- (1) This section applies in relation to information about an individual that is held by a relevant health or adult social care commissioner or provider (“the relevant person”).
- (2) The relevant person must ensure that the information is disclosed to—
 - (a) persons working for the relevant person, and
 - (b) any other relevant health or adult social care commissioner or provider with whom the relevant person communicates about the individual,but this is subject to subsections (3) to (6).
- (3) Subsection (2) applies only so far as the relevant person considers that the disclosure is—
 - (a) likely to facilitate the provision to the individual of health services or adult social care in England, and
 - (b) in the individual's best interests.
- (4) The relevant person need not comply with subsection (2) if the relevant person reasonably considers that one or more of the following apply—
 - (a) the individual objects, or would be likely to object, to the disclosure of the information;

- (c) for any other reason the relevant person is not reasonably able, or should not be required, to comply with subsection (2).

- (a) any provision [^{F2}of the data protection legislation], or
 - (b) a common law duty of care or confidence.
- (6) This section does not require the relevant person to do anything which the relevant person is required to do under a common law duty of care (and, accordingly, any such requirement is to be treated as arising under that common law duty and not under this section).
