s main place of residence is in each other part of the UK (considered separately), and
(d) for at least part of the year, T lives at a place of residence in that part of the UK.

(4) In this section “place” includes a place on board a vessel or other means of transport.

116H Days spent in Wales or another part of the UK

(1) T spends more days of a year in Wales than in any other part of the UK if (and only if) the number of days in the year on which T is in Wales at the end of the day exceeds each of the following—
   (a) the number of days in the year on which T is in England at the end of the day;
   (b) the number of days in the year on which T is in Scotland at the end of the day;
   (c) the number of days in the year on which T is in Northern Ireland at the end of the day.

(2) T is treated as not being in the UK at the end of a day if—
   (a) on that day T arrives in the UK as a passenger,
   (b) T departs from the UK on the next day, and
   (c) during the time between arrival and departure T does not engage in activities which are to a substantial extent unrelated to T’s passage through the UK.

116I Supplemental powers to modify enactments

(1) The Treasury may by order modify section 11B of the Income Tax Act 2007 (income charged at the Welsh basic, higher and additional rates) for the purpose of altering—
   (a) the definition of the income which is charged to income tax at the rates provided for under the section, or
   (b) the application of the section in relation to a particular class of income which is so charged.

(2) The Treasury may by order modify any enactment not contained in Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Income Tax Act 2007 (rates at which income tax is charged) so that it makes provision, in relation to a Welsh taxpayer, by reference to the Welsh basic rate, the Welsh higher rate or the Welsh additional rate, instead of the basic rate, the higher rate or the additional rate.

(3) If the Treasury consider it necessary or expedient to do so, they may by order provide that—
   (a) a Welsh rate set by the Assembly for a tax year for the purpose of calculating the Welsh basic rate, Welsh higher rate or Welsh additional rate, or
   (b) the fact that a Welsh rate has not been set by the Assembly for a tax year for any one or more of those purposes, does not require any change in the amounts repayable or deductible under PAYE regulations between the beginning of that year and such later date as may be specified in the order.

(4) The Treasury may by order make such modifications of any enactment as they consider necessary or expedient in consequence of or in connection with an order under subsection (1), (2) or (3).

(5) An order under this section may, to the extent that the Treasury consider it to be appropriate, take effect retrospectively from the beginning of the tax year in which the order is made.

(6) No order is to be made under subsection (1), (2) or (4) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.

(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.

(8) The power under subsection (1) does not include power to provide that any income which is—

(a) savings income, or
(b) dividend income which would otherwise be charged to income tax at a rate provided for under section 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007, is income which is charged to income tax at a rate provided for under section 11B of that Act.

116J Reimbursement of expenses

The Welsh Ministers may reimburse any Minister of the Crown or government department for administrative expenses incurred by virtue of this Chapter at any time after the passing of the Wales Act 2014 by the Minister or department.

116K Report by the Comptroller and Auditor General

(1) The Comptroller and Auditor General must for each financial year prepare a report on the matters set out in subsection (2).

(2) Those matters are—

(a) the adequacy of any of HMRC's rules and procedures put in place, in consequence of the Welsh rate provisions, for the purpose of ensuring the proper assessment and collection of income tax charged at rates determined under those provisions,
(b) whether the rules and procedures described in paragraph (a) are being complied with,
(c) the correctness of the sums brought to account by HMRC which relate to income tax which is attributable to a Welsh rate resolution, and
(d) the accuracy and fairness of the amounts which are reimbursed to HMRC under section 116J (having been identified by it as administrative expenses incurred as a result of the charging of income tax as mentioned in paragraph (a)).

(3) “The Welsh rate provisions” are—

(a) any provision made by or under this Chapter, and
(b) any provision made by or under the Income Tax Acts relating to the Welsh basic rate, the Welsh higher rate or the Welsh additional rate.
(4) A report under this section may also include an assessment of the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which HMRC has used its resources in carrying out relevant functions.

(5) “Relevant functions” are functions of HMRC in the performance of which HMRC incurs administrative expenses which are reimbursed to HMRC under section 116J (having been identified by it as administrative expenses incurred as a result of the charging of income tax as mentioned in subsection (2)(a)).

(6) HMRC must give the Comptroller and Auditor General such information as the Comptroller and Auditor General may reasonably require for the purposes of preparing a report under this section.

(7) A report prepared under this section must be laid before the Assembly not later than 31 January of the financial year following that to which the report relates.

(8) In this section “HMRC” means Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

TAX ON TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING INTERESTS IN LAND

Textual Amendments

F153 Pt. 4A Ch. 3 inserted (17.2.2015) by Wales Act 2014 (c. 29), ss. 15(1), 29(2)(b)(3) (with s. 15(2))

116L Tax on transactions involving interests in land

(1) A tax which is charged on a Welsh land transaction and complies with the requirements of this section is a devolved tax.

(2) In this Chapter a “Welsh land transaction” means an acquisition of—
   (a) an estate, interest, right or power in or over land in Wales;
   (b) the benefit of an obligation, restriction or condition affecting the value of any such estate, interest, right or power.

(3) The tax may be chargeable—
   (a) whether or not there is any instrument effecting the transaction,
   (b) if there is such an instrument, regardless of where it is executed, and
   (c) regardless of where any party to the transaction is or is resident.

(4) The tax may not be imposed on so much of a Welsh land transaction as relates to land below mean low water mark.

(5) The following persons are not to be liable to pay the tax—

   Government
   A Minister of the Crown
   The Welsh Ministers, the First Minister and the Counsel General
   The Scottish Ministers
   A Northern Ireland department

   Parliament etc
116M Duty to disclose information on Welsh land transactions to HMRC

(1) The Welsh Revenue Authority must provide to HMRC such of the information falling within subsection (2) as HMRC may require.

(2) Information falls within this subsection if it—
   (a) is relevant information in relation to a Welsh land transaction, and
   (b) is in the possession or under the control of the person.

(3) “Relevant information”, in relation to a Welsh land transaction, means information which—
   (a) corresponds to any of the particulars which would be required under Schedule 2 to the Finance Act 1931, but for section 28(3)(c) of that Act, or
   (b) uniquely identifies, or assists in uniquely identifying, any person who gives consideration for, or is a party to, the transaction.

(4) Information is to be provided under subsection (1) in such form as HMRC may reasonably specify.

(5) Information acquired by HMRC under this section is to be treated, for the purposes of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005, as acquired in connection with a function of theirs.

(6) In this section, “HMRC” means Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs.

120 Destination of receipts

(1) Any sum received by or on behalf of—
   (a) the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
   (b) the Assembly Commission,
   (c) the Wales Audit Office,
   (d) the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales, is to be paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund (unless it is paid out of that Fund, and subject as follows); and this subsection applies in spite of provision contained in any other enactment unless the enactment provides expressly that any such sum is not to be paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(2) If and to the extent that sums received as mentioned in subsection (1) are received in connection with resources—
(a) which are within a category specified by resolution of the Assembly for the purposes of this subsection,
(b) which accrued to a person within subsection (1), and
(c) the retention of which by that person is authorised by a Budget resolution of the Assembly for the financial year in which the resources accrued, the sums may be retained for use for the services and purposes specified in a Budget resolution of the Assembly for the financial year in which they are received as services and purposes for which retained resources may be used.

(3) The Treasury may, after consulting the Welsh Ministers, by order designate any description of sums received as mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) The Welsh Ministers must make payments to the Secretary of State of sums equal to the total amount of sums of that description.

(5) Payments by the Welsh Ministers under subsection (4) are to be made at such times, and by such methods, as the Treasury may from time to time determine.

(6) Sums required for the making of the payments are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.

(8) In this Act “Budget resolution of the Assembly” means a resolution on an annual Budget motion (see section 125) or a supplementary Budget motion (see section 126).

Borrowing

121 Borrowing by Welsh Ministers
(F158) (1) The Welsh Ministers may borrow from the Secretary of State—
(a) any amounts it appears to them are required by them for the purpose of meeting a temporary excess of sums paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund over sums paid into that Fund,
(b) any amounts it appears to them are required by them for the purpose of providing a working balance in the Welsh Consolidated Fund, and
(c) any amounts which in accordance with rules determined by the Treasury are required by the Welsh Ministers to meet current expenditure because of a shortfall in receipts from devolved taxes, or from income tax charged by virtue of a Welsh rate resolution, against forecast receipts.

(1A) The Welsh Ministers may, with the approval of the Treasury, borrow by way of loan [F159] or by the issue of bonds (but not bonds transferable by delivery) any amounts it appears to them are required by them for the purpose of meeting capital expenditure.

(1B) An amount is required for the purpose of meeting capital expenditure if the expenditure would be capital expenditure for the purposes of accounts under section 131.

(2) Amounts borrowed under this section [F160] from the Secretary of State must be repaid to the Secretary of State at such times and by such methods, and interest on such sums must be paid to the Secretary of State at such rates and at such times, as the Treasury may from time to time determine.

(3) Sums required for the repayment of, or the payment of interest on, amounts borrowed under this section are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

F161 The Secretary of State may by order made with the consent of the Treasury amend subsection (1A) so as to vary the means by which the Welsh Ministers may borrow money.

(5) No order is to be made under subsection (4) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.

122A Lending for capital expenditure

(1) The aggregate at any time outstanding in respect of the principal of amounts borrowed under section 121(1A) shall not exceed £1,000 million.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order made with the consent of the Treasury substitute for the amount for the time being specified in subsection (1) such amount as may be specified in the order.

(3) An amount substituted under subsection (2) may be more or less than the amount for which it is substituted but may not be less than £1,000 million.

(4) No order is to be made under subsection (2) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.

(5) A person lending money to a member of the Welsh Government—

(a) is not bound to enquire whether the member of the Welsh Government has power to borrow the money, and

(b) is not to be prejudiced by the absence of any such power.

(6) The Welsh Ministers may not mortgage or charge any of their property as security for money which they have borrowed under section 121(1A).

This is subject to section 121(3) (charging of sums on the Welsh Consolidated Fund).

(7) Security given in breach of subsection (6) is unenforceable.
(a) loans made by the Secretary of State under section 121 or treated as made by paragraph 11(6) of Schedule 3 or paragraph 44(6) of Schedule 11, and
(b) repayments and payments of interest made to the Secretary of State in respect of those loans.

(2) The Secretary of State must send accounts under subsection (1) relating to a financial year to the Comptroller and Auditor General no later than five months after the end of the financial year.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor General must—
   (a) examine, certify and report on accounts sent under subsection (2), and

(b) requires or authorises the payment of sums out of money provided by Parliament, does not have effect if the sums are payable by any of the relevant persons.

125 Annual Budget motions

(1) For each financial year there is to be moved in the Assembly a motion (referred to in this Act as an “annual Budget motion”) for the purpose of authorising—
   (a) the amount of resources which may be used in the financial year by the relevant persons, or pursuant to a relevant enactment, for the services and purposes specified in the motion,
   (b) the amount of resources accruing to the relevant persons in the financial year which may be retained by them to be used for the services and purposes so specified (rather than being paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund), and
   (c) the amount which may be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in the financial year to the relevant persons, or for use pursuant to a relevant enactment, for the services and purposes so specified.

(2) An annual Budget motion may only be moved by the First Minister or a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48.

(3) An annual Budget motion must be accompanied by a written statement made by the Welsh Ministers showing—
   (a) the total amount of the payments which they estimate will be made for the financial year under section 118(1),
   (b) the total amount of the payments which they estimate will be made to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General for the financial year by Ministers of the Crown and government departments, and
   (c) the total amount of the payments which they estimate will be made to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General for the financial year otherwise than by a Minister of the Crown or government department.

(4) In this Act a reference to the use of resources is a reference to their expenditure, consumption or reduction in value.

126 Supplementary Budget motions

(1) For any financial year there may be moved in the Assembly one or more motions (referred to in this Act as a “supplementary Budget motion”) for either or both of the purposes specified in subsections (2) and (3).

(2) A supplementary Budget motion may approve a variation in any one or more of the following—
(a) the amount of resources authorised to be used in the financial year by a relevant person, or pursuant to a relevant enactment, for any service or purpose,
(b) the amount of resources accruing to a relevant person in the financial year and authorised to be retained by that person to be used for any service or purpose, and
(c) the amount authorised to be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in the financial year to a relevant person, or for use pursuant to a relevant enactment, for any service or purpose.

(3) A supplementary Budget motion may authorise any one or more of the following—
(a) the amount of resources which may be used in the financial year by a relevant person, or pursuant to a relevant enactment, for a service or purpose specified in the motion,
(b) the amount of resources accruing to a relevant person in the financial year which may be retained by that person to be used for a service or purpose so specified, and
(c) the amount which may be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in the financial year to a relevant person, or for use pursuant to a relevant enactment, for a service or purpose so specified.

(4) A supplementary Budget motion for any financial year may be expressed to have effect from a time before it is made; but that time may not be earlier than—
(a) the date on which the last supplementary Budget motion for the financial year was passed, or
(b) (if none has) the date on which the annual Budget motion for the financial year was passed.

(5) A supplementary Budget motion may only be moved by the First Minister or a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48.

126A Inclusion in Budget motions of resources used by designated bodies

(1) A Budget motion for a financial year may include information relating to resources expected to be used by any body that is a designated body in relation to a relevant person.

(2) For the purposes of this section a body is a “designated” body in relation to a relevant person if—
(a) it is designated in relation to the relevant person by an order made by the Welsh Ministers, or
(b) it falls within a description of body designated in relation to the relevant person by such an order.

(3) A body, or a description of body, may be designated in relation to a relevant person for a particular financial year or generally.

(4) If the Welsh Ministers expect the use of resources by a body in a financial year to involve payments out of a relevant Consolidated Fund to or for the benefit of the body, they may not make an order under which the body would be a designated body for the year unless the Treasury have consented to the making of the order.

(5) “ A relevant Consolidated Fund ” means—
(a) the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom,
(b) the Scottish Consolidated Fund, or
(c) the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland.

(6) The Welsh Ministers must, where they think it appropriate, consult the Treasury before designating a body or a description of body.

(7) In determining for any purpose whether a body has a particular relationship with a relevant person (for example, whether it is controlled by, or otherwise dependent on, the person), the following must be disregarded—
   (a) the fact that the provisions of a Budget motion relating to the relevant person in respect of a financial year include information relating to the body, and
   (b) the fact that the relevant person’s accounts for a financial year prepared under this or any other Act include information relating to the body.

(8) An order under subsection (2) is to be made by statutory instrument.

(9) A statutory instrument containing an order under that subsection is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the National Assembly for Wales.

(10) But subsection (9) does not apply if a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the National Assembly for Wales.]

F170 S. 126A inserted (11.11.2010) by Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (c. 25), ss. 44(2), 52(2); S.I. 2010/2703, art. 2(c)

127 Appropriation without Budget resolution

(1) If a Budget resolution for a financial year is not passed before the beginning of the financial year, the following are deemed to have been authorised by a Budget resolution of the Assembly for that year—
   (a) the use in the year for any service or purpose of the relevant percentage of the amount of the resources authorised to be used in the preceding financial year for the service or purpose,
   (b) the retention in the year for use for any service or purpose of the relevant percentage of the amount of the resources authorised to be retained in the previous financial year for use for the service or purpose, and
   (c) the payment out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in the year for any service or purpose of the relevant percentage of the amount authorised to be paid out of the Fund in the previous financial year for the service or purpose.

(2) “The relevant percentage” is—
   (a) where a Budget resolution for the financial year is not passed before the end of July in the financial year, 95%, and
   (b) otherwise, 75%.
128 Contingencies

(1) This section applies where it is proposed—
   (a) that resources be used in any financial year by any of the relevant persons, or pursuant to a relevant enactment, otherwise than as authorised by virtue of sections 125 to 127, or
   (b) that amounts be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in the year to the relevant persons, or for use pursuant to a relevant enactment, otherwise than as authorised by virtue of those sections.

(2) The resources may be so used, or the amounts may be so issued, only with the authority of the Welsh Ministers.

(3) The Welsh Ministers may authorise the use of resources, or the payment of amounts, only if they consider that—
   (a) the use of the resources, or the payment of the amounts, is necessary in the public interest, and
   (b) it is not reasonably practicable, for reasons of urgency, for a motion to be moved under section 125 or 126 to authorise the use of the resources or the payment of the amounts.

(4) The aggregate amount of resources which the Welsh Ministers may at any time authorise to be used under this section by any person, or pursuant to any enactment, in any financial year must not exceed 0.5 per cent of—
   (a) the aggregate amount of the resources which, at the time, have been authorised by virtue of sections 125 and 126 to be used by that person, or pursuant to that enactment, in that financial year, or
   (b) (if none have) the aggregate amount of the resources which were so authorised to be used by that person, or pursuant to that enactment, in the immediately preceding financial year.

(5) The aggregate amount which the Welsh Ministers may at any time authorise to be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund under this section to any person, or for use pursuant to any enactment, in any financial year must not exceed 0.5 per cent of—
   (a) the aggregate of the amounts which, at the time, have been authorised by virtue of sections 125 and 126 to be paid to that person, or for use pursuant to that enactment, in that financial year, or
   (b) (if none have) the aggregate of the amounts which were so authorised to be paid to that person, or for use pursuant to that enactment, in the immediately preceding financial year.

(6) The use of resources, or the payment of amounts, authorised by the Welsh Ministers in accordance with this section is deemed to have been authorised by a Budget resolution of the Assembly.

(7) Where the Welsh Ministers authorise the use of resources or the payment of amounts under this section, they must, as soon as possible, lay before the Assembly a report setting out—
(a) the resources authorised to be used or the amounts authorised to be paid,
(b) the services or purposes for which the resources were authorised to be used, or the amounts were authorised to be paid, and
(c) why they considered it to be necessary to authorise the use of the resources, or the payment of the amounts, under this section.

129 Approvals to draw

(1) The Auditor General must grant approvals to draw payments out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund from time to time at the request of the Welsh Ministers.

(2) An approval to draw may only be granted if, in the Auditor General’s opinion, the proposed payment out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund would comply with section 124.

(3) A request for the grant of an approval to draw is to be made in any manner which the Welsh Ministers, with the approval of the Auditor General, decide to adopt.

(4) Where an approval to draw is granted the Paymaster General must make the funds available to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General, the Assembly Commission, the Wales Audit Office or the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales (as appropriate).

(5) The Paymaster General must make available to—
   (a) the Auditor General, and
   (b) the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers, a daily statement regarding all the issues made out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in respect of sums charged on that Fund and other payments out of it.

(6) For the purposes of this Act the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers is the Permanent Secretary to the Welsh Government.

(7) But the Treasury may designate another member of the staff of the Welsh Government to be the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers if and for so long as—
   (a) the Permanent Secretary to the Welsh Government is incapable of discharging the responsibilities of principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers, or
   (b) the office of Permanent Secretary to the Welsh Government is vacant.

(8) In this section “term-permanent-secretary-to-the-welsh-assembly-governmentPermanent Secretary to the Welsh Government” means the person appointed in accordance with section 52 to be the head of the staff of the Welsh Government (whether or not that person is known by the title of Permanent Secretary to the Welsh Government).

[117]130A  Financial control, accounts and audit

(1) Welsh legislation must provide—

(a) for proper accounts to be prepared by the First Minister, the Welsh Ministers, the Counsel General, the Assembly Commission and by other persons to whom sums are paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund, of their expenditure and receipts,

(b) for the Welsh Ministers to prepare an account of payments into and out of the Fund,

(c) for the Auditor General for Wales to exercise, or ensure the exercise by other persons of, the functions mentioned in subsection (2),

(d) for access by persons exercising those functions to such documents as they may reasonably require,

(e) for members of the staff of the Welsh Government and Assembly Commission designated for the purpose to be answerable to the Assembly in respect of the expenditure and receipts of each part of the Welsh Government or Assembly Commission, and

(f) for the publication of Assembly accounts and of reports on such accounts and for the laying of such accounts and reports before the Assembly.

