14 Reference of matters to the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority E+W+S

- (1) In this section references to a complaint are to a complaint within section 11(1)(a) or to which section 12(3) or 13 applies.
 - (2) Where it appears to [^{F69}the consumer advocacy body in question] that a complaint relates to a matter in respect of which any of the Authority's enforcement functions may be exercisable, [^{F70}that body] must refer the complaint to the Authority unless it is satisfied that the Authority is already aware of the matter.
 - (3) Where a complaint to which section 13 applies is referred to the Authority under subsection (2), [^{F71}the consumer advocacy body in question] is not required to investigate the complaint under subsection (2) of that section until the Authority has had a reasonable opportunity to exercise its enforcement functions in relation to the matter to which the complaint relates.
 - (4) On investigating a complaint, [^{F72}the consumer advocacy body in question] must inform the complainant if it considers that the complaint relates to a matter of a kind which can be referred by the complainant to the Authority under any provision of the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44) or the Electricity Act 1989 (c. 29).
- [^{F73}(4A) In this section, a reference to a consumer advocacy body does not include a reference to the GCCNI.]
- (5) In this section—
 - “ the Authority ” means the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority;
 - “ enforcement function ”, in relation to the Authority, means any of its functions under section 28 or 30A of the Gas Act 1986 or section 25 or 27A of the Electricity Act 1989.

[^{F93}19A Guidance for energy consumers U.K.

- (1) [^{F94}A consumer advocacy body] must prepare, and keep under review—
 - (a) guidance for energy consumers (the “energy consumer guidance”), and
 - (b) a summary prepared in accordance with subsection (4) (the “concise guidance”).
 - (2) The energy consumer guidance must address the matters included in any document published by the European Commission pursuant to Article 3(16) of the Electricity Directive or Article 3(12) of the Gas Directive.
 - (3) The energy consumer guidance may include any other information relating to the rights of energy consumers which [^{F95}the consumer advocacy body in question] thinks appropriate.
 - (4) The concise guidance must—
 - (a) summarise any information in the energy consumer guidance which [^{F96}in the view of the consumer advocacy body in question] is particularly relevant to the interests of energy consumers, and
 - (b) state where a copy of the energy consumer guidance can be obtained.
 - (5) In preparing and reviewing [^{F97}its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance][^{F98}a consumer advocacy body] must consult—
 - (a) the Secretary of State,
 - (b) the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, and
 - (c) any other person [^{F99}the consumer advocacy body in question] considers appropriate.
 - [^{F100}(6) A consumer advocacy body must publish the first version of its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance on its website.]
 - (7) If, following a review, [^{F101}a consumer advocacy body] considers it necessary to amend [^{F102}its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance], [^{F103}the consumer advocacy body] must, as soon as is reasonably practicable—
 - (a) publish the amended version on its website, and
 - (b) inform any person it consulted in accordance with subsection (5) that it has done so.
 - (8) [^{F104}A consumer advocacy body] may also make the first and any amended version of [^{F105}its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance] available in any other manner [^{F106}the consumer advocacy body] thinks appropriate for the purpose of bringing that guidance to the attention of those likely to be interested.
- [Until a consumer advocacy body has published the first version of its energy consumer
- ^{F107}(8A) guidance and its concise guidance, it must—
- (a) publish on its website, and
 - (b) make available in any other manner that it thinks appropriate for the purpose of bringing them to the attention of those likely to be interested,
- the last version of the energy consumer guidance and the concise guidance to be published by the National Consumer Council under this section (as it had effect immediately before the amendments made to this Act by the Public Bodies (Abolition of the National Consumer Council and Transfer of the Office of Fair Trading’s Functions in relation to Estate Agents etc) Order 2014 (S.I. 2014/...) came into force.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Information

24 Provision of information to [F111 the consumer advocacy bodies] U.K.

- (1) [F112 A consumer advocacy body] may, by notice, require a person within subsection (3) to supply it with such information as is specified or described in the notice within such reasonable period as is so specified.
- (2) [F113 In the case of the GCCNI, the] information specified or described in a notice under subsection (1) must be information [F114 the GCCNI] requires for the purpose of exercising its functions.

[F115(2A) In the case of Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, the information specified or described in a notice under subsection (1) must be information it requires—

- (a) for the purpose of exercising a function conferred on it by or under an enactment, or
- (b) for the purpose of exercising a function it has that—
 - (i) is not conferred by or under an enactment, and
 - (ii) corresponds to a function conferred on the GCCNI under section 8, 9, 10, 11 or 19, disregarding for these purposes the limitations relating to postal services in Northern Ireland in sections 1(4) and 11(1).

(2B) For the purposes of subsection (2A) “enactment” means an Act, an Act of the Scottish Parliament, a measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales or Northern Ireland legislation.]

