Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011

2011 CHAPTER 23

An Act to abolish control orders and make provision for the imposition of terrorism prevention and investigation measures. [14th December 2011]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

New regime to protect the public from terrorism

1 Abolition of control orders

The Prevention of Terrorism Act 2005 (which gives powers to impose control orders) is repealed.

2 Imposition of terrorism prevention and investigation measures

- (1) The Secretary of State may by notice (a “TPIM notice”) impose specified terrorism prevention and investigation measures on an individual if conditions A to E in section 3 are met.
- (2) In this Act “terrorism prevention and investigation measures” means requirements, restrictions and other provision which may be made in relation to an individual by virtue of Schedule 1 (terrorism prevention and investigation measures).
- (3) In this section and Part 1 of Schedule 1 “specified” means specified in the TPIM notice.

3 Conditions A to E

- (1) Condition A is that the Secretary of State reasonably believes that the individual is, or has been, involved in terrorism-related activity (the “relevant activity”).
- (2) Condition B is that some or all of the relevant activity is new terrorism-related activity.
- (3) Condition C is that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that it is necessary, for purposes connected with protecting members of the public from a risk of terrorism, for terrorism prevention and investigation measures to be imposed on the individual.
- (4) Condition D is that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that it is necessary, for purposes connected with preventing or restricting the individual’s involvement in terrorism-related activity, for the specified terrorism prevention and investigation measures to be imposed on the individual.
- (5) Condition E is that –
 - (a) the court gives the Secretary of State permission under section 6, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the urgency of the case requires terrorism prevention and investigation measures to be imposed without obtaining such permission.
- (6) In this section “new terrorism-related activity” means –
 - (a) if no TPIM notice relating to the individual has ever been in force, terrorism-related activity occurring at any time (whether before or after the coming into force of this Act);
 - (b) if only one TPIM notice relating to the individual has ever been in force, terrorism-related activity occurring after that notice came into force; or
 - (c) if two or more TPIM notices relating to the individual have been in force, terrorism-related activity occurring after such a notice came into force most recently.

4 Involvement in terrorism-related activity

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, involvement in terrorism-related activity is any one or more of the following –
 - (a) the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism;
 - (b) conduct which facilitates the commission, preparation or instigation of such acts, or which is intended to do so;
 - (c) conduct which gives encouragement to the commission, preparation or instigation of such acts, or which is intended to do so;
 - (d) conduct which gives support or assistance to individuals who are known or believed by the individual concerned to be involved in conduct falling within paragraphs (a) to (c);and for the purposes of this Act it is immaterial whether the acts of terrorism in question are specific acts of terrorism or acts of terrorism in general.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, it is immaterial whether an individual’s involvement in terrorism-related activity occurs before or after the coming into force of this Act.

*Two year limit on imposition of measures without new terrorism-related activity5 Two year limit for TPIM notices

- (1) A TPIM notice—
 - (a) comes into force when the notice is served on the individual or, if later, at the time specified for this purpose in the notice; and
 - (b) is in force for the period of one year.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by notice extend a TPIM notice for a period of one year beginning when the TPIM notice would otherwise expire.
- (3) A TPIM notice—
 - (a) may be extended under subsection (2) only if conditions A, C and D are met; and
 - (b) may be so extended on only one occasion.
- (4) This section is subject, in particular, to sections 13 (revocation and revival of TPIM notices) and 14 (replacement of TPIM notice that is quashed etc).

