40 Corporation tax relief for employee share acquisitions etc

(1) Chapter 6 of Part 12 of CTA 2009 (relief for employee share acquisitions: relationship between relief under Part 12 and other reliefs) is amended as follows.

(2) For section 1038 substitute—

"1038 Exclusion of other deductions

(1) Subsection (2) applies if relief is or, apart from condition 2 in section 1009(1), would be available under this Part.

For this purpose, it does not matter if the amount of the relief is or would be calculated as nil."
(2) Except as provided for by this Part, for the purpose of calculating any company's profits for corporation tax purposes for any accounting period, no deduction is allowed—
   (a) in relation to the provision of the shares or to any matter connected with the provision of the shares, or
   (b) so far as not covered by paragraph (a) in a case in which the shares are acquired pursuant to an option, in relation to the option or to any matter connected with the option.

(3) In a case in which section 1022 has applied, in subsection (2)(b) references to the option cover the new option and any relevant earlier qualifying option.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2) it does not matter if the accounting period in question falls wholly before or after the time at which the shares are acquired.

(5) In a case in which the shares are acquired under an employee share scheme, the deductions disallowed by subsection (2) include (in particular) deductions for amounts paid or payable by the employing company in relation to the participation of the employee in the scheme.

(6) But subsection (2) does not disallow deductions for—
   (a) expenses incurred in setting up the scheme,
   (b) expenses incurred in meeting, or contributing to, the costs of administering the scheme,
   (c) the costs of borrowing for the purposes of the scheme, or
   (d) fees, commission, stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, and similar incidental expenses of acquiring the shares.

(7) “Employee share scheme” means a scheme or arrangement for enabling shares to be acquired because of persons' employment.

(8) In a case in which relief is or, apart from condition 2 in section 1009(1), would be available under Chapter 5 by virtue of section 1030(2), subsection (2) does not disallow deductions in relation to the provision of the convertible securities.”

(3) After section 1038 insert—

“1038A Exclusion of deductions for share options: shares not acquired

(1) Subsection (2) applies if—
   (a) a person obtains an option to acquire shares and the requirements of section 1015(1)(a) to (c) are met in relation to the obtaining of the option, or
   (b) so far as not covered by paragraph (a), a person obtains an option to acquire shares and the obtaining of the option is connected with an option previously obtained in a case covered by paragraph (a) or this paragraph.

(2) For the purpose of calculating any company's profits for corporation tax purposes for any accounting period, no deduction is allowed in relation to—
   (a) the option, or
   (b) any matter connected with the option, unless the shares are acquired pursuant to the option.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) it does not matter if the accounting period in question falls wholly before or after the time at which the option is obtained.

(4) In a case in which the shares would be acquired under an employee share scheme, the deductions disallowed by subsection (2) include (in particular) deductions for amounts paid or payable by the employing company in relation to the participation of the employee in the scheme.

(5) But subsection (2) does not disallow deductions for—
   (a) expenses incurred in setting up the scheme,
   (b) expenses incurred in meeting, or contributing to, the costs of administering the scheme,
   (c) the costs of borrowing for the purposes of the scheme, or

(7) Subsection (2) does not disallow deductions for—
   (a) amounts on which the employee is subject to a charge under ITEPA 2003,

   (c) if the employee has died, amounts on which the employee would have been subject to a charge under ITEPA 2003 had the employee been alive.

   “relevant accounting period” means an accounting period which ends on or after 20 March 2013.

(5) The amendment made by subsection (2) above has effect for the purpose of disallowing deductions for relevant accounting periods.

For this purpose, it does not matter if the acquisition of shares which gives rise, or would give rise, to the relief under Part 12 of CTA 2009 occurs before a company's first relevant accounting period.

(6) But the amendment made by subsection (2) above has no effect for the purpose of disallowing a deduction for a pre-20 March 2013 relevant accounting period where the acquisition of shares which gives rise, or would give rise, to the relief under Part 12 of CTA 2009 occurs before 20 March 2013.

(7) The amendment made by subsection (3) above has effect for the purpose of disallowing deductions for relevant accounting periods.
For this purpose, it does not matter if the option is obtained before a company's first relevant accounting period.

(8) But the amendment made by subsection (3) above has no effect for the purpose of disallowing a deduction for a pre-20 March 2013 relevant accounting period where—
   (a) the option is obtained before 20 March 2013, and
   (b) before that date, an event (for example, the lapse or cancellation of the option) occurs in consequence of which the shares cannot be acquired pursuant to the option.

(5) The amendments made by this section have effect in relation to accounting periods beginning on or after 5 December 2012.

(6) But, for the purposes of subsection (5), an accounting period beginning before, and ending on or after, 5 December 2012 is to be treated as if so much of the period as falls before that date, and so much of the period as falls on or after that date, were separate accounting periods.

(10) Where, by virtue of any enactment, the company was at any time treated for the purposes of corporation tax on chargeable gains as acquiring the asset—
(a) for a consideration of such amount as would secure that neither a gain nor a loss would accrue to the person disposing of the asset, or
(b) for a consideration equal to the market value of the asset, for the purposes of this section that allowable expenditure is treated as incurred by the company at that time.

(11) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a ship or aircraft includes a reference to the benefit of a contract—

(5) The Treasury may by order amend this section.

(6) An order under subsection (5) may include transitional provision and savings.

(7) The power to make an order under subsection (5) is exercisable by statutory instrument.

(8) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (5) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.

82 Annual report

(1) For each financial year the Treasury must prepare a report containing the information in subsection (2).

(2) The information is—
   (a) the number of decommissioning relief agreements entered into in that year,

83 Effect of claim on PRT

(1) This section applies where a sum is payable to a company (“the claimant”) under a decommissioning relief agreement.

(2) Subsection (3) applies where the reference amount is calculated by reference to what the claimant's assessable profit in any chargeable period would be if any expenditure incurred by it were used to reduce its profit in a particular way (rather than in any way that it has in fact been used).

(3) For the purposes of petroleum revenue tax—
(a) the expenditure is treated as having been used to reduce the claimant's profit in that way (rather than in any way that it has in fact been used), and
(b) the claimant is treated as if it had received the tax relief it would receive if its profit were reduced in that way (so no repayment of tax is to be made by virtue of this subsection).

(4) Subsection (5) applies where the reference amount is calculated by reference to what any other company's assessable profit in any chargeable period would be if any expenditure incurred by the claimant—
(a) had been incurred by the other company, and
(b) were used to reduce the other company's profit in a particular way.

(5) For the purposes of petroleum revenue tax—
(a) the expenditure is treated as incurred by the other company (and not the claimant),
(b) the expenditure is treated as having been used by the other company to reduce its profit in that way, and
(c) the other company is treated as if it had received the tax relief it would receive if its profit were reduced in that way (so no repayment of tax is to be made by virtue of this subsection).

to make a payment towards decommissioning expenditure in respect of an oil field,
(b) in consequence of the default, another company (“the other company”) that has rights under a decommissioning relief agreement at the time of the default incurs decommissioning expenditure in respect of that oil field, and
(c) but for paragraph 15 of Schedule 17 to FA 1980 (terminal losses), a sum (or a sum of a greater amount) would be payable to the other company under the decommissioning relief agreement.