- (3) The persons referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) the [F116 Competition and Markets Authority];
 - (b) a designated regulator;
 - (c) any person who supplies goods or services in the course of a business carried on by that person;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) any other person specified or of a description specified by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this subsection.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) may specify the manner and form in which any information is to be provided.
- (5) Before giving a notice under subsection (1), or specifying the manner or form in which any information is to be provided, [^{F117}a consumer advocacy body] must have regard to the desirability of minimising the costs, or any other detriment, to the person to whom the notice is to be given.
- (6) If a person within subsection (3)(a) or (b) fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1), the person must, if so required by [^{F118}the consumer advocacy body in question], give notice to [^{F119}that body] of the reasons for the failure.
- (7) An order under subsection (3)(d) may provide either—
- (a) that subsection (6) is to apply in relation to a person specified or of a description specified by the order as it applies to a person within subsection (3) (a) or (b), or
 - (b) that section 26 is to apply in relation to such a person.
- (8) [^{F120}A consumer advocacy body] may publish any notice received under subsection (6).
- [^{F121}(8A) Information provided to a consumer advocacy body because of a notice under subsection (1) may be provided by that body to the other consumer advocacy bodies.]
- (9) In this section—
- “ designated regulator ” means—
- (a) the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority;

- (1) In Schedule 14 to the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40) (restrictions on disclosure: list of enactments under or by virtue of which information is obtained), at the appropriate place in the list insert— “ Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007. ”
- (2) In Schedule 15 to that Act (enactments in relation to which disclosure may be made), at the appropriate place in the list insert— “ Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007. ”
- (3) For the purposes of Part 9 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40) (information) the following information is to be regarded as “specified information” within the meaning of that Part—
 - (a) information obtained by [^{F138}Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland] under or by virtue of Part 1 of the the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44), Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989 (c. 29) or the Utilities Act 2000 (c. 27);
 - (b) information obtained by [^{F139}the consumer advocacy bodies] under or by virtue of [^{F140}the Postal Services Act 2011].

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F141}(3A) Citizens Advice and Citizens Advice Scotland are to be treated as public authorities for the purposes of section 238(1) of the Enterprise Act 2002 only so far as regards functions conferred on the body in question under or by virtue of—
- (a) the enactments mentioned in subsection (3), or
 - (b) this Act.
- (3B) If and so far as a relevant function is exercisable by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland it is to be regarded as a function of that body under this Act for the purpose of enabling that body to receive information under section 241(3) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (disclosure to facilitate the exercise of another person’s function).
- (3C) “Relevant function” means a function that—
- (a) is not conferred by or under an enactment, and
 - (b) corresponds to a function conferred on the GCCNI under section 8, 9, 10, 11 or 19, disregarding for these purposes the limitations relating to postal services in Northern Ireland in sections 1(4) and 11(1).]
- (4) Part 9 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (which among other things restricts the disclosure of certain information) does not limit the information which may be—
- (a) made available by [^{F142} the GCCNI] under section 8 or 10,
 - (b) included in, or made public as part of, a report of [^{F143} the GCCNI] under any provision of this Part,
 - (c) published by [^{F144} the GCCNI] under section 19(2) ^{F145} ...,
 - [^{F146}(ca) published or made available by [^{F147}Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland] under [^{F148} subsection (7) or (8)] of section 19A,
 - (cb) published by [^{F149}Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland] under section 24(8),]
 - (d) published by an authorised person under section 27(7),
 - (e) published by [^{F150}a consumer advocacy body] under section 45, or
 - (f) published by [^{F151}Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland] under section 33DA of the Gas Act 1986 or section 42AA of the Electricity Act 1989.
- (5) Before disclosing any specified information by virtue of subsection (4) (other than by publishing it as mentioned in subsection (4)(e) or (f)), [^{F152}the consumer advocacy body in question or the] authorised person must consult—
- (a) if the information relates to the affairs of an individual, that individual, and
 - (b) if the information relates to the business of an undertaking, the person for the time being carrying on the business.
- (6) Before disclosing any specified information by virtue of subsection (4) (other than by publishing it as mentioned in subsection (4)(e) or (f)), [^{F153}the consumer advocacy body in question or the] authorised person must also have regard to the considerations set out in subsections (2) to (4) of section 244 of the Enterprise Act 2002.
- For this purpose, references to “the authority” in those subsections are to be read as references to [^{F153}the consumer advocacy body in question or the] the authorised person, as appropriate.
- (7) In this section—
- “ authorised person ” has the same meaning as in section 27;