(2) The functions referred to in subsection (1)(c) are—

(a) issuing credits for the payment of sums out of the Fund;

(b) examining Assembly accounts (which includes determining whether sums paid out of the Fund have been paid out and applied in accordance with section 124), and certifying and reporting on them;

(c) carrying out examinations into the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the First Minister, the Welsh Ministers, the Counsel General, the Assembly Commission and other persons to whom sums are paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund have used their resources in discharging their functions.

(3) Standing orders must provide for the consideration by the Assembly of accounts and reports laid before it in pursuance of subsection (1)(f).

(4) Welsh legislation may make further provision for the purpose of ensuring that devolved Welsh authorities that receive sums derived from the Fund are accountable.

That provision may, in particular, include provision for a devolved Welsh authority to which subsection (1)(a) does not apply to be accountable for its expenditure and receipts in respect of functions for which it receives sums derived from the Fund.
(5) Persons (other than the Auditor General for Wales) charged with the exercise of any function mentioned in subsection (2) or other like function conferred by Welsh legislation are not subject, in the exercise of that or any ancillary function, to the direction or control of any member of the Welsh Government or of the Assembly.

(6) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to accounts prepared by the Auditor General for Wales.

(7) This section does not require Welsh legislation to impose any requirement that is imposed by any other legislation.

(8) In this section—

“"Assembly accounts"” means any accounts prepared in pursuance of subsection (1)(a) or (b);
“"Welsh legislation"” means provision made by or under an Act of the Assembly, and “"other legislation"” means provision made by any other enactment.

132 Account relating to Welsh Consolidated Fund

(1) The Welsh Ministers must, for each financial year, prepare an account of the payments into and out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(2) The account must be prepared in accordance with directions given to the Welsh Ministers by the Treasury.

(3) The directions which the Treasury may give under subsection (2) include, in particular, directions as to—
(a) the information to be contained in the account and the manner in which it is to be presented,
(b) the methods and principles in accordance with which the account is to be prepared, and
(c) the additional information (if any) that is to accompany the account.

(4) Any account which the Welsh Ministers are directed under this section to prepare for any financial year must be submitted by the Welsh Ministers to the Auditor General no later than 30th November in the following financial year.

(5) The Auditor General must—
(a) examine and certify any account submitted under this section, and
(b) no later than four months after the account is submitted, lay before the Assembly a copy of it as certified by the Auditor General together with the Auditor General’s report on it.

(6) In examining an account submitted under this section the Auditor General must, in particular, be satisfied—
(a) that any payment out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund to which the account relates was paid out in compliance with section 124 or 130, and
(b) that money which is required to be paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund has been paid into that Fund.

133 Accounting officers for Welsh Ministers

(1) The principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers has—
   (a) in relation to the accounts of the Welsh Ministers and the finances of the Welsh Ministers and the Counsel General, and
   (b) in relation to the performance by persons designated as accounting officers in pursuance of any provision of this Act of their responsibilities as accounting officers, the responsibilities which are from time to time specified by the Treasury.

(2) The principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers may designate other members of the staff of the Welsh Government as additional accounting officers.

(3) An additional accounting officer has, in relation to such of the accounts of the Welsh Ministers and the finances of the Welsh Ministers and the Counsel General as may be specified by the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers, the responsibilities which are from time to time specified by the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers.

134 Accounts of subsidiaries of Welsh Ministers

(1) For the purposes of the examination by the Auditor General of any accounts of the Welsh Ministers the Auditor General—
   (a) has a right of access at all reasonable times to every document relating to the accounts of any subsidiary of the Welsh Ministers (whether or not the accounts of the Welsh Ministers being examined relate to the financial affairs and transactions of the subsidiary),
   (b) is entitled to require from any person holding or accountable for any of those documents any assistance, information or explanation which the Auditor General reasonably thinks necessary for those purposes, and
   (c) may require any subsidiary of the Welsh Ministers to provide the Auditor General at times specified by the Auditor General with accounts of such of the subsidiary's transactions as the Auditor General may specify.
(2) The Treasury may, by directions given to a subsidiary of the Welsh Ministers, require the subsidiary to include in any accounts which the subsidiary prepares (under, for example, the law relating to companies or charities) such additional information as may be specified in the directions.

(3) The inclusion of information in any accounts in compliance with such directions does not constitute a breach of any provision which prohibits, or does not authorise, the inclusion in the accounts of that information.

(4) In this section “subsidiary of the Welsh Ministers” means—
   (a) any body corporate or other undertaking in relation to which, if the Welsh Ministers were an undertaking, the Welsh Ministers would be a parent undertaking,
   (b) any trust of which the Welsh Ministers are settlors, or
   (c) any charitable institution of which the Welsh Ministers are founders but which is neither a body corporate nor a trust.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a)— “undertaking” has the meaning given by \[F173\] section 1161(1) of the Companies Act 2006, and “parent undertaking” is to be construed in accordance with \[F174\] section 1162 of that Act.

Whole of Government of Wales accounts

141 Whole of government accounts: Welsh Ministers

(1) This section applies in respect of a financial year for which the Treasury make arrangements with the Welsh Ministers under section 10(8) of the Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 (c. 20) (whole of government accounts: consolidation of Welsh accounts).

(2) The Welsh Ministers must prepare a set of accounts for the group of bodies which provide information to the Welsh Ministers in accordance with the arrangements under section 10(8).

(3) Accounts prepared under this section may include information referring wholly or partly to activities which—
   (a) are not activities of bodies falling within subsection (2), but
   (b) appear to the Welsh Ministers to be activities of a public nature.

(4) The accounts must contain such information in such form as the Treasury may direct.

(5) The Treasury must exercise the power under subsection (4) with a view to ensuring that the accounts—
   (a) present a true and fair view, and
   (b) conform to generally accepted accounting practice subject to such adaptations as are necessary in the context.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a) and (b) the Treasury must in particular—
   (a) have regard to any relevant guidance issued by the Accounting Standards Board Limited or any other body prescribed for the purposes of section 464 of the Companies Act 2006 (accounting standards) or to international accounting standards (as defined in section 474 of that Act), and
   (b) require the accounts to include, subject to paragraph (a), a statement of financial performance, a statement of financial position and a cash flow statement.

(7) Any accounts which the Welsh Ministers are required to prepare under this section for any financial year must be submitted by the Welsh Ministers to the Auditor General no later than 30th November in the following financial year.

(8) But the Welsh Ministers may by order substitute another date for the date for the time being specified in subsection (7).

(9) No order may be made under subsection (7) unless the Welsh Ministers have consulted—
   (a) the Treasury, and
   (b) the Auditor General.

(10) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (7) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.
Functions of Auditor General

(1) The Auditor General must examine accounts submitted under section 141 with a view to being satisfied that they present a true and fair view.

(2) Where the Auditor General has conducted an examination of accounts under subsection (1), the Auditor General must—
   (a) certify them and issue a report, and
   (b) no later than four months after the accounts are submitted, lay before the Assembly a copy of them as certified by the Auditor General together with the Auditor General's report on them.

(3) A person who acts as auditor for the purposes of section 10(2)(c) or (8)(c) of the Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 (c. 20) must give the Auditor General such information and explanations as the Auditor General may reasonably require for the purposes of this section.

Part 6

Miscellaneous and Supplementary

Welsh public records

146 Status of Welsh public records

(1) Welsh public records are not public records for the purposes of the Public Records Act 1958 (c. 51).

(2) But that Act has effect in relation to Welsh public records (as if they were public records for the purpose of that Act) until an order under section 147 imposes a duty to preserve them on the Welsh Ministers (or a member of the staff of the Welsh Government).

(3) Subsection (2) applies to Welsh public records whether or not, apart from subsection (1), they would be public records for the purposes of the Public Records Act 1958.

Textual Amendments

F52 Words in Act omitted (17.2.2015) by virtue of Wales Act 2014 (c. 29), s. 4(2)(a) (with s. 4(3))
147  Transfer of responsibility

(1) The Secretary of State may by order make provision—

(a) imposing or conferring on the Welsh Ministers (or a member of the staff of the Welsh Government) functions relating to Welsh public records (including, in particular, functions of preserving them and of making them available for inspection by the public), and

(b) imposing on persons responsible for Welsh public records duties relating to the selection of such records for permanent preservation, the safe-keeping of such records and their transfer to a place specified in, or appointed under, the order.

(2) An order under this section may (in particular) make in relation to Welsh public records provision analogous to that made by the Public Records Act 1958 (c. 51) in relation to records which are public records for the purposes of that Act.

(3) An order under this section may make such modifications of—

(a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or

(b) any other instrument or document, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the order.

(4) An order under this section which imposes on the Welsh Ministers (or a member of the staff of the Welsh Government) a duty to preserve Welsh public records, or Welsh public records of a particular description, must include provision for the Secretary of State to make such arrangements as appear appropriate for the transfer of Welsh public records, or Welsh public records of that description, which are in—

(a) the Public Record Office, or

(b) a place of deposit appointed under the Public Records Act 1958, to a place specified in, or appointed under, the order.

(5) No order is to be made under this section unless the Secretary of State has consulted the Welsh Ministers.

(6) No order under this section which contains provisions in the form of amendments or repeals of enactments contained in an Act is to be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
Meaning of “Welsh public records”

(1) The following are Welsh public records—
   (a) administrative and departmental records belonging to Her Majesty which are records of the Welsh Government,
   (b) administrative and departmental records of the Auditor General,
   (c) administrative and departmental records belonging to Her Majesty which are records of or held by the Welsh Revenue Authority,
   (d) administrative and departmental records belonging to Her Majesty which are records of or held in any government department which is wholly or mainly concerned with Welsh affairs,
   (e) administrative and departmental records belonging to Her Majesty which are records of any office, commission or other body or establishment under Her Majesty's Government which is wholly or mainly concerned with Welsh affairs in a field or fields in which the Welsh Ministers have functions, or the First Minister or the Counsel General has functions,
   (f) administrative and departmental records of the bodies and establishments specified in subsection (2) (but not records of health service hospitals in Wales which are of the descriptions excepted from being public records for the purposes of the Public Records Act 1958 (c. 51) in the case of health service hospitals in England), and
   (g) any other description of records (other than records of the Assembly or the Assembly Commission or records of any court or tribunal or held in any department of the Senior Courts) which is specified by order made by the Secretary of State.

(2) The bodies and establishments referred to in subsection (1)(e) are—
   (a) the Care Council for Wales,
   (b) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
   (c) the Curriculum and Assessment Authority for Wales,
   (d) Family Practitioner Committees for localities in Wales,
   (e) the Further Education Funding Council for Wales,
   (f) the General Teaching Council for Wales,
   (g) health service hospitals, within the meaning of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006, in Wales,
   (h) the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales,
   (i) the Local Government Boundary Commission for Wales,
(j) the National Council for Education and Training for Wales,
(k) National Health Service Authorities for districts or localities in Wales, or for areas in or consisting of Wales, including National Health Service trusts all of whose hospitals, establishments and facilities are situated in Wales,
(l) the Qualifications, Curriculum and Assessment Authority for Wales,
(m) the Wales Centre for Health, and
(n) the Welsh Board of Health.

(3) An order under subsection (1)(f) may be made in relation to a description of records—
(a) which (immediately before the order is made) are public records for the purposes of the Public Records Act 1958, or
(b) which (at that time) are not public records for those purposes.

(4) No order under subsection (1)(f) may be made—
(a) in relation to records within paragraph (a) of subsection (3), unless the Secretary of State has consulted the Welsh Ministers, and
(b) in relation to records within paragraph (b) of that subsection, without the agreement of the Welsh Ministers.

(5) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (1)(f) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(6) In this section “records” includes—
(a) written records, and
(b) records conveying information by any other means.

148A Renewable energy incentive schemes

(1) The Secretary of State must consult the Welsh Ministers before—
   (a) establishing a renewable energy incentive scheme that applies in Wales, or
   (b) amending such a scheme as it relates to Wales.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to amendments that appear to the Secretary of State to be minor or made only for technical or administrative reasons; and the Secretary of State is not to be taken to establish or amend a scheme by exercising a power under a scheme, other than a power that is exercisable subject to any parliamentary procedure.

(3) Subsection (1) does not require the Secretary of State to consult the Welsh Ministers about any levy in connection with a renewable energy incentive scheme.

(4) In this section a “renewable energy incentive scheme” means any scheme, whether statutory or otherwise, that provides an incentive to generate, or facilitate the generation of, electricity or heat from sources of energy other than fossil fuel or nuclear fuel. This includes provision made by or under the following so far as they relate to the generation of electricity or heat from sources of energy other than fossil fuel or nuclear fuel—
   (a) sections 6 to 26 of the Energy Act 2013 (contracts for difference);
   (b) sections 41 to 43 of the Energy Act 2008 (feed-in tariffs for small-scale generation of electricity);
   (c) section 100 of that Act (renewable heat incentives);
   (d) sections 32 to 32Z2 of the Electricity Act 1989 (renewables obligations or certificate purchase obligations).

Miscellaneous

149 Resolution of devolution issues

For provision about the resolution of devolution issues see Schedule 9.
150 Power to make consequential provision

(1) The Secretary of State may by order make such provision as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of—

(a) any provision made by an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly,
(b) any provision of subordinate legislation made, or purporting to be made, under an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly,
(c) any provision of subordinate legislation made, or purporting to be made, by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, or
(d) any provision of subordinate legislation made, or purporting to be made, by any other person (not being a Minister of the Crown) in the exercise of a function conferred or imposed by Act of Parliament where the statutory instrument (or a draft of the statutory instrument) containing the subordinate legislation is required to be laid before the Assembly.

(2) An order under this section may make such modifications of—

(a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
(b) any other instrument or document, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

(3) An order under this section may not make provision with respect to matters within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

(4) An order under this section may make provision having retrospective effect.

(5) No order under this section which contains provisions in the form of amendments or repeals of enactments contained in an Act is to be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(6) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(7) In subsection (1) “made” includes confirmed or approved.

151 Power to remedy ultra vires acts

(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as Her Majesty considers appropriate in consequence of—

(a) an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly, or any provision of an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly, which is not, or may not be, within the Assembly's legislative competence, or

(b) any purported exercise by any person of a function conferred or imposed by or under an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly which is not, or may not be, an exercise or proper exercise of that function.

(2) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of—

(a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or

(b) any other instrument or document,

as Her Majesty considers appropriate.

(3) An Order in Council under this section may make provision having retrospective effect.

(4) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section which contains provisions in the form of amendments or repeals of enactments contained in an Act unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(5) A statutory instrument containing an Order in Council under this section is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

153 Power to vary retrospective decisions

(1) This section applies where any court or tribunal decides—

   (a) that an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly, or any provision of an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly, is outside the Assembly’s legislative competence,

   (b) that any provision of subordinate legislation made, or purporting to be made, under an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly is outside the powers under which it was, or purported to be, made, or

   (c) that any provision of subordinate legislation made, or purporting to be made, by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General is outside the powers under which it was, or purported to be, made.

(2) The court or tribunal may make an order—

   (a) removing or limiting any retrospective effect of the decision, or

   (b) suspending the effect of the decision for any period and on any conditions to allow the defect to be corrected.

(3) In determining whether to make an order under this section, the court or tribunal must (among other things) have regard to the extent to which persons who are not parties to the proceedings would otherwise be adversely affected by the decision.

(4) Where a court or tribunal is considering whether to make an order under this section, it must order notice (or intimation) of that fact to be given to the persons specified in subsection (5) (unless a party to the proceedings).

(5) The persons mentioned in subsection (4) are—

   (a) in relation to proceedings in England and Wales, the Attorney General and the Counsel General,

   (b) in relation to proceedings in Scotland, the Advocate General for Scotland, and

   (c) in relation to proceedings in Northern Ireland, the Advocate General for Northern Ireland.

(6) A person to whom notice (or intimation) is given in pursuance of subsection (4) may take part as a party in the proceedings, so far as they relate to the making of the order.

(7) In deciding any question as to costs or expenses, the court or tribunal may—

   (a) take account of any additional expense which it considers that any party to the proceedings has incurred as a result of the participation of any person in pursuance of subsection (6), and

   (b) award the whole or part of the additional expense as costs or expenses to the party who incurred it (whether or not it makes an order under this section and whatever the terms of any such order it does make).

(8) Any power to make provision for regulating the procedure before any court or tribunal includes power to make provision for the purposes of this section including, in particular, provision for determining the manner in which and the time within which any notice (or intimation) is to be given.

(9) In subsection (1) “made” includes confirmed or approved.

[F204 157A "Devolved Welsh authority"

(1) In this Act “devolved Welsh authority” means—

(a) a public authority that meets the conditions in subsection (2),

(b) a public authority that is specified, or is of a description specified, in Schedule 9A (whether or not it meets those conditions), or

(c) the governing body of an institution within the higher education sector (within the meaning of section 91(5) of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992) whose activities are carried on, or principally carried on, in Wales.
(2) A public authority meets the conditions in this section if its functions—
   (a) are exercisable only in relation to Wales, and
   (b) are wholly or mainly functions that do not relate to reserved matters.

(3) In determining for the purposes of this section whether functions of a public authority are exercisable only in relation to Wales, no account is taken of any function that—
   (a) is exercisable otherwise than in relation to Wales, and
   (b) could (apart from this paragraph) be conferred or imposed by provision falling within the Assembly's legislative competence (by virtue of section 108A(3)).

(4) Where the conditions in subsection (2) are relevant to determining whether a provision of an Act of the Assembly is within the Assembly's legislative competence, the time for assessing whether those conditions are met is the time when the Act is passed.

(5) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend Schedule 9A—
   (a) so as to remove or revise an entry, or
   (b) so as to add or substitute a public authority whose functions—
      (i) are exercisable wholly or mainly in relation to Wales, and
      (ii) are wholly or mainly functions that do not relate to reserved matters.

(6) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this section unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament and the Assembly.

(7) Subsection (6) does not apply to a statutory instrument containing an Order in Council that only makes provision for—
   (a) the omission of an entry where the authority concerned has ceased to exist, or
   (b) the variation of an entry in consequence of a change of name or transfer of functions.

Such an Order in Council is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(8) In this section “public authority” means a body, office or holder of an office that has functions of a public nature.

158 Interpretation

(1) In this Act (except where the context otherwise requires)— “[^76EU]” means—
   (a) all the rights, powers, liabilities, obligations and restrictions from time to time created or arising by or under the[^76EU] Treaties, and
   (b) all the remedies and procedures from time to time provided for by or under the[^76EU] Treaties,
“the Convention rights” has the same meaning as in the Human Rights Act 1998 (c. 42),
“cross-border body” means any body (including a government department) or undertaker exercising functions, or carrying on activities, in or with respect to Wales (or any part of Wales) and anywhere else,
“enactment” includes an Assembly Measure, an Act of the Assembly and subordinate legislation (but see also subsection (2)),
“English border area” means a part of England adjoining Wales (but not the whole of England),
“financial year” means the twelve months ending with 31st March,
“function” means power or duty,
“government department” means any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, “international obligations” means any international obligations of the United Kingdom other than obligations to observe and implement law or the Convention rights,
“Minister of the Crown” includes the Treasury,
“modifications” includes amendments, repeals and revocations,
“property” includes rights and interests of any description,
“subordinate legislation” has the same meaning as in the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30) (including an instrument made under an Assembly Measure or Act of the Assembly), “tribunal” means any tribunal in which legal proceedings may be brought,
“Wales” includes the sea adjacent to Wales out as far as the seaward boundary of the territorial sea, and Welsh zone” means the sea adjacent to Wales which is—
(a) within British fishery limits (that is, the limits set by or under section 1 of the Fishery Limits Act 1976), and
(b) specified in an Order in Council under section 58 or an order under subsection (3).

(2) In sections 95(3), 109(2), 116C(2) and 151(2) “enactment” includes an Act of the Scottish Parliament and an instrument made under such an Act.

(3) The Secretary of State may by order determine, or make provision for determining, for the purposes of the definitions of “Wales” and the “Welsh zone”, any boundary between waters which are to be treated as parts of the sea adjacent to Wales, or sea within British fishery limits adjacent to Wales, and those which are not.

(4) An Order in Council under section 58 may include any provision that may be included in an order under subsection (3).

