

Welfare Reform Act 2009

2009 CHAPTER 24

An Act to amend the law relating to social security; to make provision enabling disabled people to be given greater control over the way in which certain public services are provided for them; to amend the law relating to child support; to make provision about the registration of births; and for connected purposes. [12th November 2009]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

SOCIAL SECURITY

“Work for your benefit” schemes etc.

1 Schemes for assisting persons to obtain employment: “work for your benefit” schemes etc.

- (1) The Jobseekers Act 1995 (c. 18) is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 17 insert—

“ “Work for your benefit” schemes etc.

17A Schemes for assisting persons to obtain employment: “work for your benefit” schemes etc.

- (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on claimants in prescribed circumstances a requirement to participate in schemes

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) of any prescribed description that are designed to assist them to obtain employment.

- (2) Regulations under this section may, in particular, require participants to undertake work, or work-related activity, during any prescribed period with a view to improving their prospects of obtaining employment.
- (3) In subsection (2) “work-related activity”, in relation to any person, means activity which makes it more likely that the person will obtain or remain in work or be able to do so.
- (4) Regulations under this section may not require a person to participate in a scheme unless the person would (apart from the regulations) be required to meet the jobseeking conditions.
- (5) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision—
  - (a) for notifying participants of the requirement to participate in a scheme within subsection (1);
  - (b) for securing that participants are not required to meet the jobseeking conditions or are not required to meet such of those conditions as are specified in the regulations;
  - (c) for suspending any jobseeker's agreement to which a person is a party for any period during which the person is a participant;
  - (d) for securing that the appropriate consequence follows if a participant has failed to comply with the regulations and it is not shown, within a prescribed period, that the participant had good cause for the failure;
  - (e) prescribing matters which are, or are not, to be taken into account in determining whether a participant has good cause for any failure to comply with the regulations;
  - (f) prescribing circumstances in which a participant is, or is not, to be regarded as having good cause for any failure to comply with the regulations.
- (6) In the case of a jobseeker's allowance other than a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance, the appropriate consequence for the purposes of subsection (5)(d) is that the allowance is not payable for such period (of at least one week but not more than 26 weeks) as may be prescribed.
- (7) In the case of a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance, the appropriate consequence for the purposes of subsection (5)(d) is that the participant is to be treated as subject to sanctions for the purposes of section 20A for such period (of at least one week but not more than 26 weeks) as may be prescribed.
- (8) Regulations under this section may make provision for an income-based jobseeker's allowance to be payable in prescribed circumstances even though other provision made by the regulations would prevent payment of it.

This subsection does not apply in the case of a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance (corresponding provision for which is made by section 20B(4)).
- (9) The provision that may be made by the regulations by virtue of subsection (8) includes, in particular, provision for the allowance to be—
  - (a) payable only if prescribed requirements as to the provision of information are complied with;

- (b) payable at a prescribed rate;
- (c) payable for a prescribed period (which may differ from any period mentioned in subsection (6)).

(10) In this section—

“claimant”, in relation to a joint-claim couple claiming a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance, means either or both of the members of the couple;

“the jobseeking conditions” means the conditions set out in section 1(2)(a) to (c);

“participant”, in relation to any time, means any person who is required at that time to participate in a scheme within subsection (1).

17B Section 17A: supplemental

- (1) For the purposes of, or in connection with, any scheme within section 17A(1) the Secretary of State may—
  - (a) make arrangements (whether or not with other persons) for the provision of facilities;
  - (b) provide support (by whatever means) for arrangements made by other persons for the provision of facilities;
  - (c) make payments (by way of fees, grants, loans or otherwise) to persons undertaking the provision of facilities under arrangements within paragraph (a) or (b);
  - (d) make payments (by way of grants, loans or otherwise) to persons participating in the scheme;
  - (e) make payments in respect of incidental expenses.
- (2) For the purposes of, or in connection with, any scheme within section 17A(1) —
  - (a) the Scottish Ministers, and
  - (b) the Welsh Ministers,may make payments (by way of fees, grants, loans or otherwise) to persons (including the Secretary of State) undertaking the provision of facilities under arrangements within subsection (1)(a) or (b) if the following condition is met.
- (3) The condition is that the Scottish Ministers or the Welsh Ministers consider that the facilities are capable of supporting the training in Scotland or Wales of persons for employment.
- (4) Unless the Scottish Ministers or Welsh Ministers otherwise specify, the payments may be used by the person to whom they are made for the provision of any of the facilities provided under the arrangements.
- (5) In subsections (1) to (4) “facilities” includes services, and any reference to the provision of facilities includes the making of payments to persons participating in the scheme.
- (6) The power of the Secretary of State to make an order under section 26 of the Employment Act 1988 (status of trainees etc) includes power to make, in relation to—
  - (a) persons participating in any scheme within section 17A(1), and

- (b) payments received by them by virtue of subsection (1) above, provision corresponding to any provision which (by virtue of section 26(1) or (2) of that Act) may be made in relation to persons using such facilities, and to such payments received by them, as are mentioned in section 26(1) of that Act.”
- (3) In section 36 (regulations and orders), after subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this section—
- (a) regulations under section 17A may make different provision for different areas;
- (b) regulations under section 17A may make provision which applies only in relation to an area or areas specified in the regulations.”
- (4) In paragraph 3 of Schedule 3 to the Social Security Act 1998 (c. 14) (decisions against which an appeal lies: payability of benefit), after paragraph (d) insert—
- “(da) regulations made under section 17A of the Jobseekers Act;”.
- (5) In section 8(2)(b)(i) of the Social Security Fraud Act 2001 (c. 11) (effect of offence on joint-claim jobseeker's allowance), after “is” insert “ (or is treated as being) ”.

Revised system of working-age benefits

2 Work-related activity: income support claimants and partners of claimants

- (1) The Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c. 5) is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 2C insert—

“2D Work-related activity

- (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who—
- (a) is entitled to income support, and
- (b) is not a lone parent of a child under the age of 3,
- a requirement to undertake work-related activity in accordance with regulations as a condition of continuing to be entitled to the full amount of income support payable apart from the regulations.
- (2) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person (“P”) who—
- (a) is under pensionable age, and
- (b) is a member of a couple the other member of which (“C”) is entitled to a benefit to which subsection (3) applies at a higher rate referable to P,
- a requirement to undertake work-related activity in accordance with regulations as a condition of the benefit continuing to be payable to C at that rate.
- (3) The benefits to which this subsection applies are—
- (a) income support;
- (b) an income-based jobseeker's allowance other than a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance; and

- (c) an income-related employment and support allowance.
- (4) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) prescribing circumstances in which a person is to be subject to any requirement imposed by the regulations (a “relevant requirement”);
  - (b) for notifying a person of a relevant requirement;
  - (c) prescribing the time or times at which a person who is subject to a relevant requirement is required to undertake work-related activity and the amount of work-related activity the person is required at any time to undertake;
  - (d) prescribing circumstances in which a person who is subject to a relevant requirement is, or is not, to be regarded as undertaking work-related activity;
  - (e) in a case where C is a member of more than one couple, for determining which of the members of the couples is to be subject to a relevant requirement or requiring each of them to be subject to a relevant requirement;
  - (f) for securing that the appropriate consequence follows if —
    - (i) a person who is subject to a relevant requirement has failed to comply with the requirement, and
    - (ii) it is not shown, within a prescribed period, that the person had good cause for that failure;
  - (g) prescribing the evidence which a person who is subject to a relevant requirement needs to provide in order to show compliance with the requirement;
  - (h) prescribing matters which are, or are not, to be taken into account in determining whether a person had good cause for any failure to comply with a relevant requirement;
  - (i) prescribing circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be regarded as having good cause for any such failure.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(f) the appropriate consequence is that the amount of the benefit payable is to be reduced by the prescribed amount until the prescribed time.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) may, in relation to any such reduction, provide—
- (a) for the amount of the reduction to be calculated in the first instance by reference to such amount as may be prescribed;
  - (b) for the amount as so calculated to be restricted, in prescribed circumstances, to the prescribed extent.
- (7) Regulations under this section may include provision that in such circumstances as the regulations may provide a person's obligation under the regulations to undertake work-related activity at a particular time is not to apply, or is to be treated as not having applied.
- (8) Regulations under this section must include provision for securing that lone parents are entitled (subject to meeting any prescribed conditions) to restrict the times at which they are required to undertake work-related activity.
- (9) For the purposes of this section and sections 2E and 2F—

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) “couple” has the meaning given by section 137(1) of the Contributions and Benefits Act;
  - (b) “lone parent” means a person who—
    - (i) is not a member of a couple, and
    - (ii) is responsible for, and a member of the same household as, a child;
  - (c) “prescribed” means specified in, or determined in accordance with, regulations;
  - (d) “work-related activity”, in relation to a person, means activity which makes it more likely that the person will obtain or remain in work or be able to do so;
  - (e) any reference to a person attaining pensionable age is, in the case of a man born before 6 April 1955, a reference to the time when a woman born on the same day as the man would attain pensionable age;
  - (f) any reference to a benefit payable to C at a higher rate referable to P is a reference to any case where the amount payable is more than it would be if C and P were not members of the same couple.
- (10) For the purposes of this section regulations may make provision—
- (a) as to circumstances in which one person is to be treated as responsible or not responsible for another;
  - (b) as to circumstances in which persons are to be treated as being or not being members of the same household.
- (11) Information supplied in pursuance of regulations under this section is to be taken for all purposes to be information relating to social security.

