BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

JUDICIAL REVIEW

1 Quashing orders

(1) After section 29 of the Senior Courts Act 1981 insert—

“29A Further provision in connection with quashing orders

- (1) A quashing order may include provision—
 - (a) for the quashing not to take effect until a date specified in the order, or
 - (b) removing or limiting any retrospective effect of the quashing.
- (2) Provision included in a quashing order under subsection (1) may be made subject to conditions.
- (3) If a quashing order includes provision under subsection (1)(a), the impugned act is (subject to any conditions under subsection (2)) upheld until the quashing takes effect.

- (4) If a quashing order includes provision under subsection (1)(b), the impugned act is (subject to any conditions under subsection (2)) upheld in any respect in which the provision under subsection (1)(b) prevents it from being quashed.
- (5) Where (and to the extent that) an impugned act is upheld by virtue of subsection (3) or (4), it is to be treated for all purposes as if its validity and force were, and always had been, unimpaired by the relevant defect.
- (6) Provision under subsection (1)(a) does not limit any retrospective effect of a quashing order once the quashing takes effect (including in relation to the period between the making of the order and the taking effect of the quashing); and subsections (3) and (5) are to be read accordingly.
- (7) Section 29(2) does not prevent the court from varying a date specified under subsection (1)(a).
- (8) In deciding whether to exercise a power in subsection (1), the court must have regard to—
 - (a) the nature and circumstances of the relevant defect;
 - (b) any detriment to good administration that would result from exercising or failing to exercise the power;
 - (c) the interests or expectations of persons who would benefit from the quashing of the impugned act;
 - (d) the interests or expectations of persons who have relied on the impugned act;
 - (e) so far as appears to the court to be relevant, any action taken or proposed to be taken, or undertaking given, by a person with responsibility in connection with the impugned act;
 - (f) any other matter that appears to the court to be relevant.
- (9) In this section—

“impugned act” means the thing (or purported thing) being quashed by the quashing order;

“relevant defect” means the defect, failure or other matter on the ground of which the court is making the quashing order.”
- (2) In section 31 of the Senior Courts Act 1981 (judicial review)—
 - (a) in subsection (5), for “quashes” substitute “makes a quashing order in respect of”;
 - (b) in subsection (5A)(b), for “decision is quashed” substitute “quashing order is made”.
- (3) In section 17 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (supplementary provision about quashing orders made by the Upper Tribunal)—

- (a) before subsection (1) insert—
 - “(A1) In cases arising under the law of England and Wales, section 29A of the Senior Courts Act 1981 applies in relation to a quashing order under section 15(1)(c) of this Act as it applies in relation to a quashing order under section 29 of that Act.”;
 - (b) in subsection (2)(b), for “decision is quashed” substitute “quashing order is made”.
- (4) The amendments made by subsections (1) to (3) have effect only in relation to proceedings commenced on or after the day on which this section comes into force.

2 Exclusion of review of Upper Tribunal’s permission-to-appeal decisions

- (1) In the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007, after section 11 insert—
- “11A Finality of decisions by Upper Tribunal about permission to appeal
- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply in relation to a decision by the Upper Tribunal to refuse permission (or leave) to appeal further to an application under section 11(4)(b).
 - (2) The decision is final, and not liable to be questioned or set aside in any other court.
 - (3) In particular—
 - (a) the Upper Tribunal is not to be regarded as having exceeded its powers by reason of any error made in reaching the decision;
 - (b) the supervisory jurisdiction does not extend to, and no application or petition for judicial review may be made or brought in relation to, the decision.
 - (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply so far as the decision involves or gives rise to any question as to whether—
 - (a) the Upper Tribunal has or had a valid application before it under section 11(4)(b),
 - (b) the Upper Tribunal is or was properly constituted for the purpose of dealing with the application, or
 - (c) the Upper Tribunal is acting or has acted—
 - (i) in bad faith, or
 - (ii) in such a procedurally defective way as amounts to a fundamental breach of the principles of natural justice.
 - (5) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply so far as provision giving the First-tier Tribunal jurisdiction to make the first-instance decision could (if the Tribunal did not already have that jurisdiction) be made by—
 - (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament, or
 - (b) an Act of the Northern Ireland Assembly the Bill for which would not require the consent of the Secretary of State.