(2) Paragraph 15 of Schedule 17 to FA 1980 does not apply in relation to any allowable loss accruing to the other company from that oil field.

(3) Any allowable unrelievable field loss (within the meaning of section 6 of OTA 1975) that—
(a) consists of the unrelieved portion of an allowable loss within subsection (2), and
(b) would (in the absence of this subsection) arise as a result of subsection (2), is not to be regarded as arising.

(4) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 83(3) or (5).

(5) In this section—

(1) This section applies where—
(a) a company defaults on a liability under—
(i) a relevant agreement, or
(ii) an abandonment programme,
to make a payment towards decommissioning expenditure in respect of an oil field,
(b) in consequence of the default, another company that has rights under a decommissioning relief agreement at the time of the default incurs decommissioning expenditure in respect of that oil field, and
(c) by virtue of section 83, any expenditure incurred by that company (whether or not that decommissioning expenditure) is treated as having been used by that company or any other company (“the affected company”) to reduce its assessable profit in a chargeable period in a particular way.

(2) If, in the absence of section 83, the assessable profit accruing to the affected company from an oil field in that chargeable period would be reduced under section 8(1) of OTA 1975, the amount of the oil allowance for the oil field utilised by the affected company in that chargeable period for the purposes of section 8 of that Act is to be determined as if section 83 did not apply.

(3) In this section—
“abandonment programme” means an abandonment programme approved under Part 4 of the Petroleum Act 1998 (including such a programme as revised),

“abandonment programme” means an abandonment programme approved under Part 4 of the Petroleum Act 1998 (including such a programme as revised);
“security” has the same meaning as in section 38A of that Act.”
(4) This section is treated as having come into force on 20 March 1993.

(5) For the purposes of section 58 of IHTA 1984—

(1D) Plant or machinery is “incidentally-acquired redundant plant or machinery” if—
   (a) it has not been brought into use for the purposes of the ring fence trade,
   (b) it forms part of a relevant installation (see subsection (1E)) which has been brought into use for the purposes of the ring fence trade,
   (c) at the time R acquired an interest in the relevant installation, the plant or machinery was not being used for any purposes, and

(5) In Chapter 5, after section 416 insert—

“416ZA Ring fence trades: expenditure on site restoration

(1) If—

(a) a person who is carrying on, or has ceased to carry on, a ring fence trade incurs expenditure on the restoration of a relevant site,

(b) that part of the restoration work to which the expenditure relates has been carried out, and
(c) the expenditure has not been deducted in calculating for tax purposes the profits of any trade carried on by the person, the net cost of the restoration is qualifying expenditure for the relevant period in which that part of the work to which the expenditure relates was carried out.

(2) “Relevant period” means—

(a) in the case of restoration work carried out while the person is carrying on the trade, a chargeable period, and

(b) in the case of restoration work carried out after the person has ceased to carry on the trade, a notional accounting period.

For the meaning of “notional accounting period”, see section 416ZB.

(3) The qualifying expenditure for a notional accounting period is treated as incurred on the last day of trading.

(4) If the amount of expenditure incurred on any part of the restoration work carried out in a relevant period is disproportionate to that part of the restoration work, only so much of the net cost of the restoration as is proportionate to that part of the restoration work (the “allowable expenditure for the period”) is to be treated as qualifying expenditure for that period.

(5) But subsection (4) does not prevent that part of the expenditure that is not allowable expenditure for the period from being treated as qualifying expenditure for a subsequent relevant period.

(6) If any expenditure incurred by a person is qualifying expenditure under this section—

(a) the whole of the expenditure on the restoration (not just the net cost) is not deductible in calculating the person's income for any tax purposes, and

(b) none of the amounts subtracted to produce the net cost is to be treated as the person's income for any tax purposes.

(7) “Restoration” includes—

(a) landscaping,

(b) in relation to land in the United Kingdom, the carrying out of any works required as a condition of granting planning permission for development relating to the winning of oil from an oil field,

(c) in relation to land in the UK marine area, the carrying out of any works required in order to comply with—

(i) an approved abandonment programme,

(ii) a condition to which the approval of an abandonment programme is subject, or

(iii) a requirement imposed by the Secretary of State, or an agreement made with the Secretary of State, in relation to a relevant site, and

(d) in relation to land in a foreign sector of the continental shelf, the carrying out of any works required in order to comply with anything corresponding to a matter within paragraph (c)(i), (ii) or (iii) under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom.

But it does not include decommissioning any plant or machinery (within the meaning of section 163).
(8) A “relevant site” means—
(a) the site of a source to the working of which the ring fence trade relates (or related), or
(b) land used in connection with working such a source.

(9) “The net cost of the restoration” means the expenditure incurred on the restoration less any amounts that—
(a) are received, or are to be received, by the person, and
(b) are attributable to the restoration of the relevant site.

(10) All such adjustments are to be made, by way of discharge or repayment of tax or otherwise, as are necessary to give effect to this section.

(11) In this section—
“abandonment programme”, “approval” and “approved” (in relation to an abandonment programme) have the same meaning as in Part 4 of the Petroleum Act 1998,
“foreign sector of the continental shelf” means an area within which rights are exercisable with respect to the sea bed and subsoil and their natural resources by a territory outside the United Kingdom,
“oil” and “oil field” have the same meaning as in Part 1 of OTA 1975,

(a) the period that—
(i) begins with the day following the last day on which the former trader carried on the ring fence trade, and
(ii) ends with the day on which the first termination event subsequently occurs, and
(b) each period that—
(i) begins with the day following the last day of a period determined under paragraph (a) or this paragraph, and
(ii) ends with the day on which the first termination event subsequently occurs.

(2) But there are to be no notional accounting periods after the end of the post-cessation period (see subsection (4)).

(3) “Termination event”, in relation to a notional accounting period, means each of the following—
(a) the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the first day of the notional accounting period,
(b) the occurrence of an accounting date of the former trader or, if there is a period for which the former trader does not make up accounts, the end of that period (but see subsections (6) and (7)), and

(c) the end of the post-cessation period.

(4) “The post-cessation period” means the period that—

(a) begins with the day following the last day on which the former trader carried on the ring fence trade, and

(b) ends with the day on which the appropriate authority is satisfied that the restoration of the relevant site has been completed.

(5) In subsection (4) “the appropriate authority” means—

(a) in the case of restoration falling within section 416ZA(7)(c), the Secretary of State, and

(b) in any other case, such person or body as the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs may specify.

(6) If the former trader—

(a) carries on more than one trade,

(b) makes up accounts of any of them to different dates, and

(c) does not make up general accounts for the whole of the former trader's activities, subsection (3)(b) applies with reference to the accounting date of such one of the trades as the former trader may determine.

