

Armed Forces Act 2016

2016 CHAPTER 21

Duration of Armed Forces Act 2006

1 Duration of Armed Forces Act 2006

(1) For section 382 of AFA 2006 (duration of AFA 2006) substitute—

“382 Duration of this Act

- (1) This Act expires at the end of one year beginning with the day on which the Armed Forces Act 2016 is passed (but this is subject to subsection (2)).
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide that, instead of expiring at the time it would otherwise expire, this Act shall expire at the end of a period of not more than one year from that time.
- (3) Such an Order may not provide for the continuation of this Act beyond the end of the year 2021.
- (4) No recommendation may be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order under subsection (2) unless a draft of the Order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

(2) In consequence of subsection (1), omit section 1 of the Armed Forces Act 2011.

Alcohol and drugs

2 Commanding officer's power to require preliminary alcohol and drugs tests

- (1) In the heading of Chapter 3A of Part 3 of AFA 2006 (testing for alcohol and drugs on suspicion of offence), for “on suspicion of offence” substitute “in connection with a suspected offence or accident”.
- (2) In section 93A of AFA 2006 (commanding officer's power to require preliminary tests)

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) before subsection (1) insert—
 - “(A1) This section applies in the situations described in subsections (1) to (3C).”
- (b) in subsection (1), for “This section applies” substitute “ The first situation is ”,
- (c) in subsection (1)(a), for “relevant offence” substitute “ safety-critical duty offence ”,
- (d) in subsection (1)(b), for “a relevant” substitute “ such an ”,
- (e) omit subsection (2),
- (f) in subsection (3), for “This section also applies” substitute “ The second situation is ”,
- (g) after subsection (3) insert—
 - “(3A) The third situation is where the commanding officer of a person subject to service law or of a person who is a civilian subject to service discipline has reasonable cause to believe that—
 - (a) there has been an accident involving an aircraft or a ship; and
 - (b) at the time of the accident, the person was carrying out an aviation function in relation to the aircraft or a marine function in relation to the ship.
 - (3B) The fourth situation is where the commanding officer of a person subject to service law or of a person who is a civilian subject to service discipline has reasonable cause to believe that—
 - (a) there has been an accident involving an aircraft or a ship;
 - (b) before the accident, the person carried out an aviation function in relation to the aircraft or a marine function in relation to the ship; and
 - (c) it is possible that the carrying out of the function by the person may have caused or contributed to—
 - (i) the occurrence of the accident;
 - (ii) any death, injury to a person, damage to property or environmental harm resulting from the accident; or
 - (iii) any risk of death or of such injury, damage or harm created by the accident.
 - (3C) The fifth situation is where the commanding officer of a person subject to service law or of a person who is a civilian subject to service discipline has reasonable cause to believe that—
 - (a) there has been an accident which resulted in or created a risk of—
 - (i) death;
 - (ii) serious injury to any person;
 - (iii) serious damage to property; or
 - (iv) serious environmental harm;
 - (b) the person—
 - (i) was carrying out a safety-critical function at the time of the accident; or
 - (ii) carried out a safety-critical function before the accident; and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) it is possible that the carrying out of the safety-critical function by the person may have caused or contributed to—
 - (i) the occurrence of the accident;
 - (ii) the death, injury, damage or harm; or
 - (iii) the risk of death, injury, damage or harm.”, and
 - (h) in subsection (4)—
 - (i) at the beginning insert “ Where this section applies, ”, and
 - (ii) for “subsection (1) or (3) (“the suspected person”)” substitute “ subsection (1), (3), (3A), (3B) or (3C) (“the affected person”) ”.
- (3) After that section insert—

“93AA Section 93A: interpretation

- (1) In section 93A(1), “safety-critical duty offence” means—
 - (a) an offence under section 20A; or
 - (b) an offence under section 20(1)(a) in respect of a safety-critical duty (as defined in section 93I).
- (2) In section 93A(3A) and (3B)—
 - “aviation function” means a role or activity in connection with aviation that is specified, or of a description specified, by regulations made by the Defence Council for the purposes of those subsections;
 - “marine function” means a role or activity in connection with a ship or ships that is specified, or of a description specified, by regulations made by the Defence Council for the purposes of those subsections.
- (3) The Defence Council may specify a role or activity (or description of role or activity) under subsection (2) only if carrying it out with ability impaired by alcohol or drugs would result in a risk of—
 - (a) death,
 - (b) serious injury to any person,
 - (c) serious damage to property, or
 - (d) serious environmental harm,but this is subject to subsection (4).
- (4) The Defence Council's powers under subsection (2) include power to specify a role or activity that is undertaken in preparation for, or in connection with, the carrying out of a role or activity (or description of role or activity) that satisfies the test in subsection (3), either by specifying such a role or activity generally or by specifying a particular role or activity.
- (5) For the purposes of section 93A(3A) and (3B), an accident does not involve an aircraft or a ship simply because it takes place on an aircraft or ship.
- (6) In section 93A(3C), references to the carrying out of a safety-critical function are to—
 - (a) the performance by a person subject to service law of a duty specified, or of a description specified, by regulations under section 20A(2) or of any other safety-critical duty (as defined in section 93I); or
 - (b) the carrying out by a person who is a civilian subject to service discipline, in the course of the person's employment, of a role or activity which, if it were carried out by a person subject to service law in the course of his or her duty, would be a safety-critical duty.

