- (a) treat the fact that it was committed in those circumstances as an aggravating factor, and
- (b) state in open court that the offence is so aggravated.

65 Previous convictions

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence ("the current offence") committed by an offender who has one or more relevant previous convictions.
- (2) The court must treat as an aggravating factor each relevant previous conviction that it considers can reasonably be so treated, having regard in particular to—
 - (a) the nature of the offence to which the relevant previous conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence, and
 - (b) the time that has elapsed since the relevant previous conviction.

- (3) Where the court treats a relevant previous conviction as an aggravating factor under subsection (2) it must state in open court that the offence is so aggravated.
- (4) In subsections (1) to (3) "relevant previous conviction" means—
 - (a) a previous conviction by a court in the United Kingdom,

- (6) In subsection (4)(d) "member State service offence" means an offence which—
 - (a) was the subject of proceedings under the service law of a member State other than the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) would constitute an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, or a service offence (within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006), if it were done in any part of the United Kingdom, by a member of Her Majesty's forces, at the time of the conviction of the offender for the current offence,

and, for this purpose-
