SCHEDULE 5

Section 26

ISSUING PRECEPTS

Introduction

- 1 (1) A police and crime commissioner may not issue a precept under section 40 of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 for a financial year until the end of the scrutiny process is reached.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The end of the scrutiny process is reached when—
 - (a) in a case where paragraph 5 applies, the police and crime commissioner gives the police and crime panel a response to the panel's report; or
 - (b) in a case where paragraph 6 applies, the end of the process is reached in accordance with regulations under paragraph 8.
- (3) References in this Schedule to the issuing of a precept include references to the issuing of a substitute precept.

Panel's power to veto precept

- 4 (1) The police and crime panel may, having reviewed the proposed precept, veto the proposed precept.
 - (2) If the panel vetoes the proposed precept, the report made under paragraph 3 must include a statement that the panel has vetoed it.
 - (3) References in this Schedule to a police and crime panel vetoing a proposed precept are references to the panel making a decision, by the required majority, that the proposed precept should not be the precept for the financial year.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) For that purpose, the panel makes that decision by the required majority if at least two-thirds of the persons who are members of the panel at the time when the decision is made vote in favour of making that decision.

Next steps if no veto

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies if the police and crime panel does not veto the proposed precept.
- (2) The police and crime commissioner must—
- (a) have regard to the report made by the panel under paragraph 3 (including any recommendations in the report),
 - (b) give the panel a response to the report (and any such recommendations), and
 - (c) publish the response.
- (3) The police and crime commissioner may—
- (a) issue the proposed precept as the precept for the financial year, or
 - (b) issue a different precept, but only if it would be in accordance with a recommendation made in the report to do so.
- (4) It is for the police and crime panel to determine the manner in which a response to a report or recommendations is to be published in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) (c).

Section 28

POLICE AND CRIME PANELS

PART 1

TYPE OF PANEL WHICH POLICE AREA IS TO HAVE

England

- 1 (1) Each police area in England, other than the metropolitan police district, is to have a police and crime panel established and maintained in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule.
- (2) But the Secretary of State may, by order, provide that any such police area is to have (for as long as the order has effect) a police and crime panel established and maintained in accordance with Part 3 of this Schedule (instead of a panel established and maintained in accordance with Part 2).
- (3) The Secretary of State may make an order under sub-paragraph (2) in relation to a single-authority police area only if the Secretary of State is of the opinion that the relevant local authority has failed to nominate or appoint one or more of its councillors as members of the panel in accordance with paragraphs 6 and 9.
- (4) The Secretary of State may make an order under sub-paragraph (2) in relation to a multi-authority police area only if the Secretary of State is of the opinion that all the relevant local authorities have (whether at the same time or at different times) failed to nominate or appoint one or more of their councillors as members of the panel—
- (a) in accordance with paragraphs 7 and 9 (in the case of a police area which covers ten or more local authorities), or
 - (b) in accordance with paragraphs 8 and 9 (in the case of a police area which covers nine or fewer local authorities).

PART 2

PANELS ESTABLISHED BY LOCAL AUTHORITIES

Establishment and maintenance of panels

- 3 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies in relation to each police area in England (other than the metropolitan police district), unless an order under paragraph 1(2) has effect in relation to the police area.
- (2) The local authority or local authorities which such a police area covers must—
- (a) establish and maintain a police and crime panel for the police area, and
 - (b) make the panel arrangements (see paragraph 24) for the police and crime panel.
- (3) In the case of a multi-authority police area, all the relevant local authorities must agree to the making or modification of the panel arrangements.
- (4) In the following provisions of this Part of this Schedule, a reference to a police and crime panel is a reference to a panel established and maintained in accordance with this paragraph.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C3 Sch. 6 para. 3(3) modified (3.10.2012) by The Police and Crime Panels \(Modification of Functions\) Regulations 2012 \(S.I. 2012/2504\), regs. 1, 2

Membership and status

- 4 (1) A police and crime panel for a police area is to consist of the following members—
- (a) the relevant number of persons properly appointed as members of the panel; and
 - (b) the appropriate number of members co-opted by the panel.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a), the “relevant number” is—
- (a) ten (if the police area covers ten or fewer local authorities); or
 - (b) the number that is equal to the number of local authorities which the police area covers (if the police area covers eleven or more local authorities).
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), the “appropriate number” is—
- (a) two, or
 - (b) if a resolution of the panel under sub-paragraph (4) is in force, the number of co-opted members specified in that resolution.
- (4) A police and crime panel may resolve that the panel is to have the number of co-opted members specified in the resolution; but no such resolution may be passed unless—
- (a) that number of co-opted members is greater than two;
 - (b) the Secretary of State agrees that the panel should have that number of co-opted members; and

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the total membership of the panel, including that number of co-opted members, would not exceed 20.
- (5) A police and crime panel is—
 - (a) a committee of the relevant local authority (if it is the panel for a single-authority police area), or
 - (b) a joint committee of the relevant local authorities (if it is the panel for a multi-authority police area).
- (6) A police and crime panel may not exercise any functions other than those conferred by this Act.

Persons properly appointed as members of panels

- 5 (1) In this Part of this Schedule, a reference to a person properly appointed as a member of a police and crime panel is a reference to—
- (a) a person nominated by a relevant local authority to be a member of the panel, and appointed by the authority as a member of the panel, in accordance with paragraphs 6 and 9, paragraphs 7 and 9, or paragraphs 8 and 9, or
 - (b) a person nominated by the Secretary of State to be a member of the panel, and appointed by the Secretary of State as a member of the panel, in accordance with paragraph 10.
- (2) In the case of the police and crime panel for a multi-authority police area which covers nine or fewer local authorities, the panel arrangements must make provision as to the relevant local authority or authorities who are to have power to appoint the extra members of the panel (see paragraph 8(3)(b)).
- (3) For that purpose “extra members” means the number of members of the panel produced by this calculation—where L is the number of local authorities which the police area covers.

Single-authority police area: nomination by local authority

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to the police and crime panel for a single-authority police area.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the number of appointed members of the police and crime panel is less than the full complement, the relevant local authority may nominate the appropriate number of its councillors to be members of the police and crime panel.
- (3) A relevant local authority may not make a nomination under this paragraph if, and for as long as, a notice given to the authority by the Secretary of State under paragraph 10(8) is in force.
- (4) In this paragraph—
 - “appropriate number” means the number that is equal to the difference between—
 - (a) the full complement; and
 - (b) the number of appointed members of the panel;
 - “full complement” means ten members.