- (7) References in section 93A and this section to a person carrying out a function include a failure by the person to carry out a function at a time when the person is responsible for carrying it out (and related expressions are to be read accordingly).”
- (4) In section 93B of AFA 2006 (preliminary breath test)—
- (a) in subsection (1), at the beginning insert “ In a situation described in section 93A(1) or (3), ”,
 - (b) in subsection (1)(a), for “suspected” substitute “ affected ”,
 - (c) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) In a situation described in section 93A(3A), (3B) or (3C), a preliminary breath test is a procedure administered by a service policeman under which—

 - (a) the affected person provides a specimen of breath; and
 - (b) the specimen is used for the purpose of obtaining, by means of an approved device, an indication of the proportion of alcohol in the person's breath or blood.”, and

(d) in subsection (3), for “93A(2)” substitute “ 93A(1)(a) ”.
- (5) In section 93C of AFA 2006 (preliminary impairment test), in subsection (1)(a) and (b), for “suspected” substitute “ affected ”.
- (6) In section 93D of AFA 2006 (preliminary drug test), in subsection (1)(a), for “suspected” substitute “ affected ”.
- (7) In section 93I of AFA 2006 (definitions for the purposes of Chapter 3A of Part 3), in the definition of “safety-critical duty”, after “93A(1)” insert “ , 93AA(6)(a) ”.
- (8) In section 373 of AFA 2006 (regulations etc)—
- (a) in subsection (2) (regulations made by Defence Council), after “36,” insert “ 93AA, ”, and
 - (b) in subsection (3)(d) (affirmative procedure), after “20A,” insert “ 93AA(2), ”.

Investigation and charging

3 Duty of service policeman following investigation

- (1) In section 116(2) of AFA 2006 (cases that must be referred to the Director of Service Prosecutions following investigation by service or civilian police)—
- (a) in paragraph (a), for “a Schedule 2 offence” substitute “ a service offence that is not a CO offence ”, and
 - (b) in paragraph (b), for “any other service offence” substitute “ a service offence that is a CO offence ”.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In section 116(3) of AFA 2006 (cases that must be referred to the commanding officer following investigation by service or civilian police)—
 - (a) omit “and” at the end of paragraph (a), and
 - (b) after paragraph (b) insert “, and
 - (c) section 117(5) (referral of connected cases to DSP) does not apply.”.
- (3) In section 116(4) of AFA 2006 (obligation to consult the Director of Service Prosecutions about certain cases)—
 - (a) in paragraph (a), for “a Schedule 2 offence has or might have been committed” substitute “ a person has committed, or might have committed, a service offence which is not one that may be dealt with at a summary hearing (see section 53) ”, and
 - (b) in the words after paragraph (b), at the end insert “ or section 117(5) ”.
- (4) In section 116(5) of AFA 2006 (interpretation of section 116)—
 - (a) for “For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3)” substitute “For the purposes of this section—
 - (a)”,
 - and
 - (b) at the end insert “, and
 - (b) a service offence committed by a person is a “CO offence” if a charge against the person in respect of the offence is capable of being heard summarily by the person's commanding officer (see section 52).”
- (5) In section 117 of AFA 2006 (section 116: position where investigation is of multiple offences or offenders), for subsection (3) substitute—
 - “(3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if—
 - (a) at least one of the cases has been, or must be, referred to the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”) under section 116(2),
 - (b) a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence in another of the cases,
 - (c) that case is not required to be referred to the Director under section 116(2), and
 - (d) the service policeman considers that there is, or may be, a connection between a case falling within paragraph (a) and the case falling within paragraph (c), whether direct or indirect, that makes it appropriate for both cases to be referred to the Director.
 - (4) The service policeman must consult the Director about the existence and nature of the connection between those cases.
 - (5) Following that consultation, if the service policeman considers that there is a connection described in subsection (3)(d), the service policeman must refer the case falling within subsection (3)(c) to the Director.
 - (6) The reference in this section to there being sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence is to be read in accordance with section 116(5) (a).”