33 Supplementary provision about transfer and abolition orders E+W

- (1) This section applies where the Consumer Council for Water has been designated for abolition under section 31.
- (2) In this section “ payment conditions ” means—
 - (a) in the case of an appointment under Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Water Industry Act 1991 (c. 56), conditions included in the appointment by virtue of section 11(1)(c) of that Act, and
 - (b) in the case of a water supply licence under Chapter 1A of that Part, conditions included in the licence by virtue of section 17G(1)(b) of that Act.
- (3) The payment conditions of such an appointment or licence may (without prejudice to the generality of sections 11(1)(c) and 17G(1)(b) of that Act) require the payment by the company holding the appointment or licence of sums relating to any of the expenses mentioned in subsection (4).
- (4) Those expenses are—
 - (a) the appropriate proportion of the expenses of [^{F157}Citizens Advice] (other than those expenses within paragraph (b) and [^{F158} any expenses which relate to taking on functions transferred from the Consumer Council for Water]);
 - (b) any expenses of [^{F159}Citizens Advice] , the Secretary of State or the Consumer Council for Water which relate to a transfer scheme made in respect of the Consumer Council for Water under section 35(2)(a) or (7);
 - (c) the expenses of the Secretary of State which relate to the abolition of the Consumer Council for Water;
 - (d) the expenses of [^{F160}Citizens Advice] expanding [^{F161} a qualifying consumer advice scheme] to enable it to cater for water consumers;
 - (e) the appropriate proportion of the expenses of [^{F162}Citizens Advice] on, or in connection with, the support of [^{F163} a qualifying consumer advice scheme] .
- (5) The “appropriate proportion” of any relevant expenses means such proportion of the expenses as the Secretary of State considers is reasonable having regard to—
 - (a) in the case of expenses within subsection (4)(a), the functions exercisable by [^{F164}Citizens Advice] in relation to water consumers;
 - (b) in the case of expenses within subsection (4)(e), the functions under [^{F165}a qualifying consumer advice scheme] which are exercisable in relation to water consumers.
- (6) The Authority may, in accordance with this section, modify any payment conditions where it considers it necessary or expedient to do so in consequence of, or of preparations for—
 - (a) the abolition of the Consumer Council for Water, or
 - (b) a transfer order or abolition order under section 32.
- (7) The Authority may, in accordance with this section, make such incidental or consequential modifications of the other conditions which are included in—
 - (a) an appointment under Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Water Industry Act 1991 (c. 56), or

- (b) a water supply licence under Chapter 1A of that Part, as it considers necessary or expedient in consequence of, or of preparations for, an event mentioned in subsection (6)(a) or (b).
- (8) Before modifying under subsection (6) or (7) the conditions included in an appointment or licence, the Authority must consult the company holding the appointment or licence.
- (9) The Secretary of State may, after consulting the Welsh Ministers, give directions to the Authority for the purpose of securing that sums relating to any of the expenses mentioned in subsection (4) are included in the sums payable by virtue of payment conditions; and the Authority must comply with any such direction.
- [^{F166}(9A) For the purposes of this section a qualifying public consumer advice scheme is a scheme that is supported by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, or by them jointly, in a manner that the Office of Fair Trading is prohibited from supporting by section 8A of the Enterprise Act 2002.]
- (10) In this section—
“ the Authority ” means the Water Services Regulation Authority;
^{F167}
“ water consumers ” means consumers in relation to services provided by a water undertaker, a sewerage undertaker or a licensed water supplier, in its capacity as such.

- (1) A regulator must by regulations prescribe standards for the handling by its regulated providers of consumer complaints made to them.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe standards in relation to all consumer complaints, or consumer complaints of a kind specified in the regulations.
- (3) In particular, the regulations may specify a kind of consumer complaint by reference to the subject-matter of a complaint, or the description of person making a complaint.
- (4) Regulations under this section may be made only with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (5) A regulator must make arrangements for securing that regulations made by it under this section are available to the public, by whatever means it considers appropriate.
- (6) If a date is prescribed in relation to a regulator for the purposes of this subsection, from that date subsection (1) has effect in relation to that regulator as if, in that subsection, for “must” there were substituted “may”.
- (7) In subsection (6) “prescribed” means prescribed by order made by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (8) Before prescribing a date in relation to a regulator for the purposes of subsection (6), the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator,
 - ^F188 Citizens Advice,
 - (ba) Citizens Advice Scotland, and
 - (c) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (9) This section does not apply to the Water Services Regulation Authority.

Requirements relating to redress schemes

47 Membership of redress scheme U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order require regulated providers to be members of a redress scheme which is—
- approved by their relevant regulator in accordance with section 49, or
 - administered by the Secretary of State (or a person appointed by the Secretary of State) and designated by the Secretary of State as an appropriate redress scheme in relation to them.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. - (2) The order may provide that the requirement applies only in relation to consumer complaints of a kind specified in the order.
- (3) In particular, the order may specify a kind of consumer complaint by reference to the subject-matter of a complaint, or the description of person making a complaint.
- (4) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) each relevant regulator (in relation to regulated providers to which the order will apply), and
 - (b) other persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be representative of persons who have an interest in the matter.
- (5) The requirements of subsection (4) may be satisfied by consultation undertaken before the commencement of this section or the passing of this Act.
- (6) An order under this section which applies to a water undertaker or sewerage undertaker for an area which is wholly or mainly in Wales may be made only with the consent of the Welsh Ministers.
- (7) The Secretary of State may not make an order under this section unless satisfied, in relation to each regulated provider to which the order will apply, that—
 - (a) there is at least one qualifying redress scheme which the provider is eligible to join and membership of which will satisfy the requirement imposed by the order, or
 - (b) there will be such a scheme when the order comes into force.
- (8) The Secretary of State may not designate a scheme in relation to regulated providers under subsection (1)(b) unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that the scheme is one which could be approved by their relevant regulator in accordance with section 49.
- (9) The Secretary of State may establish or administer a scheme for the purposes of subsection (1)(b), or provide financial assistance to a person who establishes or administers such a scheme; and such a scheme may provide for fees to be payable by members of the scheme.