- (6) The court of supervisory jurisdiction is not to entertain any application or petition for judicial review in respect of a decision of the First-tier Tribunal that it would not entertain (whether as a matter of law or discretion) in the absence of this section.
- (7) In this section –
- “decision” includes any purported decision;
 - “first-instance decision” means the decision in relation to which permission (or leave) to appeal is being sought under section 11(4)(b);
 - “the supervisory jurisdiction” means the supervisory jurisdiction of –
 - (a) the High Court, in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) the Court of Session, in Scotland,and “the court of supervisory jurisdiction” is to be read accordingly.”
- (2) The amendment made by subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a decision (including any purported decision) of the Upper Tribunal made before the day on which this section comes into force.

“Automatic online conviction and penalty for certain summary offences

16G The automatic online conviction option

- (1) In this Act a reference to a person being offered the automatic online conviction option in respect of an offence is a reference to the person being given an electronic notification which explains that if the person intends to plead guilty the person may agree –
- (a) to be convicted of the offence under section 16H, and
 - (b) to be penalised for the offence under section 16I.

- (2) In this Act a reference to a person accepting the automatic online conviction option in respect of an offence is a reference to the person giving an electronic notification which indicates that the person—

 - (b) agrees to be convicted of the offence under section 16H, and
 - (c) agrees to be penalised for the offence under section 16L.
- (3) A notification purporting to be given by a person (or the person’s legal representative) is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (2) as a notification given by that person.
- (4) In this section “electronic notification” means a written notification given—
 - (a) by electronic means,
 - (b) under such arrangements as are put in place by the Lord Chancellor for the purposes of this section and sections 16H to 16L, and

 - (b) the person is offered, and accepts, the automatic online conviction option in respect of the offence.
- (2) The accused is convicted of the offence by virtue of accepting the automatic online conviction option.
- (3) For the purposes of this section the qualifying conditions are met if—
 - (a) regulations made by the Lord Chancellor specify the offence as one for which the automatic online conviction option may be offered;
 - (b) the accused had attained the age of 18 years when charged, or is not an individual;
 - (c) the required documents have been served on the accused; and
 - (d) service of all of the required documents was effected in accordance with Criminal Procedure Rules.

- (6) In this section, “required documents” means –
- (a) a written charge,
 - (b) a single justice procedure notice that complies with subsection (2D) of section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, and

- (3) A magistrates' court carrying out functions under subsection (1) may be composed of a single justice.

- (4) But if a magistrates' court composed of a single justice is minded to refuse to set aside a conviction –
 - (a) the decision must instead be referred to a magistrates' court that is not so composed; and
 - (b) the parties must be given the opportunity to attend at, and make representations to, the magistrates' court making that decision.
- (5) A magistrates' court –

Offences triable either way: determining the mode of trial

6 Written procedure for indicating plea and determining mode of trial: adults

- (1) The Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 17 insert –

“17ZA Option to indicate plea in writing

- (1) Subsection (3) has effect where a person is charged with an offence triable either way and –
 - (a) has attained the age of 18 years when charged, or
 - (b) attains the age of 18 years after being charged without first having –
 - (i) appeared in court to answer the charge, or
 - (ii) given, or failed to give, a written indication of plea within the meaning given by section 24ZA(11).
- (2) But Criminal Procedure Rules may make provision about circumstances in which subsection (3) does not have effect.
- (3) A magistrates’ court must, in writing –
 - (a) provide the accused with the information referred to in subsection (4), and
 - (b) ask the accused –
 - (i) whether the accused wishes to give a written indication of plea, and
 - (ii) if the accused wishes to do so, whether (if the offence were to proceed to trial) the accused would plead guilty or not guilty.
- (4) The information is –
 - (a) a statement of the charge against the accused;
 - (b) an explanation, including such details as may be prescribed by Criminal Procedure Rules, of –

 - (c) an explanation of the way in which, and the period of time within which, the accused may give a written indication of plea;
 - (d) any other information that –

 - (ii) Criminal Procedure Rules allow to be provided and the court decides to provide.
- (5) If the accused gives a written indication of a guilty plea, the court is to proceed in accordance with section 17ZB.
- (6) If the accused gives a written indication of a not guilty plea, the court is to proceed in accordance with section 17ZC or (if neither subsection (3) nor subsection (5) of that section has effect) section 18(1A).