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) In section 118 of AFA 2006 (duty of service policeman to notify commanding officer of referral to the Director of Service Prosecutions)—
- (a) in subsection (1), after “116(2)” insert “ or 117(5) ”,
 - (b) for subsection (3) substitute—
 - “(3) A notification under subsection (2)(a) must specify the service offence that the service policeman considers there is sufficient evidence to charge A with.
 - (3A) Where that offence is a CO offence, the notification must—
 - (a) specify whether the case is referred under section 116(2) or 117(5), and
 - (b) if the case is referred under section 116(2), specify the circumstances that bring the case within section 116(2)(b).”,
 - (c) in subsection (4)(a), for “section 116(5)” substitute “ section 116(5)(a) ”,
 - (d) in subsection (4), after paragraph (a) insert—
 - “(aa) any reference to a CO offence is to be read in accordance with section 116(5)(b);”, and
 - (e) omit subsection (5).
- (7) In section 121(1) of AFA 2006 (power of the Director of Service Prosecutions to direct bringing of charges etc), after paragraph (a) (but before “or”) insert—
- “(aa) section 117(5) (referral of connected cases);”.
- (8) In Schedule 2 to AFA 2006 (Schedule 2 offences for the purposes of Part 5), in the shoulder reference, for “Sections 113, 116” substitute “ Section 113 ”.
- (9) In consequence of the substitution of section 117(3) of AFA 2006, omit paragraph 5(2) of Schedule 3 to the Armed Forces Act 2011.

VALID FROM 01/07/2019

Suspended sentences of service detention

6 Period for which sentence of service detention may be suspended

- (1) In section 190 of AFA 2006 (suspension of sentence of service detention), for subsection (2) (length of period of suspension) substitute—

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

“(2) The operational period must be a period of not less than 3 months beginning with the date of the order made under this section.

(2A) The maximum length of the operational period is—

- (a) where subsection (2B) applies, 24 months; and
- (b) otherwise, 12 months.

(2B) This subsection applies where the order under this section is made by—

- (a) the Court Martial,
- (b) the Court Martial Appeal Court, or
- (c) the Supreme Court on an appeal brought from the Court Martial Appeal Court, except where the order is made in circumstances in which Schedule 3A applies (sentencing powers in cases involving election under section 129 for trial by Court Martial) or on an appeal arising out of a case in which that Schedule applied.”

(2) The amendment made by this section applies only in relation to an order relating to a sentence of service detention for an offence committed on or after the day on which it comes into force.

(3) Where an offence is found to have been committed over a period of 2 or more days, or at some time during a period of 2 or more days, it must be taken for the purposes of subsection (2) to have been committed on the first of those days.

PROSPECTIVE

Offenders assisting investigations and prosecutions

7 Immunity from prosecution

In AFA 2006, after Part 12 insert—

“PART 12A

304A Immunity from prosecution

- (1) If the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”) thinks that, for the purposes of the investigation or prosecution of a relevant service offence, it is appropriate to offer a person immunity from prosecution for a service offence, the Director may give the person a written notice under this subsection (an “immunity notice”).
- (2) “Relevant service offence” means—
 - (a) an offence under section 42 as respects which the corresponding offence under the law of England and Wales is an indictable offence under that law; or

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(b) any other service offence which, if committed by a person aged 18 or over and tried by the Court Martial, is punishable with imprisonment for more than 2 years.

(3) If a person is given an immunity notice, the person may not be tried for a service offence of a description specified in the notice except in circumstances specified in the notice.

(4) An immunity notice ceases to have effect in relation to the person to whom it is given if the person fails to comply with any conditions specified in the notice.”

8 Undertakings as to use of evidence

After section 304A of AFA 2006 insert—

“304B Undertakings as to use of evidence

(1) If the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”) thinks that, for the purposes of the investigation or prosecution of a relevant service offence, it is appropriate to offer a person an undertaking that information will not be used against the person in service proceedings, the Director may give the person a written notice under this subsection (a “restricted use undertaking”).

(2) If a person is given a restricted use undertaking, the information described in the undertaking must not be used against that person in service proceedings except in the circumstances specified in the undertaking.

(3) In subsections (1) and (2), the references to the use of information in service proceedings are to its use—

(a) at a summary hearing in respect of a service offence, or

(b) in proceedings in respect of a service offence before—

(i) the Court Martial;

(ii) the Service Civilian Court;

(iii) the Summary Appeal Court;

(iv) the Court Martial Appeal Court; or

(v) the Supreme Court on an appeal brought from the Court Martial Appeal Court.