*Court scrutiny of imposition of measures6 Prior permission of the court

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary of State—
 - (a) makes the relevant decisions in relation to an individual, and
 - (b) makes an application to the court for permission to impose measures on the individual.
- (2) The application must set out a draft of the proposed TPIM notice.
- (3) The function of the court on the application is—
 - (a) to determine whether the relevant decisions of the Secretary of State are obviously flawed, and
 - (b) to determine whether to give permission to impose measures on the individual and (where applicable) whether to exercise the power of direction under subsection (9).
- (4) The court may consider the application—
 - (a) in the absence of the individual;
 - (b) without the individual having been notified of the application; and
 - (c) without the individual having been given an opportunity (if the individual was aware of the application) of making any representations to the court.
- (5) But that does not limit the matters about which rules of court may be made.
- (6) In determining the application, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (7) In a case where the court determines that a decision of the Secretary of State that condition A, condition B, or condition C is met is obviously flawed, the court may not give permission under this section.
- (8) In any other case, the court may give permission under this section.

- (9) If the court determines that the Secretary of State's decision that condition D is met is obviously flawed, the court may (in addition to giving permission under subsection (8)) give directions to the Secretary of State in relation to the measures to be imposed on the individual.
- (10) In this section "relevant decisions" means the decisions that the following conditions are met—
 - (a) condition A;
 - (b) condition B;
 - (c) condition C; and
 - (d) condition D.

7 Urgent cases: reference to the court etc

Schedule 2 (urgent cases: reference to the court etc) has effect.

8 Directions hearing

- (1) This section applies if the court—
 - (a) gives permission under section 6 for measures to be imposed on an individual, or
 - (b) confirms under paragraph 4(3) of Schedule 2 (whether or not subject to paragraph 4(2) of that Schedule) a TPIM notice which imposes measures on an individual.
- (2) The court must, at the hearing where it gives the permission or confirms the notice, give directions for a further hearing (a "directions hearing")—
 - (a) which, unless the court otherwise directs (whether in those directions or subsequently), is to be held within the period of 7 days beginning with the relevant day, and
 - (b) which the individual is to have the opportunity to attend.
- (3) In a case where this section applies because the court gives permission under section 6, directions given under subsection (2) may not be served on the individual unless the TPIM notice has been served on that individual.
- (4) At the directions hearing, the court must give directions for a further hearing (a "review hearing") in relation to the imposition of measures on the individual.
- (5) Directions under subsection (4) must provide for the review hearing to be held as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (6) In this section "relevant day" means—
 - (a) in a case falling within subsection (1)(a), the day on which the TPIM notice imposing the measures is served on the individual;
 - (b) in a case falling within subsection (1)(b), the day on which the court confirms the TPIM notice.

9 Review hearing

- (1) On a review hearing held in compliance with directions under section 8(4), the function of the court is to review the decisions of the Secretary of State that the relevant conditions were met and continue to be met.

- (2) In doing so, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (3) The court—
 - (a) must discontinue the review hearing if the individual requests the court to do so; and
 - (b) may discontinue the review hearing in any other circumstances.
- (4) The court may not discontinue the review hearing in accordance with subsection (3)(b) without giving the Secretary of State and the individual the opportunity to make representations.
- (5) The court has the following powers (and only those powers) on a review hearing—
 - (a) power to quash the TPIM notice;
 - (b) power to quash measures specified in the TPIM notice;
 - (c) power to give directions to the Secretary of State for, or in relation to,—
 - (i) the revocation of the TPIM notice, or
 - (ii) the variation of measures specified in the TPIM notice.
- (6) If the court does not exercise any of its powers under subsection (5), the court must decide that the TPIM notice is to continue in force.
- (7) If the court exercises a power under subsection (5)(b) or (c)(ii), the court must decide that the TPIM notice is to continue in force subject to that exercise of that power.
- (8) In this section “relevant conditions” means—
 - (a) condition A;
 - (b) condition B;
 - (c) condition C; and
 - (d) condition D.

Consultation requirements

10 Criminal investigations into terrorism-related activity

- (1) The Secretary of State must consult the chief officer of the appropriate police force about the matter mentioned in subsection (2) before—
 - (a) making an application under section 6 for permission to impose measures on an individual, or
 - (b) imposing measures on an individual in a case to which section 3(5)(b) applies (urgency of the case requires measures to be imposed without obtaining the permission of the court).
- (2) The matter is whether there is evidence available that could realistically be used for the purposes of prosecuting the individual for an offence relating to terrorism.
- (3) The “appropriate police force” means the police force—
 - (a) that is investigating the commission of any such offence by the individual, or
 - (b) by which it appears to the Secretary of State that the commission of any such offence by the individual would fall to be investigated.