(5) No order is to be made under subsection (3) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(6) Section 13 of the National Audit Act 1983 (c. 44) (interpretation of references to the Committee of Public Accounts) applies for the purposes of this Act as for those of that Act.

160 Minor and consequential amendments

(1) For minor and consequential amendments see Schedule 10.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order make such modifications of—
   (a) any enactment contained in an Act passed before or in the same session as this Act, or
   (b) any enactment contained in an instrument made before the passing of this Act or in the session in which this Act is passed, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of this Act.

(3) No order containing provision under subsection (2)(a) is to be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(4) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (2) is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Commencement Information

1131 S. 160(1) in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5)); s. 160(2)-4 in force at Royal Assent, see s. 161(2)

161 Commencement

(1) Subject as follows, this Act comes into force immediately after the ordinary election under section 3 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) held in 2007 (referred to in this Act as “the 2007 election”).

(2) The following provisions come into force on the day on which this Act is passed—paragraphs 5, 6 and 12 of Schedule 2, sections 95 and 96 and Schedule 5,
   section 109 and Schedule 7,
   section 119 and the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 81 of the Government of Wales Act 1998,
   section 120(3) and (7),
   section 125 and the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 86 of the Government of Wales Act 1998, sections 157 to 159,
   section 160(2) to (4),
   the amendment made by paragraph 61 of Schedule 10 in section 13 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c. 41), this section,
   section 162 and Schedule 11, the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 12(1)(d) of the Government of Wales Act 1998, and sections 164 to 166.

(3) The following provisions come into force on 1st April 2007—sections 117 and 118 and the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 80 of the Government of Wales Act 1998, section 120(1) and (2), (4) to (6) and (8) and the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 84 of that Act, sections 121 and 122 and the repeal by Schedule 12 of section 82 of that Act, section 124 and the repeal by Schedule 12 of sections 85(1) and 89 of that Act, sections 126, sections 128 and 129, and the amendments in the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 (c. 65), the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (c. 41) and the Housing Act 1988 (c. 50) made by Schedule 10.

(4) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (6), the following provisions come into force immediately after the end of the initial period—
(a) any provision of this Act so far as relating to functions of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission,
(b) any provision of this Act so far as relating to the Auditor General or the Comptroller and Auditor General,
(c) any other provision consisting of an amendment made in the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) by Schedule 10, and (d) the repeal by Schedule 12 of provisions falling to be repealed in consequence of any provision within paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

(5) In this Act “the initial period” means the period—
(a) beginning with the day of the poll at the 2007 election, and
(b) ending with the day on which the first appointment is made under section 46.

(6) The repeals by Schedule 12 of each of sections 83, 88, 93(8), 97 and 101A of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (and of the other provisions of that Act so far as relating to them) come into force when the section has been complied with for the financial year ending with 31st March 2007 (and earlier financial years); and sections 123, 131, 132 and 141 do not apply for that financial year.
(4) Nothing in Schedule 11 limits the power conferred by subsection (2); and such an order may, in particular, make modifications of that Schedule.

(5) Nothing in that Schedule, or in any provision made by virtue of subsection (2), prejudices the operation of sections 16 and 17 of the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30).

(6) No order under subsection (2) which contains provisions in the form of amendments or repeals of any provision contained in any of paragraphs 30 to 35, 50 and 51 of Schedule 11 is to be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (2) is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

163 Repeals and revocations

For repeals and revocations of enactments (including some spent enactments) see Schedule 12.

164 Financial provision

(1) There is to be paid out of money provided by Parliament—
   (a) any expenditure incurred by a Minister of the Crown or government department by virtue of this Act, and
   (b) any increase attributable to this Act in the sums payable under any other Act out of money provided by Parliament.

(2) There are to be paid into the Consolidated Fund any sums received by a Minister of the Crown by virtue of this Act (other than any required to be paid into the National Loans Fund).

165 Extent

(1) The following provisions—
   section 36(7) to (9),
   section 39, and
   section 40(2) and (3), extend only to England and Wales.

(2) The amendments, and repeals and revocations, made by this Act have the same extent as the enactments amended or repealed or revoked.

166 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Government of Wales Act 2006.

Section 27

ASSEMBLY COMMISSION

Membership

1. (1) The Presiding Officer holds office as a member of the Assembly Commission until another person is elected to the office of Presiding Officer unless the Presiding Officer ceases to be an Assembly member otherwise than by reason of a dissolution.

(2) Any other member of the Assembly Commission holds office until another Assembly member is appointed as a replacement unless sub-paragraph (3) applies.

(3) This sub-paragraph applies if the person—

(a) resigns office as a member of the Assembly Commission,

(b) ceases to be an Assembly member otherwise than by reason of a dissolution, or

(c) is removed from office as a member of the Assembly Commission by the Assembly.

Commencement Information

I133 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

Property

2. The Assembly Commission may acquire, hold and dispose of property.

Commencement Information

I134 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))
Staff

3  (1) The Assembly Commission may appoint staff.

(2) The Clerk and the other persons appointed by the Assembly Commission are referred to in this Act as the members of the staff of the Assembly.

(3) Employment as a member of the staff of the Assembly is not employment under the Crown (but see paragraph 12).

(4) The Assembly Commission must ensure that—
   (a) the procedures for the recruitment and selection of persons as members of the staff of the Assembly are broadly in line with those applying to the recruitment and selection of persons as members of the staff of the Welsh Government,
   (b) the terms and conditions of employment of the members of the staff of the Assembly are broadly in line with those of the members of the staff of the Welsh Government.

(5) The Assembly Commission is to pay the salaries and expenses of the members of the staff of the Assembly.

(6) The Assembly Commission may make arrangements for the payment of pensions, gratuities or allowances to or in respect of anyone who has ceased to be a member of the staff of the Assembly.

(7) The Assembly Commission may, in particular, make contributions to, or payments towards the provision of, such pensions, gratuities or allowances.

(8) In Schedule 1 to the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) (employments etc. to which section 1 of the Act applies), in the appropriate place in the list of “Other Bodies” insert—“Employment as a member of the staff of the National Assembly for Wales.”

(9) The Assembly Commission must make payments to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as the Minister for the Civil Service may determine, of such amounts as may be so determined in respect of—
   (a) the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities by virtue of section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 to or in respect of persons who are or have been members of the staff of the Assembly, and
   (b) the expenses incurred in administering those pensions, allowances and gratuities.

Powers

4  (1) The Assembly Commission may do anything which appears to it necessary or appropriate for the purpose of, or in connection with, the discharge of its functions.
(2) That includes, in particular—
   (a) entering into contracts,
   (b) charging for goods or services,
   (c) investing sums not immediately required for the discharge of its functions, and
   (d) accepting gifts.

(3) Where (by will or otherwise) any property is (by whatever words used) expressed to be given to the Assembly, the gift takes effect as a gift to the Assembly Commission.

(4) The Assembly Commission may—
   (a) sell goods or provide services to the public, or
   (b) make arrangements for the sale of goods or the provision of services to the public.

(5) The Assembly Commission may borrow sums in sterling by way of overdraft or otherwise for the purpose of meeting a temporary excess of expenditure over sums otherwise available to meet expenditure.

(6) The Assembly Commission—
   (a) may not borrow money otherwise than under sub-paragraph (5), and
   (b) may borrow under that sub-paragraph only in accordance with special or general directions given by the Assembly to the Assembly Commission under section 27(6).

(7) The Secretary of State may by order provide that the Local Government (Contracts) Act 1997 (c. 65) applies in relation to contracts entered into by the Assembly Commission but subject to any appropriate modifications.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (7) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Commencement Information
1136 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

Promotion of awareness of election system and devolved government

5 (1) The Assembly Commission may promote public awareness of—
   (a) the current or any pending system for the election of Assembly members, and
   (b) the current or any pending system of devolved government in Wales.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph 6 a system is “pending” if arrangements for giving effect to it have been made by any enactment but the arrangements are not yet in force.

(3) The Assembly Commission may exercise its power under sub-paragraph (1) in such manner as it thinks fit but may, in particular, do so by—
   (a) carrying out programmes of education or information to promote public awareness, or
   (b) making grants to other persons or bodies for the purpose of enabling them to carry out such programmes.
(4) Any grant under sub-paragraph (3)(b) may be made subject to such conditions as the Assembly Commission considers appropriate.

6 The Assembly Commission may provide financial assistance to the Electoral Commission for the purpose of enabling it to carry out its functions under section 13(1) of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c. 41) so far as relating to the promotion of public awareness of—

(a) the current or any pending system for the election of Assembly members, and

(b) the current or any pending system of devolved government in Wales.

Delegation

7 The Assembly Commission may delegate any of its functions to—

(a) the Presiding Officer, or

(b) the Clerk.

Commencement Information

1137 This provision in force immediately after “the 2007 election” by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

Principles in accordance with which functions are to be exercised

8 (1) The Assembly Commission must make appropriate arrangements with a view to securing that its functions are exercised with due regard to the principle that there should be equality of opportunity for all people.

(2) In the exercise of the functions of the Assembly Commission due regard must be had to the principle of promoting sustainable development.

F219(3) In the exercise of the functions of the Assembly Commission effect must be given, so far as is both appropriate in the circumstances and reasonably practicable, to the principle that the English and Welsh languages should be treated on a basis of equality.

F219(3) The Assembly Commission must, in the exercise of its functions—

(a) treat the official languages of the Assembly on a basis of equality, and

(b) make arrangements for enabling effect to be given to section 35(1), (1A), (1B) and (1C).

(4) The Assembly Commission must—

(a) adopt, and

(b) publish,

a scheme, to be known as the Assembly Commission's Official Languages Scheme (“the Scheme”), specifying the measures which it proposes to take in order to comply with its duties under sub-paragraph (3).

(5) The Scheme must include (amongst other things) provision about—

(a) simultaneous interpretation from one official language into the other—

(i) in all Assembly proceedings,
(ii) in public meetings conducted on behalf of the Assembly Commission, and

(iii) in such other meetings connected with the functions of the Assembly or the Assembly Commission as may be provided for in the Scheme,

(b) publication of documents in both official languages, subject to any exceptions identified in the Scheme,

(c) public engagement with—

(i) Assembly proceedings, and

(ii) other functions of the Assembly and of the Assembly Commission, through the medium of either of the official languages,

(d) practical measures to foster and continually improve freedom of choice of official language—

(i) on the part of those participating in Assembly proceedings, and

(ii) in relation to the functions of the Assembly or the Assembly Commission generally,

(e) the setting of targets and timescales relating to implementation of the Scheme,

(f) the allocation of responsibilities for implementing the Scheme,

(g) objective means of measuring progress in implementing the Scheme, and

(h) a strategy for ensuring that the staff of the Assembly have, collectively, the language skills necessary to enable the Scheme to be implemented.

(6) The Scheme must include provision relating to the receipt, investigation and consideration of complaints of failures to give effect to provisions of the Scheme.

(7) The Scheme must identify those services provided or to be provided in the official languages and explain how those services are to be provided in accordance with paragraph 8(5).

(8) The Assembly Commission must, in respect of each financial year, lay before the Assembly a report setting out how the Commission has, during the year in question, given effect to the Scheme.

(9) The report prepared by the Assembly Commission under sub-paragraph (8) must include—

(a) whether and to what degree the services referred to in sub-paragraph (7) have been provided, and

(b) if applicable, the reasons why the Commission has not provided any of the services referred to in sub-paragraph (7) in both official languages.

(10) The Assembly Commission—

(a) must review the Scheme as soon as is reasonably practicable after each ordinary general election, or after an extraordinary general election to which section 5(5) applies, and

(b) may, at any time, adopt a new Scheme or an amendment to the existing Scheme.

(11) The Assembly Commission may not adopt a Scheme, or an amendment to a Scheme, unless (whether before or after the coming into force of this paragraph)—

(a) a draft of the Scheme (or of the amendment) has been—

(i) published, and
(ii) laid before the Assembly,

(b) the Assembly Commission has given—

(i) those persons whom the Assembly Commission considers it appropriate to consult in relation to the Scheme, and

(ii) the Assembly, reasonable opportunity to make representations in relation to the draft,

(c) the Assembly Commission has considered any representations made about the draft Scheme (or draft amendment) by—

(i) the persons consulted under sub-paragraph (b)(i), and

(ii) the Assembly, and

(d) the Scheme (or the amendment) incorporating such modifications as the Assembly Commission may, having considered such representations, make, has been laid before and approved by resolution of, the Assembly.

(12) The Assembly Commission must give effect to the Scheme.

   (b) for land held, used or managed by the Assembly Commission, or operations carried out by or on behalf of the Assembly Commission, to be treated as land held, used or managed by, or operations carried out by or on behalf of, the Assembly Commission as a Crown body.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph “Crown body” means a body which is a servant or agent of the Crown, and includes a government department.

(4) A statutory instrument containing an Order in Council under this paragraph is subject to annulment in pursuance of—
   (a) a resolution of either House of Parliament, or
   (b) a resolution of the Assembly.

SCHEDULE 3

TRANSFER ETC. OF FUNCTIONS: FURTHER PROVISIONS

PART 1

FUNCTIONS TRANSFERABLE ETC.

Existing and future functions

1 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), an Order in Council under section 58 may make provision about any function of a Minister of the Crown (including a function conferred or imposed after the passing of this Act).

(2) Such an Order in Council may not make provision about any function conferred or imposed by any provision of this Act except section 4.
Functions relating to culture

2 If and to the extent that any function is exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to the Welsh language or any other aspect of Welsh culture it is to be regarded for the purposes of section 58 as exercisable by the Minister of the Crown in relation to Wales.

Cross-border functions

3 (1) The power conferred by section 58 to make an Order in Council about a function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to Wales includes power to make provision about a function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to—
   (a) a cross-border body, or
   (b) subject to sub-paragraph (2), an English border area.

(2) An Order in Council under [*section 58(1)] may only include provision about a function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to an English border area if—
   (a) the function relates to water resources management, water supply, rivers or other watercourses, control of pollution of water resources, sewerage or land drainage, and
   (b) the Order in Council makes (or another such Order in Council has made) corresponding provision about the function so far as so exercisable in relation to a part of Wales adjoining England or the whole of Wales.

(3) This paragraph does not affect the power conferred by section 58 to make an Order in Council about a function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown in relation to the whole or any part of Wales.

EU obligations

5 Any power of a Minister of the Crown to make subordinate legislation which has been transferred by an Order in Council under section 58 continues to be exercisable by the Minister of the Crown (as it would be had it not been transferred) for the purpose of—

(a) implementing any EU obligation of the United Kingdom,
(b) enabling any such obligation to be implemented,
(c) enabling any rights enjoyed or to be enjoyed by the United Kingdom under or by virtue of EU Treaties to be exercised, or
(d) dealing with matters arising out of or related to any such obligation or rights or the operation of section 2(1) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68).

Commencement Information

I146 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

Agreement or consultation: Ministers and Parliament

6 An Order in Council under section 58 which includes provision—

(a) transferring to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General any function so far as exercisable by a Minister of the Crown ..., or
(b) directing that any function is to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General concurrently with the Minister of the Crown by whom it is exercisable, may provide that (either generally or to such extent as may be specified in the Order in Council) the function may be exercised by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, a Minister of the Crown.

7 (1) This paragraph applies where a function is exercisable by a Minister of the Crown—
   (a) only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, another Minister of the Crown, or
   (b) only with the authorisation of Parliament or either House of Parliament.

   (2) If an Order in Council under section 58 includes provision transferring the function to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General it is to be exercisable free from that requirement unless the Order in Council provides otherwise.

   (3) If an Order in Council under that section includes provision directing that the function is to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General concurrently with the Minister of the Crown by whom it is exercisable, the Order in Council may provide that is to be exercisable free from that requirement.

Agreement or consultation etc.: Assembly and Assembly Commission

8 (1) An Order in Council under section 58 may make provision for a function to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General only with the authorisation of, or after consultation with, the Assembly or the Assembly Commission.

   (2) An Order in Council under section 58 making provision for a function to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General may, by virtue of subsection (3) of that section, require the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General—
      (a) to lay a report before the Assembly, or
      (b) to send documents to the Clerk, in connection with the exercise of the function.

1149 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))

Parliamentary and Assembly procedure

9 (1) This paragraph applies where a function to make subordinate legislation (including a function conferred or imposed by or by virtue of this Act or an Act passed after this Act) is transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by an Order in Council under section 58.

   (2) If, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of any of the descriptions specified in subparagraph (3) applied to its exercise by a Minister of the Crown—
(a) that provision does not apply to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General unless the case is one to which sub-paragraph (6) applies, but

(b) (whether or not the case is one to which that sub-paragraph applies) that provision has effect in relation to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General as if any reference in it to Parliament or either House of Parliament were (or, if it is such a case, included) a reference to the Assembly.

(3) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are—

(a) provision requiring any instrument made in the exercise of the function, or a draft of any such instrument, to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament,

(b) provision for the annulment or approval of any such instrument or draft by or in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament or of both Houses, and

(c) provision prohibiting the making of any such instrument without such approval.

(4) If, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of either of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (5) applied to its exercise by a Minister of the Crown—

(a) that provision does not apply to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General unless the case is one to which sub-paragraph (6) or (7) applies, but

(b) (whether or not the case is one to which either of those sub-paragraphs applies) any instrument made in the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General is (or, if it is such a case, is also) subject to the procedure in the Assembly specified by the standing orders.

(5) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraph (4) are—

(a) provision for any instrument made in the exercise of the function to be a provisional order (that is, an order which requires to be confirmed by Act of Parliament), and

(b) provision requiring any order (within the meaning of the Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act 1945 (9 & 10 Geo. 6 c. 18)) made in the exercise of the function to be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(6) This sub-paragraph applies in any case if the instrument made in the exercise of the function or (if provision specified in sub-paragraph (3)(a) or (b) applied to a draft of an instrument made in the exercise of the function) a draft of an instrument to be so made—

(a) contains subordinate legislation made or to be made by a Minister of the Crown or government department (whether or not jointly with the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General),

(b) contains (or confirms or approves) subordinate legislation relating to an English border area, or

(c) contains (or confirms or approves) subordinate legislation relating to a cross-border body (and not relating only to the exercise of functions, or the carrying on of activities, by the body in or with respect to Wales or a part of Wales).
(7) This sub-paragraph applies in any case if, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of the description specified in sub-paragraph (5)(b) applied to an instrument made in exercise of the function by a Minister of the Crown and the Order in Council provided that—

(a) any order made by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General in the exercise of the function, or

(b) any order so made in circumstances including those of the case, is to be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(8) In this paragraph “make” includes confirm or approve and related expressions (except “made exercisable”) are to be construed accordingly; but an instrument (or draft) does not fall within sub-paragraph (6)(a) just because it contains subordinate legislation made (or to be made) by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General with the agreement of a Minister of the Crown or government department.

10 (1) This paragraph applies where—

(a) a function to make or receive a report or statement (including a function conferred or imposed by or by virtue of an Act passed after this Act) is transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by an Order in Council under section 58, and

(b) immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, any enactment made provision (“provision for Parliamentary laying”) for a report or statement made or received in the exercise of the function to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament by the person making or receiving it.

(2) The provision for Parliamentary laying applies to the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General as if it required the report or statement to be laid before the Assembly instead of before Parliament or either House of Parliament.

(3) In this paragraph references to a report or statement include any other document (except one containing subordinate legislation).

Powers to lend money

11 (1) This paragraph applies where a power to lend money (including a power conferred by or by virtue of an Act passed after this Act) is transferred to the Welsh Ministers... by an Order in Council under section 58; but subject to any provision to the contrary in the Order in Council.

(2) Sub-paragraph (3) applies to any sums which, for the purpose or as a result of the exercise of the power, would be required (apart from that sub-paragraph)—
   (a) to be issued by the Treasury out of the National Loans Fund, or
   (b) to be paid into that Fund.

(3) Those sums are instead—
   (a) to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund, or
   (b) to be paid into that Fund.