2E Action plans in connection with work-focused interviews

- (1) The Secretary of State must in prescribed circumstances provide a document (referred to in this section as an “action plan”) prepared for such purposes as may be prescribed to a person who is subject to a requirement imposed under section 2A or 2AA in relation to any of the following benefits.
- (2) The benefits are—
  - (a) income support;
  - (b) an income-based jobseeker's allowance other than a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance; and
  - (c) an income-related employment and support allowance.
- (3) Regulations may make provision about—
  - (a) the form of action plans;
  - (b) the content of action plans;
  - (c) the review and updating of action plans.
- (4) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision for action plans which are provided to a person who is subject under section 2D to a requirement to undertake work-related activity to contain particulars of activity which, if undertaken, would enable the requirement to be met.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (5) Regulations may make provision for reconsideration of an action plan at the request of the person to whom it is provided and may, in particular, make provision about—
- (a) the circumstances in which reconsideration may be requested;
  - (b) the period within which any reconsideration must take place;
  - (c) the matters to which regard must be had when deciding on reconsideration whether the plan should be changed;
  - (d) notification of the decision on reconsideration;
  - (e) the giving of directions for the purpose of giving effect to the decision on reconsideration.
- (6) In preparing any action plan, the Secretary of State must have regard (so far as practicable) to its impact on the well-being of any person under the age of 16 who may be affected by it.

2F Directions about work-related activity

- (1) In prescribed circumstances, the Secretary of State may by direction given to a person subject to a requirement imposed under section 2D provide that the activity specified in the direction is—
- (a) to be the only activity which, in the person's case, is to be regarded as being work-related activity; or
  - (b) to be regarded, in the person's case, as not being work-related activity.
- (2) But a direction under subsection (1) may not specify medical or surgical treatment as the only activity which, in any person's case, is to be regarded as being work-related activity.
- (3) A direction under subsection (1) given to any person—
- (a) must be reasonable, having regard to the person's circumstances;
  - (b) must be given to the person by being included in an action plan provided to the person under section 2E; and
  - (c) may be varied or revoked by a subsequent direction under subsection (1).
- (4) Where a direction under subsection (1) varies or revokes a previous direction, it may provide for the variation or revocation to have effect from a time before the giving of the direction.

2G Contracting-out

- (1) The following functions of the Secretary of State may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person (if any) as the Secretary of State may authorise for the purpose, namely—
- (a) conducting interviews under section 2A or 2AA;
  - (b) providing documents under section 2E;
  - (c) giving, varying or revoking directions under section 2F.
- (2) Regulations may provide for any of the following functions of the Secretary of State to be exercisable by, or by employees of, such person (if any) as the Secretary of State may authorise for the purpose—

- (a) any function under regulations under any of sections 2A to 2F, except the making of an excluded decision (see subsection (3));
  - (b) the function under section 9(1) of the 1998 Act (revision of decisions) so far as relating to decisions (other than excluded decisions) that relate to any matter arising under regulations under any of sections 2A to 2F;
  - (c) the function under section 10(1) of the 1998 Act (superseding of decisions) so far as relating to decisions (other than excluded decisions) of the Secretary of State that relate to any matter arising under regulations under any of sections 2A to 2F;
  - (d) any function under Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the 1998 Act (social security decisions), except section 25(2) and (3) (decisions involving issues arising on appeal in other cases), which relates to the exercise of any of the functions within paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (3) Each of the following is an “excluded decision” for the purposes of subsection (2)—
- (a) a decision about whether a person has failed to comply with a requirement imposed by regulations under section 2A, 2AA or 2D;
  - (b) a decision about whether a person had good cause for failure to comply with such a requirement;
  - (c) a decision about the reduction of a benefit in consequence of a failure to comply with such a requirement.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2) may provide that a function to which that subsection applies may be exercised—
- (a) either wholly or to such extent as the regulations may provide,
  - (b) either generally or in such cases as the regulations may provide, and
  - (c) either unconditionally or subject to the fulfilment of such conditions as the regulations may provide.
- (5) An authorisation given by virtue of any provision made by or under this section may authorise the exercise of the function concerned—
- (a) either wholly or to such extent as may be specified in the authorisation,
  - (b) either generally or in such cases as may be so specified, and
  - (c) either unconditionally or subject to the fulfilment of such conditions as may be so specified;
- but, in the case of an authorisation given by virtue of regulations under subsection (2), this subsection is subject to the regulations.
- (6) An authorisation given by virtue of any provision made by or under this section—
- (a) may specify its duration,
  - (b) may be revoked at any time by the Secretary of State, and
  - (c) does not prevent the Secretary of State or any other person from exercising the function to which the authorisation relates.
- (7) Anything done or omitted to be done by or in relation to an authorised person (or an employee of that person) in, or in connection with, the exercise or purported exercise of the function concerned is to be treated for all purposes as done or omitted to be done by or in relation to the Secretary of State.

- (8) But subsection (7) does not apply—
- (a) for the purposes of so much of any contract made between the authorised person and the Secretary of State as relates to the exercise of the function, or
  - (b) for the purposes of any criminal proceedings brought in respect of anything done by the authorised person (or an employee of that person).
- (9) Any decision which an authorised person makes in exercise of the function concerned has effect as a decision of the Secretary of State under section 8 of the 1998 Act.
- (10) Where—
- (a) the authorisation of an authorised person is revoked at any time, and
  - (b) at the time of the revocation so much of any contract made between the authorised person and the Secretary of State as relates to the exercise of the function is subsisting,
- the authorised person is entitled to treat the contract as repudiated by the Secretary of State (and not as frustrated by reason of the revocation).
- (11) In this section—
- (a) “the 1998 Act” means the Social Security Act 1998;
  - (b) “authorised person” means a person authorised to exercise any function by virtue of any provision made by or under this section;
  - (c) references to functions of the Secretary of State under any enactment (including one comprised in regulations) include functions which the Secretary of State has by virtue of the application of section 8(1)(c) of the 1998 Act in relation to the enactment.

2H Good cause for failure to comply with regulations

- (1) This section applies to any regulations made under section 2A, 2AA or 2D that prescribe matters to be taken into account in determining whether a person has good cause for any failure to comply with the regulations.
- (2) The provision made by the regulations prescribing those matters must include provision relating to—
- (a) the person's physical or mental health or condition;
  - (b) the availability of childcare.”
- (3) In the italic heading before section 2A, insert “ and work-related activity ”.
- (4) In section 189(7A) (regulations which may make provision only in relation to specified areas), for “2C” substitute “ 2F ”.
- (5) In section 72(3) of the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 (c. 30) (supply of information for certain purposes), for paragraphs (a) and (aa) substitute—
- “(a) any of sections 2A to 2F and 7A of the Administration Act.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“6A Meaning of “disqualifying benefit” and “sanctionable benefit” for purposes of sections 6B and 7

- (1) In this section and sections 6B and 7—

“disqualifying benefit” means (subject to any regulations under section 10(1))—

- (a) any benefit under the Jobseekers Act 1995 or the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995;
- (b) any benefit under the State Pension Credit Act 2002 or the State Pension Credit Act (Northern Ireland) 2002;
- (c) any benefit under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 or Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act (Northern Ireland) 2007 (employment and support allowance);
- (d) any benefit under the Social Security Contributions and Benefit Act 1992 or the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 other than—
  - (i) maternity allowance;
  - (ii) statutory sick pay and statutory maternity pay;
- (e) any war pension;

“sanctionable benefit” means (subject to subsection (2) and to any regulations under section 10(1)) any disqualifying benefit other than—

- (a) joint-claim jobseeker's allowance;
- (b) any retirement pension;
- (c) graduated retirement benefit;
- (d) disability living allowance;
- (e) attendance allowance;
- (f) child benefit;

- (2) In their application to Northern Ireland sections 6B and 7 shall have effect as if references to a sanctionable benefit were references only to a war pension.