(4) A restricted use undertaking ceases to have effect in relation to the person to whom it is given if the person fails to comply with any conditions specified in the undertaking.

(5) In this section “relevant service offence” has the same meaning as in section 304A.”

9 Reduction in sentence

After section 304B of AFA 2006 insert—

“304C Reduction in sentence

(1) This section applies if a defendant—

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) is convicted of a service offence following a plea of guilty in proceedings in the Court Martial; and
 - (b) has, pursuant to a written agreement made with the Director of Service Prosecutions, assisted or offered to assist the investigator or prosecutor in relation to that or any other offence.
- (2) In determining what sentence to pass on the defendant, the Court Martial may take into account the extent and nature of the assistance given or offered.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the court from also taking account of any other matter which it is entitled by virtue of any other enactment to take account of for the purposes of determining the sentence.
- (4) The power of a court to act under subsection (2) is not affected by any enactment which requires that a minimum sentence is passed in respect of an offence or an offence of a particular description or by reference to the circumstances of an offender (whether or not the enactment also permits the court to pass a lesser sentence in particular circumstances).
- (5) The power of a court to act under subsection (2) is not affected by any enactment which, in the case of a sentence which is fixed by law, requires the court to take into account certain matters for the purposes of making an order which determines, or has the effect of determining, the minimum period of imprisonment or detention which the offender must serve (whether or not the enactment also permits the court to fix a lesser period in particular circumstances).
- (6) In this section, references to assisting the prosecutor are to assisting the Director or any other prosecutor.”

10 Review of sentence following offer of assistance

After section 304C of AFA 2006 insert—

“304D Review of sentence following offer of assistance

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the Court Martial has passed a sentence on a person in respect of a service offence;
 - (b) the sentence for the offence is not fixed by law or, if it is, the person pleaded guilty; and
 - (c) the person falls within subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) A person falls within this subsection if the person—
- (a) received a discounted sentence in consequence of having offered, in accordance with a written agreement with the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”), to give assistance to the investigator or prosecutor of an offence; and
 - (b) having given the assistance in accordance with the agreement, in accordance with another written agreement with the Director gives or offers to give further assistance to the investigator or prosecutor of an offence.
- (3) A person falls within this subsection if the person—

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) received a sentence which was not discounted; and
 - (b) in accordance with a written agreement with the Director subsequently gives or offers to give assistance to the investigator or prosecutor of an offence.
- (4) The Director may at any time refer the case back to the Court Martial if—
 - (a) the person is still serving the sentence; and
 - (b) the Director thinks it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (5) The Court Martial dealing with a referral under this section must, if possible, consist of the people who were the members of the Court Martial when it passed the sentence to which the referral relates.
- (6) The Court Martial may—
 - (a) take into account the extent and nature of the assistance given or offered; and
 - (b) substitute for the sentence to which the referral relates such lesser sentence as it thinks appropriate.
- (7) Any part of the sentence to which the referral relates which the person has already served must be taken into account in determining when a lesser sentence imposed under this section has been served.
- (8) A person in respect of whom a referral is made under this section may, with the leave of the Court Martial Appeal Court, appeal to that court against a decision of the Court Martial under this section.
- (9) The Director may, with the leave of the Court Martial Appeal Court, appeal to that court against such a decision.
- (10) In relation to any proceedings under this section, the Secretary of State may make regulations containing provision corresponding to any provision in Parts 2 to 4 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968, with or without modifications (but this is subject to subsection (11)).
- (11) Regulations under subsection (10)—
 - (a) may not make provision corresponding to provision which may be included in regulations made by the Lord Chancellor under section 31A, 33, 33A, 46A or 47 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968;
 - (b) may confer power to make regulations corresponding to the power in section 31A, 33, 33A, 46A or 47 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968 only if they provide that a statutory instrument containing such regulations (whether alone or with other provision) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (12) Section 1(4) of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968 (limitation on appeal from the Court Martial Appeal Court) does not prevent an appeal to the Supreme Court in accordance with regulations made under this section.
- (13) Subsections (3) to (5) of section 304C apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of that section but as if the references to subsection (2) of that section were references to subsection (6) of this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/05/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(14) In this section—

- (a) “discounted sentence” means a sentence passed in accordance with section 304C or this section;
- (b) references to assisting the prosecutor are to assisting the Director or any other prosecutor.”

