

Crime (Overseas Production Orders) Act 2019

2019 CHAPTER 5

Overseas production orders

6 Effect of order

- (1) A requirement in an overseas production order to produce the electronic data specified or described in the order is a requirement to produce the electronic data in a form—
  - (a) in which it can be taken away, and
  - (b) in which it is visible and legible or from which it can readily be produced in a visible and legible form.
- (2) A requirement in an overseas production order to give access to the electronic data specified or described in the order is a requirement—
  - (a) to give access to the electronic data in a form in which it is visible and legible, and
  - (b) if so required by the specified person or, as the case may be, by a person of the specified description, to produce the electronic data in a form—
    - (i) in which it can be taken away, and
    - (ii) in which it is visible and legible or from which it can readily be produced in a visible and legible form.
- (3) In subsection (2)(b), “specified” means specified in the overseas production order by virtue of section 5(4)(a).
- (4) The requirement to produce or, as the case may be, give access to electronic data imposed by an overseas production order on the person against whom it is made—
  - (a) applies regardless of where the electronic data is stored,
  - (b) does not require the person to produce or, as the case may be, give access to any electronic data that is excepted electronic data,
  - (c) does not require the person to do anything that (taking into account the existence of the overseas production order) would result in the person contravening the data protection legislation, and