6B Loss of benefit in case of conviction, penalty or caution for benefit offence

- (1) Subsection (4) applies where a person (“the offender”)—
- (a) is convicted of one or more benefit offences in any proceedings,
  - (b) after being given a notice under subsection (2) of the appropriate penalty provision by an appropriate authority, agrees in the manner specified by the appropriate authority to pay a penalty under the appropriate penalty provision to the appropriate authority by reference to an overpayment, in a case where the offence mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of the appropriate penalty provision is a benefit offence, or
  - (c) is cautioned in respect of one or more benefit offences.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b)—
- (a) “the appropriate penalty provision” means section 115A of the Administration Act (penalty as alternative to prosecution) or section 109A of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) 1992 (the corresponding provision for Northern Ireland);
  - (b) “appropriate authority” means—
    - (i) in relation to section 115A of the Administration Act, the Secretary of State or an authority which administers housing benefit or council tax benefit, and
    - (ii) in relation to section 109A of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, the Department (within the meaning of that Act) or the Northern Ireland Housing Executive.
- (3) Subsection (4) does not apply by virtue of subsection (1)(a) if, because the proceedings in which the offender was convicted constitute the later set of proceedings for the purposes of section 7, the restriction in subsection (2) of that section applies in the offender's case.
- (4) If this subsection applies and the offender is a person with respect to whom the conditions for an entitlement to a sanctionable benefit are or become satisfied at any time within the disqualification period, then, even though those conditions are satisfied, the following restrictions shall apply in relation to the payment of that benefit in the offender's case.
- (5) Subject to subsections (6) to (10), the sanctionable benefit shall not be payable in the offender's case for any period comprised in the disqualification period.
- (6) Where the sanctionable benefit is income support, the benefit shall be payable in the offender's case for any period comprised in the disqualification period as if the applicable amount used for the determination under section 124(4)

6C Section 6B: supplementary provisions

(1) Where—

(a) the conviction of any person of any offence is taken into account for the purposes of the application of section 6B in relation to that person, and

(b) that conviction is subsequently quashed,

all such payments and other adjustments shall be made as would be necessary if no restriction had been imposed by or under section 6B that could not have been imposed if the conviction had not taken place.

(2) Where, after the agreement of any person (“P”) to pay a penalty under the appropriate penalty provision is taken into account for the purposes of the application of section 6B in relation to that person—

(a) P’s agreement to pay the penalty is withdrawn under subsection (5) of the appropriate penalty provision, or

(b) it is decided on an appeal or in accordance with regulations under the Social Security Act 1998 or the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998 that the overpayment to which the agreement relates is not recoverable or due,

all such payments and other adjustments shall be made as would be necessary if no restriction had been imposed by or under section 6B that could not have been imposed if P had not agreed to pay the penalty.

(3) Where, after the agreement (“the old agreement”) of any person (“P”) to pay a penalty under the appropriate penalty provision is taken into account for the purposes of the application of section 6B in relation to P, the amount of the overpayment to which the penalty relates is revised on an appeal or in accordance with regulations under the Social Security Act 1998 or the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998—

(a) section 6B shall cease to apply by virtue of the old agreement, and

(b) subsection (4) shall apply.

(4) Where this subsection applies—

(a) if there is a new disqualifying event consisting of—

(i) P’s agreement to pay a penalty under the appropriate penalty provision in relation to the revised overpayment, or

(ii) P being cautioned in relation to the offence to which the old agreement relates,

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- the disqualification period relating to the new disqualifying event shall be reduced by the number of days in so much of the disqualification period relating to the old agreement as had expired when section 6B ceased to apply by virtue of the old agreement, and
- (b) in any other case, all such payments and other adjustments shall be made as would be necessary if no restriction had been imposed by or under section 6B that could not have been imposed if P had not agreed to pay the penalty.
- (5) For the purposes of section 6B—
- (a) the date of a person's conviction in any proceedings of a benefit offence shall be taken to be the date on which the person was found guilty of that offence in those proceedings (whenever the person was sentenced) or in the case mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) the date of the order for absolute discharge; and
- (b) references to a conviction include references to—
- (i) a conviction in relation to which the court makes an order for absolute or conditional discharge or a court in Scotland makes a probation order,
- (ii) an order for absolute discharge made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland under section 246(3) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 without proceeding to a conviction, and
- (iii) a conviction in Northern Ireland.
- (6) In this section “the appropriate penalty provision” has the meaning given by section 6B(2)(a).”
- (2) In Schedule 4—
- (a) Part 1 contains further amendments of the Social Security Fraud Act 2001 (c. 11), and
- (b) Part 2 contains related amendments of other Acts.

Pilot schemes

27 State pension credit: pilot schemes

- (1) The State Pension Credit Act 2002 (c. 16) is amended as follows.
- (2) Before section 19 (but after the italic heading immediately before that section) insert—

“18A Pilot schemes

- (1) Any regulations to which this subsection applies may be made so as to have effect for a specified period not exceeding 12 months.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), subsection (1) applies to—
  - (a) regulations made under this Act, and
  - (b) regulations made under section 1 or 5 of the Administration Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) only applies to regulations if they are made with a view to ascertaining whether their provisions will—
  - (a) make it more likely that persons who are entitled to claim state pension credit will do so;
  - (b) make it more likely that persons who are entitled to claim state pension credit will receive it.
- (4) Regulations which, by virtue of subsection (1), are to have effect for a limited period are referred to in this section as a “pilot scheme”.
- (5) A pilot scheme may, in particular—
  - (a) provide for a relevant provision not to apply, or to apply with modifications, for the purposes of the pilot scheme, and
  - (b) make different provision for different cases or circumstances.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a), a “relevant provision” is—
  - (a) any provision of this Act, and
  - (b) section 1 of the Administration Act.
- (7) A pilot scheme may provide that no account is to be taken of any payment made under the pilot scheme in considering a person's—
  - (a) liability to tax,
  - (b) entitlement to benefit under an enactment relating to social security (irrespective of the name or nature of the benefit), or
  - (c) entitlement to a tax credit.

PART 2

DISABLED PEOPLE: RIGHT TO CONTROL PROVISION OF SERVICES

Introductory

38 Purpose of Part 2

The purpose of this Part is to enable disabled people aged 18 or over to exercise greater choice in relation to, and greater control over, the way in which relevant services (as defined by section 39) are provided to or for them, in cases where the provision of the relevant services is a function of a relevant authority (as defined by section 40).

39 Relevant services

- (1) In this Part “relevant services” means services—
- (a) which are provided to or for the benefit of a disabled person (“P”) (whether or not in connection with P’s disability), and
  - (b) which relate to one or more of the following matters.
- (2) Those matters are—
- (a) the provision of further education for P;
  - (b) facilitating the undertaking by P of further education or higher education;
  - (c) the provision of training for P;
  - (d) securing employment for P;
  - (e) facilitating P’s continued employment;
  - (f) enabling P to live independently or more independently in P’s home;
  - (g) the provision of residential accommodation for P;
  - (h) enabling P to overcome barriers to participation in society.
- (3) Relevant services also include the provision by or on behalf of a relevant authority to or for the benefit of a disabled person of grants or loans relating to one or more of the matters mentioned in subsection (2).
- (4) Relevant services do not include excluded services (provision as to direct payments relating to excluded services being made by other legislation).
- (5) Subsection (4) is subject to section 44(4) (which relates to pilot schemes) and to section 48 (which gives power to repeal the exclusion of community care services).
- (6) In relation to England and Wales, the following are excluded services—
- (a) community care services,
  - (b) services provided under the Carers and Disabled Children Act 2000 (c. 16), and

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. ---

- (c) services provided under section 17 of the Children Act 1989 (c. 41) (provision of services for children in need, their families and others).
- (7) In relation to Scotland, the following are excluded services—
  - (a) community care services, and
  - (b) services provided under section 22(1) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36) (promotion of welfare of children in need).
- (8) In this section “further education” and “higher education”—
  - (a) in relation to England and Wales, have the same meaning as in the Education Act 1996 (c. 56);
  - (b) in relation to Scotland, have the same meaning as in the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992 (c. 37).