48 Membership of redress schemes: supplementary U.K.

- (1) In this Part—
 - “qualifying redress scheme” means a redress scheme within paragraph (a) or (b) of section 47(1);
 - “redress scheme” means a scheme under which consumer complaints may be made to, and investigated and determined by, an independent person (“the independent person”);
 - “scheme administrator”, in relation to a redress scheme, means the person who administers the scheme, and references to approval of a redress scheme are to approval of the scheme for the purposes of section 47(1)(a).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In the definition of “redress scheme”, “independent”, in relation to a consumer complaint, means independent of—
 - (a) the regulated provider against whom the complaint is made, and
 - (b) the regulator who is the relevant regulator in relation to the regulated provider.
- (3) Nothing in this Part prevents a qualifying redress scheme providing—
 - (a) for membership to be open to persons who are not subject to any duty to belong to a qualifying redress scheme;
 - (b) for the investigation and determination of complaints other than those in relation to which such a duty applies, made against members who have voluntarily accepted the jurisdiction of the scheme over such complaints.
- (4) For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, proceedings under a qualifying redress scheme (in relation to a consumer complaint and a regulated provider to which an order under section 47 applies) are to be treated in the same way as proceedings before a court.

49 Approval of redress schemes U.K.

- (1) In deciding whether to approve a redress scheme, a regulator must have regard to—
 - (a) the provisions of the scheme;
 - (b) the manner in which the scheme will be operated (so far as that can be judged from the facts known to the regulator);
 - (c) the interests of relevant consumers (in relation to the regulator's regulated providers);
 - (d) such principles as—
 - (i) in the opinion of the regulator constitute generally accepted principles of best practice in relation to schemes for providing redress to consumers, and
 - (ii) it is reasonable to regard as applicable to the scheme.
- (2) In considering the interests of relevant consumers under subsection (1)(c), the regulator must in particular have regard to the number of other redress schemes applying to its regulated providers which are (or are likely to become) qualifying redress schemes.
- (3) A regulator must not approve a redress scheme unless—
 - (a) membership of the scheme is open to all the regulator's regulated providers, and those regulated providers may not be expelled from membership of the scheme,
 - (b) if, at the time the approval is given, any of the regulator's regulated providers are required under section 47 to be a member of a redress scheme (or would be so required but for the fact that an order which has been made under that section is not yet in force), the scheme covers all the consumer complaints to which the requirement applies,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. - (c) the independent person may require regulated providers to provide complainants with the types of redress listed in subsection (6) (whether or not other types of redress are available), and
 - (d) the regulator considers that the scheme makes satisfactory provision about the matters listed in subsection (7).
- (4) Subsection (3)(a) does not prevent the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority approving—
- (a) a scheme which is open to all regulated gas providers, but not regulated electricity providers,
 - (b) a scheme which is open to all regulated electricity providers, but not regulated gas providers,
- and, in the case of such a scheme, subsection (3)(b) applies as if the reference to the regulator's regulated providers were to the regulated gas providers or, as the case may be, regulated electricity providers.
- (5) For this purpose—
- “regulated electricity provider” means a person holding a licence under section 6(1)(c) or (d) of the Electricity Act 1989 (c. 29);
 - “regulated gas provider” means a person holding a licence under section 7(2) or 7A(1) of the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44).
- (6) The types of redress mentioned in subsection (3)(c) are—
- (a) providing an apology or explanation,
 - (b) paying compensation, and
 - (c) taking such other action in the interests of the complainant as the independent person may specify.
- (7) The matters mentioned in subsection (3)(d) are—
- (a) the matters about which complaints may be made (which may include non-compliance with a code of practice or other document);
 - (b) the independent person's duties and powers in relation to the investigation and determination of complaints (which may include power to decide not to investigate or determine a complaint);
 - (c) the enforcement of any requirement to provide redress imposed on a regulated provider in accordance with the scheme;
 - (d) the provision of information by the independent person to the regulator and to persons within subsection (8);
 - (e) the provision of information by the independent person—
 - [^{F195}(i) to Citizens Advice Scotland, for the purposes of any qualifying public consumer advice scheme supported by it (on its own or jointly with Citizens Advice), and
 - (ii) to persons who operate a qualifying public consumer advice scheme supported by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, or by them jointly, for the purposes of that scheme;]
 - (f) the acceptance and handling of complaints transferred from redress schemes which have their approval withdrawn under section 51.
- (8) The persons within this subsection are—
- (a) any other body having regulatory functions in relation to the regulated providers to which the scheme applies;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (b) persons exercising functions under other redress schemes which apply to the regulator's regulated providers;
- ^{F196}(c) Citizens Advice;
- (ca) so far as regards schemes to be approved by the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, Citizens Advice Scotland;]
- (d) the Secretary of State.

^{F197}(9) For the purposes of this section a qualifying public consumer advice scheme is a scheme that is supported by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, or by them jointly, in a manner that the Office of Fair Trading is prohibited from supporting by section 8A of the Enterprise Act 2002.]

