

Online Safety Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 50

PART 1

INTRODUCTION

1 Introduction

- (1) This Act provides for a new regulatory framework which has the general purpose of making the use of internet services regulated by this Act safer for individuals in the United Kingdom.
- (2) To achieve that purpose, this Act (among other things)—
  - (a) imposes duties which, in broad terms, require providers of services regulated by this Act to identify, mitigate and manage the risks of harm (including risks which particularly affect individuals with a certain characteristic) from—
    - (i) illegal content and activity, and
    - (ii) content and activity that is harmful to children, and
  - (b) confers new functions and powers on the regulator, OFCOM.
- (3) Duties imposed on providers by this Act seek to secure (among other things) that services regulated by this Act are—
  - (a) safe by design, and
  - (b) designed and operated in such a way that—
    - (i) a higher standard of protection is provided for children than for adults,
    - (ii) users' rights to freedom of expression and privacy are protected, and
    - (iii) transparency and accountability are provided in relation to those services.

2 Overview of Act

- (1) Parts 2 to 9 and 11 and 12 of this Act contain provision about the regulation by OFCOM of certain internet services.

PART 2

KEY DEFINITIONS

3 “User-to-user service” and “search service”

- (1) In this Act “user-to-user service” means an internet service by means of which content that is generated directly on the service by a user of the service, or uploaded to or shared on the service by a user of the service, may be encountered by another user, or other users, of the service.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
  - (a) it does not matter if content is actually shared with another user or users as long as a service has a functionality that allows such sharing;
  - (b) it does not matter what proportion of content on a service is content described in that subsection.
- (3) For the meaning of “content” and “encounter”, see section 236.
- (4) In this Act “search service” means an internet service that is, or includes, a search engine (see section 229).
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) have effect to determine whether an internet service that—
  - (a) is of a kind described in subsection (1), and
  - (b) includes a search engine, is a user-to-user service or a search service for the purposes of this Act.
- (6) It is a search service if the only content described in subsection (1) that is enabled by the service is content of any of the following kinds—

- (a) content mentioned in paragraph 1, 2 or 3 of Schedule 1 (emails, SMS and MMS messages, one-to-one live aural communications) and related identifying content;
  - (b) content arising in connection with any of the activities described in paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 1 (comments etc on provider content);
  - (c) content present on a part of the service in relation to which the conditions in paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 1 are met (internal business service conditions).
- (7) Otherwise, it is a user-to-user service.

4 “Regulated service”, “Part 3 service” etc

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A user-to-user service is a “regulated user-to-user service”, and a search service is a “regulated search service”, if the service—
- (a) has links with the United Kingdom (see subsections (5) and (6)), and
  - (b) is not—
    - (i) a service of a description that is exempt as provided for by Schedule 1, or
    - (ii) a service of a kind described in Schedule 2 (services combining user-generated content or search content not regulated by this Act with pornographic content that is regulated).
- (3) “Part 3 service” means a regulated user-to-user service or a regulated search service.
- (4) “Regulated service” means—
- (a) a regulated user-to-user service,
  - (b) a regulated search service, or
  - (c) an internet service, other than a regulated user-to-user service or a regulated search service, that is within section 80(2) (including a service of a kind described in Schedule 2).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2), a user-to-user service or a search service “has links with the United Kingdom” if—
- (a) the service has a significant number of United Kingdom users, or
  - (b) United Kingdom users form one of the target markets for the service (or the only target market).
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2), a user-to-user service or a search service also “has links with the United Kingdom” if—
- (a) the service is capable of being used in the United Kingdom by individuals, and
  - (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that there is a material risk of significant harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by—
    - (i) in the case of a user-to-user service, user-generated content present on the service or (if the service includes a search engine) search content of the service;
    - (ii) in the case of a search service, search content of the service.
- (7) A regulated user-to-user service that includes a public search engine is referred to in this Act as a “combined service”.

“Public search engine” means a search engine other than one in relation to which the conditions in paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 1 (internal business service conditions) are met.

