2022 CHAPTER 46

PART 1

PRODUCT SECURITY

CHAPTER 3

ENFORCEMENT

Miscellaneous and supplementary

51 Liability of authorised representatives

- (1) This section applies where a manufacturer that is not established in the United Kingdom authorises a person in the United Kingdom, with the agreement of that person, to perform any of the duties listed in subsection (3) on behalf of the manufacturer.
- (2) In this Part “authorised representative”, in relation to a manufacturer, means a person authorised by the manufacturer as mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The duties referred to in subsection (1) are—
  - (a) any duties under regulations made under section 9(6) (duties relating to statements of compliance);
  - (b) the duties under section 11(2) and (3) (duties to take action in relation to compliance failures);
  - (c) the duty under section 12(1) (duty to maintain records).
- (4) If the authorised representative fails to comply with the duty, the authorised representative may be proceeded against under this Part for failing to comply with the duty.
