- (4) After section 2 insert—

“2A Temporary exemptions for international operators

- (1) The Department for Infrastructure may grant an international operator a temporary exemption from any requirement to hold a standard licence which would otherwise be imposed by sections 1 and 2, for the purpose of—
 - (a) enabling an emergency to be dealt with, or
 - (b) enabling some other special need to be met.
- (2) A temporary exemption under subsection (1) may be granted—
 - (a) by giving a notice in writing to the operator to whom it relates, or
 - (b) by publishing a notice specifying the class of operators to whom it relates.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Haulage Permits and Trailer Registration Act 2018, Section 12. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A notice under subsection (2) must specify—
 - (a) the vehicle or class of vehicles to which it relates;
 - (b) the transport operations to which it relates, or that it relates to all transport operations.
- (4) A temporary exemption under subsection (1) permits the person to whom it relates to use the specified vehicle or (as the case may be) any vehicle of the specified class for the carriage of goods for the purposes of the transport operations to which it relates.
- (5) Accordingly, sections 1(1) and 2(6) do not to that extent apply to that person's use of goods vehicles.
- (6) In this section “international operator” means a person who is not established in the United Kingdom.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6) a person is established in the United Kingdom if the person has an effective and stable establishment in the United Kingdom (as determined in accordance with Article 5 of the 2009 Regulation).”
- (5) In section 3 (temporary exemptions relating to certain national transport operations)—
 - (a) in the heading, at the beginning, insert “ Other ”;
 - (b) after subsection (1) insert—
 - “(1A) Where the Department for Infrastructure considers it appropriate (for example because an exemption is to be granted to all persons falling within subsection (2)), an exemption under subsection (1) may be granted by publishing a notice in writing instead of by giving notice in writing to the persons to whom the exemption is granted.”