- (4) If the Secretary of State serves a TPIM notice on an individual, the Secretary of State must inform the chief officer of the appropriate police force –
 - (a) that the TPIM notice has been served, and
 - (b) that the chief officer must act in accordance with the duty under subsection (5).
- (5) After being informed of the matters mentioned in subsection (4), the chief officer must –
 - (a) secure that the investigation of the individual’s conduct, with a view to a prosecution of the individual for an offence relating to terrorism, is kept under review throughout the period the TPIM notice is in force, and
 - (b) report to the Secretary of State on the review carried out under paragraph (a).
- (6) The chief officer must consult the relevant prosecuting authority before responding to consultation under subsection (1).
- (7) The chief officer must also, to the extent that the chief officer considers it appropriate to do so, consult the relevant prosecuting authority in carrying out the duty under subsection (5)(a).
- (8) The “relevant prosecuting authority” is –
 - (a) in the case of offences that would be likely to be prosecuted in England and Wales, the Director of Public Prosecutions;
 - (b) in the case of offences that would be likely to be prosecuted in Scotland, the appropriate procurator fiscal;
 - (c) in the case of offences that would be likely to be prosecuted in Northern Ireland, the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland.
- (9) The duty to consult under subsection (1) or (6) may be satisfied by consultation that took place wholly or partly before the passing of this Act.
- (10) In this section –
 - “chief officer” –
 - (a) in relation to a police force maintained for a police area in England and Wales, means the chief officer of police of that force;
 - (b) in relation to a police force maintained under the Police (Scotland) Act 1967, means the chief constable of that force;
 - (c) in relation to the Police Service of Northern Ireland, means the Chief Constable of that Service;
 - (d) in relation to the Serious Organised Crime Agency, means the Director General of that Agency; and

 - “police force” means –
 - (a) a police force maintained for a police area in England and Wales;
 - (b) a police force maintained under the Police (Scotland) Act 1967;
 - (c) the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
 - (d) the Serious Organised Crime Agency; or
 - (e) the Scottish Crime and Drug Enforcement Agency.

*Review of ongoing necessity11 Review of ongoing necessity

During the period that a TPIM notice is in force, the Secretary of State must keep under review whether conditions C and D are met.

*Changes concerning TPIM notices12 Variation of measures

- (1) The Secretary of State may by notice (a “variation notice”) vary measures specified in a TPIM notice if—
 - (a) the variation consists of the relaxation or removal of measures;
 - (b) the variation is made with the consent of the individual; or
 - (c) the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the variation is necessary for purposes connected with preventing or restricting the individual’s involvement in terrorism-related activity.
- (2) The individual to whom a TPIM notice relates may make an application to the Secretary of State for the variation of measures specified in the TPIM notice.
- (3) The Secretary of State must consider an application made under subsection (2).
- (4) An application under subsection (2) must be made in writing.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by notice request the provision, within such period of time as the notice may specify, of further information from the individual in connection with an application under subsection (2).
- (6) The Secretary of State is not required to consider an application further unless any information requested under subsection (5) is provided in accordance with the notice mentioned in that subsection.
- (7) A variation under subsection (1) takes effect when the variation notice is served or, if later, at the time specified for this purpose in the variation notice.
- (8) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable whether or not an application has been made under subsection (2).
- (9) In a case where a TPIM notice—
 - (a) has expired without being extended under section 5(2), or
 - (b) has been revoked,the power under subsection (1) may (in particular) be exercised in relation to the TPIM notice before any revival of the TPIM notice under section 13(6) so as to take effect at the time that the TPIM notice comes back into force on its revival.
- (10) In such a case, the question of whether condition D is met is to be determined for the purposes of section 13(6) by reference to the measures specified in the TPIM notice as they would be after the exercise of the power under subsection (1).

