- (b) the person falls within subsection (3) or (4).
- (3) A person falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) the person's application is made within the period of one year beginning with the removal of the person's name (“the one year period”), and
 - (b) the relevant conditions are fulfilled.
- (4) A person falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) the person's application is made after the end of the one year period but within the period of four years beginning with the removal of the person's name,
 - (b) the relevant conditions are fulfilled,
 - (c) the person has passed a continued ability and fitness test since the removal of the person's name, and
 - (d) the number of times (if any) that the person has failed to pass such a test since that removal is less than three.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (3)(b) and (4)(b), “the relevant conditions” are—
 - (a) that the person did not refuse to undergo—
 - (i) a continued ability and fitness test, or
 - (ii) an emergency control assessment, which the person was required to undergo during the period of four years ending with the removal of the person's name from the register, and
 - (b) that, where the person did undergo one or more continued ability and fitness tests during that period, the person passed the last such test.
- (6) In this section “continued ability and fitness test” means a test of continued ability and fitness to give instruction in the driving of motor cars which is prescribed for the purposes of section 125(5)(a)(i).”