(4) The following provisions apply where—
   (a) the power was exercised by a Minister of the Crown before the transfer, and
   (b) the sums required for the exercise of the power were issued by the Treasury out of the National Loans Fund.

(5) Any amount payable by way of repayment of, or of interest on, the loan is to be paid to the Welsh Ministers and into the Welsh Consolidated Fund (instead of to the Minister of the Crown and into the National Loans Fund).

(6) Amounts equal to those which are to be received by the Welsh Ministers in repayment of principal are to be treated as being loans made to the Welsh Ministers by the Secretary of State on the date of the transfer.

(7) Such loans are to be repaid to the Secretary of State at such times and by such methods, and interest is to be paid to the Secretary of State at such rates and at such times, as the Treasury may from time to time determine.

(8) Sums required to be paid to the Secretary of State under sub-paragraph (7) are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(9) Sums received by the Secretary of State under sub-paragraph (7) are to be paid into the National Loans Fund.

(b) functions of a Minister of the Crown or the Marine Management Organisation under the following provisions of the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967—

(i) section 4 (licensing of fishing boats);
(ii) section 4A (licensing of vessels receiving trans-shipped fish);

(c) functions of a Minister of the Crown under the following provisions of the Sea Fisheries Act 1968—

(i) section 5(1) and (2)(a) (regulation of conduct of fishing operations);
(ii) section 7(1)(g) and (2) (appointment of British sea-fishery officers);

(d) functions of a Minister of the Crown under the following provisions of the Fisheries Act 1981—

(i) section 15 (schemes of financial assistance);
(ii) section 16 (administration schemes by Sea Fish Industry Authority);

(e) functions of a Minister of the Crown under section 30(2) of the Fisheries Act 1981 (enforcement of Community rules).

(3) Any provision of section 4 or 4A of the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 requiring the consent of the Treasury to the exercise of a function does not apply in relation to the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers by virtue of this paragraph.

(4) In this paragraph “Welsh fishing boat” means a fishing vessel which is registered in the register maintained under section 8 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995 and whose entry in the register specifies a port in Wales as the port to which the vessel is to be treated as belonging.

3 (1) The powers to make regulations under sections 10ZC, 10ZD and 53 of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (registration of electors), so far as they are exercisable by a Minister of the Crown to make provision about a UK digital service in relation to elections in Wales, are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers concurrently with that Minister.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1)—

“elections in Wales” means—

(a) an election of Assembly members, or
(b) a local government election (within the meaning given by section 203 of the Representation of the People Act 1983) in Wales;

“UK digital service” means a digital service provided by a Minister of the Crown for the registration of electors.

   (b) the carriage of goods by sea where the carriage concerned is wholly or partly by sea adjacent to Wales (within the meaning of that section), are exercisable concurrently or jointly with the Welsh Ministers.

Interpretation

6 For the purposes of the entry relating to the Inheritance Tax Act 1984 in the table in paragraph 1—
   (a) a Welsh interest exists where—
(i) the property in question is located in Wales, or
(ii) the person liable to pay tax has expressed a wish or imposed a condition on his offer of the property in satisfaction of tax that it be displayed in Wales or disposed of or transferred to a body or institution in Wales;

(b) another interest exists where—
   (i) the property in question is located outside Wales, or
   (ii) the person liable to pay tax has expressed a wish or imposed a condition on his offer of the property in satisfaction of tax that it be displayed outside Wales or disposed of or transferred to a body or institution outside Wales.

Section 88

TRANSFERS OF MINISTERIAL PROPERTY, RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES

General transfer of property, rights and liabilities

1 (1) The property, rights and liabilities to which, at the coming into force of an Order in Council under section 58, a Minister of the Crown is entitled or subject in connection with any function exercisable by the Minister of the Crown and transferred by the Order in Council are transferred to and vest in the transferee of the function.

(2) In this Schedule “the transferee”, in relation to a function transferred by an Order in Council under section 58, means whichever of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General may exercise the function by virtue of the Order in Council.

(3) Anything (including legal proceedings) which relates to—
   (a) any function exercisable by a Minister of the Crown which is transferred by an Order in Council under section 58, or
   (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) as the result of the transfer of any such function by such an Order in Council, and which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Minister of the Crown immediately before the coming into force of the Order in Council may be continued by or in relation to the transferee of the function.

(4) Anything which was done by a Minister of the Crown for the purpose of or in connection with—
   (a) any function exercisable by the Minister of the Crown which is transferred by an Order in Council under section 58, or
   (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) as the result of the transfer of any such function by such an Order in Council, and which is in effect immediately before the coming into force of the Order in Council has effect as if done by the transferee of the function.

(5) In any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to—
   (a) any function exercisable by a Minister of the Crown which is transferred by an Order in Council under section 58, or
   (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) as the result of the transfer of any such function by such an Order in Council, and which are made or commenced before the coming into force of the Order in Council, the transferee of the function is substituted for the Minister of the Crown.

(1) An Order in Council under section 58 may provide that all or any of the provisions of paragraph 1—

(a) do not apply in relation to the transfer of functions by the Order in Council or to the property, rights and liabilities connected with the functions,

(b) are to apply only in relation to the transfer of particular functions by the Order in Council or to particular property, rights or liabilities connected with the functions transferred by the Order in Council,

(c) do not apply in relation to the transfer of particular functions by the Order in Council or to particular property, rights or liabilities connected with the functions transferred by the Order in Council, or

(d) apply with modifications in relation to the transfer of a particular function by the Order in Council or to particular property, rights or liabilities connected with the function transferred by the Order in Council in a case where, by virtue of provision made under section 58(2), there is more than one transferee of that function.

(2) Paragraph 1 does not apply to rights or liabilities relating to the employment of persons in Crown employment (as defined in section 191(3) of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18)).
Power to make specific transfers etc.

3 (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the transfer to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General of—
   (a) any specified property, rights or liabilities, or
   (b) property, rights or liabilities of any specified description, to which a Minister of the Crown is entitled or subject.

(2) An order under sub-paragraph (1) may provide for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities to have effect subject to exceptions or reservations specified in or determined under the order.

(3) An order under sub-paragraph (1) may provide—
   (a) for the creation in favour of a Minister of the Crown of interests in, or rights over, property transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
   (b) for the creation in favour of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General of interests in, or rights over, property retained by a Minister of the Crown, or
   (c) for the creation of new rights and liabilities between the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General on the one hand and a Minister of the Crown on the other.

(4) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the continuation by or in relation to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General of—
   (a) any specified thing, or
   (b) anything of a specified description, commenced by or in relation to a Minister of the Crown.

(5) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for—
   (a) any specified thing, or
   (b) anything of a specified description,
   done by a Minister of the Crown to have effect as if done by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General.

(6) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the substitution of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General for any Minister of the Crown in—
   (a) any specified instrument, contract or legal proceedings, or
   (b) any instrument, contract or legal proceedings of a specified description.

(7) An order under this paragraph may be made in consequence of the making of an Order in Council under section 58 or in any other circumstances in which the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to make such an order.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under this paragraph is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Commencement Information

1157 This provision in force immediately after "the 2007 election" by s. 161(1) (subject to s. 161(4)(5))
Supplementary

4  (1) A certificate issued by the Secretary of State that any property has been transferred by—
    (a) paragraph 1, or
    (b) an order under paragraph 3,

    is conclusive evidence of the transfer.

(2) Paragraph 1, and orders under paragraph 3, have effect in relation to property, rights or liabilities to which they apply in spite of any provision (of whatever nature) which would otherwise prevent or restrict the transfer of the property, rights or liabilities.

Provision for and in connection with securing the provision of facilities for post-16 education or training.

Matter 5.12
Provision for and in connection with the establishment and dissolution of—

(a) institutions concerned with the provision of further education, and

(b) bodies that conduct such institutions, including the circumstances in which an educational institution becomes or ceases to be an institution concerned with the provision of further education.

Provision about—

(a) the conduct and functions of such institutions and bodies that conduct such institutions;

(b) the property, rights and liabilities of such institutions and bodies that conduct such institutions;

(c) property held by any person for the purposes of such an institution;

(d) the governance and staff of such institutions.

Matter 5.13
Provision for and in connection with securing collaboration—
(a) between bodies that conduct institutions concerned with the provision of further education, or
(b) between one or more such bodies and other persons or bodies that have functions relating to education or training in Wales, including, in particular, provision for and in connection with the establishment of bodies for the purpose of discharging functions on behalf of one or more persons or bodies that are party to arrangements for collaboration.

Matter 5.14
The provision of financial resources for and in connection with—
(a) education or training provided by institutions concerned with the provision of further education;
(b) post-16 education or training provided otherwise than by such institutions;
(c) the carrying out of research relating to education or training falling within paragraph (a) or (b).

Matter 5.15
The inspection of—
(za) §schools;
(zb) relevant independent educational institutions;]
(a) education or training provided by institutions concerned with the provision of further education;
(b) §pre-16 education or training, or post-16 education or training, provided otherwise than by institutions within paragraphs (za) to (a);]
(c) the training of teachers and specialist teaching assistants for schools;
(d) services of the kinds mentioned in matter 5.8.

Matter 5.16
The provision of advice and information in connection with, and the carrying out of studies in relation to
(a) §pre-16 education or training;
(b) post-16 education or training;
(c) the training of teachers and specialist teaching assistants for schools;
(d) services of the kinds mentioned in matter 5.8.]

Matter 5.17

Matter 5.18
The provision of any of the following for children or young persons—
(a) facilities for social or physical training;
(b) educational activities.

In this matter “children” and “young persons” have the same meaning as in field 15.

Interpretation of this field
Expressions used in this field and in the Education Act 1996 have the same meaning in this field as in that Act.

In this field—
“nursery education” means education suitable for children who have not attained compulsory school age;
“post-16 education” means—
(a) education (other than higher education) suitable to the requirements of persons who are above compulsory school age, and
(b) organised leisure-time occupation connected with such education;
“post-16 training” means—
(a) training suitable to the requirements of persons who are above compulsory school age, and
(b) organised leisure-time occupation connected with such training.
F248 “pre-16 education or training” means education or training suitable to the requirements of persons who are of or below compulsory school age;
“relevant independent educational institution” means an institution other than a school which—
(a) provides part-time education for one or more persons of compulsory school age (“part-time students”) whether or not it also provides full-time education for any person, and
(b) would be an independent school but for the fact that the education provided for the part-time student or students is part-time rather than full-time.
For the purposes of the above definition of “relevant independent educational institution”, an institution provides “part-time” education for a person if—
(a) it provides education for the person, and
(b) the education does not amount to full-time education.
References in this field to an institution concerned with the provision of further education are references to an educational institution, other than a school or an institution within the higher education sector (within the meaning of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992), that is conducted (whether or not exclusively) for the purpose of providing further education.

Field 6: environment
F248 Matter 6.1
Preventing, reducing, collecting, managing, treating or disposing of waste.
This matter does not include—
(a) regulation of any activity in the sea;
(b) regulation of the provision of postal services by a person who holds, or is required to hold, a licence from the Postal Services Commission authorising the person to convey letters from one place to another (whether or not the licence relates to the services).
See below for further provision about what this matter does not include.
Matter 6.2
Disposal of waste in the sea where the waste has been collected, managed or treated on land.
This matter does not include regulation of the following activities—
(a) depositing any substance or object in the sea or on or under the seabed from any vehicle, vessel, aircraft, marine structure or floating container;
(b) depositing any explosive substance or article in the sea or on or under the seabed;
(c) incinerating any substance or object on any vehicle, vessel, marine structure or floating container.
See below for further provision about what this matter does not include.
Matter 6.3
Protecting or improving the environment in relation to pollution.
This matter does not include—
(a) regulating the composition and content of fuel used in—
(i) a means of transport,
(ii) non-road mobile machinery, or
(iii) an agricultural or forestry tractor;
(b) obligations upon persons who supply transport fuel at or for delivery to places in the United Kingdom to produce evidence showing the supply of renewable transport fuel;
(c) making provision regarding the proportion of renewable energy consumed in transport, including the imposition of requirements relating to sustainability that determine whether any particular renewable energy is to be counted towards any renewable energy obligation or target;
(d) provision of financial support in connection with—
(i) the production of renewable energy for consumption in transport, or
(ii) the use of that energy in transport, including the imposition of requirements relating to sustainability that determine whether any particular renewable energy qualifies for financial support.
(e) regulation of oil and gas exploration and exploitation in those parts of the territorial sea that are not relevant territorial waters.
See below for further provision about what this matter does not include.

Matter 6.4
Protecting or improving the environment in relation to nuisances.
This matter does not include—
(a) imposition of criminal or civil liability in respect of energy nuisances that consist of acts, omissions and states of affairs for which there is statutory authority, except criminal or civil liability which the Welsh Ministers have power to impose;
(b) removal of relevant defences to, or relevant exclusions from, rules of law which impose civil or criminal liability in respect of energy nuisances, except those defences and exceptions which the Welsh Ministers have power to remove;
(c) regulation of the emission of smoke, artificial light or noise from military premises;
(d) regulation of gas activities, oil activities, and infrastructure that is necessary for carrying out any such activities;
(e) regulation of oil and gas exploration and exploitation in the sea;
(f) regulation of electronic communications and electronic communications networks.
See below for further provision about what this matter does not include.

Not included in matters 6.1, 6.2, 6.3 and 6.4
Matters 6.1, 6.2, 6.3 and 6.4 do not include any of the following—
(a) regulation concerning the control of major accident hazards involving dangerous substances (this exception is to be interpreted in accordance with Council Directive 96/82/EC and it relates only to activity within the scope of that Directive);
(b) regulation of the decommissioning of offshore energy installations and related infrastructure.

Not included in matters 6.1 and 6.2

Matters 6.1 and 6.2 do not include any of the following—

(a) regulation of decommissioned explosives that are outside the scope of the Waste Directive by virtue of Article 2(1)(e) of the Waste Directive and are or have been—

(i) held on behalf of the Crown for naval, military or air force purposes or for the purposes of the department of the Secretary of State having responsibility for defence, or

(ii) held by or for the purposes of visiting forces;

(b) regulation of radioactive material that is at military premises;

(c) regulation of the capture, conveyance or disposal of carbon dioxide as part of relevant carbon capture and storage.

Not included in matters 6.3 and 6.4

Matters 6.3 and 6.4 do not include any of the following—

(a) regulation of the contained use of genetically modified organisms;

(b) regulation of the following activities in the sea—

(i) depositing any substance or object in the sea or on or under the seabed from any vehicle, vessel, aircraft, marine structure or floating container, or any structure on land constructed or adapted wholly or mainly for the purpose of depositing solids in the sea;

(ii) scuttling any vessel or floating container;

(iii) constructing, altering or improving works in or over the sea or on or under the seabed;

(iv) using any vehicle, vessel, aircraft, marine structure or floating container to remove any substance or object from the seabed;

(v) dredging;

(vi) depositing or using any explosive substance or article in the sea or on or under the seabed;

(vii) incinerating any substance or object on any vehicle, vessel, marine structure or floating container;

(c) marine licensing under Part 4 of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 [F252].

Meaning of “pollution”

In this field “pollution” means pollution of the air, water or land which may give rise to any environmental harm, including (but not limited to) pollution caused by light, noise, heat or vibrations or any other kind of release of energy.

For the purposes of this definition “air” includes (but is not limited to) air within buildings and air within other natural or man-made structures above or below ground.

Meaning of “nuisance”

In this field “nuisance” means an act or omission affecting any place, or a state of affairs in any place, which may impair, or interfere with, the amenity of the environment or any legitimate use of the environment, apart from an act, omission or state of affairs that constitutes pollution. Meaning of “relevant defence” and “relevant exclusion”
In matter 6.4, in relation to a rule of law which imposes civil or criminal liability in respect of an energy nuisance ("the unlawful nuisance")—“ relevant defence ” means statutory removal (however expressed, and whether conditional or not) of the civil or criminal liability in respect of an act, omission or state of affairs that is within the scope of the unlawful nuisance;“ relevant exclusion ” means statutory exclusion (however expressed, and whether conditional or not) of an act, omission or state of affairs from the scope of the unlawful nuisance.

In those definitions, a reference to the scope of the unlawful nuisance is a reference to the class of acts, omissions and states of affairs that constitutes the unlawful nuisance.

Other interpretation of this field

In this field—“ electricity activity ” means any of the following—

(a) generating electricity at a generating station whose construction, extension or operation requires—
   (i) the consent of the Secretary of State, or
   (ii) the authority of an order granting development consent under the Planning Act 2008;

(b) transmitting, distributing or supplying electricity; and for this purpose, the reference to consent of the Secretary of State is a reference to consent under powers to regulate generation of electricity;“ electronic communication ” means a communication transmitted—

(a) by means of an electronic communications network, or

(b) by other means but while in an electronic form;

“ electronic communications network ” means—

(a) a transmission system for the conveyance, by the use of electrical, magnetic or electro-magnetic energy, of signals of any description, and

(b) such of the following as are used, by the person providing the system and in association with it, for the conveyance of the signals—
   (i) apparatus comprised in the system,
   (ii) apparatus used for the switching or routing of the signals, and
   (iii) software and stored data;

“ energy nuisance ” means a nuisance that relates to electricity activities, gas activities, oil activities, or infrastructure that is necessary for carrying out any such activities;“ environmental harm ” means any of the following—

(a) harm to the health of humans and other living organisms;

(b) harm to the quality of the environment, including—
   (i) harm to the quality of the environment taken as a whole,
   (ii) harm to the quality of the air, water or land, and
   (iii) other impairment of, or interference with, the ecological systems of which any living organisms form part;

(c) offence to the senses of human beings;

(d) damage to property;

(e) impairment of, or interference with, the amenity of the environment or any legitimate use of the environment;

“ gas activity ” means storing, conveying or supplying gas, except any such activity that is carried out by an individual for the domestic purposes of the individual;“
marine structure ” means a platform or other artificial structure at sea, other than a pipeline; “ military premises ” means premises which are—
(a) occupied on behalf of the Crown for naval, military or air force purposes or for the purposes of the department of the Secretary of State having responsibility for defence, or
(b) occupied by or for the purposes of visiting forces;

“ offshore energy installation ” means any of the following installations that are maintained in the sea or on the foreshore or other land intermittently covered with water, and that are not connected with dry land by a permanent structure providing access at all times and for all purposes—
(a) installations used for oil activities, gas activities or for the exploration or exploitation of gas or oil;
(b) carbon dioxide storage installations;
(c) renewable energy installations;

“ oil activity ” means storing, conveying or supplying oil, except any such activity that is carried out by an individual for the domestic purposes of the individual; “ relevant carbon capture and storage ” means the capture and underground disposal of carbon dioxide by a method in which the carbon dioxide is captured at the place of its production and conveyed for disposal by pipeline directly from the place of production to a place of underground disposal; “ relevant territorial waters ” means the waters which extend seaward for three miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea adjacent to Wales is measured; but any order made under section 104(4)(a) of the Water Resources Act 1991 for the purposes of Part 3 of that Act in relation to an area of the territorial sea adjacent to Wales also applies for the purposes of determining what are relevant territorial waters for the purposes of this field; “ sea ” means (except where the context otherwise requires) the sea adjacent to Wales out as far as the seaward boundary of the territorial sea; “ statutory ” means arising by virtue of an Act; “ visiting force ” means any such body, contingent or detachment of the forces of any country as is a visiting force for the purposes of any of the provisions of the Visiting Forces Act 1952; [F255 “ Waste Directive ” means Directive 2008/98/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on waste. ]

An order or an Order in Council made under or by virtue of section 158(3) or (4) for the purposes of that section also applies for the purpose of determining any boundary between the parts of the sea which are to be treated as adjacent to Wales for the purposes of this field and those which are not.

Field 7: fire and rescue services and promotion of fire safety
Field 8: food
Field 9: health and health services

[F256 Matter 9.1
Provision for and in connection with the provision of redress without recourse to civil proceedings in circumstances in which, under the law of England and Wales, qualifying liability in tort arises in connection with the provision of services (in Wales or elsewhere) as part of the health service in Wales.

[F257 Matter 9.2
Assessment of mental health and treatment of mental disorder.