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to the police and crime panel for a multi-authority police area which covers nine or fewer local authorities.
- (2) In a case where—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the number of appointed members of the police and crime panel is less than the full complement,
 - (b) a particular relevant local authority does not have power under the panel arrangements to appoint an extra member of the panel (see paragraph 5(2)), and
 - (c) there is no member of the panel who was appointed by the authority,
- the authority may nominate one of its councillors to be a member of the police and crime panel.
- (3) In a case where—
- (a) the number of appointed members of the police and crime panel is less than the full complement,
 - (b) a particular relevant local authority has power under the panel arrangements to appoint one or more extra members of the panel (see paragraph 5(2)), and
 - (c) the number of members of the panel who are members by virtue of appointment by the authority is less than the authority's quota of members,
- the authority may nominate the permitted number of its councillors to be members of the police and crime panel.
- (4) A relevant local authority may not make a nomination under this paragraph if, and for as long as, a notice given to the authority by the Secretary of State under paragraph 10(8) is in force.
- (5) In this paragraph, in relation to a police and crime panel and a relevant local authority—
- “full complement” means ten members;
 - “permitted number” means the number that is equal to the difference between—
 - (a) the authority's quota of members; and
 - (b) the number of members of the panel who are members by virtue of appointment by the authority;
 - “quota of members” means the number of members calculated by adding one to the number of extra members of the panel which the authority has power to appoint under the panel arrangements (see paragraph 5(2)).

Failure of local authority to appoint member: nomination and appointment by Secretary of State

- 10 (1) This paragraph applies if the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) the number of appointed members of a police and crime panel is less than the full complement, and
 - (b) a relevant local authority (the “defaulting local authority”)—
 - (i) has failed to nominate or appoint one or more of its councillors as members of the panel in accordance with paragraphs 6 and 9, paragraphs 7 and 9, or paragraphs 8 and 9, or
 - (ii) does not have power to make such a nomination and appointment because of paragraph 6(3), 7(3) or 8(4).
- (2) The Secretary of State must nominate the appropriate number of persons who are councillors of relevant local authorities to be members of the police and crime panel.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) or (5) applies in relation to each nomination which the Secretary of State is required to make under sub-paragraph (2).
- (4) If the nominee accepts the nomination, the Secretary of State must appoint the nominated councillor as a member of the panel.
- (5) If the nominee does not accept the nomination, the Secretary of State must nominate another person who is a councillor of a relevant local authority to be a member of the police and crime panel (and sub-paragraph (4) or this sub-paragraph applies accordingly, as if the nomination were made under sub-paragraph (2)).
- (6) In complying with this paragraph in relation to the police and crime panel for a multi-authority police area, the Secretary of State must secure (as far as is reasonably practicable) that the fair representation objective is met.
- (7) The “fair representation objective” referred to in sub-paragraph (6) is—
- (a) in the case of a police area which covers ten or more local authorities, the objective that each relevant local authority has only one of its councillors as a member of the panel;
 - (b) in the case of a police area which covers nine or fewer local authorities, the objective that each relevant local authority has at least one of its councillors as a member of the panel.
- (8) If the Secretary of State—
- (a) is satisfied that a relevant local authority has failed to nominate or appoint one or more of its councillors as members of the panel as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) (b), and
 - (b) is considering whether to exercise, has decided to exercise, or has exercised, the power under this paragraph to make a nomination,
- the Secretary of State may give the authority notice that the Secretary of State is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) A notice given under sub-paragraph (8) may be withdrawn by the Secretary of State at any time.
- (10) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) (b) (i), it is irrelevant that a relevant local authority which has failed to nominate or appoint a councillor as a member of the panel—
- (a) may have power under any of paragraphs 6 to 9 to make a further nomination; or
 - (b) is complying with, or has complied with, the panel arrangements relating to that panel.
- (11) In this paragraph—
- “appropriate number” means the number that is equal to the difference between—
- (a) the full complement; and
 - (b) the number of appointed members of the panel;
- “full complement” means the number of appointed members which the panel is to have by virtue of paragraph 4(1)(a).

Membership and status

- 13 (1) A police and crime panel for a police area is to consist of the following members—
- (a) the relevant number of persons appointed by the Secretary of State as members of the panel; and
 - (b) the appropriate number of members co-opted by the panel.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) (a), the “relevant number” is—
- (a) ten (if the police area covers ten or fewer local authorities); or
 - (b) the number that is equal to the number of local authorities which the police area covers (if the police area covers eleven or more local authorities).
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), the “appropriate number” is—
- (a) two, or
 - (b) if a resolution of the panel under sub-paragraph (4) is in force, the number of co-opted members specified in that resolution.
- (4) A police and crime panel may resolve that the panel is to have the number of co-opted members specified in the resolution; but no such resolution may be passed unless—
- (a) that number of co-opted members is greater than two;
 - (b) the Secretary of State agrees that the panel should have that number of co-opted members; and
 - (c) the total membership of the panel, including that number of co-opted members, would not exceed 20.
- (5) A police and crime panel is not a committee or joint committee of any local authority or local authorities.

Wales: Secretary of State to ask local authorities to nominate members of panels

- 15 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to a Welsh police and crime panel if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the number of appointed members of the panel is less than the full complement.
- (2) In the case of a police and crime panel for a single-authority police area, the Secretary of State must ask the relevant local authority to nominate the appropriate number of the authority's councillors to be members of the panel.
- (3) In the case of a police and crime panel for a multi-authority police area, the Secretary of State must—
- (a) decide which of the relevant local authorities to ask to make nominations under this sub-paragraph (the “nominating authorities”);
 - (b) decide what number of nominations under this sub-paragraph each nominating authority is to be asked to make; and
 - (c) ask each nominating authority to nominate that number of the authority's councillors to be members of the panel.
- (4) In complying with sub-paragraph (3), the Secretary of State must secure—
- (a) that the number of nominations which the nominating authority or authorities are asked to make (when taken together) is equal to the appropriate number; and
 - (b) that (as far as is reasonably practicable) the fair representation objective is met.
- (5) The “fair representation objective” referred to in sub-paragraph (4)(b) is—
- (a) in the case of a police area which covers ten or more local authorities, the objective that each relevant local authority has only one of its councillors as a member of the panel;
 - (b) in the case of a police area which covers nine or fewer local authorities, the objective that each relevant local authority has at least one of its councillors as a member of the panel.
- (6) In this paragraph—

Wales: consequences of Secretary of State asking local authorities to make nominations

- 16
- (1) This paragraph applies if, under paragraph 15, the Secretary of State asks a relevant local authority to nominate a councillor to be a member of a Welsh police and crime panel.
 - (2) The authority may make the nomination.
 - (3) If the authority makes the nomination, and the nominee accepts the nomination, the Secretary of State must appoint the nominated councillor as a member of the police and crime panel.
 - (4) If the authority fails to make the nomination, or the nominee does not accept the nomination, the Secretary of State must either—
 - (a) ask the authority to make another nomination (and sub-paragraph (2), and sub-paragraph (3) or this sub-paragraph, apply accordingly, as if the request were made under paragraph 15); or
 - (b) nominate a person who is a councillor of a relevant local authority to be a member of the police and crime panel.
 - (5) If the nominee accepts a nomination made under sub-paragraph (4)(b), the Secretary of State must appoint the nominated councillor as a member of the panel.
 - (6) If the nominee does not accept the nomination, the Secretary of State must nominate another person who is a councillor of a relevant local authority to be a member of the police and crime panel (and sub-paragraph (5) or this sub-paragraph applies accordingly, as if the nomination were made under sub-paragraph (4)(b)).

