

Parliamentary Costs Act 2006

CHAPTER 37

PARLIAMENTARY COSTS ACT 2006

Functions of responsible officers

- 1 Appointment of taxing officers
- 2 Authorisation of representatives' charges

Assessment of disputed costs

- 3 Application for assessment
- 4 Duty to assess: general
- 5 Duty to assess: special cases
- 6 Report to responsible officer
- 7 Complaints about report
- 8 Certificate by responsible officer

Vexatious proceedings

- 9 Award of costs to promoter of private Bill
- 10 Award of costs to petitioner opposing private Bill
- 11 Application for assessment etc. on award of vexatious costs
- 12 Duty to assess and certify vexatious costs

Powers etc. on assessment

- 13 Functions of taxing officers
- 14 Fees

Miscellaneous

- 15 Application to other types of Bill etc.
- 16 Court of Referees

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Parliamentary Costs Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

Final

- 17 Consequential and transitional provisions
- 18 Interpretation
- 19 Commencement, extent and short title

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1 — Repeals and revocations

SCHEDULE 2 — Transitional provisions

- 1 The repeal and re-enactment of provisions by this Act does...
- 2 A reference, express or implied, in this Act, another enactment...
- 3 A reference, express or implied, in any enactment, instrument or...
- 4 In particular, where a power conferred by an Act is...
- 5 Anything done, or having effect as if done, under (or...
- 6 Paragraphs 1 to 4 have effect in place of section...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Parliamentary Costs Act 2006.