- (b) ensure that anything required by subsection (3) to be included in the permanent records is kept for a period of at least six years beginning with the day on which it is included.
- (2) In the case of a person engaged in estate agency work in the course of employment the duties under subsection (1) are duties of the employer (and not the employee).
- (3) A person engaged in estate agency work shall ensure that a record of any information or event to which this subsection applies is included in the permanent records kept by that person or his employer (as the case may be).
- (4) Subsection (3) applies to—
 - (a) information the person concerned is required to give by section 18(1) or (3) and any prescribed information relating to the giving of that information;
 - (b) information the person concerned is required to disclose by section 21(1) or (2) and any prescribed information relating to the disclosure of that information;
 - (c) any offer of a prescribed description received by the person concerned and any prescribed information relating to the making of the offer;
 - (d) any action of a prescribed description taken by the person concerned in relation to such an offer and any prescribed information relating to that action; and
 - (e) any other information or event of a prescribed description.
- (5) If the person concerned is acting in the course of employment, it is also the duty of the employer to ensure that the record of the information or event is included in the permanent records; but the employer is not to be regarded as having breached his duty if he shows that he took such steps as were reasonably practicable to ensure that the duty under subsection (3) was complied with by his employees.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to—
 - (a) the manner in which the permanent records are to be kept;
 - (b) the place or places at which they are to be kept.
- (7) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (8) Any power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

56 Grounds for warning orders U.K.

- (1) Section 4 of the Estate Agents Act 1979 (warning orders) is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsection (1) substitute—
 - “(1) If the OFT is satisfied that any of subsections (1A), (1B) or (1C) apply in relation to a person it may by order notify that person that it is satisfied of the matters mentioned in that subsection.
 - (1A) This subsection applies in relation to a person if—
 - (a) in the course of estate agency work, he has engaged in conduct falling within paragraph (a), (b), (c), (ca) or (cb) of section 3(1); and
 - (b) were he to engage again in any conduct falling within that paragraph, the OFT would consider him unfit and proceed to make a prohibition order.
 - (1B) This subsection applies in relation to a person if—
 - (a) in the course of estate agency work, he has engaged in conduct constituting a failure to comply with—
 - (i) an undertaking mentioned in section 3(1)(ba); or
 - (ii) an enforcement order mentioned in section 3(1)(bb); and
 - (b) were he to fail again to comply with that undertaking or order by engaging in the same or similar conduct, the OFT would consider him unfit and proceed to make a prohibition order.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. Investigatory powers

57 Powers of entry and inspection U.K.

- (1) Section 11 of the Estate Agents Act 1979 (c. 38) (powers of entry and inspection) is amended as follows.
- (2) For subsection (1) substitute—
- “(1) If a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority (“an officer”) has reasonable cause to suspect—
- (a) that an offence has been committed under this Act;
 - (b) that a person has failed to comply with an obligation imposed on him under any of sections 15 and 18 to 21A; or
 - (c) that a person has engaged in a practice mentioned in section 3(1)(d);
- he may, in order to ascertain whether the offence has been committed, whether the person has failed to comply with the obligation or whether the person has engaged in the practice (as the case may be), exercise any power specified in subsection (1A).
- (1A) The powers are—
- (a) to enter any premises (other than premises used only as a dwelling);
 - (b) to require—
 - (i) any person carrying on, or employed in connection with, a business to produce any books or document relating to it, or
 - (ii) any person having control of any information relating to a business which is stored in any electronic form to produce the information in a form in which it can be taken away and

- (c) to take copies of, or of any entry in, any books or documents produced or provided in pursuance of a requirement imposed under paragraph (b).
- (1B) An officer may seize and detain any books or documents which he has reason to believe may be required as evidence—
- (a) in proceedings for an offence under this Act; or
- (b) in proceedings under any of sections 3, 4, 6 or 7 relating to an allegation—
- (i) that an offence has been committed under this Act;
- (ii) that a person has failed to comply with an obligation imposed on him under any of sections 15 and 18 to 21A; or
- (iii) that a person has engaged in a practice mentioned in section 3(1)(d).
- (1C) If it is not reasonably practicable to exercise any power under subsection (1A) (c) to take a copy of, or of any entry in, a book or document, an officer may seize and detain the book or document for the purpose of inspecting it (or any entry in it).
- (1D) A book or document which is seized in exercise of the power under subsection (1C) must be returned to the person from whom it was seized unless an officer has reason to believe that the book or document may be required as evidence in any proceedings mentioned in subsection (1B).
- (1E) Any power conferred by subsection (1) to (1C) may be exercised at all reasonable hours.
- (1F) An officer exercising any such power must, if required, produce his credentials.”
- (3) For subsection (4) substitute—
- “(4) An appropriate judicial officer may, by warrant under his hand, authorise an officer of an enforcement authority to enter any premises, by force if need be, if on sworn information in writing or, in Scotland, on evidence on oath the appropriate judicial officer—
- (a) is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe that either of the conditions in subsection (4A) applies; and
- (b) is also satisfied that at least one of the conditions in subsection (4B) applies.
- (4A) The conditions in this subsection are—
- (a) that any books or documents which a duly authorised officer has power to inspect under this section are on the premises and their inspection is likely to disclose evidence—
- (i) that an offence has been committed under this Act;
- (ii) that a person has failed to comply with an obligation imposed on him under any of sections 15 and 18 to 21A; or

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Contracts concluded away from business premises

59 Contracts concluded away from business premises U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations entitling a consumer who is a party to a protected contract to cancel the contract.
- (2) A protected contract is a contract between a consumer and a trader which is for the supply of goods or services to the consumer by a trader and is made—
 - (a) during a solicited visit by a trader to the consumer's home or place of work, or to the home of another individual, or

- (b) after an offer made by the consumer during such a visit.
- (3) A visit is solicited if it is made at the express request of the consumer.
- (4) Regulations made under this section may make any provision which may be made by regulations under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68) (by virtue of section 2(4) of that Act).
- (5) The regulations may in particular make provision—
 - (a) as to the circumstances in which the consumer may cancel the contract and the effect of such a cancellation;
 - (b) requiring the trader to inform the consumer of the matters within paragraph (a);
 - (c) for the enforcement of any requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (b).
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “consumer” and “trader” in relation to a contract have the same meaning as they have for the purposes of the relevant Directive in relation to transactions within that Directive.
- (7) “The relevant Directive” means—
 - (a) Council Directive 85/577/EEC to protect the consumer in respect of contracts negotiated away from business premises, as it has effect from time to time, or
 - (b) if that Directive is repealed and re-enacted (with or without modification), that Directive as re-enacted.