England: nomination and appointment of members of panels by Secretary of State

- 18 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to an English police and crime panel if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the number of appointed members of the panel is less than the full complement.
- (2) The Secretary of State must nominate the appropriate number of persons who are councillors of relevant local authorities to be members of the police and crime panel.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) or (5) applies in relation to each nomination which the Secretary of State is required to make under sub-paragraph (2).
- (4) If the nominee accepts the nomination, the Secretary of State must appoint the nominated councillor as a member of the panel.
- (5) If the nominee does not accept the nomination, the Secretary of State must nominate another person who is a councillor of a relevant local authority to be a member of the police and crime panel (and sub-paragraph (4) or this sub-paragraph applies accordingly, as if the nomination were made under sub-paragraph (2)).
- (6) In this paragraph—
“appropriate number” means the number that is equal to the difference between—
(a) the full complement; and
(b) the number of appointed members of the panel;
“full complement” means the number of appointed members which the panel is to have by virtue of paragraph 13(1)(a).

Duty to produce balanced panel

- 31
- (1) In exercising functions under Part 2 or 3 of this Schedule, a relevant local authority must secure that (as far as is reasonably practicable) the balanced appointment objective is met.
 - (2) In exercising functions under Part 2 or 3 of this Schedule, the Secretary of State must secure that (as far as is reasonably practicable) the balanced appointment objective is met.
 - (3) A police and crime panel must, in co-opting persons who are members of relevant local authorities, secure that (as far as is reasonably practicable) the balanced appointment objective is met.
 - (4) A police and crime panel—
 - (a) must, from time to time, decide whether the panel's exercise of the power conferred by paragraph 4(4) or 13(4) (changing the number of co-opted members of the panel) would enable the balanced appointment objective to be, or would contribute to that objective being, met or more effectively met; and

- (b) if the panel decides that the exercise of the power would do so, must exercise that power accordingly.
- (5) The “balanced appointment objective” referred to in this paragraph is the objective that local authority members of a police and crime panel (when taken together)—
- (a) represent all parts of the relevant police area;
 - (b) represent the political make-up of—
 - (i) the relevant local authority, or
 - (ii) the relevant local authorities (when taken together);
 - (c) have the skills, knowledge and experience necessary for the police and crime panel to discharge its functions effectively.

Duty to nominate elected mayor to be a member of the panel

- 33 (1) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) a local authority has a mayor and cabinet executive, and
 - (b) the elected mayor of that executive is not a member of the relevant police and crime panel.
- (2) If the relevant local authority has power under paragraph 6(2), 7(2), 8(2) or (3) or 16(2) to nominate one or more of its councillors to be members of that panel, any exercise of that power must be such as to secure that the elected mayor is the councillor, or one of the councillors, so nominated.
- (3) If the Secretary of State is required by paragraph 10(2), 16(4)(b) or 18(2) to nominate one or more persons to be members of that panel, the Secretary of State must secure that the elected mayor is the person, or one of the persons, so nominated.
- (4) The duty in sub-paragraph (2) or (3) does not apply at a particular time if the person who holds office as the elected mayor at that time (the “current mayor”)—

SCHEDULE 7

Section 31

REGULATIONS ABOUT COMPLAINTS AND CONDUCT MATTERS

Introduction

- 1 (1) In this Schedule—
- “conduct matter” has the same meaning as in section 31;
- “police force” means a police force maintained for a police area in England or Wales or any other police force which exercises functions in England or Wales;
- “qualifying complaint” has the same meaning as in section 31;
- “regulations” means regulations under section 31.
- (2) The provisions of this Schedule that confer power to make particular kinds of regulations do not affect the generality of the power conferred by section 31.

Investigation of serious complaints

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies to—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) serious complaints, and
 - (b) conduct matters,
- which relate to any relevant office holder.
- (2) Regulations must provide for serious complaints and conduct matters to be investigated—
- (a) by the Independent Police Complaints Commission, or
 - (b) by a police force, in an investigation that is under the management of the Independent Police Complaints Commission.
- (3) This paragraph does not prevent regulations from making provision about the receipt or initial handling of serious complaints or conduct matters otherwise than by the Independent Police Complaints Commission or a police force.
- (4) This paragraph does not prevent regulations from making provision about—
- (a) circumstances in which serious complaints or conduct matters are not to be investigated; and
 - (b) circumstances in which investigations of serious complaints or conduct matters are to be discontinued;
- including provision about the determination of such matters (whether by the Independent Police Complaints Commission, a police force or otherwise).
- (5) Regulations may make provision about what is to be taken to be a criminal offence for the purposes of sub-paragraph (6).
- (6) In this paragraph “serious complaint” means a qualifying complaint made about conduct which constitutes or involves, or appears to constitute or involve, the commission of a criminal offence.

Resolution of other complaints

- 3 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to qualifying complaints which—
- (a) relate to a holder of the office of—
 - (i) police and crime commissioner,
 - (ii) deputy police and crime commissioner, or
 - (iii) Deputy Mayor for Policing and Crime (unless the holder of that office is a member of the London Assembly), and
 - (b) are not, or cease to be, investigated by the Independent Police Complaints Commission or a police force.
- (2) Regulations—
- (a) may not provide for the investigation of such complaints; but
 - (b) must provide for police and crime panels to engage in informal resolution of such complaints.
- (3) This paragraph does not prevent regulations from making provision about the receipt or initial handling of qualifying complaints otherwise than by police and crime panels.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) This paragraph does not prevent regulations from making provision about—
- (a) circumstances in which police and crime panels are not required to engage in informal resolution of such complaints; and
 - (b) circumstances in which informal resolution of such complaints is to be discontinued;
- including provision about the determination of such matters (whether by police and crime panels or otherwise).
- (5) In this Schedule—
- (a) references to engaging in informal resolution of a complaint are references to encouraging, facilitating, or otherwise assisting in, the resolution of the complaint otherwise than by legal proceedings; and
 - (b) references to informal resolution of a complaint are to be construed accordingly.