(7) If the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs are of the opinion, on reasonable grounds, that a date determined by the former trader for the purposes of subsection (6) is inappropriate, the Commissioners may by notice direct that the accounting date of such other of the trades referred to in that subsection as appears to the Commissioners to be appropriate is to be used instead.

(8) Expressions used in this section and in section 416ZA have the same meaning in this section as they do in that section.”

(6) In section 416B (first-year qualifying expenditure), in subsection (2), at the end insert “(within the meaning of section 403)”.

(7) Part 4 of CTA 2010 (loss relief) is amended as follows.

(8) In section 40 (ring fence trades: extension of periods for which relief may be given), in subsection (1)(b), for “403” substitute “by virtue of section 416ZA”.

(9) In section 43 (claim period in case of ring fence or mineral extraction trades), in subsection (1)(b)—

(a) after “416” insert “or 416ZA”, and

(b) for the words from “restoration” to “trade” substitute “site restoration”.

(10) The amendments made by this section have effect in relation to expenditure incurred on restoration carried out on or after the day on which this Act is passed.

   (b) as a result, the responsible partners are within the charge with respect to the interest for the period.

(4) If, on the first day in the chargeable period on which the responsible partners are within the charge a person (“P”) who is not one of the responsible partners is jointly entitled to the chargeable interest, P and the responsible partners are jointly and severally liable for the tax charged for the period with respect to the interest (whether or not P is also within the charge with respect to the interest on the day in question).

Collective investment schemes: liability for and collection of tax

(1) Subsection (2) applies where tax is charged for a chargeable period with respect to a single-dwelling interest by virtue of section 94(6).

(2) The persons who are major participants in the scheme on the first day of the chargeable period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the interest are jointly and severally liable with the chargeable person for the tax charged.

(5) The “relevant day” is—
(a) for the purposes of subsection (2), the first day of the chargeable period;
(b) for the purposes of subsection (3), the first day in the chargeable period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the interest.

(6) The relevant fraction is—

\frac{N}{Y}

where—
Interim relief

(1) Where tax is charged for a chargeable period with respect to a single-dwelling interest, the chargeable person may claim relief before the end of the chargeable period if—

(a) one or more days in the period is relievable with respect to the interest (by virtue of any of sections 133 to 150),

(b) one or more days in the chargeable period (after the first day in the period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the interest) are days on which the chargeable person is not within the charge with respect to the interest, or

(c) the taxable value of the single-dwelling interest on the first day in the chargeable period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the interest is higher than its taxable value on a later day in the chargeable period on which the chargeable person remains within the charge with respect to the interest.

(2) Relief under this section is called “interim relief”, and must be claimed—

(a) in an annual tax on enveloped dwellings return, or

(b) by amending such a return.

(3) Where interim relief is claimed under this section, section 163(1) (payment of tax by filing date for annual tax on enveloped dwellings return) has effect as if the amount of tax charged with respect to the single-dwelling interest were the sum of amounts A and B.

(4) Amount A is the total of all the daily amounts for days in the pre-claim period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the single-dwelling interest, other than days that are relievable with respect to the single-dwelling interest.

(5) Amount B is zero if—

(a) the day of the claim is relievable with respect to the single-dwelling interest by virtue of any of sections 133 to 150, or

(b) the chargeable person is not within the charge with respect to the single-dwelling interest on the day of the claim.
(6) Otherwise, amount B is the appropriate fraction of the annual chargeable amount for the single-dwelling interest.

For this purpose the annual chargeable amount is determined (under section 99(4)) on the basis that the day of the claim is the relevant day.

(7) In subsection (6) “appropriate fraction” means—

\frac{X}{Y}

where—

“X” is the number of days in the period beginning with the day of the claim and ending at the end of the chargeable period, and

“Y” is the number of days in the chargeable period.

(8) In this section—

“day of the claim” means the day on which the return mentioned in subsection (2)(a), or notice of the amendment made under subsection (2)(b), is delivered to HMRC;

“pre-claim period” means the period—

(a) beginning with the first day in the chargeable period mentioned in subsection (1) on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the single-dwelling interest, and

(b) ending with the day before the day of the claim.

(9) See sections 105 and 106 for provision about the adjustment of the amount of tax charged.

101 Indexation of annual chargeable amounts

(1) If the consumer prices index for September in 2013 or any later year (“the later year”) is higher than it was for the previous September, section 99(4) applies in relation to chargeable periods beginning on or after 1 April in the year after the later year with the following amendments.

(2) For each of the annual chargeable amounts stated in the table in section 99(4) (as it applies in relation to chargeable periods beginning in the previous 12 months) there is substituted the indexed amount.

(3) “The indexed amount” is found by—

(a) increasing the previous amount by the same percentage increase as the percentage increase in the consumer prices index, and

(b) rounding down the result to the nearest multiple of £50.

(4) In this section “consumer prices index” means the all items consumer prices index published by the Statistics Board.

(5) The Treasury must, before 1 April 2014 and before each subsequent 1 April, make an order stating the amounts that by virtue of this section are to be the annual chargeable amounts for chargeable periods beginning on or after that date.
102 Taxable value

(1) The taxable value of a single-dwelling interest on any day (“the relevant day”) is equal to its market value at the end of the latest day that—
   (a) falls on or before that day, and
   (b) is a valuation date in the case of that interest.

(2) Each of the following is a valuation date in the case of any single-dwelling interest—
   (a) 1 April 2012;
   (b) each 1 April falling 5 years, or a multiple of 5 years, after 1 April 2012.

But a day that is a valuation date only because of subsection (2)(b) (a “5-yearly valuation date”) is to be treated as if it were not a valuation date for the purpose of determining the taxable value of a single-dwelling interest on any day in the chargeable period beginning with that 5-yearly valuation date.

(3) The following are also valuation dates in the case of any single-dwelling interest to which a company is entitled on the relevant day (otherwise than as a member of a partnership)—
   (a) the effective date of any substantial acquisition by the company of a chargeable interest in or over the dwelling concerned;
   (b) the effective date of any substantial disposal of part (but not the whole) of the single-dwelling interest.

(4) The following are also valuation dates in the case of any single-dwelling interest to which a company is entitled on the relevant day as a member of a partnership—
   (a) the effective date of any substantial acquisition as a result of which a chargeable interest in or over the dwelling concerned became an asset of the partnership;
   (b) the effective date of any substantial disposal of part (but not the whole) of the single-dwelling interest.

(5) The following are also valuation dates in the case of any single-dwelling interest that is on the relevant day held for the purposes of a collective investment scheme—
   (a) the effective date of any substantial acquisition, made for the purposes of the scheme, of a chargeable interest in or over the dwelling concerned;
   (b) the effective date of any substantial disposal of part (but not the whole) of the single-dwelling interest.

(6) In this section references to a disposal of part of a single-dwelling interest include the grant of a chargeable interest out of the single-dwelling interest.