- (5) In the case of an order or regulations made by the Secretary of State, the provision which may be made by virtue of subsection (3)(d) includes provision modifying any provision made by or under any enactment.
- (6) For this purpose—
“enactment” means—
(a) an Act of Parliament (including, in the case of an order under section 32, this Act),
(b) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
(c) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales, or
(d) Northern Ireland legislation,
whenever passed or made;
“modify” has the same meaning as in Part 1.
- (7) Nothing in this section authorises an order or regulations under this Act to make provision which would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if it were contained in an Act of that Parliament.
- (8) The Documentary Evidence Act 1868 (c. 37) (proof of order and regulations etc) has effect as if—
(a) the regulators were included in column 1 of the Schedule to that Act, and
(b) the entry in column 2 of that Schedule corresponding to each regulator mentioned the regulator and persons authorised to act on the regulator's behalf.
- (9) Nothing in this section applies in relation to a court order under section 26.
- (10) In this section “regulator” means—
(a) the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority,^{F199} ...

Contents of transfer schemes

- 2 (1) The property, rights and liabilities that may be transferred by a transfer scheme include property, rights and liabilities that would not otherwise be capable of being transferred or assigned.
- (2) The transfers authorised by sub-paragraph (1) include transfers of interests and rights that are to take effect in accordance with the scheme as if there were—
- (a) no such requirement to obtain a person's consent or concurrence,
 - (b) no such liability in respect of a contravention of any other requirement, and
 - (c) no such interference with any interest or right,
- as there would otherwise be by reason of a provision within sub-paragraph (3).
- (3) A provision is within this sub-paragraph to the extent that it has effect (whether under an enactment or agreement or otherwise) in relation to the terms on which the transferor is entitled or subject to anything to which the transfer relates.

“Redress schemes

23A Redress schemes

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order require persons who engage in estate agency work in relation to residential property (“relevant estate agency work”) to be members of an approved redress scheme for dealing with complaints in connection with that work.
- (2) An order may provide for the duty to apply—
 - (a) only to specified descriptions of persons who engage in estate agency work; and
 - (b) in relation to any relevant estate agency work carried out by a person to whom the duty applies or only in relation to specified descriptions of work (which may be framed by reference to descriptions of residential property).
- (3) An order may also provide for the duty not to apply in relation to complaints of any specified description (which may be framed by reference to a description of person making a complaint).
- (4) In subsections (1) and (2)(a), the reference to persons who engage in estate agency work does not include a reference to persons who engage in that work in the course of their employment.
- (5) The power to make an order shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) Before making an order the Secretary of State must be satisfied that all persons who are to be subject to the duty will be eligible to join a suitable approved redress scheme before the duty applies to them.

For this purpose the Secretary of State may disregard persons who cannot lawfully engage in the relevant estate agency work to which the duty applies.

- (7) Nothing in this section prevents an approved redress scheme from providing—
 - (a) for membership to be open to persons who are not subject to the duty;
 - (b) for the investigation and determination of any complaints in relation to which the duty does not apply, where the members concerned have voluntarily accepted the jurisdiction of the scheme over those complaints;
 - (c) for the exclusion from investigation and determination under the scheme of any complaint in such cases or circumstances as may be specified in or determined under the scheme.
- (8) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) a “redress scheme” is a scheme which provides for complaints against members of the scheme to be investigated and determined by an independent person (“the ombudsman”);
 - (b) a redress scheme is “approved” if—

- (i) it is for the time being approved by the OFT under Schedule 3; or
 - (ii) it is administered by or on behalf of the Secretary of State and designated by him as an approved redress scheme for the purposes of this section;
 - (c) a “complaint” is a complaint made by a person by virtue of his being or having been a seller or buyer of residential property;
 - (d) “seller”, in relation to residential property, means a person who claims that he is or may become interested in disposing of an interest in land in respect of that property (and includes a person who disposes of such an interest);
 - (e) “buyer”, in relation to residential property, means a person who claims that he is or may become interested in acquiring an interest in land in respect of that property (and includes a person who acquires such an interest).
- (9) The Secretary of State may not designate a scheme as an approved redress scheme for the purposes of this section unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that the scheme is one which could be approved by the OFT in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 5 of Schedule 3.
- (10) Schedule 3 (which makes further provision in connection with the approval of redress schemes etc.) shall have effect.
- (11) In this section—
- “order” means an order under subsection (1);
 - “the duty” means the requirement under an order to be a member of an approved redress scheme.