SCHEDULE 8

Section 38

APPOINTMENT, SUSPENSION AND REMOVAL OF SENIOR POLICE OFFICERS

PART 1

APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF CONSTABLES

Introduction

- 1 A police and crime commissioner must comply with this Part of this Schedule in appointing a chief constable under section 38.

Commencement Information

I97 Sch. 8 para. 1 in force at 22.11.2012 by S.I. 2012/2892, art. 2\(e\)

No appointment until end of confirmation process

- 2 (1) A police and crime commissioner must not appoint a person to be chief constable unless—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that person is, or has been, a constable in any part of the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) the end of the confirmation process has been reached.
- (2) The end of the confirmation process is reached—
- (a) in a case where paragraph 7 applies, when the first of the events mentioned in sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) occurs; or
 - (b) in a case where paragraph 8 applies, when the first of the events mentioned in sub-paragraphs (3) and (5) occurs.
- (3) The first event mentioned in sub-paragraphs (2)(a) and (2)(b) is the period of three weeks mentioned in paragraph 4(6) ending without the relevant police and crime panel having given the police and crime commissioner any report on the proposed appointment.
- (4) The second event mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a) is the police and crime commissioner notifying the panel under paragraph 7(3) of the decision whether or not to accept the panel's recommendation in relation to the appointment.
- (5) The second event mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) is the end of the confirmation process being reached in accordance with regulations under paragraph 10.

Commencement Information

I98 Sch. 8 para. 2 in force at 22.11.2012 by S.I. 2012/2892, art. 2\(e\)

Notification of proposed appointment

- 3
- (1) A police and crime commissioner must notify the relevant police and crime panel of each proposed appointment of a chief constable by the commissioner.
 - (2) In such a case, the police and crime commissioner must also notify the relevant police and crime panel of the following information—
 - (a) the name of the person whom the commissioner is proposing to appoint (“the candidate”);
 - (b) the criteria used to assess the suitability of the candidate for the appointment;
 - (c) why the candidate satisfies those criteria; and
 - (d) the terms and conditions on which the candidate is to be appointed.

Commencement Information

I99 Sch. 8 para. 3 in force at 22.11.2012 by S.I. 2012/2892, art. 2\(e\)

Panel to review and report on proposed appointment

- (1) This paragraph applies if a police and crime panel is notified under paragraph 3 of a proposed appointment of a chief constable.
 - (2) The panel must review the proposed appointment.
 - (3) The panel must make a report to the commissioner on the proposed appointment.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The report must include a recommendation to the police and crime commissioner as to whether or not the candidate should be appointed.
- (5) Sub-paragraph (4) does not apply if the panel vetoes the proposed appointment under paragraph 5 (but see paragraph 5(2)).
- (6) The panel must comply with sub-paragraphs (2) to (4) within the period of three weeks beginning with the day on which the panel receives the notification from the commissioner of the proposed appointment.
- (7) The panel must publish the report to the commissioner made under this paragraph.
- (8) It is for the panel to determine the manner in which the recommendation is to be published in accordance with sub-paragraph (7).
- (9) In calculating the period of three weeks for the purpose of sub-paragraph (6), any relevant post-election period is to be ignored.
- (10) For that purpose, “relevant post-election period” means the period that—
 - (a) begins with the day of the poll at an ordinary election of a police and crime commissioner under section 50, and
 - (b) ends with the day on which the person elected as police and crime commissioner delivers a declaration of acceptance of office under section 70.

Power to veto proposed appointment

- 5 (1) The police and crime panel may, having reviewed the proposed appointment, veto the appointment of the candidate.
- (2) If the panel vetoes the appointment of the candidate, the report made under paragraph 4 must include a statement that the panel has vetoed it.
- (3) References in this Schedule to a police and crime panel vetoing the appointment of a candidate are references to the panel making a decision, by the required majority, that the candidate should not be appointed as chief constable.
- (4) For that purpose, the panel makes that decision by the required majority if at least two-thirds of the persons who are members of the panel at the time when the decision is made vote in favour of making that decision.
- (5) The power conferred by this paragraph is exercisable in relation to a proposed appointment only during the period of three weeks mentioned in paragraph 4(6).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Confirmation hearings

- 6 (1) A police and crime panel must hold a confirmation hearing—
- (a) before making a report under paragraph 4 to the police and crime commissioner in relation to a proposed appointment of a chief constable, and
 - (b) before making a recommendation under paragraph 4 (where applicable) or vetoing an appointment under paragraph 5 (where applicable).
- (2) For the purposes of this Part a “confirmation hearing” is a meeting of the panel, held in public, at which the candidate is requested to appear for the purpose of answering questions relating to the appointment.
- (3) References in this Part to a person appearing at a meeting of the panel are references to the person—
- (a) attending the meeting in person, or
 - (b) not attending the meeting in person, but participating in the proceedings at the meeting by any means that enable the person to hear, and be heard in, those proceedings as they happen.

Removal: role of panel

- 15 (1) This paragraph applies if a police and crime panel is given a notification under paragraph 14.
- (2) The panel must make a recommendation to the police and crime commissioner as to whether or not the commissioner should call for the retirement or resignation.
- (3) The recommendation must be given to the police and crime commissioner in writing before the end of the period of six weeks beginning with the day on which the panel receives the notification under paragraph 14.
- (4) Before making the recommendation, the panel—
- (a) may consult the chief inspector of constabulary, and
 - (b) must hold a scrutiny hearing.
- (5) The panel must publish the recommendation made under this paragraph.
- (6) It is for the panel to determine the manner in which the recommendation is to be published in accordance with sub-paragraph (5).
- (7) In calculating the period of six weeks mentioned in sub-paragraph (3), any relevant post-election period is to be ignored.
- (8) For that purpose, “relevant post-election period” means the period that—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) begins with the day of the poll at an ordinary election of a police and crime commissioner under section 50, and
 - (b) ends with the day on which the person elected as police and crime commissioner delivers a declaration of acceptance of office under section 70.
- (9) For the purposes of this Part a “scrutiny hearing” is a meeting of the panel, held in private, which the police and crime commissioner and the chief constable are both entitled to attend for the purpose of making representations relating to the proposal to call upon the chief constable to retire or resign.
- (10) References in this Part to a person appearing at a meeting of the panel are references to the person—
- (a) attending the meeting in person, or
 - (b) not attending the meeting in person, but participating in the proceedings at the meeting by any means that enable the person to hear, and be heard in, those proceedings as they happen.