This matter does not include any of the following—
(a) subjecting patients to—
(i) compulsory attendance at any place for the purposes of assessment or treatment,
(ii) compulsory supervision, or
(iii) guardianship;
(b) consent to assessment or treatment;
(c) restraint;
(d) detention.

For the purposes of this matter, “treatment of mental disorder” means treatment to alleviate, or prevent a worsening of, a mental disorder or one or more of its symptoms or manifestations; and it includes (but is not limited to) nursing, psychological intervention, habilitation, rehabilitation and care.

Interpretation of this field

In this field—

“the health service in Wales” means the health service continued under section 1(1) of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006;

“illness” has the same meaning as in that Act;

[F258 “mental disorder” means any disorder or disability of the mind, apart from dependence on alcohol or drugs; ]

“patient” has the same meaning as in that Act;

“personal injury” includes any disease and any impairment of a person’s physical or mental health;

“qualifying liability in tort” means liability in tort owed in respect of or consequent upon personal injury or loss arising out of or in connection with breach of a duty of care owed to any person in connection with the diagnosis of illness or the care or treatment of any patient.

Field 10: highways and transport

(12) Public service vehicle operator licensing.

(13) Provision and regulation of railway services, apart from financial assistance which—

(a) does not relate to the carriage of goods,

(b) is not made in connection with a railway administration order, and

(c) is not made in connection with Regulation (EC) No 1370/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council on public passenger transport services by rail and by road.\(^{300}\)

(14) Transport security\(^{301}\) (apart from regulation relating to the carriage of supervising adults on vehicles used pursuant to learner transport arrangements)]

\(^{295}\)\(^{296}\)\(^{297}\)\(^{298}\)\(^{299}\)\(^{300}\)\(^{301}\)
(ii) animal, fish or plant health, or
(iii) the environment.

(15) Shipping, apart from—
(a) financial assistance for shipping services to, from or within Wales, and
(b) regulation of the use of vessels carrying animals for the purposes of protecting—
   (i) human health, apart from the health of persons on vessels,
   (ii) animal, fish or plant health, or
   (iii) the environment.

(16) Navigational rights and freedoms, apart from regulation of works which may obstruct or endanger navigation.

(17) Technical and safety standards of vessels.

(18) Harbours, docks, piers and boatslips, apart from—
(a) those used or required wholly or mainly for the fishing industry, for recreation, or for communications between places in Wales (or for two or more of those purposes), and
(b) regulation for the purposes of protecting human, animal, fish or plant health or the environment.

(19) Carriage of dangerous goods, including transport of radioactive material.

In paragraphs (2) and (14) “learner transport arrangements” means arrangements of the kind described in matter 5.10 which consist of the provision of motor vehicles and are made by—
(a) public authorities (within the meaning of field 15) exercising functions relating to education or training, or
(b) institutions or other bodies concerned with the provision of education or training.

Social welfare (field 15 of Part 1)

This Act

(1) A provision of an Assembly Measure cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, provisions contained in this Act.
(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to—
(a) sections 20, 22, 24, 35(1), 36(1) to (5) and (7) to (11), 53, 54, 78 and 156(2) to (5); or
(b) paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 2.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to any provision—
(a) making modifications of so much of any enactment as is modified by this Act, or
(b) repealing so much of any provision of this Act as amends any enactment, if the provision ceases to have effect in consequence of any provision of, or made under, an Assembly Measure.

(4) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to any provision to which paragraph 3(3) applies.

(5) But, subject to sub-paragraph (6), a provision to which paragraph 3(3) applies cannot modify, or confer power by subordinate legislation to modify, paragraph 3 of Schedule 8.

(6) Sub-paragraph (5) does not prevent the conferral of functions on a committee of the Assembly that—
(a) does not consist of or include any of the following persons—
(i) the First Minister or any person designated to exercise functions of the First Minister,
(ii) a Welsh Minister appointed under section 48,
(iii) the Counsel General or any person designated to exercise the functions of the Counsel General, or
(iv) a Deputy Welsh Minister, and
(b) is not chaired by an Assembly member who is a member of a political group with an executive role.

Restatement

Part 2 does not prevent a provision of an Assembly Measure—

(a) restating the law (or restating it with such modifications as are not prevented by that Part), or

(b) repealing or revoking any spent enactment, or conferring power by subordinate legislation to do so.

Subordinate legislation

The general restrictions in Part 2 do not prevent an Assembly Measure making modifications of, or conferring power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, an enactment for or in connection with any of the following purposes—

(a) making different provision about the document by which a power to make, confirm or approve subordinate legislation is to be exercised,

(b) making provision (or no provision) for the procedure, in relation to the Assembly, to which legislation made in the exercise of such a power (or the instrument or other document in which it is contained) is to be subject, and

(c) applying any enactment comprised in or made under an Assembly Measure relating to the documents by which such powers may be exercised.

SCHEDULE 7A

RESERVED MATTERS

PART 1

GENERAL RESERVATIONS

The Constitution

1 The following aspects of the constitution are reserved matters—
(a) the Crown, including succession to the Crown and a regency;
(b) the union of the nations of Wales and England;
(c) the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

2 (1) Paragraph 1 does not reserve—
(a) Her Majesty’s executive functions,
(b) functions exercisable by any person acting on behalf of the Crown, or
(c) the use of the Welsh Seal.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not affect the reservation by paragraph 1 of the management (in accordance with any enactment regulating the use of land) of the Crown Estate.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not affect the reservation by paragraph 1 of the functions of the Security Service, the Secret Intelligence Service and the Government Communications Headquarters.

(4) In this paragraph “‘executive function’” does not include a function conferred or imposed by or by virtue of any legislation or the prerogative.

3 (1) Paragraph 1 does not reserve property belonging—
(a) to Her Majesty in right of the Crown,
(b) to Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, or
(c) to the Duchy of Cornwall.

(2) Paragraph 1 does not reserve property belonging to any person acting on behalf of the Crown or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of any person acting on behalf of the Crown.

(3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) do not affect the reservation by paragraph 1 of—
(a) the hereditary revenues of the Crown,
(b) the royal arms and standard, or
(c) the compulsory acquisition of property—
(i) belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown;
(ii) belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster;
(iii) belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall;
(iv) held or used by a Minister of the Crown or government department.

4 (1) Paragraph 1 does not reserve property held by Her Majesty in Her private capacity.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not affect the reservation by paragraph 1 of the subject-matter of the Crown Private Estates Acts 1800 to 1873.
Public service

The Civil Service of the State is a reserved matter.

Political parties

The following are reserved matters—
(a) the registration of political parties;
(b) funding of political parties and of their members and officers;
(c) accounting requirements in relation to political parties;
but this is subject to paragraph 7.

Paragraph 6 does not reserve making payments to any political party for the purpose of assisting members of the Assembly who are connected with the party to perform their Assembly duties.

Single legal jurisdiction of England and Wales

(1) The following are reserved matters—
(a) courts (including, in particular, their creation and jurisdiction);
(b) judges (including, in particular, their appointment and remuneration);
(c) civil or criminal proceedings (including, in particular, bail, costs, custody pending trial, disclosure, enforcement of orders of courts, evidence, sentencing, limitation of actions, procedure, prosecutors and remedies);
(d) pardons for criminal offences;
(e) private international law;
(f) judicial review of administrative action.

(See also paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 7B (restrictions on modifying private law and criminal law).)

(2) The reference to prosecutors in sub-paragraph (1)(c) does not prevent an Act of the Assembly from making provision about responsibility for the prosecution of devolved offences.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not reserve—
(a) welfare advice to courts in respect of family proceedings in which the welfare of children ordinarily resident in Wales is or may be in question;
(b) representation in respect of such proceedings;
(c) the provision of support (including information and advice), to children ordinarily resident in Wales and their families, in respect of such proceedings;
(d) Welsh family proceedings officers.

Tribunals

(1) Tribunals, including—
(a) their membership,
(b) the appointment and remuneration of their members,
(c) their functions and procedure, and
(d) appeals against their decisions, are a reserved matter.

(2) But this paragraph does not apply to a tribunal (a “‘devolved tribunal’”) all of whose functions are functions that—
   (a) are exercisable only in relation to Wales, and
   (b) do not relate to reserved matters.

(3) In the case of a tribunal which has functions that do not relate to reserved matters, sub-paragraph (1) does not reserve any function of deciding an appeal or application which—
   (a) relates to a matter that is not a reserved matter, and
   (b) is not an appeal against the decision of a tribunal (other than a devolved tribunal), but it does reserve the tribunal's procedure in relation to that function.

(4) In determining for the purposes of this paragraph whether functions of a tribunal are exercisable only in relation to Wales, no account is taken of any function that—
   (a) is exercisable otherwise than in relation to Wales, and
   (b) could (apart from paragraph 8 of Schedule 7B) be conferred or imposed by provision falling within the Assembly's legislative competence (by virtue of section 108A(3)).

(5) Where the question whether this paragraph applies to a particular tribunal is relevant to determining whether a provision of an Act of the Assembly is within the Assembly's legislative competence, the time for deciding the question is the time when the Act is passed.

Foreign affairs etc

10 (1) International relations, regulation of international trade, and international development assistance and co-operation are reserved matters.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1) “‘international relations’” includes—
   (a) relations with territories outside the United Kingdom;
   (b) relations with the EU and its institutions;
   (c) relations with other international organisations.

(3) But sub-paragraph (1) does not reserve—
   (a) observing and implementing international obligations, obligations under the Human Rights Convention and obligations under EU law, or
   (b) assisting Ministers of the Crown in relation to any matter to which that sub-paragraph applies.

(4) In this paragraph “‘the Human Rights Convention’” means—
   (a) the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, agreed by the Council of Europe at Rome on 4th November 1950, and
   (b) the Protocols to the Convention, as they have effect for the time being in relation to the United Kingdom.

Defence

11 The following are reserved matters—
   (a) the defence of the realm;
   (b) the naval, military or air forces of the Crown, including reserve forces;
   (c) visiting forces;
   (d) international headquarters and defence organisations;
   (e) trading with the enemy and enemy property.

PART 2

SPECIFIC RESERVATIONS

Preliminary

12 The matters to which any of the Sections in this Part apply are reserved matters.

13 A Section applies to any matter described or referred to in it when read with any exceptions or interpretation provisions in that Section.

14 Any exceptions or interpretation provisions in a Section relate only to that Section
   (so that an entry under the heading ““Exceptions”” does not affect any other Section).

      (i) elections of Assembly members,
      (ii) local government elections in Wales, or
      (iii) referendums held under Part 2 of the Local Government Act 2000 (arrangements in respect of executives etc), and
   (b) polls at ordinary general elections of Assembly members with polls at ordinary local government elections in Wales.

24 Any digital service provided by a Minister of the Crown for the registration of electors.

25 The subject-matter of the following provisions of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in relation to elections of Assembly members and local government elections in Wales—in Part 1 (Electoral Commission)—

      (a) section 1, except in relation to—
         (i) financing the Commission,
         (ii) preparation, laying and publication by it of reports about the performance of its functions, and
         (iii) provision by it of copies of regulations made by it or notice of the alteration or revocation of such regulations;
      (b) sections 2 to 4 and 6(1)(e) and (f) (and (g) to the extent that it relates to the law mentioned in those paragraphs);
      (c) sections 12 and 21;

   Parts 2 to 4A (registration of parties, accounting, donations, loans etc);

   section 140A (gifts received by unincorporated associations);

   in Part 10 (miscellaneous and general)—
      (a) section 149, except in relation to the register kept under section 89;
      (b) sections 155 and 156 except in relation to Parts 5 and 6;
      (c) sections 157 and 159 to 163.

26 The subject-matter of Parts 5 and 6 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (expenditure in connection with elections) where a limit applies to expenditure in relation to a period determined by reference to both—
(a) the date of the poll for an election of Assembly members or a local government election in Wales, and
(b) the date of the poll at an election for membership of the House of Commons or the European Parliament.

The subject-matter of sections 145 to 148 and 150 to 154 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (enforcement and offences) as they apply for the purposes of any provision, so far as the subject-matter of the provision is reserved by paragraph 25 or 26.

Head N—Miscellaneous
Section N1N1 Equal opportunities
Equal opportunities.

Exceptions
The encouragement (other than by prohibition or regulation) of equal opportunities, and in particular of the observance of the equal opportunity requirements. Imposing duties on any devolved Welsh authority to make arrangements with a view to securing that its functions are carried out with due regard to the need to meet the equal opportunity requirements. Equal opportunities so far as relating to the inclusion of persons with particular protected characteristics in non-executive posts on boards of devolved Welsh authorities. Equal opportunities in relation to the functions of any devolved Welsh authority, other than a function that relates to the inclusion of persons in non-executive posts on boards of devolved Welsh authorities. The provision falling within this exception does not include any modification of the Equality Act 2010, or of any subordinate legislation made under that Act, but does include—
(a) provision that supplements or is otherwise additional to provision made by that Act;
(b) in particular, provision imposing a requirement to take action which that Act does not prohibit;
(c) provision that reproduces or applies an enactment contained in that Act, with or without modification, without affecting the enactment as it applies for the purposes of that Act.

Interpretation

“Board” includes any other equivalent management body.

“Equal opportunities” means the prevention, elimination or regulation of discrimination between persons on grounds of sex or marital status, on racial grounds, or on grounds of disability, age, sexual orientation or social origin, or of other personal attributes, including beliefs or opinions, such as religious beliefs or political opinions, but not including language.

“Equal opportunity requirements” means the requirements of the law for the time being relating to equal opportunities.

“Non-executive post”, in relation to an authority, means any position the holder of which is not an employee of the authority.

“Protected characteristic” has the same meaning as in the Equality Act 2010.

The references to the Equality Act 2010 and any subordinate legislation made under that Act are to be read as references to those enactments, as at the principal appointed day, but treating any provision of them that is not yet in force on that day as if it were in force.

PART 3

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Devolved Welsh authorities etc

194 (1) This Schedule does not reserve—

(a) the constitution of an authority that has reserved functions,
(b) conferring or imposing (or giving power to confer or impose) accounting or public procurement functions on such an authority,
(c) modifying or removing (or giving power to modify or remove) any accounting or public procurement functions of such an authority, or
(d) conferring, imposing, modifying or removing (or giving power to confer, impose, modify or remove) functions specifically exercisable in relation to such an authority, if the authority is a devolved Welsh authority.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph—

(a) “authority” means a body, office or holder of an office that has functions of a public nature (but does not include a court);
(b) “reserved functions” are functions that relate to reserved matters;
(c) the constitution of an authority includes the authority’s establishment and dissolution, its assets and liabilities and its funding and receipts;
(d) a function specifically exercisable in relation to an authority does not include a function specifically exercisable in relation to a particular reserved function of the authority.

(3) Where the question whether an authority is a devolved Welsh authority is relevant to determining whether a provision of an Act of the Assembly is within the Assembly’s legislative competence, the time for deciding the question is the time when the Act is passed.

195 (1) Paragraph 1 of this Schedule does not reserve an authority if—

(a) its functions are exercisable only in relation to Wales, or
(b) it is a devolved Welsh authority (whether or not its functions are exercisable only in relation to Wales), and it has no reserved functions.

(2) In this paragraph ““authority”” and ““reserved functions”” have the same meaning as in paragraph 194.

(3) In determining for the purposes of this paragraph whether functions of an authority are exercisable only in relation to Wales, no account is taken of any function that—
(a) is exercisable otherwise than in relation to Wales, and
(b) could (apart from paragraph 8 of Schedule 7B) be conferred or imposed by provision falling within the Assembly's legislative competence (by virtue of section 108A(3)).

(4) Where the conditions in sub-paragraph (1) are relevant to determining whether a provision of an Act of the Assembly is within the Assembly's legislative competence, the time for assessing whether those conditions are met is the time when the Act is passed.

Paragraph 194 applies in relation to a devolved tribunal (within the meaning of paragraph 9(2)) as it applies in relation to a devolved Welsh authority.

Particular authorities

(1) The reservation of an authority to which this paragraph applies has effect to reserve—
(a) its constitution, including its establishment and dissolution, its assets and liabilities and its funding and receipts;
(b) conferring or imposing (or giving power to confer or impose) functions on it;
(c) modifying or removing (or giving power to modify or remove) any of its functions;
(d) conferring, imposing, modifying or removing (or giving power to confer, impose, modify or remove) functions specifically exercisable in relation to it.

(2) This paragraph applies to—
(a) a body reserved by name by Part 2 of this Schedule;
(b) any of the companies reserved by Section C10 of that Part;
(c) each of the councils reserved by Section C11 of that Part;
(d) a police and crime commissioner;
(e) the Commission for Equality and Human Rights.

(3) This paragraph is subject to paragraphs 198 and 199.

Welsh language functions

(1) This Schedule does not reserve—
(a) conferring or imposing (or giving power to confer or impose) a Welsh language function on a person other than a court;
(b) modifying or removing (or giving power to modify or remove) any Welsh language function of a person other than a court.

(2) ““Welsh language function”” means a function in relation to the Welsh language.
This Schedule does not reserve council tax precepts.

Interpretation of Schedule

(1) References in this Schedule to the subject-matter of any enactment are to be read as references to the subject-matter of that enactment as it has effect on the principal appointed day or, if it ceased to have effect at any time within the period ending with that day and beginning with the passing of the Wales Act 2017, as it had effect immediately before that time.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), any provision of an enactment that is not yet in force on the principal appointed day is treated as if it were in force on that day.

(3) In this Schedule “the principal appointed day” has the same meaning as in section 71 of the Wales Act 2017.

PART 1

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS

The law on reserved matters

(1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, the law on reserved matters.

(2) “The law on reserved matters” means—

(a) any enactment the subject-matter of which is a reserved matter and which is comprised in an Act of Parliament or subordinate legislation under an Act of Parliament, and

(b) any rule of law which is not contained in an enactment and the subject-matter of which is a reserved matter, and in this sub-paragraph “Act of Parliament” does not include this Act.

(1) Paragraph 1 does not apply to a modification that—

(a) is ancillary to a provision made (whether by the Act in question or another enactment) which does not relate to reserved matters, and

(b) has no greater effect on reserved matters than is necessary to give effect to the purpose of that provision.
(2) In determining what is necessary for the purposes of this paragraph, any power to make laws other than the power of the Assembly is disregarded.

Private law

3 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, the private law.

(2) “‘The private law’” means the law of contract, agency, bailment, tort, unjust enrichment and restitution, property, trusts and succession.

(3) In sub-paragraph (2) the reference to the law of property does not include intellectual property rights relating to plant varieties or seeds but does include the compulsory acquisition of property.

(4) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to a modification that has a purpose (other than modification of the private law) which does not relate to a reserved matter.

Criminal law

4 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot—

(a) make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, an offence in a listed category;

(b) create, or confer power by subordinate legislation to create, an offence in a listed category.

(2) The listed categories of offences are—

(a) treason and related offences;

(b) homicide offences (including offences relating to suicide) and other offences against the person (including offences involving violence or threats of violence) that are triable only on indictment;

(c) sexual offences (including offences relating to indecent or pornographic images);

(d) offences of a kind dealt with by the Perjury Act 1911.

(3) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, the law about—

(a) criminal responsibility and capacity,

(b) the meaning of intention, recklessness, dishonesty and other mental elements of offences,

(c) inchoate and secondary criminal liability, or

(d) sentences and other orders and disposals in respect of defendants in criminal proceedings, or otherwise in respect of criminal conduct, and their effect and operation.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, a modification of the law relating to defences to an offence is a modification of the offence.

(5) This paragraph does not affect the reservation, by virtue of Schedule 7A, of the creation or modification of offences in relation to reserved matters.

(See also paragraph 8 of that Schedule (single legal jurisdiction of England and Wales).)
Enactments other than this Act

5 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, any of the provisions listed in the table below—

(2) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot, unless it is an oversight provision, make modifications of—

   (a) section 146A(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998, or
   (b) sections 2(1) to (3), 3(2) to (4) or 6(2) and (3) of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2013 (anaw 3), or confer power by subordinate legislation to do so.