(8) In this section—

“search content” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 57);

“user-generated content” has the meaning given by section 55 (see subsections (3) and (4) of that section).

5 Disapplication of Act to certain parts of services

(1) This Act does not apply in relation to a part of a Part 3 service if the conditions in paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 1 (internal business service conditions) are met in relation to that part.

(2) This Act does not apply in relation to a part of a regulated search service if—

(a) the only user-generated content enabled by that part of the service is content of any of the following kinds—

(i) content mentioned in paragraph 1, 2 or 3 of Schedule 1 (emails, SMS and MMS messages, one-to-one live aural communications) and related identifying content;

(ii) content arising in connection with any of the activities described in paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 1 (comments etc on provider content); and

(b) no regulated provider pornographic content is published or displayed on that part of the service.

(3) In this section—

“regulated provider pornographic content” and “published or displayed” have the same meaning as in Part 5 (see section 79);

“user-generated content” has the meaning given by section 55 (see subsections (3) and (4) of that section).

PART 3

All services

- (2) A duty, in relation to a service, to take or use proportionate measures relating to the design or operation of the service to effectively—
- mitigate and manage the risks of harm to children in different age groups, as identified in the most recent children’s risk assessment of the service (see section 11(6)(g)), and
  - mitigate the impact of harm to children in different age groups presented by content that is harmful to children present on the service.
- (3) A duty to operate a service using proportionate systems and processes designed to—
- prevent children of any age from encountering, by means of the service, primary priority content that is harmful to children;
  - protect children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from other content that is harmful to children (or from a particular kind of such content) from encountering it by means of the service.
- (4) The duty set out in subsection (3)(a) requires a provider to use age verification or age estimation (or both) to prevent children of any age from encountering primary priority content that is harmful to children which the provider identifies on the service.
- (5) That requirement applies to a provider in relation to a particular kind of primary priority content that is harmful to children in every case except where—
- a term of service indicates (in whatever words) that the presence of that kind of primary priority content that is harmful to children is prohibited on the service, and
  - that policy applies in relation to all users of the service.
- (6) If a provider is required by subsection (4) to use age verification or age estimation for the purpose of compliance with the duty set out in subsection (3)(a), the age verification or age estimation must be of such a kind, and used in such a way, that it is highly effective at correctly determining whether or not a particular user is a child.
- (7) Age verification or age estimation to identify who is or is not a child user or which age group a child user is in are examples of measures which (if not required by subsection (4)) may be taken or used (among others) for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in subsection (2) or (3).
- (8) The duties set out in subsections (2) and (3) apply across all areas of a service, including the way it is designed, operated and used as well as content present on the service, and (among other things) require the provider of a service to take or use measures in the following areas, if it is proportionate to do so—
- regulatory compliance and risk management arrangements,
  - design of functionalities, algorithms and other features,
  - policies on terms of use,
  - policies on user access to the service or to particular content present on the service, including blocking users from accessing the service or particular content,

- (e) content moderation, including taking down content,
  - (f) functionalities allowing for control over content that is encountered, especially by children,
  - (g) user support measures, and
  - (h) staff policies and practices.
- (9) A duty to include provisions in the terms of service specifying—
- (a) how children of any age are to be prevented from encountering primary priority content that is harmful to children (with each kind of primary priority content separately covered);
  - (b) how children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from priority content that is harmful to children (or from a particular kind of such content) are to be protected from encountering it, where they are not prevented from doing so (with each kind of priority content separately covered);
  - (c) how children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from non-designated content that is harmful to children (or from a particular kind of such content) are to be protected from encountering it, where they are not prevented from doing so.
- (10) A duty to apply the provisions of the terms of service referred to in subsection (9) consistently.
- (11) If a provider takes or uses a measure designed to prevent access to the whole of the service or a part of the service by children under a certain age, a duty to—
- (a) include provisions in the terms of service specifying details about the operation of the measure, and
  - (b) apply those provisions consistently.
- (12) A duty to include provisions in the terms of service giving information about any proactive technology used by a service for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in subsection (2) or (3) (including the kind of technology, when it is used, and how it works).