No candidate with overall majority of first preference votes

- (1) If none of the candidates to be the police and crime commissioner receives more than half of all the first preference votes given in the police area, the following provisions of this paragraph apply.
 - (2) The two candidates who received the greatest number of first preference votes given in the police area remain in the contest.
 - (3) If, by reason of an equality of first preference votes, three or more candidates are qualified to remain in the contest by virtue of sub-paragraph (2), all of them remain in the contest.
 - (4) The other candidates are eliminated from the contest.
 - (5) The number of second preference votes given in the police area for each of the candidates remaining in the contest by votes which did not give a first preference vote to any of those candidates must be ascertained.
 - (6) That number must be added to the number of first preference votes given for that candidate, to give the total number of preference votes for that candidate.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The person who is to be returned as the police and crime commissioner for the police area is that one of the candidates remaining in the contest who has the greatest total number of preference votes.
- (8) If, by reason of an equality of total number of preference votes, two or more candidates remaining in the contest each have the greatest total number of preference votes, the police area returning officer must decide by lots which of them is to be returned as the police and crime commissioner.

discharging a power or duty conferred or imposed on C by the collaboration designation.

- (7) The collaboration designation must specify the restrictions and conditions to which C is subject in the discharge of the powers and duties conferred or imposed by the collaboration designation.
- (8) Those restrictions and conditions must include the restrictions and conditions specified in the relevant police collaboration provision.
- (9) C is authorised or required to discharge any power or duty conferred or imposed by the collaboration designation subject to the restrictions and conditions specified in the collaboration designation.
- (10) References in this section to the discharge of functions by civilian employees of the assisting force for the purposes of the assisted force have the same meaning as in section 23B of the Police Act 1996.
- (11) In this section—
 - “civilian employee” has the meaning given by section 23I of the Police Act 1996;
 - “relevant police collaboration provision” means provision, contained in a collaboration agreement under section 22A of the Police Act 1996, which is of the kind referred to in section 23AA of that Act.

38C Designations under section 38B: supplementary provision

- (1) The collaboration designation of C must be in accordance with the relevant police collaboration provision.
- (2) Subsection (1) is in addition to section 38B(5) and (8).
- (3) Subsections (8) and (9) of section 38 apply to any power exercisable by C in reliance on the collaboration designation as they apply to a power exercisable by a person in reliance on a designation under section 38.
- (4) In exercising or performing any power or duty in reliance on the collaboration designation, C is to be taken—
 - (a) as exercising or performing that power or duty in reliance on that collaboration designation (and not in reliance on any designation under section 38); and
 - (b) accordingly, as not being a designated person (within the meaning of section 46(1)) by virtue of any designation under section 38.
- (5) Expressions used in this section and section 38B have the same meanings in this section as in section 38B.”.

Initial handling and recording of complaints

- 8 (1) In Schedule 3 (handling of complaints and conduct matters), paragraph 2 (initial handling and recording of complaints) is amended in accordance with sub-paragraphs (2) to (5).
- (2) For sub-paragraph (1) substitute—
- “(1) Where a complaint is made to the Commission, it shall give notification of the complaint to the appropriate authority.
- (1A) But the Commission need not give that notification if the Commission considers that there are exceptional circumstances that justify its not being given.”.
- (3) Omit sub-paragraph (4).
- (4) In sub-paragraph (5)—
- (a) in the words before sub-paragraph (a)—
- (i) omit the words from “or the Commission” to “sub-paragraph (4)”;
- (ii) omit “or, as the case may be, the Commission”;
- (b) omit sub-paragraph (b) (and the word “or” preceding it).
- (5) After sub-paragraph (7) insert—

- (2) But this paragraph does not apply to a complaint if it is one that has been, or must be, referred to the Commission under paragraph 4, unless the complaint is for the time being—
 - (a) referred back to the authority under paragraph 5, or
 - (b) the subject of a determination under paragraph 15.
 - (3) Subject to paragraph 7, the appropriate authority shall determine whether or not the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution.
 - (4) If the appropriate authority determines that the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution, it shall make arrangements for it to be so subjected.
 - (5) If the appropriate authority determines that the complaint is not so suitable, it shall make arrangements for the complaint to be investigated by the authority on its own behalf.
 - (6) A determination that a complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution may not be made unless the following conditions are both met.
 - (7) The first condition is that the appropriate authority is satisfied that the conduct complained of (even if it were proved) would not justify the bringing of any criminal or disciplinary proceedings against the person whose conduct is complained of.
 - (8) The second condition is that the appropriate authority is satisfied that the conduct complained of (even if it were proved) would not involve the infringement of a person's rights under Article 2 or 3 of the Convention (within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998).
 - (9) In a case where this paragraph applies to a complaint by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(b), a determination that the complaint is suitable for being subjected to local resolution may not be made unless the Commission approves the determination.
 - (10) No more than one application may be made to the Commission for the purposes of sub-paragraph (9) in respect of the same complaint.
 - (11) Sub-paragraph (9) (where applicable) is in addition to sub-paragraphs (6) to (8).”.
- (2) In paragraphs 7(6)(a) and 16(1)(a) of that Schedule, for “paragraph 6(2)” substitute “ paragraph 6(3) ”.
 - (3) In section 22 (power of the Commission to issue guidance), in subsection (5)(c), omit sub-paragraph (ii) (and the word “and” at the end of sub-paragraph (i)).”.

(10) The first case is where the appeal relates to a decision for which the Commission has given permission under this paragraph.

(11) The second case is where the complaint relates to a direction and control matter.

(12) On an appeal under this paragraph, subject to sub-paragraphs (13) and (14), the relevant appeal body shall—

- (a) determine whether any decision taken by the appropriate authority under this paragraph should have been taken in the case in question; and
- (b) if the relevant appeal body finds in the complainant's favour, give such directions as the relevant appeal body thinks appropriate to the local policing body or chief officer as to the action to be taken for handling the complaint in accordance with this Schedule or handling it otherwise than in accordance with this Schedule; and it shall be the duty of a local policing body or chief officer to comply with any directions given under paragraph (b).

(13) Sub-paragraph (12) does not apply in a case where a particular chief officer of police is—

- (a) the person in respect of whose decision the appeal is made under this paragraph, and
- (b) the relevant appeal body in relation to the appeal.

(14) In such a case—

- (a) the appeal shall determine whether any decision taken by the appropriate authority under this paragraph should have been taken in the case in question; and

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if the appeal finds in the complainant's favour, the chief officer of police must take such action as the chief officer thinks appropriate for handling the complaint in accordance with this Schedule or handling it otherwise than in accordance with this Schedule.”.