(7) The grant of an option does not count as the grant of a chargeable interest for the purposes of subsection (6).
103 Section 102: “substantial” acquisitions and disposals

(1) For the purposes of section 102—
   (a) the acquisition of a chargeable interest in a dwelling is a “substantial acquisition” only if the chargeable consideration for the acquisition is £40,000 or more;
   (b) the disposal of part (but not the whole) of a single-dwelling interest is a “substantial disposal” only if the chargeable consideration for the acquisition of the chargeable interest by the person acquiring it is £40,000 or more.

(2) If the acquisition mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is a transaction between persons who are connected with each other or not acting at arm's length, subsection (1)(a) applies as if the reference to the chargeable consideration for the acquisition were to the market value of the chargeable interest acquired.

(3) If the disposal mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is a transaction between persons who are connected with each other or not acting at arm's length, subsection (1)(b) applies as if the reference to the chargeable consideration for the acquisition in question were to the market value of the part of the single-dwelling interest disposed of.

(4) The chargeable consideration for the acquisition mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is taken to include the chargeable consideration for any linked acquisition of a chargeable interest in or over the same dwelling.

(5) The chargeable consideration for the transaction mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is taken to include the chargeable consideration for any linked disposal of part (but not the whole) of the single-dwelling interest concerned.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (2) the market value of the chargeable interest acquired is taken to be the sum of the market values of that chargeable interest and any chargeable interest in or over the same dwelling that is acquired in a linked transaction.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (3) the market value of the part of the single-dwelling interest disposed of is taken to be the sum of the market values of that chargeable interest and any chargeable interest in or over the same dwelling that is disposed of in a linked transaction.

(8) For the purposes of this section two or more transactions are “linked” if they form part of a single scheme, arrangement or series of transactions between the same vendor and purchaser or, in either case, persons connected with them.

(9) In this section “chargeable consideration”, “purchaser” and “vendor” have the same meaning as in Part 4 of FA 2003.

(10) In this section references to a disposal of part of a single-dwelling interest include the grant of a chargeable interest out of the single-dwelling interest.
104 No double charge

Tax in respect of a given single-dwelling interest is charged only once for any chargeable day even if more than one person is “the chargeable person” with respect to the tax charged.

Adjustment of amount charged

105 “Adjusted chargeable amount”

(1) In relation to a person on whom tax is charged for a chargeable period with respect to a single-dwelling interest, the “adjusted chargeable amount” is the total of the daily amounts for all the days in the period on which the chargeable person is within the charge with respect to the interest.

(2) The daily amount for any such day (“the actual day”) is—

\frac{1}{Y} \times A

where—

“\(Y\)” is the number of days in the chargeable period;

“\(A\)” is the annual chargeable amount for the single-dwelling interest, determined (under section 99(4)) on the basis that the actual day is the relevant day.

106 Adjustment of amount chargeable

(1) Where tax is charged for a chargeable period with respect to a single-dwelling interest and the adjusted chargeable amount is greater than the initial charged amount, the amount of tax charged is taken to be increased to the adjusted chargeable amount.

(2) In this section “the initial charged amount” means the amount of tax charged under section 99 for the period in respect of the interest.

(3) Subsection (4) applies where—

(a) tax is charged for a chargeable period with respect to a single-dwelling interest,

(b) the adjusted chargeable amount is less than the initial charged amount, and

(c) a claim for relief is made under this subsection.

(4) The amount of tax charged for the period with respect to the interest is taken to be reduced (at the end of the chargeable period) to the adjusted chargeable amount.

(5) Relief under subsection (3) must be claimed—

(a) in an annual tax on enveloped dwellings return, or

(b) by amending an annual tax on enveloped dwellings return.

(6) The claim must be delivered by the end of the chargeable period following the one to which the claim relates.

(7) Relief under subsection (3) may be given by repayment of tax or otherwise.
(8) See also section 160 (return of adjusted amount chargeable); and see section 163(2) for provision about payment of additional tax by reference to the adjusted chargeable amount.

Chargeable interests and “single-dwelling interest”

107 Chargeable interests

(1) In this Part “chargeable interest” means—

(a) an estate, interest, right or power in or over land in the United Kingdom, or

(b) the benefit of an obligation, restriction or condition affecting the value of any such estate, interest, right or power.

(2) Where two or more persons are jointly entitled to a chargeable interest the chargeable interest is not regarded, for the purposes of this Part, as consisting of separate interests corresponding to the shares (if any) that those persons have by virtue of their joint entitlement.

(3) An exempt interest is not a chargeable interest for the purposes of this Part.

(4) The following are exempt interests—

(a) any security interest;

(b) a licence to use or occupy land;

(c) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, a tenancy at will.

(5) In subsection (4) “security interest” means an interest or right (other than a rentcharge) held for the purpose of securing the payment of money or the performance of any other obligation.

(6) In the application of this Part in Scotland the reference in subsection (5) to a rentcharge is to be read as a reference to a feu duty or a payment mentioned in section 56(1) of the Abolition of Feudal Tenure etc (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 5).

(7) The Treasury may by regulations provide that any other description of interest or right in or over a dwelling is an exempt interest.

108 Meaning of “single-dwelling interest”

(1) References in this Part to a “single-dwelling interest” are to be read in accordance with this section.

(2) A chargeable interest that is exclusively in or over land consisting (on any day) of a single dwelling is a single-dwelling interest (on that day).

(3) Where a person is entitled to a chargeable interest that is exclusively in or over land consisting (on any day) of two or more single dwellings—

(a) provisions referring to a “single-dwelling interest” operate as if the person had (on that day) a separate chargeable interest in or over each dwelling, and

(b) the chargeable interest in or over each dwelling is therefore a single-dwelling interest.

(4) Where a person is entitled to a chargeable interest in or over land that on any day consists of one or more single dwellings and non-residential land—
(a) provisions referring to a “single-dwelling interest” operate as if the person had (on that day) a separate chargeable interest in or over each dwelling and a further separate chargeable interest in or over the non-residential land, and
(b) the chargeable interest in or over each dwelling is therefore a single-dwelling interest.

(5) A single-dwelling interest is referred to as a single-dwelling interest “in” the dwelling concerned.

(6) A single-dwelling interest in one dwelling is distinct from any single-dwelling interest in another dwelling, even if the dwellings stand successively on the same land.

(7) In this section—
(a) “non-residential land” means land that is not a dwelling or part of a dwelling;
(b) references to a dwelling include a part of a dwelling.

109 Different interests held in the same dwelling

(1) Subsection (2) applies if on one or more days in a chargeable period—
(a) a company is entitled to two or more single-dwelling interests in the same dwelling, or
(b) two or more single-dwelling interests in the same dwelling are held for the purposes of the same collective investment scheme.

(2) This Part has effect with respect to that chargeable period as if those separate interests constituted just one single-dwelling interest, the taxable value of which on any day is the sum of the taxable values of the separate interests.

(3) In calculating the taxable values of the separate interests for the purposes of subsection (2), the market value of each interest is determined, under the provisions of TCGA 1992 applied by section 98(8), on the assumption that the other interest or interests are placed on the open market with that interest (on the valuation date appropriate to that interest).

