

Supply and Appropriation (Anticipation and Adjustments) Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 5

Further supplementary provision for 2022-23

2 Authorisation of further supplementary provision for 2022-23

- (1) The amount up to which the authorisation was conferred for the use of resources for the year ending with 31 March 2023 is to be treated as reduced by £1,987,407,000.
- (2) In relation to the amount treated as authorised by subsection (1)—
 - (a) the amount up to which there is authorisation for use for current purposes is to be treated as further increased by £10,850,816,000, and
 - (b) the amount up to which there is authorisation for use for capital purposes is to be treated as reduced by £12,838,223,000.
- (3) The amount up to which authorisation was conferred on the Treasury—
 - (a) to issue money out of the Consolidated Fund, and
 - (b) to apply it in the year ending with 31 March 2023 for expenditure authorised by Parliament, is to be treated as reduced by £24,497,487,000.

(4) The increases and reductions for which this section provides are to be treated as having had effect from the beginning of 1 April 2022.

Commencement Information

II S. 2 in force at Royal Assent

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Supply and Appropriation (Anticipation and Adjustments) Act 2023, Section 2.