SCHEDULE 15

Section 98

POLICE REFORM: TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

PART 1

CHIEF OFFICERS OF POLICE

Current chief officers to remain in post

- 1 (1) At the relevant commencement time a person who, immediately before that time, is in post as the existing chief officer of the police force for a police area becomes the new chief officer of that police force.
- (2) Where a person has, prior to the relevant commencement time, accepted an appointment as the existing chief officer of the police force for a police area which is to come into effect at a time (the “effective time”) which falls at or after the relevant commencement time, that appointment is to take effect at the effective time as an appointment as the new chief officer of that police force.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) is without prejudice to any right of the person appointed not to take up the appointment.

Relevant legislative provisions

- 3 (1) Any relevant legislative provision which, immediately before the relevant commencement time, applied to chief constables of police forces maintained under section 2 of the Police Act 1996 is to apply after that time in the same way to chief constables established under section 2 of this Act (except where the context otherwise requires).
- (2) Any relevant legislative provision which, immediately before the relevant commencement time, applied to the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis is to apply after that time in the same way to the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis established under section 4 of this Act (except where the context otherwise requires).

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) are subject to any provision to the contrary made—
- (a) by or under this Act, or
 - (b) by any other Act passed, or subordinate legislation made, on or after the passing of this Act.

- (4) In this paragraph—

“relevant legislative provision” means—

- (a) provision of an Act made before the relevant commencement day, or
- (b) provision of an instrument made before the relevant commencement day under a public general Act which is of a legislative character;

but provision which applies only to specified chief constables of police forces maintained under section 2 of the Police Act 1996 is not relevant legislative provision.

PART 2

INITIAL TRANSFER FROM POLICE AUTHORITIES

Transfer of property, rights and liabilities

- 5 (1) At the relevant commencement time, all property, rights and liabilities which immediately before that time were property, rights and liabilities of the existing police authority for a police area are to transfer to, and by virtue of this paragraph vest in, the new policing body for that police area.
- (2) This paragraph does not apply to any rights or liabilities under a contract of employment (which are dealt with in paragraph 6).

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

Transfer of staff

- 6 (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (5) and (6), this paragraph applies to any person who immediately before the relevant commencement time is a member of the staff of the existing police authority for a police area (the “existing employer”).
- (2) A contract of employment between a person to whom this paragraph applies and the existing employer is to have effect from the relevant commencement time as if originally made between that person and the new policing body for the police area in relation to which the existing employer was established (the “new employer”).
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not break the continuity of a person's employment and accordingly such a person's period of employment with the existing employer counts as a period of employment with the new employer for the purposes of the Employment Rights Act 1996.
- (4) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) all the existing employer's rights, powers, duties and liabilities under or in connection with a contract to which that sub-paragraph applies are by virtue of this paragraph transferred to the new employer at the relevant commencement time; and
 - (b) anything done before that date by or in relation to the existing employer in respect of that contract or the employee shall be deemed from that date to have been done by or in relation to the new employer.
- (5) Sub-paragraphs (2) to (4) are without prejudice to any right of a member of staff to terminate the contract of employment if a substantial change is made to the person's detriment in the person's working conditions; but no such right arises by reason only of the change in employer effected by this paragraph.
- (6) Where a person—
- (a) has, prior to the relevant commencement time, entered into a contract of employment with an existing police authority which is to come into effect at or after that time; and
 - (b) would, if the contract had come into effect before that date, have been a person to whom this paragraph applies,
- that person is to be treated as a person to whom this paragraph applies.
- (7) A person who would (but for this sub-paragraph) be treated as being dismissed by the operation of this paragraph (whether by an enactment or otherwise) is to be treated as not being so dismissed.
- (8) Sub-paragraph (7) does not apply to a person who, by virtue of sub-paragraph (5), does not become an employee of a new policing body.
- (9) This paragraph is subject to paragraph 7.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Police civilians

- 7 (1) The new policing body for a police area—
- (a) is to have, for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), relevant powers to arrange for the new chief officer of the police force for that area to discharge functions of that body; and
 - (b) must exercise those powers for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (2).
- (2) That purpose is securing that the police civilian members of staff of that new policing body are under the direction and control of that chief officer.
- (3) Any arrangements made in compliance with section 15(2) of the Police Act 1996 between the existing police authority for a police area and the existing chief officer of the police force for that area which are in force immediately before the relevant commencement time are to have effect at and after that time as if made under this paragraph between the new policing body for that area and the new chief officer of that police force.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (5) applies to a person who—
- (a) immediately before the relevant commencement time, is a police civilian member of the staff of an existing police authority, and
 - (b) at that time becomes a member of the staff of the new policing body for a police area by virtue of paragraph 6.
- (5) For as long as the person continues to be a member of the staff of that body, the person is to be—
- (a) employed as a police civilian member of that staff, and
 - (b) under the direction and control of the new chief officer of the police for that area.
- (6) Sub-paragraph (5) does not prevent the new policing body from making arrangements with the person for the person to cease to be a police civilian member of staff of that body (whether or not the person remains a member of the staff of that body).
- (7) After the relevant commencement time, a new policing body may, for either of the purposes set out in sub-paragraph (8), make arrangements—
- (a) with any member of the staff of the body who is not a police civilian member of staff to become a police civilian member of that staff, or
 - (b) with a person who is not a member of that body's staff to become a police civilian member of that staff.
- (8) In relation to the new policing body for a police area those purposes are—
- (a) replacing police civilian members of staff of the existing police authority for that area who did not become members of the staff of the new policing body in accordance with paragraph 6;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) replacing police civilian members of staff of the new policing body who have ceased to be police civilian members of staff of that body otherwise than by virtue of a transfer scheme under Part 2 of this Schedule; or
 - (c) to supplement the police civilian members of staff of the new policing body.
- (9) Sub-paragraphs (1) to (5) are subject to—
- (a) any provision included in a collaboration agreement under section 22A of the Police Act 1996, and
 - (b) section 24(3A) of that Act (aid of one police force by another).
- (10) In this paragraph—
- (a) “relevant powers” means powers corresponding to those conferred by sections 101 and 107 of the Local Government Act 1972 on police authorities established under section 3 of the Police Act 1996;
 - (b) references to a police civilian member of staff of an existing police authority or a new policing body are references to a member of the staff of that authority or body who is employed solely to assist the police force maintained by that authority or body;
 - (c) the chief officers' powers of direction and control referred to include powers of engagement and dismissal.