11 Review of sentence following failure to assist

After section 304D of AFA 2006 insert—

“304E Review of sentence following failure to assist

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the Court Martial has passed a sentence on a person in respect of a service offence;
- (b) the sentence for the offence is not fixed by law or, if it is, the person pleaded guilty;
- (c) the person received a discounted sentence in consequence of having offered, in accordance with a written agreement with the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”), to give assistance to the investigator or prosecutor of an offence; and
- (d) the person fails to any extent to give assistance in accordance with the agreement.

(2) The Director may at any time refer the case back to the Court Martial if—

- (a) the person is still serving the sentence; and
- (b) the Director thinks it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) The Court Martial dealing with a referral under this section must, if possible, consist of the people who were the members of the Court Martial when it passed the sentence to which the referral relates.

(4) If the Court Martial is satisfied that the person knowingly failed to give the assistance, it may substitute for the sentence to which the referral relates such greater sentence as it thinks appropriate.

(5) A greater sentence imposed under this section must not exceed the sentence which the court would have passed but for the agreement to give assistance.

(6) Any part of the sentence to which the referral relates which the person has already served must be taken into account in determining when a greater sentence imposed under this section has been served.

(7) A person in respect of whom a referral is made under this section may, with the leave of the Court Martial Appeal Court, appeal to that court against a decision of the Court Martial under this section.

(8) The Director may, with the leave of the Court Martial Appeal Court, appeal to that court against such a decision.

(9) In relation to any proceedings under this section, the Secretary of State may make regulations containing provision corresponding to any provision in Parts

2 to 4 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968, with or without modifications (but this is subject to subsection (10)).

- (10) Regulations under subsection (9)—
- (a) may not make provision corresponding to provision which may be included in regulations made by the Lord Chancellor under section 31A, 33, 33A, 46A or 47 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968;
 - (b) may confer power to make regulations corresponding to the power in section 31A, 33, 33A, 46A or 47 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968 only if they provide that a statutory instrument containing such regulations (whether alone or with other provision) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (11) Section 1(4) of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1968 (limitation on appeal from the Court Martial Appeal Court) does not prevent an appeal to the Supreme Court in accordance with regulations made under this section.
- (12) In this section—
- (a) “discounted sentence” means a sentence passed in accordance with section 304C or 304D;
 - (b) references to assisting the prosecutor are to assisting the Director or any other prosecutor.”

12 Supplementary provision

After section 304E of AFA 2006 insert—

“304F Sections 304C to 304E: statements in open court

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply if, in accordance with section 304C or 304D, a court passes or substitutes a lesser sentence than it would have passed if the assistance mentioned in those sections had not been given or offered (a “discounted sentence”).
- (2) The court must state in open court—
 - (a) that it has passed or substituted a discounted sentence; and
 - (b) what the greater sentence would have been.
- (3) If the court thinks that it would not be in the public interest to disclose that the sentence is a discounted sentence—
 - (a) subsection (2) does not apply;
 - (b) the court must give written notice of the matters specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection to both the prosecutor and the defendant; and
 - (c) section 252 (duty to give reasons and explain sentence) does not apply to the extent that it would require the court to disclose that it has passed or substituted a discounted sentence.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if a court—
 - (a) substitutes a sentence in accordance with section 304E; and

(b) thinks that it would not be in the public interest to disclose that the person received a discounted sentence under section 304C or 304D.

(5) Section 252 (duty to give reasons and explain sentence) does not apply to the extent that it would require the court to disclose that the person received a discounted sentence.

304G Sections 304D and 304E: exclusion of public from review proceedings

(1) This section applies to—

- (a) proceedings relating to a referral made under section 304D or 304E; and
- (b) any other proceedings arising in consequence of such proceedings.

(2) The court in which the proceedings will be or are being heard may make such order as it thinks appropriate—

- (a) to exclude a person from the proceedings;
- (b) to give such directions as it thinks appropriate prohibiting the publication of any matter relating to the proceedings (including the fact that the referral has been made).

(3) The power under subsection (2)(a) does not include power to exclude—

- (a) a member or officer of the court;
- (b) a party to the proceedings;
- (c) a prosecuting officer dealing with the proceedings;
- (d) counsel or a solicitor for a party to the proceedings;
- (e) a person otherwise directly concerned with the proceedings.

(4) An order under subsection (2) may be made only to the extent that the court thinks—

- (a) that it is necessary to do so to protect the safety of any person; and
- (b) that it is in the interests of justice.

(5) This section does not affect any other power which the court has by virtue of any rule of law or other enactment—

- (a) to exclude a person from proceedings; or
- (b) to restrict the publication of matters relating to proceedings.

304H Meaning of “sentence”

In this Part—

- (a) “sentence” includes any order made by a court when dealing with an offender in respect of an offence; and
- (b) a reference to a greater or lesser sentence must be interpreted accordingly.”