23B Enforcement

- (1) If a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority other than the OFT believes that a person has engaged (or is engaging) in estate agency work in relation to residential property in breach of the duty imposed by an order under section 23A(1) he may give a penalty charge notice to that person.
- (2) A penalty charge notice may not be given after the end of the period of six months beginning with the day (or in the case of a continuing breach the last day) on which the breach of duty was committed.
- (3) Schedule 4 (which makes further provision in connection with penalty charge notices) shall have effect.
- (4) An enforcement authority other than the OFT must notify the OFT if it believes that a person has engaged (or is engaging) in estate agency work in relation to residential property in breach of the duty imposed by an order under section 23A(1).

23C Meaning of residential property

- (1) For the purposes of sections 23A and 23B “residential property”—
 - (a) has the meaning given by subsection (2); but

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. - (b) does not include land of a description specified in an order made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
- (2) “Residential property” means any land that consists of or includes a building or part of a building—
 - (a) the whole or part of which is used as a dwelling or as more than one dwelling; or
 - (b) that is (or is to be) offered for sale on the basis that the whole or part of it is suitable for such use or is intended to be so suitable by the time the seller disposes of his interest in it.
- (3) In subsection (2), the reference to a building or part of a building (so far as relating to paragraph (b) of that subsection) includes a reference to a building or part that is being or is to be constructed.
- (4) A description of land specified by order under subsection (1)(b) may be framed by reference to the purpose or purposes for which the land (or part of it) is or is intended to be used.
- (5) The power to make an order under subsection (1)(b) shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Section 23A(10)

REDRESS SCHEMES

Approval of redress schemes

- 1 A redress scheme may be approved for the purposes of section 23A by the OFT acting in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 8.
- 2 (1) A scheme may not be approved unless the OFT considers that—
 - (a) the provisions of the scheme; and
 - (b) the manner in which it will be operated (so far as can be judged from facts known to the authority);are satisfactory for the purposes of section 23A.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1), a scheme must not be approved unless the OFT considers that it makes satisfactory provision about—
 - (a) the complaints which may be made under the scheme (which may include complaints about non-compliance with the provisions of a code of practice or other document);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the ombudsman's duties and powers in relation to the investigation and determination of complaints (which may include power to decide not to investigate or determine a particular complaint);
 - (c) the redress which the ombudsman may require members to provide to complainants, which must include the types of redress specified in sub-paragraph (3);
 - (d) the enforcement of any requirement to provide redress imposed on a member in accordance with the scheme.
- (3) The types of redress mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(c) are—
 - (a) providing an apology or explanation;
 - (b) paying compensation; and
 - (c) taking such other actions in the interests of the complainant as the ombudsman may specify.
- 3 (1) In determining whether a scheme, or any provisions mentioned in paragraph 2(2), are satisfactory the OFT must have regard to—
 - (a) the interests of members of the scheme and of sellers and buyers of residential properties; and
 - (b) such principles as—
 - (i) in the opinion of the OFT constitute generally accepted principles of best practice in relation to consumer redress schemes, and
 - (ii) it is reasonable to regard as applicable to the scheme.
 - (2) In considering the interests mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a), the OFT may have regard to the number of other redress schemes which are (or are likely to become) approved redress schemes.
- 4 The OFT must not approve a scheme unless it considers that the scheme makes satisfactory provision about the provision of information by the ombudsman or the scheme administrator to—
 - (a) persons exercising functions under other approved schemes;
 - (b) persons exercising functions under other consumer redress schemes; and
 - (c) the OFT or any other person exercising regulatory functions in relation to the activities of persons engaging in estate agency work.
- 5 The OFT must not approve a scheme if it considers that the scheme provides for membership to be revoked on any unfair grounds.

Applications for approval to the OFT

- 6 An application for approval by the OFT of a redress scheme must—
 - (a) be made in such manner as the OFT may determine; and
 - (b) be accompanied by such information as the OFT may require.
- 7 Where the OFT is proposing to refuse an application for approval it must give the applicant a notice stating—
 - (a) that it is proposing to refuse the application;
 - (b) the grounds for the proposed refusal; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) that representations about the proposed refusal may be made within such period of not less than 30 days as is specified in the notice.

8 If the OFT decides to refuse an application for approval, it must give the applicant a notice stating—

- (a) the OFT's decision to refuse the application; and
- (b) the reasons for the decision.

Notification of changes to an approved scheme

9 The scheme administrator of a redress scheme which is approved by the OFT must notify the OFT of any change to the scheme before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the change is made.

Withdrawal of approval by the OFT

10 The OFT may withdraw approval of a redress scheme which is for the time being approved by it.

11 Before withdrawing approval of a scheme, the OFT must give the scheme administrator a notice stating—

- (a) that it proposes to withdraw its approval;
- (b) the grounds for the proposed withdrawal of approval; and
- (c) that representations about the proposed withdrawal may be made within such period of not less than 30 days as is specified in the notice.

12 The OFT must give the scheme administrator a notice stating—

- (a) its decision on a proposal to withdraw approval; and
- (b) the reasons for its decision.

13 If the OFT decides to withdraw approval of a scheme—

- (a) the withdrawal has effect from such date as may be specified in the notice under paragraph 12;
- (b) the scheme administrator must give a copy of the notice under paragraph 12 to every member of the scheme.