(3) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot, unless it is an oversight provision and also a non-governmental committee provision—

   (a) make modifications of section 8(1) of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2013 so far as that section relates to the Auditor General's exercise of functions free from the direction or control of the Assembly or Welsh Government, or
   (b) confer power by subordinate legislation to do so.

(4) An ""oversight provision"" is a provision of an Act of the Assembly that—

   (a) relates to the oversight or supervision of the Auditor General or of the exercise of the Auditor General's functions, or
   (b) is ancillary to a provision falling within paragraph (a).

(5) A ""non-governmental committee provision"" is a provision conferring functions on a committee of the Assembly that—

   (a) does not consist of or include members of the Welsh Government, and
   (b) is not chaired by an Assembly member who is a member of a political group with an executive role, or a provision conferring power by subordinate legislation to do so.

(6) A person designated under section 46(5) to exercise the functions of the First Minister is treated as a member of the Welsh Government for the purposes of sub-paragraph (5)(a).
A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, any provision of an Act of Parliament other than this Act which requires sums required for the repayment of, or the payment of interest on, amounts borrowed by the Welsh Ministers to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

This Act

(1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, provisions contained in this Act.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to—

(a) the following provisions in Part 1 (the Assembly)—

(i) in section 1(1), the words from “‘the National Assembly for Wales’” to the end;
(ii) section 1(2) to (5);
(iii) section 2;
(iv) section 3(1), (1B) and (2) to (4);
(v) sections 4 to 20;
(vi) section 22;
(vii) section 23(2), (6) and (7);
(viii) section 24;
(ix) section 25(1)(b) and (2) to (15);
(x) section 26(2) to (4);
(xi) in section 27(1), the words from “‘the National Assembly for Wales Commission’” to the end;
(xii) section 27(2) to (4), (6) and (7);
(xiii) section 28;
(xiv) section 30;
(xv) section 34(1) and (2);
(xvi) sections 35 and 36;
(xvii) sections 38 to 43;
(xviii) section 51;
(xix) paragraphs 1, 2, 3(1), (2) and (4) to (7), 4 and 7 to 11 of Schedule 2;

(b) the following provisions in Part 2 (the Welsh Government)—

(i) sections 53 and 54;
(ii) sections 60 and 61;
(iii) sections 72 to 75;
(iv) sections 77 to 79;
(v) section 91;

(c) the following provisions in Part 4 (Acts of the Assembly)—

(i) in section 107(1), the words from “‘Acts of the National Assembly for Wales’” to the end;
(ii) section 110;
(iii) section 111(1)(a) and (b), (2), (3) and (5);

(d) the following provisions in Part 5 (finance)—
(i) section 120(2);
(ii) sections 125 to 130;
(iii) sections 131 to 135;
(iv) sections 137 to 143;
(v) any provision of Schedule 8;

(e) the following provisions in Part 6 (miscellaneous and supplementary)—
(i) sections 146 to 148;

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to any provision—
(a) making modifications of so much of any enactment as is modified by this Act, or
(b) repealing so much of any provision of this Act as amends any enactment, if the provision ceases to have effect in consequence of any provision of, or made under, an Act of the Assembly.

(4) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to any provision that is consequential on or incidental to provision made by virtue of—
(a) sub-paragraph (2)(a)(i) (change of name of the Assembly),
(b) sub-paragraph (2)(a)(xi) (change of name of the Assembly Commission), or
(c) sub-paragraph (2)(c)(i) (change of name of Acts of the Assembly).

(5) Sub-paragraph (1), so far as it applies in relation to a provision of Part 5 not listed in sub-paragraph (2)(d), or section 159, does not apply to a provision of an Act of the Assembly if the provision is incidental to, or consequential on, a provision of an Act of the Assembly relating to budgetary procedures or devolved taxes.

(6) In sub-paragraph (5) ““budgetary procedures”” are procedures for a financial year relating to—
(a) the authorisation of the amount of resources that may be used or retained in that year by relevant persons or pursuant to a relevant enactment,
(b) the authorisation of the amount that may be paid out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund in that year to relevant persons or for use pursuant to a relevant enactment, or
(c) the scrutiny of the use of the amounts so authorised under paragraph (a) or (b) or of the exercise of borrowing powers by the Welsh Ministers.

(7) In sub-paragraph (6)—
(a) the reference to the use of resources is a reference to their expenditure, consumption or reduction in value;
(b) ““relevant persons”” means—
(i) the Welsh Ministers,
(ii) the First Minister,
(iii) the Counsel General,
(iv) the Assembly Commission,
(v) the Wales Audit Office, and
(vi) the Public Service Ombudsman for Wales;
(c) “relevant enactment” means an enactment that provides for payment out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(8) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to a provision to which paragraph 5(3) applies.

Ministers of the Crown, government departments and other reserved authorities

8 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot—

(a) confer or impose, or confer power by subordinate legislation to confer or impose, any function on a reserved authority,

(b) make modifications of, or confer power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, the constitution of a reserved authority, including modifications relating to its assets and liabilities and its funding and receipts, or

(c) confer, impose, modify or remove, or confer power by subordinate legislation to confer, impose, modify or remove, functions specifically exercisable in relation to a reserved authority, unless the appropriate Minister consents to the provision.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to the exceptions in paragraph 9.

(3) In this paragraph “reserved authority” means—

(a) a Minister of the Crown or government department;

(b) any other public authority apart from a devolved Welsh authority.

(4) In this paragraph “public authority” means a body, office or holder of an office that has functions of a public nature.

(5) In this paragraph the “appropriate Minister” means—

(a) where the authority in question is Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, the Treasury;

(b) otherwise, the Secretary of State.

9 (1) This paragraph contains exceptions to paragraph 8.

(2) Paragraph 8(1)(a) does not apply in relation to—

(a) the Electoral Commission;

(b) the Food Standards Agency;

(c) the Water Services Regulation Authority;

(d) the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation;

(e) the Human Tissue Authority;

(f) the NHS Business Services Authority or Awdurdod Gwasanaethau Busnes y GIG;

(g) NHS Blood and Transplant or Gwaed a Thrawsblaniadau'r GIG;

(h) the Open University.
(3) Paragraph 8(1)(a) does not apply to the conferral or imposition on the traffic commissioners of a function relating to—
   (a) the registration of local bus services, or
   (b) the application and enforcement of traffic regulation conditions in relation to those services.

(4) Paragraph 8(1)(a) does not apply to—
   (a) the conferral or imposition on a court of a devolved function (within the meaning of paragraph 6 of Schedule 7A);
   (b) the conferral or imposition on a tribunal of a function involving, or connected with, making a decision in relation to a matter that is not a reserved matter.

(5) Paragraph 8(1)(c) does not apply to a provision to which paragraph 8(1)(a) applies or would apply but for sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph.

(6) Paragraph 8(1) does not apply in relation to—
   (a) a water or sewerage undertaker;
   (b) the Consumer Council for Water;
   (c) the Chief Inspector of Drinking Water for Wales or any other person appointed by the Welsh Ministers under section 86 of the Water Industry Act 1991 (assessors for the enforcement of water quality).

(7) Paragraph 8(1) does not apply in relation to the funding of police and crime commissioners through council tax precepts.

10 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot remove or modify, or confer power by subordinate legislation to remove or modify, any function of a public authority other than a devolved Welsh authority, unless the appropriate Minister consents to the provision.

(2) This paragraph does not apply in relation to—
   (a) a Minister of the Crown (as to which, see paragraph 11);
   (b) the Electoral Commission;
   (c) the Food Standards Agency;
   (d) the Water Services Regulation Authority;
   (e) a water or sewerage undertaker;
   (f) the Consumer Council for Water;
   (g) the Chief Inspector of Drinking Water for Wales or any other person appointed by the Welsh Ministers under section 86 of the Water Industry Act 1991 (assessors for the enforcement of water quality);
   (h) the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation;
   (i) the Human Tissue Authority;
   (j) the NHS Business Services Authority or Awdurdod Gwasanaethau Busnes y GIG;
   (k) NHS Blood and Transplant or Gwaed a Thrawsblaniadau'r GIG;
   (l) the Open University.

(3) This paragraph does not apply to the removal or modification of a function of the traffic commissioners relating to—
   (a) the registration of local bus services, or
(b) the application and enforcement of traffic regulation conditions in relation to those services.

(4) This paragraph does not apply to—

(a) the removal or modification of a devolved function (within the meaning of paragraph 6 of Schedule 7A) of a court;

(b) the removal or modification of a function of a tribunal involving, or connected with, making a decision in relation to a matter that is not a reserved matter.

(5) This paragraph does not apply in relation to the funding of police and crime commissioners through council tax precepts.

(6) In this paragraph “public authority” and “appropriate Minister” have the same meaning as in paragraph 8.

11 (1) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot remove or modify, or confer power by subordinate legislation to remove or modify—

(a) any function of a Minister of the Crown that relates to a qualified devolved function,

(b) any function of a Minister of the Crown exercisable in relation to the Welsh language,

(c) any function of a Minister of the Crown exercisable in relation to water supply, water quality, water resources management, control of pollution of water resources, sewerage, rivers and other watercourses, land drainage, flood risk management or coastal protection,

(d) any function of a Minister of the Crown under Chapter 1 of Part 3, or section 58, of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009,

(e) any power of the Secretary of State under section 6 of the Railways Act 2005 (financial assistance relating to railway services etc), or

(f) any function of the Treasury under section 138(2) or 141(4), unless the appropriate Minister consents to the provision.

(2) A provision of an Act of the Assembly cannot remove or modify, or confer power by subordinate legislation to remove or modify, any function of a Minister of the Crown not falling within sub-paragraph (1) unless the Welsh Ministers have consulted the appropriate Minister about the provision.

(3) In this paragraph “qualified devolved function” means a function that—

(a) is conferred or imposed on or transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by any Act (whenever passed) or by an instrument made under any Act (whenever made), and

(b) is to any extent exercisable—

(i) concurrently or jointly with a Minister of the Crown, or

(ii) only with the consent or agreement of, or after consultation with, a Minister of the Crown.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a)—

(a) the functions of a Minister of the Crown that “relate to” qualified devolved functions within sub-paragraph (3)(b)(i) are the qualified devolved functions so far as exercisable by the Minister;

(b) the functions of a Minister of the Crown that “relate to” qualified devolved functions within sub-paragraph (3)(b)(ii) are those concerning consent or agreement to, or consultation about, the exercise of the qualified devolved functions.

(5) In this paragraph “appropriate Minister” has the same meaning as in paragraph 8.

12 (1) In any enactment (whenever passed or made) not contained in this Act —

(a) a reference to provision within the legislative competence of the Assembly does not include provision that could be made in an Act of the Assembly only with the consent of a Minister of the Crown (under paragraph 8, 10 or 11 or otherwise);

(b) a reference to provision outside that competence includes provision that could be made in an Act of the Assembly only with such consent.

(2) But paragraph 11(2) is to be ignored for the purposes of any such references.

PART 2

GENERAL EXCEPTIONS FROM PART 1

Restatement

13 (1) Part 1 does not prevent an Act of the Assembly—

(a) restating the law (or restating it with such modifications as are not prevented by that Part), or

(b) repealing or revoking any spent enactment, or conferring power by subordinate legislation to do so.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph 1, the law on reserved matters includes any restatement in an Act of the Assembly or an Assembly Measure, or subordinate legislation under such an Act or Measure, of the law on reserved matters if the subject-matter of the restatement is a reserved matter.

Subordinate legislation

14 Part 1 does not prevent an Act of the Assembly making modifications of, or conferring power by subordinate legislation to make modifications of, an enactment for or in connection with any of the following purposes—

(a) making different provision about the document by which a power to make, confirm or approve subordinate legislation is to be exercised;

(b) making provision (or no provision) for the procedure, in relation to the Assembly, to which legislation made in the exercise of such a power (or the instrument or other document in which it is contained) is to be subject;

(c) applying any enactment comprised in or made under an Act of the Assembly relating to the documents by which such powers may be exercised.]
SCHEDULE 8

AUDITOR GENERAL FOR WALES

Appointment

1 \F336\ The Auditor General is to be appointed by Her Majesty on the nomination of the Assembly.

(2) No nomination is to be made until the Assembly is satisfied that reasonable consultation has been undertaken with such bodies as appear to the Assembly to represent the interests of local government bodies in Wales.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) a body is a local government body in Wales at any time if at that time it is specified in section 12(1) of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004 (c. 23).

(4) The validity of any act of a person appointed as Auditor General is not affected by any defect in the person's nomination by the Assembly.]

(3) Schedule 1 to the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) (offices to which section 1 of that Act applies) is to continue to have effect with the insertion in the list of "Offices" of the entry relating to the Auditor General (originally made by section 91(3) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38)).

(4) The Assembly must make payments to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as the Minister for the Civil Service may determine, of such amounts as may be so determined in respect of—

(a) the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities by virtue of section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 to or in respect of any person who holds or has ceased to hold office as Auditor General, and

(b) the expenses incurred in administering those pensions, allowances and gratuities.

(5) Sums required for the making of payments under sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (4) are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.]
Staff

(1) The Auditor General may appoint such staff or secure the provision of such services as the Auditor General considers necessary for assisting in the exercise of the Auditor General's functions.

(2) The staff of the Auditor General are to be appointed on such terms and conditions as the Auditor General may determine.

(3) The Auditor General must pay the staff such remuneration as may be provided for by or under the terms of their appointment.

(4) Schedule 1 to the Superannuation Act 1972 (offices to which section 1 of that Act applies) is to continue to have effect with the insertion in the list of “Other bodies” of the entry relating to Employment as a member of the staff of the Auditor General (originally made by section 92(5) of the Government of Wales Act 1998).

(5) The Auditor General must make payments to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as the Minister for the Civil Service may determine, of such amounts as may be so determined in respect of—

(a) the provision of pensions, allowances or gratuities by virtue of section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 to or in respect of any persons who are or have been members of the staff of the Auditor General, and

(b) the expenses incurred in administering those pensions, allowances and gratuities.

(6) No member of the staff of the Auditor General is to be regarded as holding office under Her Majesty or as exercising any functions on behalf of the Crown; but each member of the staff of the Auditor General is to be taken to be a Crown servant for the purposes of the Official Secrets Act 1989 (c. 6).
(4) An authority under sub-paragraph (1) to certify or report on accounts (or statements of accounts) within sub-paragraph (5)—
   (a) extends only to accounts (or statements) which the Presiding Officer has certified to the Assembly are accounts (or statements) which the Auditor General is unable to certify, or on which the Auditor General is unable to report, in person, and
   (b) ceases when the office of Auditor General becomes vacant.

(5) Accounts (or statements of accounts) are within this sub-paragraph if, in accordance with provision made by or under this or any other Act, they—
   (a) fall to be examined by the Auditor General, and
   (b) are required to be laid before the Assembly.

Access to documents

17 (1) The Auditor General has a right of access at all reasonable times to every document relating to a relevant person which appears to the Auditor General necessary—
   (a) for the purposes of the Auditor General's examination of any auditable accounts,
   (b) for the purposes of undertaking studies under section 145A (studies for improving economy etc. in services provided by relevant bodies) or 145C (studies relating to registered social landlords) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38), or
   (c) for the purposes of carrying out, in accordance with any provision made by or by virtue of this or any other enactment, other examinations or studies into the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which a person has used resources in discharging the person's functions.

(2) The documents relating to a relevant person to which the right conferred by subparagraph (1) applies include (in particular)—
   (a) a document which is in the possession, or under the control, of a person who has received financial assistance from the relevant person by means of a grant, loan or guarantee or as a result of the taking of an interest in any property or body corporate,
   (b) a document which is in the possession, or under the control, of a person who has supplied goods or services to the relevant person in pursuance of a contract to which the relevant person was party or has supplied goods or services in pursuance of a relevant sub-contract, and
(c) a document of a description specified in an order made by the Welsh Ministers.

(3) The Auditor General may require a person whom the Auditor General thinks has information of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)—

(a) to give the Auditor General any assistance, information and explanation which the Auditor General thinks necessary for any of the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (1),

(b) to attend before the Auditor General in person to give the assistance, information or explanation, or to produce any document which is in the possession, or under the control, of the person and to which the right conferred by that sub-paragraph applies, or

(c) to provide any facility which the Auditor General may reasonably require for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-paragraph.

(4) The information referred to in sub-paragraph (3) is information which relates to—

(a) a relevant person,

(b) a document to which the right conferred by sub-paragraph (1) applies, or

(c) a person who possesses or controls such a document.

(5) The Auditor General may, for the purposes of an examination of any auditable accounts, require a relevant person to provide the Auditor General, at times specified by the Auditor General, with accounts of such of the person's transactions as the Auditor General may specify.

(6) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(b), a contract is a relevant sub-contract if its performance fulfils, or contributes to the fulfilment of, an obligation to supply goods or services to the relevant person in another contract.

(7) In this paragraph “auditable accounts” means any accounts or statement of accounts falling to be examined by the Auditor General in accordance with any provision made by or by virtue of this or any other enactment, apart from accounts that fall to be examined under Part 2 of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004.

(8) In this paragraph “relevant person” means—

(a) in a case within paragraph (a) of sub-paragraph (1) relating to any accounts which the Welsh Ministers are directed to prepare under section 131, the Welsh Ministers, the Counsel General and any person to whose financial affairs and transactions the accounts are to relate by virtue of subsection (3) of that section,

(b) in a case within that paragraph relating to any accounts which the Assembly Commission is directed to prepare under section 137, the Assembly Commission and any person to whose financial affairs and transactions the accounts are to relate by virtue of subsection (2) of that section,

(ba) in a case within that paragraph relating to any accounts which the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales is directed to prepare under paragraph 16 of Schedule 1 to the Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2019, the Ombudsman and any person to whose financial affairs and transactions the accounts are to relate by virtue of sub-paragraph (1A) of that paragraph,

(c) in a case within that paragraph relating to any other auditable accounts, the person by whom the accounts are prepared, and

(d) in any other case, a person to whom the study or examination relates.
(9) No order may be made under sub-paragraph (2)(c) unless the Welsh Ministers have consulted—
   (a) the Treasury, and
   (b) the Auditor General.

(10) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (2)(c) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Assembly.

Act) or prerogative instrument, or

(b) any other instrument or document, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the order.

(7) An Order in Council under section 58 may include any provision that may be included in an order under sub-paragraph (5).

(8) If the Treasury designate the Welsh Ministers in respect of a financial year for the purposes of section 10 of the Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000
(c. 20) (whole of government accounts), the Auditor General must carry out the audit required by subsection (2)(c) of that section.

(9) Where the Treasury make arrangements with the Welsh Ministers under subsection (8) of that section, the Auditor General must carry out the audit required by paragraph (c) of that subsection.

(10) No order under sub-paragraph (5) which contains provisions in the form of amendments or repeals of enactments contained in an Act is to be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(11) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (5) is (unless a draft of the statutory instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament) subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Reports in public interest

19 (1) If the Auditor General thinks that it would be in the public interest to bring to the public's attention a matter coming to the Auditor General's notice in the course of an examination or study to which sub-paragraph (2) applies, the Auditor General may prepare a report on that matter.

(2) This sub-paragraph applies to—

(a) an examination of auditable accounts (other than accounts falling to be examined under paragraph 18(3)(a)), and

(b) an examination or study under section 135 or 140 of this Act, section 145 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) (examinations into use of resources by body specified in Schedule 17 to that Act) or section 145A of that Act (studies for improving economy etc. in services provided by relevant bodies), except one undertaken at the request of the body or bodies to which it relates.

(3) The Auditor General must, as soon as practicable after preparing a report under sub-paragraph (1), lay the report before the Assembly.

(4) In this paragraph “auditable accounts” has the same meaning as in paragraph 17.

Certification of claims, returns etc.