PART 3

SUBSEQUENT TRANSFER BY NEW POLICING BODY

Power to direct new policing body to make transfer scheme

- 10 (1) The Secretary of State may direct a new policing body—
- (a) to make one or more transfer schemes, and
 - (b) to submit such a scheme to the Secretary of State for approval.
- (2) If the Secretary of State gives a direction under sub-paragraph (1)(b), the Secretary of State may—
- (a) approve the scheme as submitted,
 - (b) approve the scheme with modifications, or
 - (c) reject the scheme.
- (3) Before making a decision under sub-paragraph (2), the Secretary of State must—
- (a) consult the new policing body, and
 - (b) if the scheme includes provision about the transfer of staff, consult persons who, in the Secretary of State's opinion, represent the views of the staff concerned.
- (4) If the Secretary of State gives a direction under sub-paragraph (1)(b), the new policing body—
- (a) must not make the scheme unless the Secretary of State approves it, and
 - (b) if the Secretary of State approves the scheme with modifications, must make it with those modifications.
- (5) A direction under this paragraph—
- (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by a further direction.

PART 4

OTHER TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

Politically restricted posts

- 20 (1) This paragraph applies to a person if by virtue of a transfer scheme, the person—
- (a) ceases to be a member of the staff of an existing police authority, and
 - (b) becomes a member of the staff of a new policing body.
- (2) Section 1 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (politically restricted posts) does not apply to the person for as long as the person—
- (a) continues to be a member of the staff of the new policing body, and
 - (b) carries out duties which are the same, or substantially the same, as the duties the person carried out as a member of the staff of the existing police authority.

Continuity

- 21 (1) The abolition of an existing police authority, the transfer or abolition of its functions, and the transfer of its property, rights and liabilities, do not affect the validity of anything done before the abolition or transfer.
- (2) The replacement of an existing chief officer, the transfer or abolition of the functions of an existing chief officer, and the transfer of the rights and liabilities of an existing chief officer, do not affect anything done before the replacement, transfer or abolition.
- (3) The transfer of the property, rights and liabilities of a new policing body does not affect anything done before the transfer.
- (4) Sub-paragraphs (5) to (7) apply where any functions, property, rights or liabilities are transferred by or under this Act from a person (the “transferor”) to another person (the “transferee”).

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) There may be continued by or in relation to the transferee anything (including legal proceedings) which—
 - (a) relates to any of the functions, property, rights or liabilities transferred, and
 - (b) is in the process of being done by or in relation to the transferor immediately before the transfer takes effect.
- (6) Anything which—
 - (a) was made or done by or in relation to the transferor for the purposes of, or otherwise in connection with, any of the functions, property, rights or liabilities transferred, and
 - (b) is in effect immediately before the transfer takes effect, has effect as if made or done by or in relation to the transferee.
- (7) The transferee is to be substituted for the transferor in any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which—
 - (a) relate to any of the functions, property, rights or liabilities transferred, and
 - (b) are made or commenced before the transfer takes effect.
- (8) The Secretary of State may, by direction, determine any question under this section as to—
 - (a) whether any particular functions, property, rights or liabilities are transferred by or under this Act, or
 - (b) the person to which any particular functions, property, rights or liabilities are transferred by or under this Act.
- (9) The preceding provisions of this paragraph—
 - (a) are without prejudice to Part 2 of this Schedule and any power to make a transfer scheme, and
 - (b) are subject to the provisions of Part 2 of this Schedule and any transfer scheme.
- (10) In this paragraph a reference to the transfer of a function includes a reference to the abolition of the function and the conferral of a corresponding function on another person.

Transfers: supplementary provision

- 23 (1) All property, rights and liabilities to which a statutory transfer applies are to be transferred by that transfer, notwithstanding that they may be or include—
- (a) property, rights and liabilities that would not otherwise be capable of being transferred, or
 - (b) rights and liabilities under enactments.
- (2) The property, rights and liabilities which may be transferred by a transfer scheme include—
- (a) property, rights and liabilities that would not otherwise be capable of being transferred, or
 - (b) rights and liabilities under enactments.
- (3) No right of reverter, right of pre-emption, right of forfeiture, right of re-entry, right to compensation, option or similar right affecting any land or other property shall operate or become exercisable as a result of any transfer of land or other property by virtue of a statutory transfer or a transfer scheme (whether or not any consent required to the transfer has been obtained).
- (4) No right to terminate or vary a contract or instrument shall operate or become exercisable, and no provision of a contract or relevant document, shall operate or become exercisable or be contravened, by reason of any transfer by virtue of a statutory transfer or a transfer scheme.
- (5) Sub-paragraphs (2) to (4) above have effect in relation to—
- (a) the grant or creation of an estate or interest in, or right over, any land or other property, or
 - (b) the doing of any other thing in relation to land or other property,
- as they have effect in relation to a transfer of land or other property.
- (6) A transfer scheme may make provision for the apportionment or division of any property, rights or liabilities.
- (7) Where a transfer scheme makes provision for the apportionment or division between two or more persons of any rights or liabilities under a contract, the contract shall have effect, as from the coming into force of the provision, as if it constituted two or more separate contracts separately enforceable by and against each of those persons respectively as respects the part of the rights or liabilities which falls to that person as a result of the apportionment or division.
- (8) The provision that may be made by a transfer scheme includes provision for—
- (a) any transfer of land or other property by virtue of the instrument,
 - (b) the grant or creation of any estate or interest in, or right over, any land or other property by virtue of the instrument, or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the doing of any other thing in relation to land or other property by virtue of the instrument, to be on such terms, including financial terms, as the person making the scheme thinks fit.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by order confer on any body or person to whom property, rights or liabilities are transferred by a statutory transfer or transfer scheme any statutory functions which were previously exercisable in relation to that property, or those rights or liabilities, by the transferor.
- (10) It shall be the duty—
- (a) of existing police authorities, new policing bodies, existing chief officers, new chief officers and local authorities, and
 - (b) of the trustees or managers, or administrators, of any pension scheme,
- to provide the Secretary of State with such information or assistance as the Secretary of State may reasonably require for the purposes of, or in connection with, the exercise of any powers exercisable by the Secretary of State in relation to a statutory transfer or a transfer scheme.
- (11) Where any person is entitled, in consequence of any transfer made by virtue of a statutory transfer or transfer scheme, to possession of a document relating in part to the title to, or to the management of, any land or other property in England and Wales—
- (a) the instrument may contain provision for treating that person as having given another person an acknowledgment in writing of the right of that other person to the production of the document and to delivery of copies thereof; and
 - (b) section 64 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (production and safe custody of documents) shall have effect accordingly, and on the basis that the acknowledgment did not contain any such expression of contrary intention as is mentioned in that section.
- (12) In this paragraph—
- “relevant document” means—
 - (a) any enactment, other than an enactment contained in this Act;
 - (b) any subordinate legislation made otherwise than under this Act; or
 - (c) any deed or other instrument;
 - “statutory transfer” means a transfer under Part 1 or 2 of this Schedule;
 - “transfer scheme” means a transfer scheme under Part 3.

