2022 CHAPTER 32

PART 6

CAUTIONS

Diversionary cautions

PROSPECTIVE

102 Financial penalty conditions

- (1) A condition requiring the offender to pay a financial penalty may be attached to a diversionary caution with the object of punishing the offender.
- (2) The condition must specify—
  - (a) the amount of the financial penalty,
  - (b) the person to whom the financial penalty must be paid,
  - (c) how it must or may be paid, and
  - (d) the date on or before which it must be paid.
- (3) The amount specified under subsection (2)(a) must not exceed an amount prescribed in regulations.
- (4) Where the person specified under subsection (2)(b) is not the designated officer for a magistrates' court, once the penalty is paid to that person they must give it to such an officer.
- (5) The date specified under subsection (2)(d) must be the last day of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the caution is given.
