

National Security and Investment Act 2021

2021 CHAPTER 25

REMEDIES

Assessment period

24 Effect of information notice and attendance notice

- (1) This section applies if an information notice or an attendance notice is given at any time during the assessment period in relation to a call-in notice.
- (2) As soon as practicable after giving the information notice or attendance notice, the Secretary of State must notify each relevant person of—
 - (a) the fact that an information notice or attendance notice has been given, and
 - (b) the time limit specified in the notice for complying with the requirements of the notice.
- (3) As soon as practicable after—
 - (a) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the requirements of the information notice or the attendance notice have been complied with, or
 - (b) (if earlier) the time specified in the information notice or the attendance notice for complying with those requirements has passed,the Secretary of State must notify each relevant person confirming that fact.
- (4) Any day falling within the period beginning with the day on which the notice under subsection (2) is given and ending with the day on which a notice under subsection (3) is given does not count for the purposes of calculating the initial, additional or voluntary period under section 23.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(5) In this section “relevant person” means each person to whom the call-in notice was given.