110 Interests held by connected persons

(1) If on any day (“the relevant day”) a company (“C”) is entitled to a single-dwelling interest in a dwelling and another person (“P”) who is connected with C is entitled to a different single-dwelling interest in the same dwelling, this Part has effect—
(a) in relation to C as if C were on that day entitled to P's single-dwelling interest as well as C's single-dwelling interest, and
(b) (if P is a company) in relation to P as if P were on that day entitled to C's single-dwelling interest as well as P's single-dwelling interest.

(2) This subsection provides for an exception to subsection (1).

Where P is an individual, C is not treated... as entitled to P's single-dwelling interest... unless on that day C is entitled to a single-dwelling interest in the dwelling that is a freehold or leasehold interest with a taxable value of more than £250,000.

(2A) Subsection (2B) applies in any case where—
(a) C would (without subsection (2B)) be treated, as a result of subsection (1) (read with section 109), as entitled to a single-dwelling interest with a taxable value (on the relevant day) of more than £2 million, but
(b) C would not be so treated if the value specified in subsection (2) were £500,000 (instead of £250,000).

(2B) Subsection (2) has effect as if the value specified in it were £500,000 (instead of £250,000).

(3) If on any day a single-dwelling interest (“the scheme interest”) is held for the purposes of a collective investment scheme and a person (“P”) who is connected with the scheme is entitled to a different single-dwelling interest in the same dwelling, this Part has effect—
(a) in relation to the scheme, as if both those separate interests were on that day held for the purposes of the scheme, and
(b) (if P is a company) in relation to P as if P were on that day entitled to the scheme interest as well as P’s single-dwelling interest.

(4) If on any day a single-dwelling interest in a dwelling is held for the purposes of a collective investment scheme (“the first scheme”) and another interest in the same dwelling is held for the purposes of another collective investment scheme (“the second scheme”) that is connected with the first scheme, this Part has effect—
(a) in relation to the first scheme, as if both the interests were held on that day for the purposes of that scheme, and
(b) in relation to the second scheme, as if both interests were held on that day for the purposes of that scheme.

(5) See also—
(a) section 97, for provision about the liability to tax of persons treated under this section (read with section 104) as jointly entitled to a single-dwelling interest;
(b) paragraph 55 of Schedule 33, for provision about returns in cases involving joint entitlement.

(6) The provisions mentioned in subsection (5) are to be read as including corresponding provision for cases where the same single-dwelling interest is treated under this section as held—
(a) for the purposes of different collective investment schemes, or
(b) by a company and for the purposes of a collective investment scheme.

(7) In the application of this section to Scotland—
(a) the reference to a freehold interest is to the interest of the owner;
(b) the reference to a leasehold interest is to a tenant's right over or interest in property subject to a lease.

111 Different interests held in the same dwelling: effect of reliefs etc

(1) References in section 110 to a person do not include—
   (a) a public body, as defined in section 153,
   (b) a body listed in section 154(2) (bodies established for national purposes).

(2) Subsections (1) to (4) of section 110 do not apply in relation to a single-dwelling interest if—
   (a) the day in question is relievable with respect to that interest by virtue of section 150 (providers of social housing),
   (b) by virtue of section 151 (charitable companies) the ownership condition is regarded as not met with respect to the interest on that day, or
   (c) the taxable value of the interest on that day is taken to be zero by virtue of section 155 (dwelling conditionally exempt from inheritance tax).

(3) Subsection (4) applies where the separate interests (the “relevant interests”) that under section 110 (or that section and section 109) are treated as constituting, on a day, just one single-dwelling interest (“the combined interest”) include—
   (a) a freehold or leasehold interest, and
   (b) a leasehold interest (“the inferior interest”) granted out of that interest.

(4) If the inferior interest is the most inferior relevant interest, the combined interest, and the dwelling itself (where relevant), are regarded for the purposes of the relevant relieving provisions as being exploited, on the day mentioned in subsection (3), in the way the inferior interest is exploited on that day.

(5) If the inferior interest is an interest in part only (“the sub-let part”) of the land that is the subject-matter of the combined interest, subsection (4) has effect in relation to the combined interest only so far as that interest relates to the sub-let part.

(6) In this section “the relevant relieving provisions” means sections 132 to 150.

(7) The inferior interest counts as “the most inferior relevant interest” if no relevant interest (see subsection (3)) is a leasehold interest granted out of it.

(8) In this section the reference to a leasehold interest includes the interest of a lessee under an agreement for a lease.

(9) In the application of this section to Scotland—
   (a) the reference to a freehold interest is to the interest of the owner;
   (b) the reference to a leasehold interest is to a tenant's right over or interest in property subject to a lease;
   (c) the reference to an agreement for lease includes missives of let.
Meaning of “dwelling”

112 Meaning of “dwelling”

(1) A building or part of a building counts as a dwelling at any time when—
   (a) it is used or suitable for use as a single dwelling, or
   (b) it is in the process of being constructed or adapted for such use.

(2) Land that is, or is at any time intended to be, occupied or enjoyed with a dwelling as a garden or grounds (including any building or structure on such land) is taken to be part of that dwelling at that time.

(3) Land that subsists, or is at any time intended to subsist, for the benefit of a dwelling is taken to be part of the dwelling at that time.

(4) A building, or part of a building, used for a purpose specified in section 116(2) or (3) of FA 2003 is not used as a dwelling for the purposes of subsection (1).

(5) Where a building, or part of a building, is used for a purpose mentioned in subsection (4), no account is to be taken for the purposes of subsection (1) of its suitability for any other use.

(6) If a building or part of a building becomes temporarily unsuitable for use as a dwelling for any reason (including accidental damage, repairs or any other physical change to the building or its environment), that temporary unsuitability is ignored in determining whether or not the building or part of a building is, during the period in question, a dwelling for the purposes of this Part.

This subsection does not affect any of the provisions in sections 126 to 131.

113 Substantial performance of “off plan” purchase

(1) Subsection (2) applies where—
   (a) a contract is entered into for the acquisition of a chargeable interest in or over land that consists of or includes a building, or part of a building, that is to be constructed or adapted for use as a single dwelling,
   (b) substantial performance is treated as constituting the acquisition of the chargeable interest (under section 122), and
   (c) construction or adaptation of the building, or the part of a building, has not begun by the time the contract is substantially performed.

(2) The chargeable interest deemed to be acquired as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is taken to be in or over land that consists of or (as appropriate) includes a dwelling.

(3) If at any time after the substantial performance of the contract the obligation under the contract to carry out the construction or adaptation ceases to have effect without the construction or adaptation having been begun, subsection (2) ceases to apply at that time.

(4) A building or part of a building used for a purpose specified in section 116(2) or (3) of FA 2003 is not used as a dwelling for the purposes of subsection (1).

(5) In this section—
   “contract” includes any agreement (including, in the case of Scotland, missives of let not constituting a lease);
“substantially performed” has the same meaning as in section 44 of FA 2003.

