COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Section 10: Taxis and private hire vehicles: duration of licences

54. This section amends two sections of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 that deal with the granting of licences to drive taxis and private hire vehicles and licences to operate private hire vehicles.
55. Subsection (2) changes the law in such a way as to establish a standard duration of three years for taxi and private hire vehicle driver licences. The section specifies that a licence may be granted for a period of less than three years but only in the circumstances of an individual case, not because of a blanket policy.
56. Subsection (3) changes the law in such a way as to establish a standard duration of five years for a private hire vehicle operator licence. The section specifies that a licence may be granted for a period of less than five years but only in the circumstances of an individual case, not because of a blanket policy.
57. The section forms part of the law of England and Wales. It applies in England and Wales except in London or Plymouth where different legislation applies.
58. The section comes into force on a day to be appointed by the Secretary of State in a commencement order.