13 Revocation and revival of TPIM notices

- (1) The Secretary of State may by notice (a “revocation notice”) revoke a TPIM notice at any time.
- (2) The revocation of a TPIM notice takes effect when the revocation notice is served or, if different, at the time specified for this purpose in the revocation notice.
- (3) The individual to whom a TPIM notice relates may make an application to the Secretary of State for the revocation of the TPIM notice.
- (4) The Secretary of State must consider an application made under subsection (3).
- (5) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable whether or not an application has been made under subsection (3).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by notice (a “revival notice”) at any time revive a TPIM notice which –
 - (a) has expired without being extended under section 5(2), or
 - (b) has been revoked,if conditions A, C and D are met.
- (7) The power of revival may be exercised –
 - (a) under subsection (6)(a) or (b) whether or not the TPIM notice has previously been revoked and revived; and
 - (b) under subsection (6)(b) whether or not the TPIM notice has been extended under section 5(2).
- (8) But the power of revival under subsection (6)(b) may not be exercised to revive a TPIM notice which the Secretary of State was required to revoke by directions given by the court in TPIM proceedings.
- (9) A TPIM notice which is revived –
 - (a) comes back into force when the revival notice is served or, if later, at the time specified for this purpose in the revival notice; and
 - (b) is in force –
 - (i) for the period of one year (in a case where the revived notice had expired), or
 - (ii) for the period of time for which the TPIM notice would have continued in force if it had not been revoked (in a case where the revived notice had been revoked).

14 Replacement of TPIM notice that is quashed etc

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) a TPIM notice, the extension of a TPIM notice, or the revival of a TPIM notice, is quashed in TPIM proceedings, or
 - (b) a TPIM notice is revoked by the Secretary of State in compliance with directions given by the court in TPIM proceedings.
- (2) The replacement TPIM notice is to be in force for the period of time for which the overturned notice would have continued in force but for the quashing or revocation.

- (3) The replacement TPIM notice may not be extended under section 5(2) if the overturned notice had been extended under section 5(2) (including where the extension is quashed).
- (4) Terrorism-related activity is to be treated as new terrorism-related activity in relation to the imposition of measures by the replacement TPIM notice if it was new terrorism-related activity in relation to the imposition of measures by the overturned notice.
- (5) Terrorism-related activity that occurs after the coming into force of the overturned notice does not cease to be new terrorism-related activity by virtue of the coming into force of the replacement TPIM notice.
- (6) Subsections (2) to (5) do not apply to the replacement notice if—
 - (a) some or all of the relevant activity (within the meaning of section 3) occurred after the overturned notice came into force, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State determines that those subsections should not apply to that notice.
- (7) In this section—
 - “new terrorism-related activity” has the same meaning as in section 3;
 - “overturned notice” means the TPIM notice to which the quashing or revocation referred to in subsection (1) relates;
 - “replacement TPIM notice” means the first TPIM notice to impose measures on the individual to whom the overturned notice relates after the quashing or revocation referred to in subsection (1).

15 Other provision relating to the quashing of TPIM notices etc

- (1) A power in TPIM proceedings to quash a TPIM notice, the extension of a TPIM notice, the revival of a TPIM notice, or measures specified in a TPIM notice, includes—
 - (a) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, power to stay the quashing for a specified time, or pending an appeal or further appeal against the decision to quash; or
 - (b) in Scotland, power to determine that the quashing is of no effect for a specified time or pending such an appeal or further appeal.
- (2) A decision in TPIM proceedings to quash measures specified in a TPIM notice, or (except as provided in section 14) a decision in TPIM proceedings to quash, or to give directions to the Secretary of State in relation to, a TPIM notice, the extension of a TPIM notice, or the revival of a TPIM notice, does not prevent the Secretary of State—
 - (a) from exercising any power under this Act to impose measures (whether or not to the same or similar effect as measures to which the decision relates), or
 - (b) from relying, in whole or in part, on any matters for the purpose of so exercising such a power (whether or not the matters were relied on in exercising powers under this Act in relation to measures or the TPIM notice to which the decision relates).
- (3) Schedule 3 (appeals against convictions) has effect.