20

(1) The Auditor General must, if so required by a relevant body, make arrangements for—

(a) certifying any claim or return in respect of a grant made or subsidy paid to that body by the Welsh Ministers, any Minister of the Crown or any public authority,

(b) certifying any account submitted by that body to the Welsh Ministers, any Minister of the Crown or any public authority with a view to obtaining payment under a contract between that body and the Welsh Ministers, the Minister of the Crown or the public authority,

(c) certifying that body's calculation under paragraph 5(6)(a) of Schedule 8 to the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (c. 41) of the amount of its non-domestic rating contribution for a financial year, and for certifying the amount calculated, or

(d) certifying any return by that body which, by or under any enactment, is required or authorised to be certified by the body's auditor or under arrangements made by the Auditor General.

(2) In this paragraph—

“public authority” means a body established by or under [EU] Treaties or any enactment, and

“relevant body” means at any time—

(a) a body whose accounts, or statements of accounts, are auditable accounts within the meaning of paragraph 17(7), or

(b) a body which at that time is a local government body in Wales (within the meaning given in section 12(1) of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004 (c. 23)).

SCHEDULE 11 – Transitional provisions

Alteration of Assembly electoral regions

2007 election to be election to Assembly constituted by this Act

The 2007 election is an election to the Assembly constituted by this Act (and not that constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38)).

First meeting after 2007 election

The first meeting of the Assembly constituted by this Act after the 2007 election is to be held on the day specified by or in accordance with an order made by statutory instrument by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38); and that day must be within the period of seven days beginning immediately after the day of the poll at the 2007 election.
Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Government of Wales Act 2006. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

Date of 2011 election

Until the first ordinary general election (or any extraordinary general election the poll for which is held as mentioned in section 5(5)), section 3(1) has effect as if the reference to the previous ordinary general election were to the 2007 election.

No dual constituency and regional candidacy

(1) Section 5 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (ordinary elections: party lists of candidates, and individual candidates, to be Assembly members for Assembly electoral regions) is amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (5) (those who may not be included on party list), for paragraphs (c) and (d) (candidate to be Assembly member for Assembly constituency outside electoral region and candidate of different party to be Assembly member for Assembly constituency within electoral region) substitute “or

(c) who is a candidate to be the Assembly member for an Assembly constituency.”

(3) In subsection (6) (those who may not be an individual candidate), for paragraphs (c) and (d) (candidate to be Assembly member for Assembly constituency outside electoral region and candidate of registered political party to be Assembly member for Assembly constituency within electoral region) substitute “or

(c) a candidate to be the Assembly member for an Assembly constituency.”

Election orders

An order under section 11 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act has effect after that time as if made under section 13 of this Act.

Term of office of Assembly members

Section 14 has effect until the first general election as if the reference in paragraph (a) to being declared to be returned included being declared to be returned at the 2007 election.
Disqualification Orders

10 An Order in Council under section 12(1)(b) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that provision by this Act has effect after that time as if made under section 16(1) (b) of this Act.

Disqualification of Lords of Appeal in Ordinary

11 A Lord of Appeal in Ordinary is disqualified from being a member of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 or this Act.

Remuneration of Assembly members etc.

12 (1) This paragraph has effect in relation to a determination under section 16 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act.

(2) So far as relating to the Assembly First Secretary elected under that Act and the Assembly Secretaries appointed under that Act, the determination has effect after that time as if made under section 53, and applies—
   (a) in relation to the First Minister as it applied before that time in relation to the Assembly First Secretary elected under that Act, and
   (b) in relation to the Welsh Ministers appointed under section 48 of this Act as it applied before that time in relation to the Assembly Secretaries appointed under that Act.

(3) Otherwise, the determination has effect after that time as if made under section 20, and applies—
   (a) in relation to the Presiding Officer as it applied before that time in relation to the presiding officer elected under the Government of Wales Act 1998,
   (b) in relation to the Deputy Presiding Officer as it applied before that time in relation to the deputy presiding officer elected under that Act,
   (c) in relation to the leader of the largest political group without an executive role as it applied before that time in relation to the leader of the largest political party not represented on the executive committee constituted by that Act, and
   (d) in relation to any other Assembly member as it applied before that time in relation to members of the Assembly constituted by that Act.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (3)(c) a political group is the largest political group without an executive role if—
   (a) it is not a political group with an executive role, and
   (b) more Assembly members belong to it than to each other political group which is not a political group with an executive role.

(5) This paragraph has effect in relation to determinations under section 18 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) as it has effect in relation to determinations under section 16 of that Act, but as if references in this paragraph to members of, or office-holders in connection with, the Assembly (as constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 or this Act) were references to persons who have ceased to be such members or office-holders.
13 An order under section 17 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act has effect after that time as if made under section 21.

Publication of information about remuneration of Assembly members

14 (1) Section 22(2) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.

(2) The Assembly constituted by this Act has the same duty in relation to that financial year as the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 would have by virtue of section 19 of that Act but for this Act.

(3) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008 the references in section 22(2) to salaries and allowances of the kind mentioned in section 20 include sums paid under sections 16 and 18 of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

Assistance to groups of Assembly members

15 (1) A determination under section 34A of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act has effect after that time as if it were made in accordance with section 24.

(2) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008 the reference in subsection (6)(b) of section 24 to sums paid under that section includes sums paid under section 34A of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

First Presiding Officer

16 The reference in subsection (1) of section 25 to the first meeting of the Assembly following a general election includes a reference to the first meeting of the Assembly following the 2007 election.

First Clerk

17 The member of the staff of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 who, immediately before the day of the poll at the 2007 election, holds the post referred to in the standing orders made under that Act as the Clerk to the Assembly is to be taken to be appointed under section 26(1) at the beginning of that day.

Promotion of awareness of election system and devolved government

18 Paragraphs 5 and 6 of Schedule 2 have effect until the end of the initial period as if for the references to the Assembly Commission there were substituted references to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38).

Crown status of Assembly Commission

19 Sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 12 of Schedule 2 has effect until the end of the initial period with the omission of paragraph (b) (and the word “or” before it).
Standing orders

20 (1) The Secretary of State must, no later than 31st March 2007, make the standing orders which are to have effect in relation to the proceedings of the Assembly following the 2007 election.

(2) The standing orders made under this paragraph—
   (a) must include provision as to the matters which this Act requires to be covered by the standing orders, and
   (b) may include provision as to the matters which this Act provides may be so covered.

(3) In making standing orders made under this paragraph the Secretary of State must give effect to any relevant Assembly proposals (but subject to sub-paragraph (5)).

(4) For this purpose proposals are relevant Assembly proposals if—
   (a) they are proposals for the inclusion in the standing orders made under this paragraph of provision relating to any matters which must or may be covered by them,
   (b) they are made by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 by a resolution passed by that Assembly,
   (c) where the motion for the resolution is passed on a vote, at least two-thirds of the members of the Assembly voting support it,
   (d) the proposals are made in both English and Welsh, and
   (e) a copy of the proposals are sent to the Secretary of State no later than 28th February 2007.

(5) The Secretary of State may make modifications of any relevant Assembly proposals—
   (a) in order to give full effect to what appears to the Secretary of State to be the policy contained in the proposals, or
   (b) in consequence of other provision to be included in the standing orders made under this paragraph.

(6) The Secretary of State must publish the standing orders made under this paragraph as soon as reasonably practicable after they are made and must do so in both English and Welsh.

(7) The standing orders made under this paragraph have effect (subject to any revisions made by the Assembly under section 31) unless and until they are remade by the Assembly under that section.

Witnesses and documents: penalties

21 In relation to an offence committed before the coming into force of section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) the references in section 39(4)(b) and 40(3) (b) to 51 weeks are to three months.

Exercise of functions before appointment of first First Minister

22 (1) Nothing in this Act (including in particular the repeal of section 1 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38)), or in that Act, is to be taken to dissolve the Assembly constituted by that Act until the end of the initial period.
(2) Despite this Act and section 2(5) of that Act, during the initial period the Assembly constituted by that Act is to be treated as consisting of the persons who—

(a) immediately before the beginning of the initial period, hold office as the Assembly First Secretary, an Assembly Secretary or the presiding officer, and

(b) are candidates to be Assembly members at the 2007 election.

(3) But a person ceases to be a member of that Assembly—

(a) if not returned as an Assembly member at that election, when the Assembly members for the Assembly constituency or Assembly electoral region for which that person is a candidate are returned, or

(b) if disqualified from being an Assembly member, when that disqualification takes effect.

(4) For so long as a person is a member of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 by virtue of this paragraph the person continues to be entitled to the same salary and allowances as the person was entitled to by virtue of section 16 of that Act immediately before the beginning of the initial period.

(1) This paragraph and paragraph 24 have effect during the initial period.

(2) The functions of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998, other than functions to which paragraph 24 applies, are exercisable—

(a) by the person who immediately before the beginning of the initial period held office as the Assembly First Secretary, if that person is a member of that Assembly, or

(b) by such of the persons who at that time held office as an Assembly Secretary and are members of that Assembly as those persons may designate, if that person is not a member of that Assembly (or if the office of Assembly First Secretary was vacant at that time).

(3) A person designated for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(b) must inform the Secretary of State of the designation as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(4) Functions which are exercisable by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) may be delegated by the person by whom they are exercisable (to such extent as that person may determine) to any other member of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 who immediately before the beginning of the initial period held office as an Assembly Secretary.

(5) Functions which—

(a) are exercisable by virtue of sub-paragraph (2), or

(b) are delegated under sub-paragraph (4), may be delegated by the person by whom they are exercisable or to whom they have been delegated (to such extent as that person may determine) to members of the staff of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38).

(6) Where a function is delegated under sub-paragraph (5), arrangements for the exercise of the function are to be made by the person who, immediately before the beginning of the initial period, was the Permanent Secretary to the Assembly for the purposes of section 63(2) of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(7) The delegation of any function under this paragraph does not prevent the exercise of the function by the person by whom the delegation is made.
(8) The exercise of any function in accordance with this paragraph is subject to any condition, limitation or restriction which applied to the exercise of that function immediately before the beginning of the initial period.

24 (1) This paragraph applies to functions of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 which, immediately before the beginning of the initial period, were delegated under section 62 of that Act to the committee of the Assembly referred to in the standing orders made under that Act as the House Committee.

(2) Functions to which this paragraph applies are exercisable—
   (a) by the person who, immediately before the beginning of the initial period, held office as the presiding officer of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998, if that person is a member of that Assembly, or
   (b) by the person who, at that time, held the post referred to in the standing orders made under that Act as the Clerk to the Assembly, if the person mentioned in paragraph (a) is not a member of that Assembly (or if the office of presiding officer was vacant at that time).

(3) Functions which are exercisable by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) may be delegated by the person by whom they are exercisable (to such extent as that person may determine) to members of the staff of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(4) Where a function is delegated under sub-paragraph (3), arrangements for the exercise of the function are to be made by the person who, immediately before the beginning of the initial period, held the post referred to in the standing orders made under the Government of Wales Act 1998 as the Clerk to the Assembly.

(5) The delegation of any function under sub-paragraph (3) does not prevent the exercise of the function by the person by whom the delegation is made.

(6) The exercise of any function in accordance with this paragraph is subject to any condition, limitation or restriction which applied to the exercise of that function immediately before the beginning of the initial period.

25 (1) Where a function of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation is exercised during the initial period in accordance with paragraph 23, it is to be made, confirmed or approved by being signed by the person by whom the function is exercised.

(2) Despite sub-paragraph (8) of paragraph 23, nothing contained in the following provisions of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38), or included in the standing orders of the Assembly constituted by that Act by virtue of the following provisions of that Act, applies to subordinate legislation made in accordance with that paragraph—
   (a) section 65 (regulatory appraisals),
   (b) sections 66 and 67 (procedure), and
   (c) section 68 (financial initiative).

(3) But as soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of the initial period the Clerk must lay before the Assembly every statutory instrument containing subordinate legislation made, confirmed or approved in accordance with paragraph 23.
Saving for existing instruments conferring or imposing functions

26 (1) Any provision of an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (whether included by virtue of that section or any other enactment apart from section 155(2) of that Act) which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act continues to have effect after the commencement of that repeal as if it were a provision of an Order in Council under section 58.

(2) Accordingly—
(a) the reference in paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 3 to an Order in Council under section 58 of this Act which includes provision transferring a function to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General includes a reference to an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which includes provision having that effect by virtue of this Schedule, and
(b) the reference in paragraph 18(5) of Schedule 8 to an Order in Council under section 58 transferring a function of preparing accounts to the Welsh Ministers includes a reference to an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which makes provision having that effect by virtue of this Schedule.

(3) Any provision which—
(a) is included in an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 by virtue of section 155(2) of that Act (meaning of “Wales”), and
(b) is in force at the time when this Act is passed, is to be treated after that time as if it were also contained in an order under subsection (3) of section 158 of this Act (having effect for the purposes of the definition of “Wales” in subsection (1) of that section).

27 Orders under section 27 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which are in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that section by this Act continue to have effect despite the commencement of that repeal.

28 (1) Designations made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68) by virtue of subsection (1) of section 29 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which are in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that subsection by this Act continue to have effect after the commencement of that repeal as if made by virtue of subsection (1) of section 59 of this Act.

(2) Regulations made under section 56 of the Finance Act 1973 (c. 51) by virtue of subsection (4) of that section which are in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that subsection by this Act continue to have effect after the commencement of that repeal as if made by virtue of subsection (5) of section 59 of this Act.

First nomination of First Minister

29 The reference in section 47(2)(a) to the holding of a poll at a general election includes a reference to the holding of the poll at the 2007 election.
Transfer of Assembly functions

30 (1) Subject to paragraph 31, the relevant Assembly functions are transferred to the Welsh Ministers immediately after the end of the initial period.

(2) “The relevant Assembly functions” means functions exercisable by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38)—

(a) immediately before the end of the initial period, by virtue of an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998,

(b) immediately before the end of that period, as a result of a designation made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68) by virtue of subsection (1) of section 29 of the Government of Wales Act 1998,

(c) immediately before the end of that period, as a result of having been conferred or imposed on it by an enactment contained in an Act, other than an enactment contained in the Government of Wales Act 1998, or by a prerogative instrument, or

(d) immediately before the end of that period, as a result of having been conferred or imposed on it by subordinate legislation (including subordinate legislation made under the Government of Wales Act 1998).

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph a function is “exercisable” at any time even if the enactment transferring, conferring or imposing it has not come into force at that time.

31 (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for—

(a) the transfer of any of the relevant Assembly functions to—

(i) the First Minister, or

(ii) the Counsel General,

(b) the transfer of any of the relevant Assembly functions, other than functions of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation, to the Assembly Commission, or

(c) any of the relevant Assembly functions, other than functions of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation, to be functions of the Assembly.

(2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for any relevant Assembly function that is a function of making, confirming or approving subordinate legislation in relation to any matter not to be transferred to the Welsh Ministers and, unless the Assembly already has power to pass Assembly Measures in relation to that matter, amend Part 1 of Schedule 5 to enable the Assembly to have instead power to pass Assembly Measures in relation to that matter—

(a) in the same terms as the relevant Assembly function, or

(b) in terms differing from those terms to such extent as appears appropriate.

(3) Her Majesty may by Order in Council—

(a) direct that any function transferred by paragraph 30 is to be exercisable by any one or more of the First Minister, the Counsel General, the Assembly Commission and the Assembly concurrently with the Welsh Ministers,

(b) direct that any function in relation to which provision is made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) for it to be transferred to, or continue to be a function of, any person or body is to be exercisable by any other person or body specified in that sub-paragraph concurrently with that person or body, or

(c) direct that any function transferred by paragraph 30, or transferred to the First Minister or the Counsel General by virtue of sub-paragraph (1), is to be exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General only with the agreement of, or after consultation with, the Assembly Commission.

(4) An Order in Council under sub-paragraph (1), (2) or (3) may make such modifications of—
   (a) any enactment (including any enactment comprised in or made under this Act) or prerogative instrument, or
   (b) any other instrument or document,
as Her Majesty considers appropriate in connection with the provision made by the Order in Council.

(5) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under sub-paragraph (1) or (3) in relation to a function which has already been transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General without the consent of those persons or that person to the recommendation.

(6) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under sub-paragraph (2) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38); and a statutory instrument containing an Order in Council under that sub-paragraph is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(7) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under sub-paragraph (1) or (3) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(8) But sub-paragraph (7) does not apply if the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 or the Assembly constituted by this Act has resolved that a recommendation should be made to Her Majesty in Council to make the Order in Council.

32 (1) This paragraph applies so far as may be necessary for the purpose or in consequence of the exercise of any functions of—
   (a) the Welsh Ministers,
   (b) the First Minister,
   (c) the Counsel General,
   (d) the Assembly Commission, or
   (e) the Assembly constituted by this Act, which are made exercisable by them by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31.

(2) Any relevant reference to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) is to be construed as being or including a reference to—
   (a) the Welsh Ministers,
   (b) the First Minister,
   (c) the Counsel General,
   (d) the Assembly Commission, or
   (e) the Assembly constituted by this Act,
(according to by whom the function in question is, or is to be, exercised).
(3) In sub-paragraph (2) “relevant reference to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998” means—

(a) a reference in any enactment, prerogative instrument or other document to that Assembly, or

(b) a reference in any enactment or other document which, immediately before the commencement of the repeal by this Act of section 43 of the Government of Wales Act 1998, had effect as a reference to that Assembly.

Functions transferred by Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998: Parliamentary and Assembly procedure

33 (1) This paragraph applies where—

(a) a function to make subordinate legislation was transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 by an Order in Council under section 22 of that Act, and

(b) the function has been transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31.

(2) If, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of any of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (3) applied to its exercise by a Minister of the Crown—

(a) that provision does not apply to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General unless the case is one to which sub-paragraph (6) applies, but

(b) (whether or not the case is one to which that sub-paragraph applies) that provision has effect in relation to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General as if any reference in it to Parliament or either House of Parliament were (or, if it is such a case, included) a reference to the Assembly.

(3) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are—

(a) provision requiring any instrument made in the exercise of the function, or a draft of any such instrument, to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament,

(b) provision for the annulment or approval of any such instrument or draft by or in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament or of each House, and

(c) provision prohibiting the making of any such instrument without such approval.

(4) If, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of either of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (5) applied to its exercise by a Minister of the Crown—
(a) that provision does not apply to its exercise by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General unless the case is one to which subparagraph (6) or (7) applies, but

(b) (whether or not the case is one to which either of those sub-paragraphs applies) any instrument made in the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General is (or, if it is such a case, is also) subject to the procedure in the Assembly specified by the standing orders.

(5) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraph (4) are—

(a) provision for any instrument made in the exercise of the function to be a provisional order (that is, an order which requires to be confirmed by Act of Parliament), and

(b) provision requiring any order (within the meaning of the Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act 1945 (9 & 10 Geo. 6 c. 18)) made in the exercise of the function to be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(6) This sub-paragraph applies in any case if the instrument made in the exercise of the function or (if provision specified in sub-paragraph (3)(a) or (b) applied to a draft of an instrument made in the exercise of the function) a draft of an instrument to be so made—

(a) contains subordinate legislation made or to be made by a Minister of the Crown or government department (whether or not jointly with the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General),

(b) contains (or confirms or approves) subordinate legislation relating to an English border area, or

(c) contains (or confirms or approves) subordinate legislation relating to a cross-border body (and not relating only to the exercise of functions, or the carrying on of activities, by the body in or with respect to Wales or a part of Wales).

(7) This sub-paragraph applies in any case if, immediately before the coming into force of the provisions of the Order in Council relating to the function, a provision of the description specified in sub-paragraph (5)(b) applied to an instrument made in exercise of the function by a Minister of the Crown and the Order in Council provided that—

(a) any order made by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) in the exercise of the function, or

(b) any order so made in circumstances including those of the case, is to be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(8) In this paragraph “make” includes confirm or approve and related expressions (except “made exercisable”) are to be construed accordingly; but an instrument (or draft) does not fall within sub-paragraph (6)(a) just because it contains subordinate legislation made (or to be made) by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General with the agreement of a Minister of the Crown or government department.

Functions conferred or imposed by pre-commencement enactment: Parliamentary and Assembly procedure

(1) This paragraph applies where—
(a) a function to make subordinate legislation was conferred or imposed on the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) by a pre-commencement enactment (“the Welsh function”),
(b) the Welsh function has been transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31, and (c) when the Welsh function was transferred, a Minister of the Crown had the same or substantially the same function exercisable in relation to England (“the corresponding function”).

