

Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER 10

PART 1

FINANCIAL GUIDANCE ETC

Unsolicited direct marketing approaches

21 Unsolicited direct marketing: pensions

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations prohibiting unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) make provision about when a communication is to be, or is not to be, treated as unsolicited;
 - (b) make provision for exceptions to the prohibition;
 - (c) confer functions on the Information Commissioner and on OFCOM (including conferring a discretion);
 - (d) apply (with or without modifications) provisions of the data protection legislation or the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/2426) (including, in particular, provisions relating to enforcement).
- (3) The regulations may—
 - (a) make different provision for different purposes;
 - (b) make different provision for different areas;
 - (c) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (4) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) If before the end of June in any year the Secretary of State has not made regulations under this section (whether or not in that year), the Secretary of State must—
- (a) publish a statement, by the end of July in that year, explaining why regulations have not been made and setting a timetable for making the regulations, and
 - (b) lay the statement before each House of Parliament.
- (7) In this section, “OFCOM” means the Office of Communications established by section 1 of the Office of Communications Act 2002.