40 Relevant authority

- (1) In this Part “relevant authority” means—
  - (a) a Minister of the Crown or government department;
  - (b) the Scottish Ministers;
  - (c) the Welsh Ministers;
  - (d) a local authority;
  - (e) a person or body whose functions are exercised on behalf of the Crown;
  - (f) any other body which meets conditions A and B below.
- (2) Condition A is that the body is established by virtue of Her Majesty's prerogative or by an enactment or is established in any other way by a Minister of the Crown acting as such or by a government department.
- (3) Condition B is that the body's revenues derive wholly or mainly from public funds.
- (4) In subsection (1)(d) “local authority” means—
  - (a) a local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70),
  - (b) a council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 (c. 39),
  - (c) the Greater London Authority,
  - (d) the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as a local authority, or
  - (e) the Council of the Isles of Scilly.
- (5) In subsection (2) “Minister of the Crown” includes the Scottish Ministers and the Welsh Ministers.

Power to make regulations

41 Power to make provision enabling exercise of greater choice and control

- (1) The appropriate authority (as defined by section 45) may by regulations made by statutory instrument make any provision that would in the opinion of the authority making the regulations serve the purpose of this Part.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision for and in connection with requiring a relevant authority to take the following steps in relation to a disabled person (“P”) for whom it is obliged, or has decided, to provide, or arrange the provision of, relevant services—
- (a) to inform P of the right to control conferred by virtue of the regulations, of the value of the relevant services to which P is entitled and of the choices available to P by virtue of the regulations;
  - (b) to work with P to determine the outcomes to be achieved by the provision of the relevant services;
  - (c) to work with P to prepare a plan (a “support plan”) setting out how those outcomes will be achieved;
  - (d) to work with P to review and revise the support plan in prescribed circumstances;
  - (e) if P so requests, to make payments to P in respect of P securing the provision of an equivalent service;
  - (f) to the extent that P chooses to receive relevant services provided or arranged by the relevant authority, to provide, or arrange for them to be provided, in accordance with P's support plan as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so.
- (3) Regulations under this section may also—
- (a) specify who is or is not to be treated as a disabled person for any purpose of the regulations;
  - (b) make provision about the circumstances in which a relevant authority is to be taken to have decided to provide a relevant service to a person;
  - (c) make provision as to matters to which a relevant authority must, or may, have regard when making a decision for the purposes of a provision of the regulations;
  - (d) make provision as to steps which a relevant authority must, or may, take before, or after, the relevant authority makes a decision for the purposes of a provision of the regulations (including provision requiring the relevant authority to review its decision).
- (4) Regulations under this section may enable or require the disclosure of information by one relevant authority to another for prescribed purposes of the regulations.
- (5) Regulations under this section may, for the purpose of this Part—
- (a) vary the conditions attached to any power of a relevant authority to provide financial assistance to disabled people;
  - (b) vary the conditions attached to any power of a relevant authority to provide financial assistance to another relevant authority in connection with the provision of relevant services to disabled people by the other authority.
- (6) Regulations under this section may require a relevant authority exercising any function under the regulations to have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the appropriate authority.

42 Provision that may be made about direct payments

- (1) In this section “direct payments regulations” means regulations under section 41 making provision by virtue of subsection (2)(e) of that section and “direct payments” means payments made by a relevant authority under the regulations.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) Direct payments regulations relating to a relevant service (“the qualifying service”) of a relevant authority (“the providing authority”) may in particular—
  - (a) specify circumstances in which the providing authority is or is not required to comply with a request for direct payments to be made under the regulations, whether those circumstances relate to the disabled person or to the qualifying service;
  - (b) make provision about the manner in which a request for direct payments is to be made;
  - (c) make provision enabling a disabled person to require a providing authority to assess the amount of the payments to which the person would be entitled if the person were to request the authority to make them;
  - (d) enable a disabled person to require a providing authority to comply with a request to provide direct payments in place of the qualifying service (or its provision at certain times or in certain circumstances) while providing, or continuing to provide, other relevant services (or providing, or continuing to provide, the qualifying service at other times or in other circumstances);
  - (e) make provision displacing functions or obligations of the providing authority with respect to the provision of the qualifying service (whether arising under any enactment, under any trust or otherwise) to such extent and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (3) Direct payments regulations must include provision excluding any duty of a providing authority to comply with a request for direct payments, or a class of such requests, if compliance with the request, or with requests falling within that class, would in all the circumstances impose an unreasonable financial burden on the providing authority.
- (4) Direct payments regulations may—
  - (a) make provision for and in connection with requiring or authorising the providing authority to make direct payments to the disabled person or such other person as the authority may determine (“the payee”) in accordance with the regulations in respect of the person securing the provision of the equivalent service;
  - (b) make provision as to the conditions falling to be complied with by the payee in relation to the direct payments;
  - (c) prescribe circumstances in which the providing authority may or must terminate the making of direct payments;
  - (d) prescribe circumstances in which the providing authority may require repayment (whether by the payee or otherwise) of the whole or any part of the direct payments;
  - (e) make provision for any sum falling to be paid or repaid to the providing authority by virtue of any condition or other requirement imposed in pursuance of the regulations to be recoverable as a debt due to the authority;
  - (f) prescribe circumstances in which any sum is to cease to be payable by virtue of paragraph (d);
  - (g) make provision authorising direct payments to be made to a prescribed person on behalf of the disabled person.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(b), the conditions that are to be taken to be conditions in relation to direct payments include, in particular, conditions relating to—
  - (a) what is or is not to be regarded as an equivalent service,
  - (b) the securing of the provision of the equivalent service,

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (c) the provider of the service,
- (d) the person to whom the payments are made in respect of the provision of the service, or
- (e) the provision of the service.

43 Exercise of rights on behalf of persons who lack capacity

- (1) Regulations under section 41 may make provision for and in connection with enabling any request or consent for the purposes of the regulations (including any request or consent relating to payments by virtue of subsection (2)(e) of that section) to be made or given on behalf of a disabled person who falls within subsection (2) by a person of a prescribed description.
- (2) A person falls within this subsection—
  - (a) in relation to England and Wales, if the person lacks capacity, within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 (c. 9), in relation to the decision concerned, and
  - (b) in relation to Scotland, if the person is incapable, within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 4), in relation to that decision.

44 Pilot schemes

- (1) Regulations to which this subsection applies may be made so as to have effect for a specified period not exceeding 36 months.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to regulations under section 41 that are made with a view to ascertaining—
  - (a) the extent to which their provisions contribute to achieving the purpose of this Part,
  - (b) the extent of any beneficial effects on the lives of the disabled people affected, and
  - (c) the extent of any financial burden imposed on the relevant authorities to which the regulations relate.
- (3) Regulations which, by virtue of subsection (1), are to have effect for a limited period are referred to in this section as a “pilot scheme”.
- (4) Subsections (6)(a) and (7)(a) of section 39 do not restrict the power to make a pilot scheme; and accordingly a pilot scheme may relate to community care services.
- (5) A pilot scheme may provide that its provisions are to apply only in relation to—
  - (a) one or more specified areas;
  - (b) one or more specified classes of person;
  - (c) persons selected—
    - (i) by reference to prescribed criteria, or
    - (ii) on a sampling basis.
- (6) A pilot scheme may make consequential or transitional provision with respect to the cessation of the scheme on the expiry of the specified period.
- (7) A pilot scheme may be replaced by a further pilot scheme making the same or similar provision.

- (8) The appropriate authority which made a pilot scheme must prepare and publish a report on the operation of the scheme.

Supplementary

45 The appropriate authority by which regulations under section 41 are made

- (1) Subsection (2) has effect to determine the appropriate authority by which regulations under section 41 may be made.
- (2) The Secretary of State is the appropriate authority, except that—
- (a) in relation to provision that would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if it were included in an Act of that Parliament, the Scottish Ministers are the appropriate authority,
  - (b) in relation to provision that would be within the legislative competence of the National Assembly for Wales if it were included in a Measure of the Assembly (or, if regulations are made after the Assembly Act provisions come into force, an Act of the Assembly), the Welsh Ministers are the appropriate authority,
  - (c) in relation to provision that does not fall within paragraph (b) and relates to relevant services in Wales with respect to which functions are exercisable—
    - (i) by a Minister of the Crown, and
    - (ii) by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers are the appropriate authority, and
  - (d) in relation to provision that does not fall within paragraph (b) or (c) and relates to relevant services in Wales with respect to which functions are exercisable by the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, the Welsh Ministers are the appropriate authority.
- (3) Any power of the Secretary of State to make regulations under section 41—
- (a) is exercisable only with the consent of the Treasury; and
  - (b) does not include power to make provision—
    - (i) removing or modifying any function of the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General, or
    - (ii) conferring or imposing any function on the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister or the Counsel General.
- (4) Any power of the Welsh Ministers to make regulations under section 41 by virtue of subsection (2)(c) or (d) does not include power to make provision—
- (a) removing or modifying any function of a Minister of the Crown, or
  - (b) conferring or imposing any function on a Minister of the Crown.
- (5) In this section—
- “the Assembly Act provisions” has the meaning given by section 103(8) of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32);
  - “the Counsel General” means the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government;

