

Presumption of Death Act 2013

2013 CHAPTER 13

Variation order

6 Effect of variation order

- (1) A variation order does not affect an interest in property acquired as a result of a declaration under this Act (but see section 7).
- (2) A variation order does not revive a marriage or civil partnership that was brought to an end by virtue of a declaration under this Act.
- (3) Except as otherwise required by subsection (1) or (2)—
 - (a) where a variation order varies a declaration, subsections (1) and (2) of section 3 have effect in relation to the declaration as varied by the order, and
 - (b) where a variation order revokes a declaration, those subsections cease to have effect in relation to the declaration.
- (4) But subsection (3) applies only if—
 - (a) the variation order has not been appealed against and the period for bringing an appeal has ended, or
 - (b) the variation order has been appealed against and the appeal (and any further appeal) has been unsuccessful.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), an appeal has been unsuccessful if—
 - (a) it has been dismissed or withdrawn, and
 - (b) any period for bringing a further appeal has ended.