Revocation of designation by the Secretary of State

14 If the Secretary of State decides to revoke his designation of a scheme for the purposes of section 23A, he must give every member of the scheme a notice stating—

- (a) that he has decided to revoke the designation;
- (b) the reasons for his decision; and
- (c) the date from which the revocation has effect.

Defamation proceedings

15 For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, proceedings under an approved redress scheme in relation to the investigation and determination of a complaint are to be treated in the same way as proceedings before a court.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. PENALTY NOTICES UNDER SECTION 23B(1)

- 1 A penalty charge notice given to a person under section 23B(1) by a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority other than the OFT must—
 - (a) state the officer's belief that that person has committed a breach of the duty imposed by an order under section 23A(1);
 - (b) give such other particulars of the circumstances as may be necessary to give reasonable notice of the breach of duty;
 - (c) require that person, within a period specified in the notice—
 - (i) to pay a penalty charge specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) to give notice to the enforcement authority that he wishes to review the notice;
 - (d) state the effect of paragraph 8;
 - (e) specify the person to whom and the address at which the penalty charge may be paid and the method or methods by which payment may be made; and
 - (f) specify the person to whom and the address at which a notice requesting a review may be sent (and to which any representations relating to the review may be addressed).
- 2 The penalty charge specified in the notice shall be of such amount (not exceeding £1,000) as may be prescribed for the time being by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- 3 (1) The period specified under paragraph 1(c) must not be less than 28 days beginning with the day after that on which the penalty charge notice was given.
- (2) The enforcement authority may extend the period for complying with the requirement mentioned in paragraph 1(c) in any particular case if they consider it appropriate to do so.
- 4 The enforcement authority may, if they consider that the penalty charge notice ought not to have been given, give the recipient a notice withdrawing the penalty charge notice.
- 5 (1) If, within the period specified under paragraph 1(c) (or that period as extended under paragraph 3(2)), the recipient of the penalty charge notice gives notice to the enforcement authority requesting a review, the authority shall—
 - (a) consider any representations made by the recipient and all other circumstances of the case;
 - (b) decide whether to confirm or withdraw the notice; and
 - (c) give notice of their decision to the recipient.
- (2) A notice under sub-paragraph (1)(c) confirming the penalty charge notice must also state the effect of paragraphs 6(1) to (3) and 8(1) and (3).
- (3) If the authority are not satisfied—
 - (a) that the recipient committed the breach of duty specified in the notice;
 - (b) that the notice was given within the time allowed by section 23B(2) and complies with the other requirements imposed by or under this Schedule; and
 - (c) that in the circumstances of the case it was appropriate for a penalty charge notice to be given to the recipient;they shall withdraw the penalty charge notice.
- 6 (1) If after a review the penalty charge notice is confirmed by the enforcement authority, the recipient may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day after that on which the notice under paragraph 5(1)(c) is given, appeal to a county court or, in Scotland, to the sheriff against the penalty charge notice.
- (2) The county court or the sheriff may extend the period for appealing against the notice.
- (3) Such an appeal must be on one (or more) of the following grounds—
 - (a) that the recipient did not commit the breach of duty specified in the penalty charge notice;
 - (b) that the notice was not given within the time allowed by section 23B(2) or does not comply with any other requirement imposed by or under this Schedule; or
 - (c) that in the circumstances of the case it was inappropriate for the notice to be given to the recipient.
- (4) An appeal against a penalty charge notice shall be by way of a rehearing; and the county court or sheriff shall either uphold the notice or quash it.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2014. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- 7 If the penalty charge notice is withdrawn or quashed, the authority shall repay any amount previously paid as a penalty charge in pursuance of the notice.
- 8 (1) The amount of the penalty charge is recoverable from the recipient of the penalty charge notice as a debt owed to the authority unless—
- (a) the notice has been withdrawn or quashed; or
 - (b) the charge has been paid.
- (2) Proceedings for the recovery of the penalty charge may not be commenced before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph 5(1).
- (3) And if within that period the recipient of the penalty charge notice gives notice to the authority that he wishes the authority to review the penalty charge notice, such proceedings may not be commenced—
- (a) before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph 6(1); and
 - (b) where the recipient appeals against the penalty charge notice, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the appeal is withdrawn or determined.
- 9 In proceedings for the recovery of the penalty charge, a certificate which—
- (a) purports to be signed by or on behalf of the person having responsibility for the financial affairs of the enforcement authority; and
 - (b) states that payment of the penalty charge was or was not received by a date specified in the certificate;
- is evidence of the facts stated.
- 10 Section 29 (service of notices etc.) applies in relation to—
- (a) any penalty charge notice which is to be given under section 23B(1) by a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority other than the OFT; and
 - (b) any notice which is to be given under paragraph 5(1)(c) of this Schedule by such an enforcement authority;
- as it applies in relation to any notice which under this Act is to be given to any person by the OFT.
- 11 The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision supplementary or incidental to the provisions of this Schedule, including in particular provision prescribing—
- (a) the form of penalty charge notices or of any other notice mentioned in this Schedule;
 - (b) circumstances in which penalty charge notices may not be given;
 - (c) the method or methods by which penalty charges may be paid.
- 12 Any power to make regulations under this Schedule shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