*Appeals and court proceedings16 Appeals

- (1) If the Secretary of State extends or revives a TPIM notice (see section 5(2) or 13(6)) –
 - (a) the individual to whom the TPIM notice relates may appeal to the court against the extension or revival; and
 - (b) the function of the court on such an appeal is to review the Secretary of State’s decisions that conditions A, C and D were met and continue to be met.
- (2) If the Secretary of State varies measures specified in a TPIM notice (and the variation does not consist of the relaxation or removal of measures) without the consent of the individual to whom the TPIM notice relates (see section 12(1)(c)) –
 - (a) the individual may appeal to the court against the variation; and
 - (b) the function of the court on such an appeal is to review the Secretary of State’s decisions that the variation was necessary, and continues to be necessary, for purposes connected with preventing or restricting involvement by the individual in terrorism-related activity.
- (3) If the individual to whom a TPIM notice relates makes an application to the Secretary of State for the variation of measures specified in the TPIM notice (see section 12(2)) –
 - (a) the individual may appeal to the court against any decision by the Secretary of State on the application; and
 - (b) the function of the court on such an appeal is to review the Secretary of State’s decisions that the measures to which the application relates were necessary, and continue to be necessary, for purposes connected with preventing or restricting involvement by the individual in terrorism-related activity.
- (4) If the individual to whom a TPIM notice relates makes an application to the Secretary of State for the revocation of the TPIM notice (see section 13(3)) –
 - (a) the individual may appeal to the court against any decision by the Secretary of State on the application; and
 - (b) the function of the court on such an appeal is to review the Secretary of State’s decisions that conditions A, C and D were met and continue to be met.
- (5) If the individual to whom a TPIM notice relates makes an application to the Secretary of State for permission –
 - (a) the individual may appeal to the court against any decision by the Secretary of State on the application (including any decision about conditions to which permission is subject); and
 - (b) the function of the court on such an appeal is to review the decision.
- (6) In determining the matters mentioned in subsections (1) to (5) the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (7) The only powers of the court on an appeal under this section are –
 - (a) power to quash the extension or revival of the TPIM notice;
 - (b) power to quash measures specified in the TPIM notice;
 - (c) power to give directions to the Secretary of State for, or in relation to, –

- (i) the revocation of the TPIM notice, or
 - (ii) the variation of measures the TPIM notice specifies;
- (d) power to give directions to the Secretary of State in relation to permission or conditions to which permission is subject.
- (8) If the court does not exercise any of its powers under subsection (7), it must dismiss the appeal.
- (9) In this section “permission” means permission for the purposes of measures specified in a TPIM notice (see, in particular, paragraph 13 of Schedule 1).

17 Jurisdiction in relation to decisions under this Act

- (1) TPIM decisions are not to be questioned in any legal proceedings other than—
 - (a) proceedings in the court; or
 - (b) proceedings on appeal from such proceedings.
- (2) The court is the appropriate tribunal for the purposes of section 7 of the Human Rights Act 1998 in relation to proceedings all or any part of which call a TPIM decision into question.
- (3) In this Act “TPIM decision” means—
 - (a) a decision made by the Secretary of State in exercise or performance of any power or duty under any of sections 2 to 15 or under Schedule 1 or 2;
 - (b) a decision made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of, or in connection with, the exercise or performance of any such power or duty;

 - (d) a decision by a person to give a direction by virtue of paragraph 12(2)(d) of Schedule 1 (monitoring measure).