114 Power to modify meaning of “use as a dwelling”

(1) The Treasury may by order amend this Part so as to specify cases where use of a building is to be use of a building as a dwelling for the purposes of section 112(1) or 113(1).

(2) The reference in section 116(8)(a) of FA 2003 (power to amend section 116(2) and (3)) to “the purposes of subsection (1)” includes a reference to the purposes of sections 112(1) and 113(1).

115 Parts of a greater whole

(1) The fact that a part of a building is suitable for use as a dwelling does not prevent that part from forming part of a larger single dwelling.

(2) The fact that a building or structure that is—
   (a) in the garden or grounds of a dwelling, and
   (b) occupied or enjoyed with the dwelling, is itself suitable for use as a single dwelling does not prevent it from being treated (in accordance with section 112(2)) as part of the dwelling.

116 Dwelling in grounds of another dwelling

(1) Subsection (4) applies where the conditions in subsection (2) are met in relation to two dwellings (the “main dwelling” and the “associated dwelling”) on a day (“the day in question”) in a chargeable period.

(2) The conditions are that—
   (a) the main dwelling has a garden or grounds,
   (b) the associated dwelling stands within the garden or grounds of the main dwelling, but is not occupied or enjoyed with that dwelling,
   (c) the associated dwelling does not have separate access, and is not part of the same building as the main dwelling, and
   (d) the common ownership condition is met.

(3) The common ownership condition is that—
   (a) a company is entitled to a chargeable interest in the main dwelling, and the company or a person connected with the company is entitled to a chargeable interest in the associated dwelling, or
   (b) a chargeable interest in the main dwelling is held for the purposes of a collective investment scheme, and a chargeable interest in the associated dwelling is held for the purposes of the same collective investment scheme.
   (It does not matter whether or not the interest in the main dwelling and the interest in the associated dwelling are held for the same title.)

(4) This Part has effect in relation to the interests mentioned in paragraph (a) or (as the case may be) (b) of subsection (3) as if the main dwelling and the associated dwelling were, on the day in question, suitable for use as a single dwelling.
(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if—
   (a) the day in question is, in relation to the interest in the main dwelling or the interest in the associated dwelling, relievable by virtue of a provision mentioned in subsection (6), or
   (b) the ownership condition is, by virtue of section 151 (charitable companies), regarded as not being met on that day with respect to one or other of those interests.

(6) Those provisions are—
   section 133 (property rental businesses);
   section 134 (rental property: preparation for sale etc);
   section 137 (dwellings opened to the public);
   section 138 (property developers);
   section 139 (property developers: exchange of dwellings);
   section 141 (property traders);
   section 143 (financial institutions acquiring dwellings in the course of lending); [F25section 144A (regulated home reversion plans);]
   section 145 (occupation by [F26employees or partners of a qualifying trade or property rental business] ); [F27section 147A (caretaker flat owned by management company);]
   section 148 (farmhouses);
   section 150 (providers of social housing).

(7) The reference in subsection (3)(a) to a person connected with the company does not include a public body (as defined in section 153) or a body listed in section 154(2) (bodies established for national purposes).

(8) The reference in subsection (3)(b) to a chargeable interest being held for the purposes of the same collective investment scheme includes a reference to a person connected with the scheme being entitled to the interest.

(9) The associated dwelling has “separate access” only if—
   (a) there is access to the associated dwelling directly from a highway (in Scotland, a road) that the dwelling adjoins, or
   (b) the person entitled to possession of the associated dwelling has access to that dwelling from a highway (in Scotland, a road), exclusively by passing over land that the person is entitled to pass over by reason of one or more rights of way or other interests in land to which the person is separately entitled.

(10) In this section—
   in relation to a dwelling or dwellings, references to the “garden or grounds” are to land occupied or enjoyed with the dwelling or dwellings as a garden or grounds;
   references to the person entitled to possession of a dwelling are to the person entitled to possession of the dwelling by reason of an estate or interest held by that person;
   “separately entitled” means entitled otherwise than by reason of a chargeable interest in or over the main dwelling.
117 Dwellings in the same building

(1) Two parts of a building are “linked dwellings” if—
   (a) each of them counts as a dwelling,
   (b) there is private access between the two dwellings,
   (c) the two parts of the building are not (together) used or suitable for use as a single dwelling, and
   (d) the common ownership condition and the use condition are met.

(2) The common ownership condition is that—
   (a) a company is entitled to a chargeable interest in one of the dwellings, and the company or a person connected with the company is entitled to a chargeable interest in the other dwelling, or
   (b) a chargeable interest in one of the dwellings is held for the purposes of a collective investment scheme, and a chargeable interest in the other dwelling is held for the purposes of the same collective investment scheme.

   (It does not matter whether or not the interests are held for the same title.)

(3) If on a day in a chargeable period (“the day in question”) two parts of a building constitute linked dwellings, this Part has effect in relation to the interests mentioned in paragraph (a) or (as the case may be) (b) of subsection (2) as if the two parts were, on the day in question, suitable for use as a single dwelling.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—
   (a) the day in question is, in relation to a chargeable interest mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (as the case may be) (2)(b), relievable by virtue of a provision mentioned in subsection (5), or
   (b) (in a case where paragraph (a) of subsection (2) applies) the ownership condition is, by virtue of section 151 (charitable companies), regarded as not being met on that day with respect to one or other of the chargeable interests mentioned in that paragraph.

(5) Those provisions are—
   section 133 (property rental businesses);
   section 134 (rental property: preparation for sale etc);
   section 137 (dwellings opened to the public);
   section 138 (property developers);
   section 139 (property developers: exchange of dwellings);

(a) P is to acquire a relevant chargeable interest, and
(b) the acquisition is to be completed by a conveyance.

(2) P is not regarded as acquiring any chargeable interest by reason of entering into the contract.

(3) If the contract is substantially performed without having been completed, this Part has effect as if the substantial performance of the contract were the completion of the acquisition provided for by the contract.

(4) Accordingly, where subsection (3) applies and the contract is subsequently completed by a conveyance, that completion is not treated for the purposes of section 102 (taxable value) as effecting the acquisition of a chargeable interest.

(5) Where subsection (3) applies and—
(a) the contract is afterwards rescinded or annulled, or
(b) performance of the contract is for any other reason terminated before the contract has been carried fully into effect, this Part has effect as if P had at the relevant time disposed of the chargeable interest referred to in subsection (1)(a).

   (b) the disposal is to be completed by a conveyance.

(2) V is not regarded as disposing of a chargeable interest by reason of entering into the contract.

(3) If the contract is substantially performed without having been completed, this Part has effect as if the substantial performance of the contract were the completion of the disposal provided for by the contract.

(4) Accordingly, where subsection (3) applies and the contract is subsequently completed by a conveyance, that completion is not treated for the purposes of section 102 as effecting the disposal of a chargeable interest.

