

Policing and Crime Act 2009

2009 CHAPTER 26

PART 4

INJUNCTIONS: GANG-RELATED VIOLENCE [^{F1}AND DRUG-DEALING ACTIVITY]

Contents of injunctions

36 Contents of injunctions: supplemental

- (1) This section applies in relation to an injunction under section 34.
- (2) The injunction may not include a prohibition or requirement that has effect after the end of the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which the injunction is granted (“the injunction date”).
- (3) The court may order the applicant and the respondent to attend one or more review hearings on a specified date or dates.
- (4) If any prohibition or requirement in the injunction is to have effect after the end of the period of 1 year beginning with the injunction date, the court must order the applicant and the respondent to attend a review hearing on a specified date within the last 4 weeks of the 1 year period (whether or not the court orders them to attend any other review hearings).

[^{F1}(4A) Where—

- (a) the respondent is under the age of 18 on the injunction date, and
- (b) any prohibition or requirement in the injunction is to have effect after the respondent reaches that age and for at least the period of four weeks beginning with the respondent's 18th birthday, the court must order the applicant and the respondent to attend a review hearing on a specified date within that period.]

- (5) A review hearing is a hearing held for the purpose of considering whether the injunction should be varied or discharged.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Policing and Crime Act 2009, Section 36. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The court may attach a power of arrest in relation to—
- (a) any prohibition in the injunction, or
 - (b) any requirement in the injunction, other than one which has the effect of requiring the respondent to participate in particular activities.
- (7) If the court attaches a power of arrest, it may specify that the power is to have effect for a shorter period than the prohibition or requirement to which it relates.