- (7) If the accused fails to give a written indication of plea, the court is to proceed by way of a hearing for the purposes of section 17A.
- (8) The following shall not for any purpose be taken to constitute the taking of a plea –
- (a) asking the accused under this section whether (if the offence were to proceed to trial) the accused would plead guilty or not guilty; or
 - (b) giving a written indication of plea.
- (9) If in respect of the offence the court receives a notice under section 51B or 51C of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (which relate to serious or complex fraud cases and to certain cases involving children respectively), the preceding provisions of this section do not apply, and the court must proceed in relation to the offence in accordance with section 51 or, as the case may be, section 51A of that Act.
- (10) Subsection (11) applies if –
- (a) the accused gives a written indication of plea, and
 - (b) at any time before –
 - (i) the taking of a plea in the summary trial,
 - (ii) the hearing under section 18(1A), or
 - (iii) the sending of the accused to the Crown Court for trial, the court receives an indication from the accused that the accused wishes to withdraw the written indication of plea.
- (11) If this subsection applies –
- (a) the designated officer for the court must inform the prosecutor of the withdrawal,
 - (b) the court is to cease to proceed in accordance with any of sections 17ZB, 17ZC and 18(1A) and (4A), and
 - (c) the court is to proceed by way of a hearing for the purposes of section 17A.
- (12) The reference in subsection (1) to a person charged with an offence is a reference to –
- (a) a person in respect of whom a summons or warrant has been issued under section 1,
 - (b) a person who has been charged with an offence under Part 4 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, or
 - (c) a person against whom a written charge and requisition have been issued under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.
- (13) In this section and sections 17ZB to 18 –
- (a) “written indication of plea” means a written indication given –
 - (i) by a person who has been provided with the information and asked the questions required by subsection (3), and

- (ii) in accordance with the explanation provided under subsection (4)(c), of whether (if the offence were to proceed to trial) that person would plead guilty or not guilty;
- (b) “written indication of a guilty plea” and “written indication of a not guilty plea” are to be read accordingly;
- (c) references to a person’s failing to give a written indication of plea are to a person’s—
 - (i) having been provided with the information and asked the questions required by subsection (3), and
 - (ii) not having given a written indication of plea within the period indicated under subsection (4)(c).

17ZB Proceedings following written indication of guilty plea

- (1) This section has effect (subject to section 17ZA(11)) in relation to a case where a person has given a written indication of a guilty plea (see section 17ZA(13)).
- (2) But Criminal Procedure Rules may make provision about circumstances in which subsections (3) to (8) do not have effect.
- (3) A magistrates’ court may consider whether the condition set out in subsection (4) is met.
- (4) The condition is that the court can, on the material before it (without any hearing or representations), be satisfied that it is highly likely that, were the accused to plead guilty at a summary trial of the offence in question and be convicted, the court would commit the accused to the Crown Court for sentence under Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Sentencing Code.
- (5) If the court decides that that condition is met, the court may, in writing—
 - (a) provide the accused with the information referred to in subsection (6), and
 - (b) ask the accused whether the accused objects to being sent to the Crown Court for trial for the offence.
- (6) The information is—
 - (a) an explanation, including such details as may be prescribed by Criminal Procedure Rules, of—
 - (i) why the accused is being asked the question set out in subsection (5)(b), and
 - (ii) the consequences of objecting or failing to object to being sent to the Crown Court for trial;
 - (b) an explanation of the way in which, and the period of time within which, the accused may object to being so sent;
 - (c) any other information that—

- (i) Criminal Procedure Rules require to be provided, or
 - (ii) Criminal Procedure Rules allow to be provided and the court decides to provide.
- (7) If the court exercises the power in subsection (5) it must also, in writing—
 - (a) inform the prosecutor that the court has—
 - (i) decided that the condition set out in subsection (4) is met, and
 - (ii) exercised the power in subsection (5) in relation to the accused;
 - (b) explain the way in which, and the period of time within which, the prosecutor may object to the accused’s being sent to the Crown Court for trial for the offence; and
 - (c) ask the prosecutor whether the prosecutor objects to the accused’s being sent to the Crown Court for trial for the offence.
- (8) If—
 - (a) the court has exercised the power in subsection (5),
 - (b) subsection (7) has been complied with,
 - (c) the accused has not objected, in accordance with the explanation provided under subsection (6)(b), to being sent to the Crown Court for trial for the offence, and
 - (d) the prosecutor has not objected, in accordance with the explanation provided under subsection (7)(b), to the accused’s being sent to the Crown Court for trial for the offence, the court is to proceed in relation to the offence in accordance with section 51 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998.
- (9) If subsection (8) does not apply, the court is to proceed to try the offence summarily under section 9.