(5) Where subsection (3) applies and—
   (a) the contract is afterwards rescinded or annulled, or
   (b) performance of the contract is for any other reason terminated before the contract has been carried fully into effect, this Part has effect as if V had at the relevant time re-acquired the chargeable interest referred to in subsection (1)(a).

(6) In subsection (5) “the relevant time” means—
   (a) the time when the rescission or annulment takes effect, or
   (b) (as the case requires) the time when performance of the contract ceases.

(7) Where subsection (3) applies and the contract is afterwards varied (or partially rescinded) so that the chargeable interest to be disposed of under the contract is not the same as the chargeable interest to which the contract originally related, this Part (including subsection (3)) has effect as if the variation of the contract effected—
   (a) the re-acquisition by V of the chargeable interest referred to in subsection (1)(a), and
   (b) the substantial performance of the contract, as varied.

(8) If the parties to the contract proceed as if they had varied the contract in the way mentioned in subsection (7) (without actually doing so), subsection (7) applies as if they had actually made the corresponding variation in the terms of the contract.

(2) No subsequent day in that chargeable period, or in any of the subsequent 3 chargeable periods, that meets the continuity of ownership condition and would (in the absence of this subsection) be relievable by virtue of section 133(1)(b) is treated as relievable by virtue of that provision unless a day of qualifying use falls between that day and the day of non-qualifying occupation.

(3) A day meets the continuity of ownership condition if on that day—

(3) Condition B is that the land in which the institution purchases a major interest under the first transaction is in Scotland and consists of or includes one or more dwellings or parts of a dwelling.

(3) In the case of an annual tax on enveloped dwellings return, “self assessment” means an assessment of—

PART 5

GENERAL ANTI-ABUSE RULE

206 General anti-abuse rule

(1) This Part has effect for the purpose of counteracting tax advantages arising from tax arrangements that are abusive.

(2) The rules of this Part are collectively to be known as “the general anti-abuse rule”.

(3) The general anti-abuse rule applies to the following taxes—

(a) income tax,
(b) corporation tax, including any amount chargeable as if it were corporation tax or treated as if it were corporation tax,
(c) capital gains tax,
(d) petroleum revenue tax,
(F56(da) diverted profits tax,]
(F57(db) apprenticeship levy,]
(e) inheritance tax,
(f) stamp duty land tax, and
(g) annual tax on enveloped dwellings.
Meaning of “tax arrangements” and “abusive”

(1) Arrangements are “tax arrangements” if, having regard to all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to conclude that the obtaining of a tax advantage was the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of the arrangements.

(2) Tax arrangements are “abusive” if they are arrangements the entering into or carrying out of which cannot reasonably be regarded as a reasonable course of action in relation to the relevant tax provisions, having regard to all the circumstances including—
   (a) whether the substantive results of the arrangements are consistent with any principles on which those provisions are based (whether express or implied) and the policy objectives of those provisions,
   (b) whether the means of achieving those results involves one or more contrived or abnormal steps, and
   (c) whether the arrangements are intended to exploit any shortcomings in those provisions.

(3) Where the tax arrangements form part of any other arrangements regard must also be had to those other arrangements.

(4) Each of the following is an example of something which might indicate that tax arrangements are abusive—
   (a) the arrangements result in an amount of income, profits or gains for tax purposes that is significantly less than the amount for economic purposes,
   (b) the arrangements result in deductions or losses of an amount for tax purposes that is significantly greater than the amount for economic purposes, and
   (c) the arrangements result in a claim for the repayment or crediting of tax (including foreign tax) that has not been, and is unlikely to be, paid, but in each case only if it is reasonable to assume that such a result was not the anticipated result when the relevant tax provisions were enacted.

(5) The fact that tax arrangements accord with established practice, and HMRC had, at the time the arrangements were entered into, indicated its acceptance of that practice, is an example of something which might indicate that the arrangements are not abusive.

(6) The examples given in subsections (4) and (5) are not exhaustive.
208 Meaning of “tax advantage”

A “tax advantage” includes—
(a) relief or increased relief from tax,
(b) repayment or increased repayment of tax,
(c) avoidance or reduction of a charge to tax or an assessment to tax,
(d) avoidance of a possible assessment to tax,
(e) deferral of a payment of tax or advancement of a repayment of tax, and
(f) avoidance of an obligation to deduct or account for tax.

209 Counteracting the tax advantages

(1) If there are tax arrangements that are abusive, the tax advantages that would (ignoring this Part) arise from the arrangements are to be counteracted by the making of adjustments.

(2) The adjustments required to be made to counteract the tax advantages are such as are just and reasonable.

(3) The adjustments may be made in respect of the tax in question or any other tax to which the general anti-abuse rule applies.

(4) The adjustments that may be made include those that impose or increase a liability to tax in any case where (ignoring this Part) there would be no liability or a smaller liability, and tax is to be charged in accordance with any such adjustment.

(5) Any adjustments required to be made under this section (whether by an officer of Revenue and Customs or the person to whom the tax advantage would arise) may be made by way of an assessment, the modification of an assessment, amendment or disallowance of a claim, or otherwise.

(6) But—
(a) no steps may be taken by an officer of Revenue and Customs by virtue of this section unless the procedural requirements of Schedule 43 [F58, 43A or 43B] have been complied with, and
(b) the power to make adjustments by virtue of this section is subject to any time limit imposed by or under any enactment other than this Part.

(7) Any adjustments made under this section have effect for all purposes.

[F59(8) Where a matter is referred to the GAAR Advisory Panel under paragraph 5 or 6 of Schedule 43, the taxpayer (as defined in paragraph 3 of that Schedule) must not make any GAAR-related adjustments in relation to the taxpayer's tax affairs in the period (the “closed period”) which—
(a) begins with the 31st day after the end of the 45 day period mentioned in paragraph 4(1) of that Schedule, and
(b) ends immediately before the day on which the taxpayer is given the notice under paragraph 12 of Schedule 43 (notice of final decision after considering opinion of GAAR Advisory Panel).

(9) Where a person has been given a pooling notice or a notice of binding under Schedule 43A in relation to any tax arrangements, the person must not make any GAAR-related adjustments in the period (“the closed period”) that—
(a) begins with the 31st day after that on which that notice is given, and
(b) ends—

(i) in the case of a pooling notice, immediately before the day on which the person is given a notice under paragraph 8(2) or 9(2) of Schedule 43A, or a notice under paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 43B, in relation to the tax arrangements (notice of final decision after considering opinion of GAAR Advisory Panel), or

(ii) in the case of a notice of binding, with the 30th day after the day on which the notice is given.

(10) In this section “GAAR-related adjustments” means—

(a) for the purposes of subsection (8), adjustments which give effect (wholly or in part) to the proposed counteraction set out in the notice under paragraph 3 of Schedule 43;

(b) for the purposes of subsection (9), adjustments which give effect (wholly or partly) to the proposed counteraction set out in the notice of pooling or binding (as the case may be).]