(2) If, immediately after the transfer of the Welsh function, a provision of any of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (4)—
(a) applied to the exercise of the corresponding function by the Minister of the Crown, but
(b) did not apply to the exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
the provision applies to any exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General as if any reference in it to Parliament or either House of Parliament were a reference to the Assembly.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraphs (4A) and (4B),] If, immediately after the transfer of the Welsh function, a provision of any of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (4) applied to both—
(a) the exercise of the corresponding function by the Minister of the Crown, and
(b) the exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
the provision applies to any exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General as if any reference in it to Parliament or either House of Parliament were a reference both to the Assembly and to Parliament or either House of Parliament.

(4) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) are—
(a) provision requiring any instrument made in the exercise of the function, or a draft of any such instrument, to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament,
(b) provision for the annulment or approval of any such instrument or draft by or in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament or of both Houses, and
(c) provision prohibiting the making of any such instrument without such approval.

(4A) Section 1(5) of the Travel Concessions (Eligibility) Act 2002 (parliamentary procedure) applies to an order made by the Welsh Ministers under section 1(4) of that Act (order changing minimum age for the purposes of eligibility for travel concessions) as if the reference to either House of Parliament were a reference to the Assembly.

(4B) Section 268(13) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (parliamentary procedure) applies to an order made by the Welsh Ministers under section 268(1) of that Act (order in relation to disqualification from office) as if the reference to each House of Parliament were a reference to the Assembly.]

(5) If, immediately after the transfer of the Welsh function, a provision of either of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (7)—
(a) applied to the exercise of the corresponding function by the Minister of the Crown, but

(b) did not apply to the exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, an instrument made in any exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General is subject to the procedure in the Assembly specified by the standing orders.

(6) If, immediately after the transfer of the Welsh function, a provision of either of the descriptions specified in sub-paragraph (7) applied to both—

(a) the exercise of the corresponding function by the Minister of the Crown, and

(b) the exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, the instrument made in any exercise of the Welsh function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General is subject to that provision and to the procedure in the Assembly specified by the standing orders.

(7) The descriptions of provision referred to in sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) are—

(a) provision for any instrument made in the exercise of the function to be a provisional order (that is, an order which requires to be confirmed by Act of Parliament), and

(b) provision requiring any order (within the meaning of the Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act 1945 (9 & 10 Geo. 6 c. 18)) made in the exercise of the function to be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(8) In this paragraph—

“make” includes confirm or approve and related expressions are to be construed accordingly, and “pre-commencement enactment” means an enactment contained in an Act passed or subordinate legislation made before the end of the initial period.

(9) This paragraph does not apply if the Welsh function was transferred as a result of the operation of paragraph 30(2)(b) (see paragraph 28 and section 59).
(c) when the function was transferred, no Minister of the Crown had the same or substantially the same function exercisable in relation to England.

(2) No procedure for scrutiny by the Assembly applies to any instrument made in the exercise of the function, or a draft of any such instrument, unless the function is specified in Table 1 or Table 2.

(3) No subordinate legislation is to be made by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General in the exercise of any function specified in Table 1 unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.

Instrument containing provisions under transferred power and provision under power in section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972: Assembly procedure 35A (1) Paragraph 2A of Schedule 2 to the ECA 1972 applies to a draft of a statutory instrument laid before the Assembly pursuant to section 59(3) of this Act as it applies to a draft of a statutory instrument laid before Parliament pursuant to paragraph 2(2) of Schedule 2 to the ECA 1972.

(2) Paragraph 2B of Schedule 2 to the ECA 1972 applies to a statutory instrument laid before the Assembly pursuant to section 59(3) of this Act as it applies to a statutory instrument laid before Parliament pursuant to paragraph 2(2) of Schedule 2 to the ECA 1972.

(3) Paragraph 2A, or paragraph 2B, is subject to the following modifications in its application by virtue of this paragraph—
   (a) references to Parliament and to each or either House of Parliament are to be read as references to the Assembly;
   (b) the reference in paragraph 2A(1)(a), or in paragraph 2B(1)(a), to a power conferred by any other enactment is to be read as a reference to a power which—
      (i) is transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31 of this Schedule, or
      (ii) is conferred on the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by a provision of any Act in consequence of the amendment of that Act by or under this Act.

(4) In this paragraph, ECA 1972 means the European Communities Act 1972.

Transfers of Assembly functions: laying of reports and statements

36 (1) This paragraph applies where—
   (a) a function to make or receive a report or statement was transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) by an Order in Council under section 22 of that Act,
   (b) the function has been transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31, and
   (c) immediately before the transfer of the function to that Assembly, any enactment made provision (“provision for Parliamentary laying”) for a report or statement made or received in the exercise of the function to be laid before Parliament or either House of Parliament by the person making or receiving it.

(2) The provision for Parliamentary laying applies to the exercise of the function by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission as if it required the report or statement to be laid before the Assembly instead of before Parliament or either House of Parliament.

(3) In this paragraph and paragraph 37 references to a report or statement include any other document (except one containing subordinate legislation).

37 (1) This paragraph applies where—
(a) a function to make or receive a report or statement was conferred or imposed on the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 by a pre-commencement enactment,

(b) the function has been transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31, and

(c) immediately before the transfer, any enactment made provision for a report or statement made or received in the exercise of the function (or the matter contained in such a report or statement) to be published by that Assembly.

(2) A copy of the report or statement must be laid before the Assembly after it has been made or received.

(3) In this paragraph “pre-commencement enactment” means an enactment contained in an Act passed or subordinate legislation made before the end of the initial period.

Transfers of Assembly functions: property, rights and liabilities

38 (1) In paragraphs 39 and 40 “transferred function” means a function—

(a) which is conferred or imposed on the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by a provision of this Act which re-enacts (with or without modifications) a provision of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) which conferred or imposed the same or substantially the same function on the Assembly constituted by that Act,

(b) which is transferred to a person or body other than the Assembly by or by virtue of paragraph 30 or 31, or

(c) which is conferred or imposed on the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General by a provision of any Act in consequence of the amendment of that Act by or under this Act.

(2) In paragraphs 39 and 40 “the transferee”, in relation to a transferred function, means—

(a) in the case of a function within paragraph (a) or (c) of sub-paragraph (1), the person or body on whom the function is conferred or imposed, and

(b) in the case of a function within paragraph (b) of that sub-paragraph, the person or body to whom the function is transferred.

(3) In paragraph 39 “transfer time”, in relation to a transferred function, means the time when the function first becomes exercisable by the transferee of the transferred function.

39 (1) The property, rights and liabilities to which the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 is entitled or subject in connection with any transferred function are transferred to and vest in the transferee of the function.

(2) Anything (including legal proceedings) which relates to—

(a) any transferred function, or

(b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) in connection with any transferred function, and which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 immediately before the transfer time may be continued by or in relation to the transferee of the transferred function.

(3) Anything which was done by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 for the purpose of or in connection with—

   (a) any transferred function, or

   (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) in connection with any transferred function, and which is in effect immediately before the transfer time has effect as if done by or in relation to the transferee of the transferred function.

(4) In any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to—

   (a) any transferred function, or

   (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by sub-paragraph (1) in connection with any transferred function, and which are made or commenced before the transfer time, the transferee of the transferred function is substituted for the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998.

40 (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide that all or any of the provisions of paragraph 39—

   (a) do not apply in relation to particular transferred functions or to the property, rights and liabilities connected with the particular transferred functions or particular property, rights and liabilities so connected,

   (b) are to apply only in relation to particular transferred functions or to particular property, rights or liabilities connected with transferred functions, or

   (c) apply with modifications in relation to particular transferred functions or to the property, rights and liabilities connected with the particular transferred functions or particular property, rights and liabilities so connected.

(2) Paragraph 39 does not apply in relation to rights and liabilities under a contract of employment of a member of the staff of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38).

(3) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under this paragraph unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before and approved by a resolution of—

   (a) each House of Parliament, and

   (b) the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 or the Assembly constituted by this Act.

41 (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the transfer to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission of—

   (a) any specified property, rights or liabilities, or

   (b) property, rights or liabilities of any specified description,

   to which the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 is entitled or subject or to which that Assembly was entitled or subject immediately before the end of the initial period.

(2) An order under sub-paragraph (1) may provide for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities to have effect subject to exceptions or reservations specified in or determined under the order.

(3) An order under sub-paragraph (1) may provide—
(a) for the creation in favour of the Assembly Commission of interests in, or dights over, property transferred to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General,
(b) for the creation in favour of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General of interests in, or rights over, property transferred to the Assembly Commission, or
(c) for the creation of new rights and liabilities between the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General on the one hand and the Assembly Commission on the other.

(4) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the continuation by or in relation to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General, or the Assembly Commission of—
(a) any specified thing, or
(b) anything of a specified description, commenced by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38).

(5) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for—
(a) any specified thing, or
(b) anything of a specified description, done by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 to have effect as if done by or in relation to the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission.

(6) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the substitution of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister, the Counsel General or the Assembly Commission for the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 in—
(a) any specified instrument, contract or legal proceedings, or
(b) any instrument, contract or legal proceedings of a specified description.

(7) An order under this paragraph may be made in consequence of provision made by this Act or in any other circumstances in which the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to make such an order.

(8) An order under this paragraph may not provide for the transfer of rights and liabilities under a contract of employment of a member of the staff of the Assembly constituted

(9) A statutory instrument containing an order under this paragraph is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(1) A certificate issued by the Secretary of State that any property has been transferred by—
(a) paragraph 39, or
(b) an order under paragraph 41,
is conclusive evidence of the transfer.

(2) Paragraph 39, and orders under paragraph 41, have effect in relation to property, rights or liabilities to which they apply in spite of any provision (of whatever nature) which would otherwise prevent, penalise or restrict the transfer of the property, rights or liabilities.
(3) A right of pre-emption, right of return or other similar right does not operate or become exercisable as a result of any transfer of property or rights by virtue of paragraph 39 or an order under paragraph 41.

(4) Any such right has effect in the case of any such transfer as if the transferee were the same person in law as the transferor and no transfer of the property or rights had taken place.

(5) Such compensation as is just is to be paid to any person in respect of any such right which would, apart from sub-paragraph (3), have operated in favour of or become exercisable by that person but which, in consequence of the operation of that sub-paragraph, cannot subsequently operate in favour of or become exercisable by that person.

(6) Any compensation payable by virtue of sub-paragraph (5) is to be paid by the transferor or by the transferee or by both.

(7) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the determination of disputes as to—
   (a) whether compensation is payable under sub-paragraph (5),
   (b) how much compensation is payable, and
   (c) the person to whom or by whom it is to be paid.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under this paragraph is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(9) Sub-paragraphs (2) to (8) apply in relation to the creation of rights or interests, or the doing of anything else, in relation to property as they apply in relation to a transfer of property; and references to the transferor and transferee are to be read accordingly.

(10) In this paragraph “right of return” means any right under a provision for the return or reversion of property in specified circumstances.

\[\text{\textbf{F434 Sch. 11 para. 42A and preceding cross-heading inserted by The Government of Wales Act 2006 (Transitional Provisions) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/1270), art. 2(3), the amending provision coming into force immediately after the end of “the initial period” (which ended with the day of the first appointment of a First Minister on 25.5.2007) - see art. 1(2) of the amending Order and s. 161(5) of this Act}}\]

42A  (1) —(1) In this paragraph, “criminal liability of the Assembly” means criminal liability incurred by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(2) To the extent that any criminal liability of the Assembly is connected with property, rights and other liabilities transferred to the Assembly Commission by the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Property, Rights and Liabilities) Order 2007, that criminal liability is transferred to the Assembly Commission.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the criminal liability of the Assembly is transferred to the Welsh \(\text{\textbf{$92... Government}}\).
Paragraph 39(2) to (4) applies in relation to criminal liability transferred by this paragraph as it applies to a liability transferred by paragraph 39; and in that application of paragraph 39(2) to (4)—

“transfer time” means the time immediately after the end of the initial period;

“transferee of the transferred function” means the Assembly Commission or, as the case may be, the Welsh Government.

Textual Amendments

Staff of the Assembly

(1) Subject as follows, at the end of the initial period the members of the staff of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) (“relevant employees”) are to be taken to have been appointed as members of the staff of the Welsh Government.

(2) But the Secretary of State may by order make a scheme (“a transfer scheme”) for the transfer to the Assembly Commission of the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 in respect of listed relevant employees under or in connection with their contracts of employment at the end of the initial period.

(3) A relevant employee is a listed relevant employee if the relevant employee is named in, or is of a description of relevant employees specified in, a list produced by the Secretary of State; and the Secretary of State—

(a) may at any time amend the list, and

(b) must make the list (and any amendments of it) available to such persons, and in such manner, as appear appropriate.

(4) The transfer by a transfer scheme of the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 in respect of a relevant employee under or in connection with the relevant employee's contract of employment does not break the continuity of the relevant employee's employment and accordingly—

(a) the relevant employee is not to be regarded for the purposes of Part 11 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18) (redundancy) as having been dismissed by virtue of the transfer, and

(b) the relevant employee's period of employment with the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 counts as a period of employment with the Assembly Commission for the purposes of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

(5) A transfer scheme transferring the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 in respect of a relevant employee under or in connection with the relevant employee's contract of employment must provide for the terms and conditions of the relevant employee's employment with the Assembly Commission (taken as a whole) to be no less favourable to the relevant employee than the terms and conditions on which the relevant employee is employed immediately before the transfer.

(6) A transfer scheme must provide that, if a listed relevant employee informs the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 or the Assembly Commission that the relevant employee objects to becoming employed by the Assembly Commission—

(a) the transfer scheme does not operate to transfer any rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 in respect of or in connection with the relevant employee's contract of employment, and

(b) the relevant employee's contract of employment is terminated immediately before the end of the initial period, but

(c) the relevant employee is not, by virtue of that termination, to be treated for any purpose as having been dismissed.

(7) Anything (including legal proceedings) which relates to any rights, powers, duties or liabilities transferred by a transfer scheme which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) immediately before they are transferred may be continued by or in relation to the Assembly Commission.

(8) Anything which was done by or in relation to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 for the purpose of or in connection with any rights, powers, duties or liabilities transferred by a transfer scheme which is in effect immediately before they are transferred has effect as if done by or in relation to the Assembly Commission.

(9) In any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to any rights, powers, duties or liabilities transferred by a transfer scheme and which are made or commenced immediately before they are transferred, the Assembly Commission is substituted for the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(10) Before making an order under sub-paragraph (2) the Secretary of State must consult the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(11) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (2) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Powers to lend money

(1) This paragraph applies where—

(a) a power to lend money was transferred to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 by an Order in Council under section 22 of that Act, and

(b) the power has been transferred to the Welsh Ministers by paragraph 30.

(2) Sub-paragraph (3) applies to any sums which, for the purpose or as a result of the exercise of the power, would be required (apart from that sub-paragraph)—

(a) to be issued by the Treasury out of the National Loans Fund, or

(b) to be paid into that Fund.

(3) Those sums are instead—

(a) to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund, or

(b) to be paid into that Fund.

(4) The following provisions apply where—

(a) the power was exercised by a Minister of the Crown before its transfer to the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) or by that Assembly after its transfer, and

(b) the sums required for the exercise of the power were issued by the Treasury out of the National Loans Fund.
(5) Any amount payable by way of repayment of, or of interest on, the loan is to be paid to the Welsh Ministers and into the Welsh Consolidated Fund (instead of to the Minister of the Crown and into the National Loans Fund).

(6) Amounts equal to those which are to be received by the Welsh Ministers in repayment of principal are to be treated as being loans made to the Welsh Ministers by the Secretary of State on the date of the transfer of the power to the Welsh Ministers.

(7) Such loans are to be repaid to the Secretary of State at such times and by such methods, and interest is to be paid to the Secretary of State at such rates and at such times, as the Treasury may from time to time determine.

(8) Sums required to be paid to the Secretary of State under sub-paragraph (7) are to be charged on the Welsh Consolidated Fund.

(9) Sums received by the Secretary of State under sub-paragraph (7) are to be paid into the National Loans Fund.

(10) Her Majesty may by Order in Council disapply this paragraph (in whole or in part) in relation to any power to lend money.

(11) No recommendation is to be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order in Council under sub-paragraph (10) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the Order in Council has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Local government scheme

(1) Any scheme under section 113(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that provision by this Act has effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if made under section 73.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not give rise to any obligation under section 73(4) to publish the scheme.

(3) Section 73(6) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.

(4) But if the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 has not complied with the duty imposed by paragraph 9 of Schedule 11 to that Act in relation to that financial year before the commencement of the repeal of that paragraph by this Act, that duty becomes a duty of the Welsh Ministers on the commencement of that repeal.

(5) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008, the reference in section 73(6)(a) to the proposals set out in the local government scheme includes those set out in a scheme under section 113(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

Voluntary sector scheme

(1) Any scheme under section 114(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that provision by this Act has effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if made under section 74.
(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not give rise to any obligation under section 74(7) to publish the scheme.

(3) Section 74(9) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.

(4) But if the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 has not complied with the duty imposed by subsection (9) of section 114 of that Act in relation to that financial year before the commencement of the repeal of that subsection by this Act, that duty becomes a duty of the Welsh Ministers on the commencement of that repeal.

(5) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008, the reference in section 74(9)(a) to the proposals set out in the voluntary sector scheme includes those set out in a scheme under section 114(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

Equality of opportunity arrangements

47 (1) Any arrangements under section 120(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 which are in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that provision by this Act have effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if made under section 77.

(2) Section 77(2) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.

(3) But if the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 has not complied with the duty imposed by subsection (2) of section 120 of that Act in relation to that financial year before the commencement of the repeal of that subsection by this Act, that duty becomes a duty of the Welsh Ministers on the commencement of that repeal.

(4) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008, the references in subsection (2) of section 77 to the arrangements made in pursuance of subsection (1) of that section include those made in pursuance of section 120(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

Welsh language strategy and scheme

48 (1) The National Action Plan for a Bilingual Wales (or Iaith Pawb) as it stands immediately before the coming into force of section 78 has effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if it were a strategy adopted under subsection (1) of that section.

(2) Any Welsh language scheme adopted by the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 and current immediately before the coming into force of section 78 has effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if adopted under subsection (2) of that section.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not give rise to any obligation under section 78(6).

(4) Section 78(8) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.
Sustainable development scheme

49 (1) Any scheme under section 121(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38) which is in force immediately before the commencement of the repeal of that provision by this Act has effect after that time (with appropriate modifications) as if made under section 79.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not give rise to any obligation under section 79(4) to publish the scheme.

(3) Section 79(6) does not apply in relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2007.

(4) But if the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998 has not complied with the duty imposed by subsection (6) of section 121 of that Act in relation to that financial year before the commencement of the repeal of that subsection by this Act, that duty becomes a duty of the Welsh Ministers on the commencement of that repeal.

(5) In relation to the financial year ending with 31st March 2008, the reference in section 79(6)(a) to the proposals set out in the sustainable development scheme includes those set out in a scheme under section 121(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998.

(6) Section 79(7) has effect as if 2008 were the year following that in which an ordinary general election is held.

Orders in Council amending Schedule 5

50 (1) Section 95 has effect until the end of the initial period subject to the following modifications.

(2) In subsection (2), for the words after “exercisable by” substitute “the Assembly constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998”.

(3) In subsection (5)(a), after “Assembly” insert “constituted by the Government of Wales Act 1998”.

(4) Omit subsections (6) to (10).

Assembly Measures: criminal penalties

52 (1) No term of imprisonment of more than six months is to be imposed on conviction of a summary offence created by or by virtue of an Assembly Measure if the offence is committed before the coming into force of section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(2) No term of imprisonment of more than six months is to be imposed on summary conviction of an offence triable either way created by or by virtue of an Assembly Measure if the offence is committed before the coming into force of section 154(1) of that Act.