CHILD MAINTENANCE

PROSPECTIVE

51 Disqualification for holding etc. driving licence or travel authorisation

- (1) The Child Support Act 1991 (c. 48) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 39B (disqualification for holding or obtaining travel authorisation)—
  - (a) in subsection (1), for “The [<sup>F6</sup>Secretary of State] may apply to the court for an order under this section” substitute “ The [<sup>F6</sup>Secretary of State] may make an order under this section (referred to in this section and sections 39C to 39F as a ”disqualification order “)”, and
  - (b) for subsections (3) to (13) substitute—
    - “(3) A disqualification order shall provide that the person against whom it is made is disqualified for holding or obtaining—
      - (a) a driving licence,
      - (b) a travel authorisation, or
      - (c) both a driving licence and a travel authorisation,
 while the order has effect.
    - (4) Before making a disqualification order against a person, the [<sup>F7</sup>Secretary of State] shall consider whether the person needs the relevant document in order to earn a living.
    - (5) A disqualification order shall specify the amount in respect of which it is made.
    - (6) That amount shall be the aggregate of—
      - (a) the amount sought to be recovered as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), or so much of it as remains unpaid; and
      - (b) the amount which the person against whom the order is made is required to pay by the order under section 39DA(1).

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

*Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. (7) The [F7Secretary of State] shall serve a copy of the disqualification order (together with a copy of the order under section 39DA(1)) on the person against whom it is made.

(8) In this section—

“driving licence” means a licence to drive a motor vehicle granted under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988;

“relevant document”, in relation to a disqualification order made against a person, means the document (or documents) for the holding or obtaining of which the person is disqualified by the order;

“travel authorisation” means—

(a) a United Kingdom passport (within the meaning of the Immigration Act 1971);

(b) an ID card issued under the Identity Cards Act 2006 that records that the person to whom it has been issued is a British citizen.”

(3) In section 39C (period for which orders under section 39B are to have effect), for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) A disqualification order shall specify the period for which it is to have effect.

(1A) That period shall not exceed 12 months (subject to any extension under section 39CA or 39CB).

(1B) That period shall begin to run with—

(a) the first day after the end of the period within which an appeal may be brought against the order under section 39CB(1); or

(b) if the running of the period is suspended at that time, the first day when its running is no longer suspended.”

(4) After that section insert—

“39CA Surrender of relevant documents

(1) A person against whom a disqualification order is made who holds any relevant document shall surrender it in the prescribed manner to the prescribed person within the required period.

(2) For this purpose “the required period” means the period of 7 days beginning with the start of the period for which the order has effect or has effect again following a period of suspension.

(3) But, if immediately before the end of the required period the person has a good reason for not surrendering any relevant document, the person shall instead surrender it as soon as practicable after the end of that period.

(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision prescribing circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be regarded for the purposes of subsection (3) as having a good reason for not surrendering any relevant document.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The requirements imposed by subsections (1) and (3) cease to have effect if the period for which the disqualification order has effect is suspended or ends.
- (6) A person who fails to comply with a requirement imposed by subsection (1) or (3) commits an offence.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (8) On sentencing a person for an offence under that subsection the court may by order extend the period for which the disqualification order is to have effect by such period as may be specified in the order under this subsection.
- (9) But the power conferred by subsection (8) may not be exercised so as to provide for the disqualification order to have effect for a period exceeding 2 years in total.
- (10) In this section “relevant document” has the same meaning as in section 39.
- (11) Where this section applies in relation to a driving licence at any time before the commencement of Schedule 3 to the Road Safety Act 2006, any reference in this section to any relevant document includes the licence's counterpart (within the meaning of section 108(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1988).

39CB Appeals against disqualification orders

- (1) A person against whom a disqualification order is made may appeal to the court against the order within a prescribed period (which must begin with the first day on which that person had actual notice of the order).
- (2) Where an appeal is brought under subsection (1), the running of the period for which the order has effect shall be suspended until the time at which the appeal is determined, withdrawn or discontinued.
- (3) If—
  - (a) the person against whom a disqualification order is made does not bring an appeal within the period specified in subsection (1), and
  - (b) prescribed conditions are satisfied, the court may grant leave for an appeal to be brought after the end of that period.
- (4) On granting leave under subsection (3) the court may suspend the running of the period for which the order has effect until such time and on such conditions (if any) as it thinks just.
- (5) On an appeal under this section the court—
  - (a) shall reconsider the exercise by the [<sup>F8</sup>Secretary of State] of [<sup>F8</sup>the] powers under section 39B; and
  - (b) may by order affirm, vary or revoke the disqualification order.
- (6) On an appeal under this section the court shall not question—
  - (a) the liability order by reference to which the [<sup>F9</sup>Secretary of State] acted as mentioned in section 39B(1)(a);

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) any liability order made against the same person after the disqualification order was made; or
    - (c) the maintenance calculation by reference to which any liability order within paragraph (a) or (b) was made.
  - (7) The power under subsection (5) to vary a disqualification order includes power to extend the period for which it has effect; but that power may not be exercised so as to provide for it to have effect for a period exceeding 2 years in total.
  - (8) If, on appeal under this section, the court affirms or varies a disqualification order, the court shall substitute for the amount specified under section 39B(5) the aggregate of—
    - (a) the amount sought to be recovered as mentioned in section 39B(1) (a), or so much of it as remains unpaid;
    - (b) the amount which the person against whom the order was made is required to pay by the order under section 39DA(1), so far as remaining unpaid;
    - (c) the amount which that person is required to pay by the order under section 39DA(2); and
    - (d) if a liability order has been made against that person since the disqualification order was made, the amount in respect of which the liability order was made, so far as remaining unpaid.
  - (9) On the affirmation or variation of the disqualification order by the court, any existing suspension of the running of the period for which the order is to have effect shall cease.
  - (10) But the court may suspend the running of that period until such time and on such conditions (if any) as it thinks fit if—
    - (a) the person against whom the disqualification order was made agrees to pay the amount specified in the order; or
    - (b) the court is of the opinion that the suspension in question is justified by exceptional circumstances.
  - (11) If, on an appeal under this section, the court revokes a disqualification order, the court shall also revoke the order made under section 39DA(1).
  - (12) But subsection (11) does not apply if the court is of the opinion that, having regard to all the circumstances, it is reasonable to require the person against whom the disqualification order was made to pay the costs mentioned in section 39DA(1).
  - (13) In this section “the court” means—
    - (a) in relation to England and Wales, a magistrates' court;
    - (b) in relation to Scotland, the sheriff.”
- (5) After section 39D insert—
- “39DA Recovery of [<sup>F10</sup>Secretary of State’s] costs
- (1) On making a disqualification order against any person the [<sup>F11</sup>Secretary of State] shall also make an order requiring that person to pay an amount in respect of the costs incurred by the [<sup>F11</sup>Secretary of State] in exercising <sup>F12</sup>... functions under section 39B.

- (2) If on an appeal under section 39CB the court affirms or varies a disqualification order made against any person, the court shall also make an order requiring that person to pay an amount in respect of the costs incurred by the [<sup>F13</sup>Secretary of State] in connection with the appeal (“the [<sup>F13</sup>Secretary of State’s] appeal costs”).
- (3) If—
- (a) on an appeal under that section the court revokes a disqualification order made against any person, and
  - (b) the court is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances, it is reasonable to require that person to pay an amount in respect of the [<sup>F14</sup>Secretary of State’s] appeal costs,
- the court shall also make an order requiring that person to pay an amount in respect of those costs.
- (4) Any amount payable by virtue of an order made under this section shall be—
- (a) specified in the order; and
  - (b) determined in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (5) The provisions of this Act with respect to—
- (a) the collection of child support maintenance, and
  - (b) the enforcement of an obligation to pay child support maintenance,
- apply equally (with any necessary modifications) to amounts which a person is required to pay under this section.”
- (6) Schedule 5 contains consequential amendments and other amendments related to the provision made by this section.

