CHAPTER 1 U.K.

CALL-IN POWER

1 Call-in notice for national security purposes U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State may give a notice if the Secretary of State reasonably suspects that—
  - (a) a trigger event has taken place in relation to a qualifying entity or qualifying asset, and the event has given rise to or may give rise to a risk to national security, or
  - (b) arrangements are in progress or contemplation which, if carried into effect, will result in a trigger event taking place in relation to a qualifying entity or qualifying asset, and the event may give rise to a risk to national security.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, in considering whether a trigger event has taken place, or whether arrangements are in progress or contemplation which, if carried into effect, will result in a trigger event taking place, the effect of section 13(1) (notifiable acquisitions that are void) must be disregarded.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) is referred to in this Act as a call-in notice.
- (4) If the Secretary of State decides to give a call-in notice, the notice must be given to—
  - (a) the acquirer,
