

Modern Slavery Act 2015

2015 CHAPTER 30

PART 5

PROTECTION OF VICTIMS

50 Regulations about identifying and supporting victims

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations providing for assistance and support to be provided to persons—
 - (a) who there are reasonable grounds to believe may be victims of slavery or human trafficking;
 - (b) who are victims of slavery or human trafficking.
- (2) The Secretary of State may make regulations providing for public authorities to determine (for the purposes of regulations under subsection (1) or other purposes specified in the regulations) whether—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person may be a victim of slavery or human trafficking;
 - (b) a person is a victim of slavery or human trafficking.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) may in particular make provision about the public authorities who may make such determinations, and the criteria and procedure for doing so.