52 Report on operation of driving licence amendments

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a report on the operation during the review period of the amendments of the 1991 Act made by section 51 and Schedule 5 so far as those amendments relate to the disqualification of any person for holding or obtaining a driving licence.
- (2) “The review period” is the period of 24 months beginning with the day on which section 51 and Schedule 5 come into force in relation to the disqualification of any person for holding or obtaining a driving licence.
- (3) The Secretary of State must—
  - (a) prepare the report, and
  - (b) lay it before Parliament,within 6 months from the end of the review period.
- (4) The continued effect of the driving licence amendments depends on whether the Secretary of State makes an order under this subsection within the relevant period providing for those provisions to continue to have effect.
- (5) “The relevant period” means the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the report is laid before Parliament; and, in reckoning this period, no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament—
  - (a) is dissolved or prorogued, or
  - (b) is adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (6) If no order is made as mentioned in subsection (4), the Secretary of State must instead make an order under this subsection containing such amendments of the 1991 Act as the Secretary of State considers necessary to secure that the effect of the driving licence amendments is reversed.
- (7) The effect of the driving licence amendments is to be regarded as reversed if the 1991 Act is amended so that it has the same effect in relation to the disqualification of any person for holding or obtaining a driving licence as it would have had if this Act had not been passed.
- (8) An order under subsection (6) may contain consequential provision and transitional provision or savings.
- (9) The consequential provision that may be made by an order under subsection (6) includes, in particular, provision amending, repealing or revoking—

“SCHEDULE
A1

Section 17C

PERSONS DEPENDENT ON DRUGS ETC.

Requirements imposed in relation to use of drugs

- 1 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a claimant a requirement to attend at such time and place as may be determined in accordance with the regulations in order to answer questions within sub-paragraph (2).
- (2) A question is within this sub-paragraph if it is asked for the purpose of ascertaining—
  - (a) whether the person required to answer it may be dependent on, or have a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
  - (b) (if so) whether any such dependency or propensity may be a factor affecting that person's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision prescribing the questions which a person may be required to answer under the regulations (which may include questions relating to any use of the drug in question or any treatment connected with its use).
- (4) Regulations under this paragraph may not impose a requirement on a person at any time unless the person is required to meet the jobseeking conditions at that time.
- 2 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who is subject to a requirement imposed under paragraph 1 a requirement to take part in—
  - (a) a substance-related assessment, and
  - (b) a subsequent interview (a “drugs interview”) with an approved person to discuss any matters arising out of that assessment.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph—

a “substance-related assessment” means an assessment by an approved person carried out for the purpose of assessing—

  - (a) whether a person is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
  - (b) (if so) whether the person's dependency or propensity is such as requires and may be susceptible to treatment;

an “approved person” means a person having the necessary qualifications or experience who is approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) to be imposed on a person only if the Secretary of State has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
  - (a) the person may be dependent on, or have a propensity to misuse, any drug, and

- (b) any such dependency or propensity may be a factor affecting the person's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
  - (4) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
    - (a) for notifying a person of a requirement to take part in a substance-related assessment or a drugs interview;
    - (b) for the determination, and notification, of the time and place of any substance-related assessment or drugs interview in which a person is required to take part.
  - (5) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision for a requirement imposed on a person (“P”) under this paragraph to cease to have effect if—
    - (a) P agrees to provide a sample, in accordance with instructions given by an approved person, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is or has been any drug in P's body, and
    - (b) the sample provided indicates that no drug is or has been in P's body.
  - (6) Regulations under this paragraph may not impose a requirement on a person at any time unless the person is required to meet the jobseeking conditions at that time.
- 3 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who—
  - (a) is subject to a requirement imposed under paragraph 2, and
  - (b) fails to comply with it without it being shown, within a prescribed period, that the person had good cause for the failure,a requirement to take part in one or more relevant tests for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is or has been any drug in the person's body.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) to be imposed on a person only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the proposed test or tests will, or will be likely to, assist in determining whether the person is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for informing a person of the consequence of failing to comply with a requirement to take part in a relevant test.
- (4) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
  - (a) for notifying a person of a requirement to take part in a relevant test;
  - (b) for the determination, and notification, of the time and place of any relevant test in which a person is required to take part.
- (5) Regulations under this paragraph may not impose a requirement on a person at any time unless the person is required to meet the jobseeking conditions at that time.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a person takes part in a relevant test if the person provides a permissible sample in accordance with instructions given by an approved person (within the meaning of paragraph 2).
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) “permissible sample”, in relation to any drug, means—

- (a) a sample of urine, or
  - (b) such sample (other than an intimate sample) as may be prescribed in relation to that drug.
- (8) In sub-paragraph (7)(b) “intimate sample” means—
- (a) a sample of blood, semen or any other tissue fluid or pubic hair;
  - (b) a dental impression;
  - (c) a swab taken from any part of a person's genitals (including pubic hair) or from a person's body orifice other than the mouth.

Paragraphs 1 to 3: supplementary

- 4 (1) A person must comply with a requirement imposed by regulations under any of paragraphs 1 to 3 even if doing so might constitute evidence that the person has committed an offence.
- (2) But in criminal proceedings in which a person is charged with an offence—
- (a) no evidence relating to any answer given, or anything else done, in pursuance of the regulations may be adduced by or on behalf of the prosecution, and
  - (b) no question relating to those matters may be asked by or on behalf of the prosecution,
- unless evidence relating to those matters is adduced, or a question relating to those matters is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of the person.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply to—
- (a) an offence under section 112 of the Administration Act;
  - (b) an offence under section 5 of the Perjury Act 1911 (false statements made otherwise than on oath in England and Wales); or
  - (c) an offence under section 44(2) of the Criminal Law (Consolidation) (Scotland) Act 1995 (corresponding provision for Scotland).

Voluntary and mandatory rehabilitation plans

- 5 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with—
- (a) securing that a person (“P”) who at any time complies with a voluntary rehabilitation plan is not required to meet the jobseeking conditions at that time; and
  - (b) suspending any jobseeker's agreement to which P is a party for any period during which P complies with a voluntary rehabilitation plan.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph may include provision for the consequences set out in sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b) to follow only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) P is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
  - (b) P's dependency or propensity is a factor affecting P's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a “voluntary rehabilitation plan” is an agreement entered into by the Secretary of State and P under which P agrees to take one or more of the following steps.

- (4) The steps are—
    - (a) submitting to treatment by or under the direction of a person having the necessary qualifications or experience,
    - (b) taking part in specified interviews, and specified assessments, at specified places and times, and
    - (c) taking such other steps (if any) as may be specified,with a view to the reduction or elimination of P's dependency on, or propensity to misuse, the drug in question.
  - (5) The treatment may be—
    - (a) treatment as a resident in a specified institution or place, or
    - (b) treatment as a non-resident at a specified institution or place, and at specified intervals.
  - (6) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
    - (a) as to the maximum period for which a person may benefit from the provision made by the regulations;
    - (b) about the form of voluntary rehabilitation plans (including provision as to their signing);
    - (c) about the review, variation and revocation of voluntary rehabilitation plans;
    - (d) for securing that a person who agrees to comply with a voluntary rehabilitation plan provides information, and such evidence as may be prescribed, as to compliance with the plan.
  - (7) A jobseeker's allowance may also be known as a “treatment allowance” at any time when—
    - (a) it is payable in respect of a person to whom this paragraph applies, or
    - (b) it is payable in respect of a joint-claim couple both members of which are persons to whom this paragraph applies.
  - (8) In this paragraph “specified”, in relation to a voluntary rehabilitation plan, means specified in or determined in accordance with the plan.
- (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person a requirement to comply with a mandatory rehabilitation plan.
  - (2) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for securing that a person is subject to the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) at any time only if—
    - (a) the person has not at that time agreed to comply with a voluntary rehabilitation plan under paragraph 5, and
    - (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph.
  - (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a “mandatory rehabilitation plan” is a document—
    - (a) which is provided to the person by the Secretary of State, and
    - (b) which contains one or more of the following requirements.
  - (4) The requirements are that the person—

- (a) must attend an educational programme at a specified place and at specified times,
  - (b) must take part in specified interviews, and specified assessments, at specified places and times, and
  - (c) must take such other steps (if any) as may be specified,
- with a view to the reduction or elimination of the person's dependency on, or propensity to misuse, the drug in question.
- (5) Nothing may be specified in a mandatory rehabilitation plan which requires a person to submit to medical or surgical treatment.
- (6) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) as to the involvement of a person in determining the particular requirements to be contained in a mandatory rehabilitation plan with which the person is to be required to comply;
  - (b) about the form of mandatory rehabilitation plans (including provision as to their signing);
  - (c) about the review, variation and revocation of mandatory rehabilitation plans;
  - (d) for securing that a person who is required to comply with a mandatory rehabilitation plan provides information, and such evidence as may be prescribed, as to compliance with the plan.
- (7) Regulations under this paragraph may not impose a requirement on a person at any time unless the person would (apart from the regulations) be required to meet the jobseeking conditions at that time.
- (8) In this paragraph “specified”, in relation to a mandatory rehabilitation plan, means specified in or determined in accordance with the plan.