- (2) An order under this paragraph may, in particular—
- (a) amend, or otherwise modify, any enactment;
 - (b) make any provision that may be made by a transfer scheme under Part 3 of this Schedule (whether the provision in the order relates to that Part or Part 2 of this Schedule);
 - (c) provide for the new policing body for a police area to make any payment which—
 - (i) before a day specified in the order could have been made out of the police fund of the existing police authority for that area, but
 - (ii) is not a liability which is transferred to the new policing body by virtue of Part 2 of this Schedule;
 - (d) provide for a new chief officer or a local authority to which property, rights or liabilities of a new policing body are, or are to be, transferred by virtue of a transfer scheme under Part 3 of this Schedule to make any payment which—
 - (i) before a day specified in the order could have been made out of the police fund of that new policing body, but
 - (ii) is not a liability which could be transferred by virtue of such a transfer scheme;
 - (e) make provision in relation to the accounts and audit of—
 - (i) existing police authorities, and
 - (ii) new policing bodies.
- (3) Provision of the kind referred to in sub-paragraph (2)(e) may, in particular—
- (a) amend, or otherwise modify, any enactment relating to the accounts and audit of public bodies in its application to—
 - (i) an existing police authority and the financial year in which that authority is abolished, or
 - (ii) a new policing body and the financial year in which that body is established;
 - (b) provide for the Secretary of State to give directions as to action to be taken in relation to the accounts and audit of—
 - (i) an existing police authority in relation to the financial year in which that authority is abolished, or
 - (ii) a new policing body in relation to the financial year in which that body is established;
 - (c) provide for a person who, in acting in accordance with such a direction, fails to comply with a code of practice or other document relating to proper accounting practice to be taken not to have so failed to comply.

 - (b) at the end of paragraph (b) insert “, and
 - (c) the expression “temporary class drug” means any substance or product which is for the time being a controlled drug by virtue of a temporary class drug order;”.

Commencement Information

I624 Sch. 17 para. 2 in force at 15.11.2011 by S.I. 2011/2515, art. 3(g)

- 3 After section 2 insert—

“2A Temporary class drug orders

- (1) The Secretary of State may make an order (referred to in this Act as a “temporary class drug order”) specifying any substance or product as a drug subject to temporary control if the following two conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that the substance or product is not a Class A drug, a Class B drug or a Class C drug.
- (3) The second condition is that—
 - (a) the Secretary of State has consulted in accordance with section 2B and has determined that the order should be made, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State has received a recommendation under that section that the order should be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Secretary of State may make the determination mentioned in subsection (3)(a) only if it appears to the Secretary of State that—
 - (a) the substance or product is a drug that is being, or is likely to be, misused, and
 - (b) that misuse is having, or is capable of having, harmful effects.
- (5) A substance or product may be specified in a temporary class drug order by reference to—
 - (a) the name of the substance or product, or
 - (b) a description of the substance or product (which may take such form as the Secretary of State thinks appropriate for the purposes of the specification).
- (6) A substance or product specified in a temporary class drug order as a drug subject to temporary control ceases to be a controlled drug by virtue of the order—
 - (a) at the end of one year beginning with the day on which the order comes into force, or
 - (b) if earlier, upon the coming into force of an Order in Council under section 2(2) by virtue of which the substance or product is specified in Part 1, 2 or 3 of Schedule 2.
- (7) Subsection (6)—
 - (a) is subject to subsection (10), and
 - (b) is without prejudice to the power of the Secretary of State to vary or revoke a temporary class drug order by a further order.
- (8) The power of the Secretary of State to make an order under this section is subject to section 2B.
- (9) An order under this section is to be made by statutory instrument.
- (10) An order under this section—
 - (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made, and
 - (b) ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the order is made unless before the end of that period the order is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (11) In calculating that period of 40 days no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (12) Subsection (10)(b)—
 - (a) is without prejudice to anything previously done or to the power of the Secretary of State to make a new order under this section;
 - (b) does not apply to an order that only revokes a previous order under this section.

2B Orders under section 2A: role of Advisory Council etc

- (1) Before making an order under section 2A the Secretary of State—
 - (a) must consult as mentioned in subsection (2), or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) must have received a recommendation from the Advisory Council to make the order.
- (2) The Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Advisory Council, or
 - (b) if the order is to be made under section 2A(1) and the urgency condition applies, the person mentioned in subsection (3).
- (3) The person referred to in subsection (2)(b) is—
 - (a) the person who is for the time being the chairman of the Advisory Council appointed under paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 1, or
 - (b) if that person has delegated the function of responding to consultation under subsection (1)(a) to another member of the Advisory Council, that other member.
- (4) The “urgency condition” applies if it appears to the Secretary of State that the misuse of the substance or product to be specified in the order as a drug subject to temporary control, or the likelihood of its misuse, poses an urgent and significant threat to public safety or health.
- (5) The duty of the Advisory Council or any other person consulted under subsection (1)(a) is limited to giving to the Secretary of State that person's opinion as to whether the order in question should be made.
- (6) A recommendation under subsection (1)(b) that a temporary class drug order should be made may be given by the Advisory Council only if it appears to the Council that—
 - (a) the substance or product is a drug that is being, or is likely to be, misused, and
 - (b) that misuse is having, or is capable of having, harmful effects.”.

 - (a) a constable has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person (“P”) is in possession of a temporary class drug, and
 - (b) it does not appear to the constable that a power under section 23(2) applies to the case.
- (2) But if any provision has been made by virtue of section 7A(2)(c) (excepted possession) that applies to the temporary class drug in question, subsection (3) applies only if the constable has no reason to believe that P’s possession of the drug is to be treated as excepted possession for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) The constable may—
 - (a) search P, and detain P for the purposes of searching P;
 - (b) search any vehicle or vessel in which the constable suspects that the drug may be found, and for that purpose require the person in control of the vehicle or vessel to stop it;
 - (c) seize and detain anything found in the course of the search which appears to the constable to be a temporary class drug or to be evidence of an offence under this Act.

In this subsection, “vessel” has the same meaning as in section 23(2).
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if a constable reasonably believes that anything detained under subsection (3)(c) is a temporary class drug but is not evidence of any offence under this Act.
- (5) The constable may dispose of the drug in such manner as the constable thinks appropriate.
- (6) A person who intentionally obstructs a constable in the exercise of the constable’s powers under subsection (3) commits an offence.”.
