“SCHEDULE 4C

Section 61Q

COMMUNITY RIGHT TO BUILD ORDERS

Introduction

- 1 (1) This Schedule makes special provision about a particular type of neighbourhood development order, which is to be known as a “community right to build order”.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/02/2012.

Changes to legislation: Localism Act 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In their application to community right to build orders, the provisions of this Act relating to neighbourhood development orders have effect subject to the provision made by or under this Schedule.
- (3) In its application to community organisations, section 61G (meaning of “neighbourhood area”) has effect subject to the provision made by this Schedule.

Meaning of “community right to build order”

- 2 (1) A neighbourhood development order is a community right to build order if—
 - (a) the order is made pursuant to a proposal made by a community organisation,
 - (b) the order grants planning permission for specified development in relation to a specified site in the specified neighbourhood area, and
 - (c) the specified development does not exceed prescribed limits.
- (2) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1)(c) may prescribe a limit by reference to—
 - (a) the area in which the development is to take place,
 - (b) the number or type of operations or uses of land constituting the development, or
 - (c) any other factor.
- (3) In this paragraph “specified” means specified in the community right to build order.

Meaning of “community organisation”

- 3 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule a “community organisation” is a body corporate—
 - (a) which is established for the express purpose of furthering the social, economic and environmental well-being of individuals living, or wanting to live, in a particular area, and
 - (b) which meets such other conditions in relation to its establishment or constitution as may be prescribed.
- (2) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1)(b) may make provision in relation to—
 - (a) the distribution of profits made by the body to its members,
 - (b) the distribution of the assets of the body (in the event of its winding up or in any other circumstances),
 - (c) the membership of the body, and
 - (d) the control of the body (whether by the exercise of voting rights or otherwise).

Proposals by community organisations for community right to build orders

- 4 (1) A community organisation is authorised for the purposes of a community right to build order to act in relation to a neighbourhood area (whether or not any part of the neighbourhood area falls within the area of a parish council) if—
 - (a) the area mentioned in paragraph 3(1)(a) consists of or includes the neighbourhood area, and
 - (b) at the time the proposal for the order is made more than half of the members of the organisation live in the neighbourhood area.
- (2) Accordingly, the community organisation is in that case to be regarded as a qualifying body for the purposes of section 61E.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/02/2012.

Changes to legislation: Localism Act 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Nothing in section 61F is to apply in relation to community right to build orders except subsections (12)(a) and (13)(d) of that section.
 - (4) In particular, the reference in section 61F(10) to a neighbourhood development order is not to include a reference to a community right to build order (in a case where a community organisation is also a neighbourhood forum).
 - (5) But a local planning authority may decline to consider a proposal for a community right to build order or other neighbourhood development order if—
 - (a) another proposal has been made for a community right to build order or other neighbourhood development order,
 - (b) the other proposal is outstanding, and
 - (c) the authority consider that the development and site to which the proposals relate are the same or substantially the same.
 - (6) If the authority decline to consider the proposal, they must notify the person making the proposal of that fact and of their reasons for declining to consider it.
 - (7) A proposal for a community right to build order must state that the proposal is for such an order.
- 5 (1) A community organisation is to be regarded as a relevant body for the purposes of section 61G if—
- (a) the area specified in the application made by the organisation consists of or includes the area mentioned in paragraph 3(1)(a), and
 - (b) at the time the application is made more than half of the members of the organisation live in the area specified in the application.
- (2) The application made by the community organisation may specify any area within the local planning authority's area, irrespective of whether or not any part of the specified area falls within the area of a parish council.
- (3) This paragraph applies only if the application by the community organisation under section 61G is made in connection with a proposal (or an anticipated proposal) for a community right to build order.

Development likely to have significant effects on environment etc

- 6 (1) A local planning authority must decline to consider a proposal for a community right to build order if they consider that—
- (a) the specified development falls within Annex 2 to the EIA directive and is likely to have significant effects on the environment by virtue of factors such as its nature, size or location, or
 - (b) the specified development is likely to have significant effects on a qualifying European site (whether alone or in combination with other plans or projects) and is not directly connected with or necessary to the management of that site.
- (2) In determining whether or not the specified development is within sub-paragraph (1) (a), the authority must take into account any relevant criteria mentioned in Annex 3 to the EIA directive.