Sanctions

- 7 (1) Regulations under paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for securing that the appropriate consequence follows if a person has failed to comply with any requirement imposed by any such regulations and it is not shown, within a prescribed period, that the person had good cause for the failure;
  - (b) prescribing matters which are, or are not, to be taken into account in determining whether a person has good cause for any failure to comply with any such requirement;
  - (c) prescribing circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be regarded as having good cause for any failure to comply with any such requirement.
- (2) In the case of a jobseeker's allowance other than a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance, the appropriate consequence for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a) is that the allowance is not payable for such period (of at least one week but not more than 26 weeks) as may be prescribed.
- (3) In the case of a joint-claim jobseeker's allowance, the appropriate consequence for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a) is that the person is to be treated as subject to sanctions for the purposes of section 20A for such period (of at least one week but not more than 26 weeks) as may be prescribed.

- (4) Regulations under paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 may make provision for an income-based jobseeker's allowance to be payable in prescribed circumstances even though other provision made by the regulations prevents payment of it.
- (5) The provision that may be made by the regulations by virtue of sub-paragraph (4) includes, in particular, provision for the allowance to be—
  - (a) payable only if prescribed requirements as to the provision of information are complied with;
  - (b) payable at a prescribed rate;
  - (c) payable for a prescribed period (which may differ from any period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)).

Information

- 8 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with authorising the supply of information, other than excluded information, held by—
  - (a) a police force,
  - (b) the probation service, or
  - (c) such other person as may be prescribed,to a person within sub-paragraph (2) for use for the purposes of any provision of this Schedule.
- (2) The persons within this sub-paragraph are—
  - (a) the Secretary of State;
  - (b) a person providing services to the Secretary of State;
  - (c) an approved person (within the meaning of paragraph 2).
- (3) Information supplied under the regulations may not be supplied by the recipient to any other person unless—
  - (a) it could be supplied to that person under the regulations;
  - (b) it is supplied for the purposes of any civil or criminal proceedings; or
  - (c) it is required to be supplied under any enactment.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (1) “excluded information” means any information relating to or acquired as a result of—
  - (a) the provision of medical or surgical treatment or care, or
  - (b) the provision of services by a social worker,other than information as to whether a person is having (or has had) treatment in respect of the person's use of any drug.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (1) “the probation service” means—
  - (a) in England and Wales, a local probation board established under section 4 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 or a provider of probation services;
  - (b) in Scotland, a local authority within the meaning of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968.

Interpretation

9 In this Schedule—

“drug” means such controlled drug (as defined by section 2 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971) as may be prescribed;

“the jobseeking conditions” means the conditions set out in section 1(2)(a) to (c).

Power to extend provisions to alcohol

10 (1) If regulations so provide and subject as follows, the preceding paragraphs of this Schedule are to apply in relation to alcohol as they apply in relation to drugs.

(2) Regulations under this paragraph may provide for a different definition of a “relevant test” to apply in relation to alcohol for the purposes of paragraph 3.”

Consequential amendments

3 (1) The Jobseekers Act 1995 (c. 18) is amended as follows.

(2) In section 36(4A)(a) and (b) (regulations and orders), which is inserted by section 1 of this Act, after “17A” insert “ or Schedule A1 ”.

(3) In section 37(1)(c) (regulations subject to the affirmative resolution procedure), after “section 35(1)” insert “ , any paragraph of Schedule A1 ”.

(4) In paragraph 19 of Schedule 1 (treatment of information), as inserted by section 34(3) of this Act, after “this Act” insert “ (other than paragraph 8 of Schedule A1) ”.

4 In paragraph 3(da) of Schedule 3 to the Social Security Act 1998 (c. 14) (decisions against which an appeal lies), which is inserted by section 1 of this Act, after “17A of” insert “ , or Schedule A1 to, ”.

Report on initial operation of drugs provisions

5 (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a report on the operation of the first set of regulations made under paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 of Schedule A1 to the Jobseekers Act 1995 during the review period.

(2) “The review period” is the period of 24 months beginning with the day on which those regulations come into force.

(3) The Secretary of State must—

(a) prepare the report, and

(b) lay it before Parliament,

within 6 months from the end of the review period.

(4) The continued effect of the drugs provisions depends on whether the Secretary of State makes an order under this sub-paragraph within the relevant period providing for those provisions to continue to have effect.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Welfare Reform Act 2009 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 July 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) “The relevant period” means the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the report is laid before Parliament; and, in reckoning this period, no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament—
  - (a) is dissolved or prorogued, or
  - (b) is adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (6) If no order is made as mentioned in sub-paragraph (4), the Secretary of State must instead make an order under this sub-paragraph providing for the repeal of the drugs provisions on a date specified in the order.
- (7) An order under sub-paragraph (6) may contain transitional provision or savings.
- (8) Any power to make an order under this paragraph is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (9) An order under sub-paragraph (4) may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (10) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (6) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (11) In this paragraph “the drugs provisions” means—
  - (a) section 17C of, and Schedule A1 to, the Jobseekers Act 1995 (c. 18),
  - (b) the words inserted into that Act, and the Social Security Act 1998 (c. 14), by paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Schedule, and
  - (c) paragraphs 1 to 4 of this Schedule.
- (12) This paragraph applies whether or not the regulations mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) are, by virtue of section 29 of the Jobseekers Act 1995 (pilot schemes), made so as to have effect for a limited period.

PART 2

EMPLOYMENT AND SUPPORT ALLOWANCE

Requirements imposed on persons dependent on drugs etc.

6 After section 15 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (c. 5) insert—

7 After Schedule 1 to the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (c. 5) insert—

“SCHEDULE 1A

Section 15A

PERSONS DEPENDENT ON DRUGS ETC.

Requirements imposed in relation to use of drugs

- 1 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who is—
  - (a) entitled to an employment and support allowance, and
  - (b) not a member of the support group, a requirement to answer questions within sub-paragraph (2) as a condition of continuing to be entitled to the full amount payable to the person in respect of the allowance apart from the regulations.
  - (2) A question is within this sub-paragraph if it is asked for the purpose of ascertaining—
    - (a) whether the person may be dependent on, or have a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
    - (b) (if so) whether any such dependency or propensity may be a factor affecting the person's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
  - (3) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
    - (a) prescribing the questions which a person may be required to answer under the regulations (which may include questions relating to any use of the drug in question or any treatment connected with its use);
    - (b) for notifying a person of any requirement to answer questions under the regulations;
    - (c) for the determination, and notification, of the time and place at which a person is required to answer questions under the regulations.
  - (4) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for a requirement imposed on a person by the regulations to cease to have effect if the person becomes a member of the support group.
- 2 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who is subject to a requirement imposed under paragraph 1 a requirement to take part in—
  - (a) a substance-related assessment, and
  - (b) a subsequent interview (a “drugs interview”) with an approved person to discuss any matters arising out of that assessment, as a condition of continuing to be entitled to the full amount payable to the person in respect of an employment and support allowance apart from the regulations.
  - (2) For the purposes of this paragraph—
    - a “substance-related assessment” means an assessment by an approved person carried out for the purpose of assessing—
      - (a) whether a person is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug, and

- (b) (if so) whether the person's dependency or propensity is such as requires and may be susceptible to treatment;
an “approved person” means a person having the necessary qualifications or experience who is approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) to be imposed on a person only if the Secretary of State has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
- (a) the person may be dependent on, or have a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
  - (b) any such dependency or propensity may be a factor affecting the person's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
- (4) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for notifying a person of a requirement to take part in a substance-related assessment or a drugs interview;
  - (b) for the determination, and notification, of the time and place of any substance-related assessment or drugs interview in which a person is required to take part.
- (5) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision for a requirement imposed on a person (“P”) under this paragraph to cease to have effect if—
- (a) P agrees to provide a sample, in accordance with instructions given by an approved person, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is or has been any drug in P's body, and
  - (b) the sample provided indicates that no drug is or has been in P's body.
- (6) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for a requirement imposed on a person by the regulations to cease to have effect if the person becomes a member of the support group.
- 3 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person who—
- (a) is subject to a requirement imposed under paragraph 2, and
  - (b) fails to comply with it without showing, within a prescribed period, good cause for the failure,
- a requirement to take part in one or more relevant tests as a condition of continuing to be entitled to the full amount payable to the person in respect of an employment and support allowance apart from the regulations.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) to be imposed on a person only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the proposed test or tests will, or will be likely to, assist in determining whether the person is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for informing a person of the consequence of failing to comply with a requirement to take part in a relevant test.
- (4) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for notifying a person of a requirement to take part in a relevant test;

- (b) for the determination, and notification, of the time and place of any relevant test in which a person is required to take part.
- (5) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for a requirement imposed on a person by the regulations to cease to have effect if the person becomes a member of the support group.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a person takes part in a relevant test if the person provides a permissible sample in accordance with instructions given by an approved person (within the meaning of paragraph 2) for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is or has been any drug in the person's body.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) “permissible sample”, in relation to any drug, means—
  - (a) a sample of urine, or
  - (b) such sample (other than an intimate sample) as may be prescribed in relation to that drug.
- (8) In sub-paragraph (7)(b) “intimate sample” means—
  - (a) a sample of blood, semen or any other tissue fluid or pubic hair;
  - (b) a dental impression;
  - (c) a swab taken from any part of a person's genitals (including pubic hair) or from a person's body orifice other than the mouth.