18 Proceedings relating to measures

- (1) No appeal shall lie from any determination of the court in TPIM proceedings, except on a question of law.
- (2) No appeal by any person other than the Secretary of State shall lie from any determination—
 - (a) on an application for permission under section 6; or
 - (b) on a reference under Schedule 2.
- (3) Schedule 4 (proceedings relating to measures) has effect.

Other safeguards

19 Reports on exercise of powers under Act

- (3) The duty under subsection (1) in relation to the preparation and laying of a report must be carried out as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the 3 month period to which the report relates.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), this section does not require a report to be made in relation to any time which falls after the Secretary of State's TPIM powers have expired or been repealed under section 21, except for the period of 28 days referred to in section 22(2).
- (5) If the Secretary of State's TPIM powers are revived under section 21—
 - (a) the reference in subsection (1)(a) above to the month in which this Act is passed is to be read as a reference to the month in which the revival takes effect; and
 - (b) this section applies accordingly.

20 Reviews of operation of Act

- (1) The Secretary of State must appoint a person to review the operation of this Act ("the independent reviewer").
- (2) The independent reviewer must carry out a review of the operation of this Act in respect of each calendar year, starting with the first complete calendar year beginning after the passing of this Act.
- (3) Each review must be completed as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the calendar year to which the review relates.

- (8) If the Secretary of State's TPIM powers are revived under section 21, the independent reviewer must carry out a review of the operation of this Act in respect of—

 - (ii) ends with the end of the calendar year in which the revival takes effect; and
 - (b) each subsequent calendar year.
- (9) In such a case, this section and the other provisions of this Act apply as if references to a review under subsection (2) were references to a review under subsection (8).

21 Expiry and repeal of TPIM powers

- (1) Except so far as otherwise provided under this section, the Secretary of State's TPIM powers expire at the end of 5 years beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.

 - (b) at any time revive the Secretary of State's TPIM powers for a period not exceeding 5 years;
 - (c) provide that the Secretary of State's TPIM powers—
 - (i) are not to expire at the time when they would otherwise expire under subsection (1) or in accordance with an order under this subsection; but
 - (ii) are to continue in force after that time for a period not exceeding 5 years.
- (3) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) the independent reviewer appointed for the purposes of section 20;
 - (b) the Intelligence Services Commissioner; and
 - (c) the Director-General of the Security Service.
- (4) An order under this section may not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to an order that contains a declaration by the Secretary of State that the order needs, by reason of urgency, to be made without the approval required by that subsection.
- (6) An order that contains such a declaration—
- (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made; and
 - (b) if not approved by a resolution of each House before the end of 40 days beginning with the day on which the order was made, ceases to have effect at the end of that period.
- (7) Where an order ceases to have effect in accordance with subsection (6), that does not—
- (a) affect anything previously done in reliance on the order; or
 - (b) prevent the making of a new order to the same or similar effect.
- (8) In this section—
- “40 days” means 40 days computed as provided for in section 7(1) of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946;
 - “Secretary of State's TPIM powers” means—

(a) makes the relevant decisions in relation to an individual, and
(b) imposes measures on the individual.

Statement of urgency

- 2 The TPIM notice must include a statement that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the urgency of the case requires measures to be imposed without obtaining the permission of the court under section 6.

Reference to court

- 3 (1) Immediately after serving the TPIM notice, the Secretary of State must refer to the court the imposition of the measures on the individual.
(2) The function of the court on the reference is to consider whether the relevant decisions of the Secretary of State were obviously flawed.
(3) The court's consideration of the reference must begin within the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the TPIM notice is served on the individual.
(4) The court may consider the reference –
(a) in the absence of the individual;
(b) without the individual having been notified of the reference; and
(c) without the individual having been given an opportunity (if the individual was aware of the reference) of making any representations to the court.
(5) But that does not limit the matters about which rules of court may be made.

(3) If sub-paragraph (1) does not apply, the court must confirm the TPIM notice (subject to any quashing of measures under sub-paragraph (2)).