1. This section applies if the action in section 209B(4)(e) (notice of proposal to make generic referral) is taken.

2. If the notice under paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 43B is withdrawn, the notified adjustments are to be treated as cancelled unless the notice of withdrawal states that the adjustments are not to be treated as cancelled under this section.

3. The notice of withdrawal may not contain the statement referred to in subsection (2) unless HMRC was authorised to make the notified adjustments otherwise than under this Part.

4. If the taxpayer is given a notice under paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 43B, which states that the specified tax advantage is not to be counteracted under the general anti-abuse rule, the notified adjustments are to be treated as cancelled, unless that notice states that those adjustments are not to be treated as cancelled under this section.
(5) A notice under paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 43B may not contain the statement referred to in subsection (4) unless HMRC was authorised to make the adjustments otherwise than under this Part.

(6) If the taxpayer is given a notice under paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 43B stating that the specified tax advantage is to be counteracted—
   (a) the notified adjustments are confirmed only so far as they are specified in that notice as adjustments required to give effect to the counteraction, and
   (b) so far as they are not confirmed, the notified adjustments are to be treated as cancelled.

209F  Appeals against provisional counteractions: further provision

   (1) Subsections (2) to (5) have effect in relation to an appeal by a person (“the taxpayer”) against the making of adjustments which are specified in a provisional counteraction notice.

   (2) No steps after the initial notice of appeal are to be taken in relation to the appeal unless and until the taxpayer is given—
      (a) a notice under section 209B(4)(b),
      (b) a notice under paragraph 6(3) of Schedule 43 (notice of decision not to refer matter to GAAR advisory panel) containing the statement described in section 209C(2) (statement that adjustments are not to be treated as cancelled),
      (c) a notice under paragraph 12 of Schedule 43,
      (d) a notice under paragraph 8(2) or 9(2) of Schedule 43A, or
      (e) a notice under paragraph 8 of Schedule 43B, in respect of the tax arrangements concerned.

   (3) The taxpayer has until the end of the period mentioned in subsection (4) to comply with any requirement to specify the grounds of appeal.

   (4) The period mentioned in subsection (3) is the 30 days beginning with the day on which the taxpayer receives the notice mentioned in subsection (2).

   (5) In subsection (2) the reference to “steps” does not include the withdrawal of the appeal.

210  Consequential relieving adjustments

   (1) This section applies where—
(a) the counteraction of a tax advantage under section 209 is final, and

(b) if the case is not one in which notice of the counteraction was given under paragraph 12 of Schedule 43, paragraph 8 or 9 of Schedule 43A or paragraph 8 of Schedule 43B, HMRC have been notified of the counteraction by the taxpayer.

(2) A person has 12 months, beginning with the day on which the counteraction becomes final, to make a claim for one or more consequential adjustments to be made in respect of any tax to which the general anti-abuse rule applies.

(3) On a claim under this section, an officer of Revenue and Customs must make such of the consequential adjustments claimed (if any) as are just and reasonable.

(4) Consequential adjustments—

(a) may be made in respect of any period, and

(b) may affect any person (whether or not a party to the tax arrangements).

(5) But nothing in this section requires or permits an officer to make a consequential adjustment the effect of which is to increase a person's liability to any tax.

(6) For the purposes of this section—

(a) if the claim relates to income tax or capital gains tax, Schedule 1A to TMA 1970 applies to it;

(b) if the claim relates to corporation tax, Schedule 1A to TMA 1970 (and not Schedule 18 to FA 1998) applies to it;

(c) if the claim relates to petroleum revenue tax, Schedule 1A to TMA 1970 applies to it, but as if the reference in paragraph 2A(4) of that Schedule to a year of assessment included a reference to a chargeable period within the meaning of OTA 1975 (see section 1(3) and (4) of that Act);

(d) if the claim relates to inheritance tax it must be made in writing to HMRC and section 221 of IHTA 1984 applies as if the claim were a claim under that Act;

(e) if the claim relates to stamp duty land tax or annual tax on enveloped dwellings, Schedule 11A to FA 2003 applies to it as if it were a claim to which paragraph 1 of that Schedule applies.

(7) Where an officer of Revenue and Customs makes a consequential adjustment under this section, the officer must give the person who made the claim written notice describing the adjustment which has been made.

(8) For the purposes of this section the counteraction of a tax advantage is final when the adjustments made to effect the counteraction, and any amounts arising as a result of those adjustments, can no longer be varied, on appeal or otherwise.

(9) Any adjustments required to be made under this section may be made—

(a) by way of an assessment, the modification of an assessment, the amendment of a claim, or otherwise, and

(b) despite any time limit imposed by or under any enactment other than this Part.

(10) In this section “the taxpayer”, in relation to a counteraction of a tax advantage under section 209, means the person to whom the tax advantage would have arisen.
211 Proceedings before a court or tribunal

(1) In proceedings before a court or tribunal in connection with the general anti-abuse rule, HMRC must show—
   (a) that there are tax arrangements that are abusive, and

(2) In determining any issue in connection with the general anti-abuse rule, a court or tribunal must take into account—
   (a) HMRC’s guidance about the general anti-abuse rule that was approved by the GAAR Advisory Panel at the time the tax arrangements were entered into, and
   (b) any opinion of the GAAR Advisory Panel given—
      (i) under paragraph 11 of Schedule 43 about the arrangements or any tax arrangements which are, as a result of a notice under paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 43A, the referred or (as the case may be) counteracted arrangements in relation to the arrangements, or
      (ii) under paragraph 6 of Schedule 43B in respect of a generic referral of the arrangements.

(3) In determining any issue in connection with the general anti-abuse rule, a court or tribunal may take into account—
   (a) guidance, statements or other material (whether of HMRC, a Minister of the Crown or anyone else) that was in the public domain at the time the arrangements were entered into, and
   (b) evidence of established practice at that time.

212 Relationship between the GAAR and priority rules

(1) Any priority rule has effect subject to the general anti-abuse rule (despite the terms of the priority rule).

       stating that a tax advantage arising from particular tax arrangements is to be counteracted,
   (b) a tax document has been given to HMRC on the basis that the tax advantage arises to P from those arrangements,
   (c) that document was given to HMRC—
       (i) by P, or
       (ii) by another person in circumstances where P knew, or ought to have known, that the other person gave the document on the basis mentioned in paragraph (c), and
   (d) the tax advantage has been counteracted by the making of adjustments under section 209.

(2) The penalty is 60% of the value of the counteracted advantage.

(3) Schedule 43C—
   (a) gives the meaning of “the value of the counteracted advantage”, and
   (b) makes other provision in relation to penalties under this section.

(4) In this section “tax document” means any return, claim or other document submitted in compliance (or purported compliance) with any provision of, or made under, an Act.

(5) In this section the reference to giving a tax document to HMRC is to be interpreted in accordance with paragraph 11(g) and (h) of Schedule 43C.]
“(3ZC) Subsection (2) also does not apply in relation to any claim under section 210 of the Finance Act 2013 (claims for consequential relieving adjustments after counteraction of tax advantage under the general anti-abuse rule).”