Paragraphs 1 to 3: supplementary

- 4 (1) A person must comply with a requirement imposed by regulations under any of paragraphs 1 to 3 even if doing so might constitute evidence that the person has committed an offence.
- (2) But in criminal proceedings in which a person is charged with an offence—
  - (a) no evidence relating to any answer given, or anything else done, in pursuance of the regulations may be adduced by or on behalf of the prosecution, and
  - (b) no question relating to those matters may be asked by or on behalf of the prosecution, unless evidence relating to those matters is adduced, or a question relating to those matters is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of the person.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply to—
  - (a) an offence under section 112 of the Administration Act;
  - (b) an offence under section 5 of the Perjury Act 1911 (false statements made otherwise than on oath in England and Wales); or
  - (c) an offence under section 44(2) of the Criminal Law (Consolidation) (Scotland) Act 1995 (corresponding provision for Scotland).

Voluntary and mandatory rehabilitation plans

- 5 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with securing that a person (“P”) who at any time complies with a voluntary rehabilitation plan is not required at that time—
  - (a) to take part in a work-focused interview under section 12(1), or
  - (b) to undertake work-related activity under section 13(1).

- (2) Regulations under this paragraph may include provision for P not to be required to do the things mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b) only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
    - (a) P is dependent on, or has a propensity to misuse, any drug, and
    - (b) P's dependency or propensity is a factor affecting P's prospects of obtaining or remaining in work.
  - (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a “voluntary rehabilitation plan” is an agreement entered into by the Secretary of State and P under which P agrees to take one or more of the following steps.
  - (4) The steps are—
    - (a) submitting to treatment by or under the direction of a person having the necessary qualifications or experience,
    - (b) taking part in specified interviews, and specified assessments, at specified places and times, and
    - (c) taking such other steps (if any) as may be specified,with a view to the reduction or elimination of P's dependency on, or propensity to misuse, the drug in question.
  - (5) The treatment may be—
    - (a) treatment as a resident in a specified institution or place, or
    - (b) treatment as a non-resident at a specified institution or place, and at specified intervals.
  - (6) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
    - (a) as to the maximum period for which a person may benefit from the provision made by the regulations;
    - (b) about the form of voluntary rehabilitation plans (including provision as to their signing);
    - (c) about the review, variation and revocation of voluntary rehabilitation plans;
    - (d) for securing that a person who agrees to comply with a voluntary rehabilitation plan provides information, and such evidence as may be prescribed, as to compliance with the plan.
  - (7) An employment and support allowance may also be known as a “treatment allowance” at any time when it is payable to a person to whom this paragraph applies.
  - (8) In this paragraph “specified”, in relation to a voluntary rehabilitation plan, means specified in or determined in accordance with the plan.
- 6 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with imposing on a person a requirement to comply with a mandatory rehabilitation plan as a condition of continuing to be entitled to the full amount payable to the person in respect of an employment and support allowance apart from the regulations.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for securing that a person is subject to the requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) at any time only if—

- (a) the person has not at that time agreed to comply with a voluntary rehabilitation plan under paragraph 5, and
  - (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a “mandatory rehabilitation plan” is a document—
- (a) which is provided to the person by the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) which contains one or more of the following requirements.
- (4) The requirements are that the person—
- (a) must attend an educational programme at a specified place and at specified times,
  - (b) must take part in specified interviews, and specified assessments, at specified places and times, and
  - (c) must take such other steps (if any) as may be specified,
- with a view to the reduction or elimination of the person's dependency on, or propensity to misuse, the drug in question.
- (5) Nothing may be specified in a mandatory rehabilitation plan which requires a person to submit to medical or surgical treatment.
- (6) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) as to the involvement of a person in determining the particular requirements to be contained in a mandatory rehabilitation plan with which the person is to be required to comply;
  - (b) about the form of mandatory rehabilitation plans (including provision as to their signing);
  - (c) about the review, variation and revocation of mandatory rehabilitation plans;
  - (d) for securing that a person who is required to comply with a mandatory rehabilitation plan provides information, and such evidence as may be prescribed, as to compliance with the plan.
- (7) Regulations under this paragraph must include provision for a requirement imposed on a person under this paragraph to cease to have effect if the person becomes a member of the support group.
- (8) In this paragraph “specified”, in relation to a mandatory rehabilitation plan, means specified in or determined in accordance with the plan.

Sanctions

- 7 (1) Regulations under paragraph 1, 2, 3 or 6 may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for securing that the appropriate consequence follows if a person has failed to comply with any requirement imposed by any such regulations and the person does not show, within a prescribed period, good cause for the failure;
  - (b) prescribing matters which are, or are not, to be taken into account in determining whether a person has good cause for any failure to comply with any such requirement;

- (c) prescribing circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be regarded as having good cause for any failure to comply with any such requirement.
- (2) The appropriate consequence for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a) is that the amount payable to the person in question in respect of an employment and support allowance is reduced in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) The provision that may be made by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) includes, in particular, provision for determining—
  - (a) the amount by which an allowance is to be reduced,
  - (b) when the reduction is to start, and
  - (c) how long it is to continue,and may include provision prescribing circumstances in which the amount of the reduction is to be nil.

Information

- 8 (1) Regulations may make provision for or in connection with authorising the supply of information, other than excluded information, held by—
  - (a) a police force,
  - (b) the probation service, or
  - (c) such other person as may be prescribed,to a person within sub-paragraph (2) for use for the purposes of any provision of this Schedule.
- (2) The persons within this sub-paragraph are—
  - (a) the Secretary of State;
  - (b) a person providing services to the Secretary of State;
  - (c) an approved person (within the meaning of paragraph 2).
- (3) Information supplied under the regulations may not be supplied by the recipient to any other person unless—
  - (a) it could be supplied to that person under the regulations;
  - (b) it is supplied for the purposes of any civil or criminal proceedings; or
  - (c) it is required to be supplied under any enactment.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (1) “excluded information” means any information relating to or acquired as a result of—
  - (a) the provision of medical or surgical treatment or care, or
  - (b) the provision of services by a social worker,other than information as to whether a person is having (or has had) treatment in respect of the person's use of any drug.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (1) “the probation service” means—
  - (a) in England and Wales, a local probation board established under section 4 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 or a provider of probation services;

---

- (3) The Secretary of State must—
  - (a) prepare the report, and
  - (b) lay it before Parliament,within 6 months from the end of the review period.
- (4) The continued effect of the drugs provisions depends on whether the Secretary of State makes an order under this sub-paragraph within the relevant period providing for those provisions to continue to have effect.
- (5) “The relevant period” means the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the report is laid before Parliament; and, in reckoning this period, no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament—
  - (a) is dissolved or prorogued, or
  - (b) is adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (6) If no order is made as mentioned in sub-paragraph (4), the Secretary of State must instead make an order under this sub-paragraph providing for the repeal of the drugs provisions on a date specified in the order.
- (7) An order under sub-paragraph (6) may contain transitional provision or savings.
- (8) Any power to make an order under this paragraph is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (9) An order under sub-paragraph (4) may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (10) A statutory instrument containing an order under sub-paragraph (6) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (11) In this paragraph “the drugs provisions” means—
  - (a) section 15A of, and Schedule 1A to, the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (c. 5),
  - (b) the words inserted into that Act by paragraph 8 of this Schedule, and
  - (c) paragraphs 6 to 8 of this Schedule.
- (12) This paragraph applies whether or not the regulations mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) are, by virtue of section 19 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (pilot schemes), made so as to have effect for a limited period.