- (4) If the court determines that the Secretary of State’s decision that the urgency condition is met is obviously flawed, the court must make a declaration of that determination (whether it quashes or confirms the TPIM notice under the preceding provisions of this paragraph).

Procedures on reference

- 5 (1) In determining a reference under paragraph 3, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (2) The court must ensure that the individual is notified of the court’s decision on a reference under paragraph 3.

Interpretation

 - (b) condition B;
 - (c) condition C;
 - (d) condition D;

- 1 A control order which is in force immediately before commencement is to remain in force until the end of the transitional period (unless revoked or quashed before the end of that period).

Savings during and after transitional period

- 2 (1) An enactment which is amended or repealed by this Act is to continue to apply after commencement in relation to—
- (a) control orders made before commencement, and
 - (b) the operation before commencement of the PTA 2005, as if the enactment had not been so amended or repealed.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to paragraph 3(2) and (3).

Savings etc for court proceedings

- 3 (1) The repeal of the PTA 2005 by this Act does not, after commencement, prevent or otherwise affect –
- (a) the court’s consideration of a reference made under section 3(3)(a) of the PTA 2005 before commencement;
 - (b) the holding or continuation of any hearing in pursuance of directions under section 3(2)(c) or (6)(b) or (c) of the PTA 2005;
 - (c) the bringing or continuation of any appeal under section 10(1) or (3) of the PTA 2005;
 - (d) the bringing or continuation of any appeal, or further appeal, relating to a decision in any proceedings mentioned in any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) of this sub-paragraph; or
 - (e) the bringing or continuation of any proceedings for an award of damages or other relief arising out of any such proceedings.
- (2) But, after commencement, proceedings mentioned in any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of sub-paragraph (1) (whether the proceedings began before or after commencement) may not have a purpose other than determining whether one or more of the following should be quashed –
- (a) a certificate of the kind mentioned in section 3(8) of the PTA 2005;
 - (b) a control order;
 - (c) the renewal of a control order; or
 - (d) an obligation imposed by a control order.
- (3) Except as permitted by sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), no control order proceedings (within the meaning of section 11(6) of the PTA 2005) may be entertained after commencement.

New powers not affected by previous control order

- 4 The Secretary of State’s powers under this Act in relation to an individual are not affected by a control order having been made in relation to that individual.

Last report on exercise of powers under PTA 2005

- 5 (1) Section 14(1) of the PTA 2005 applies to the period that –
- (a) begins immediately after the end of the last relevant 3 month period to end before commencement, and
 - (b) ends immediately before commencement, as if that period were a relevant 3 month period.
- (2) In this paragraph “relevant 3 month period” has the same meaning as in section 14 of the PTA 2005.

Last review of operation of PTA 2005

- 6 (1) Section 14(3) of the PTA 2005 does not apply to the last PTA review year.
- (2) But section 14(3) applies to the period that –
- (a) begins with the start of the last PTA review year, and

(b) ends immediately before commencement,
as if that period were a PTA review year.

(3) In this paragraph—

“last PTA review year” means the last PTA review year to end before commencement;

“PTA review year” means a period determined in accordance with section 14(3)(b) of the PTA 2005.

Savings of PTA 2005 not affected by expected expiry

7 The fact that sections 1 to 9 of the PTA 2005 would have expired (but for their repeal by this Act) by virtue of section 13 of the PTA 2005 at a time after commencement does not prevent those sections from continuing to apply in accordance with, or for the purposes of, any other provision of this Schedule after the time when those sections would have so expired.

First review of operation of Act

8 (1) The review carried out under section 20(2) in respect of the first review year must also include a review in respect of so much of the preceding calendar year as falls on or after commencement (but for the purposes of section 20(3) that part of the review is to be treated as relating the first review year).

(2) In this paragraph “first review year” means the first complete calendar year beginning after the passing of this Act.