Additional duty for Category 1 services

- (14) A duty to summarise in the terms of service the findings of the most recent children's risk assessment of a service (including as to levels of risk and as to nature, and severity, of potential harm to children).

13 Safety duties protecting children: interpretation

- (1) In determining what is proportionate for the purposes of section 12, the following factors, in particular, are relevant—
- (a) all the findings of the most recent children's risk assessment (including as to levels of risk and as to nature, and severity, of potential harm to children), and
  - (b) the size and capacity of the provider of a service.
- (2) So far as a duty set out in section 12 relates to non-designated content that is harmful to children, the duty is to be taken to extend only to addressing risks of harm from the kinds of such content that have been identified in the most recent children’s risk assessment (if any have been identified).

- (3) References in section 12(3)(b) and (9)(b) and (c) to children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from content that is harmful to children are references to children in age groups judged to be at risk of such harm as assessed by the provider of a service in the most recent children’s risk assessment of the service.
- (4) The duties set out in section 12(3) and (9) are to be taken to extend only to content that is harmful to children where the risk of harm is presented by the nature of the content (rather than the fact of its dissemination).
- (5) The duties set out in section 12 extend only to such parts of a service as it is possible for children to access.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a provider is only entitled to conclude that it is not possible for children to access a service, or a part of it, if age verification or age estimation is used on the service with the result that children are not normally able to access the service or that part of it.
- (7) In section 12 and this section “children’s risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 11.
- (8) See also, in relation to duties set out in section 12, section 22 (duties about freedom of expression and privacy).

Category 1 services

14 Assessment duties: user empowerment

- (1) This section sets out the duties about assessments related to adult user empowerment which apply in relation to Category 1 services (in addition to the duties about risk assessments set out in section 9 and, in the case of Category 1 services likely to be accessed by children, section 11).
- (2) A duty to carry out a suitable and sufficient assessment for the purposes of section 15(2) at a time set out in, or as provided by, Schedule 3.
- (3) A duty to take appropriate steps to keep such an assessment up to date.
- (4) Before making any significant change to any aspect of a service’s design or operation, a duty to carry out a further suitable and sufficient assessment for the purposes of section 15(2) relating to the impacts of that proposed change.
- (5) An assessment of a service “for the purposes of section 15(2)” means an assessment of the following matters—
  - (a) the user base;
  - (b) the incidence of relevant content on the service;
  - (c) the likelihood of adult users of the service encountering, by means of the service, each kind of relevant content (with each kind separately assessed), taking into account (in particular) algorithms used by the service, and how easily, quickly and widely content may be disseminated by means of the service;

- (d) the likelihood of adult users with a certain characteristic or who are members of a certain group encountering relevant content which particularly affects them;
  - (e) the likelihood of functionalities of the service facilitating the presence or dissemination of relevant content, identifying and assessing those functionalities more likely to do so;

  - (g) how the design and operation of the service (including the business model, governance, use of proactive technology, measures to strengthen adult users’ control over their interaction with user-generated content, and other systems and processes) may reduce or increase the likelihood of adult users encountering relevant content.
- (6) In this section “relevant content” means content to which section 15(2) applies (content to which user empowerment duties set out in that provision apply).
- (7) See also—
- (a) section 23(9) and (10) (records of assessments), and
  - (b) Schedule 3 (timing of providers’ assessments).

15 User empowerment duties

- (1) This section sets out the duties to empower adult users which apply in relation to Category 1 services.
- (2) A duty to include in a service, to the extent that it is proportionate to do so, features which adult users may use or apply if they wish to increase their control over content to which this subsection applies.
- (3) The features referred to in subsection (2) are those which, if used or applied by a user, result in the use by the service of systems or processes designed to effectively—
- (a) reduce the likelihood of the user encountering content to which subsection (2) applies present on the service, or
  - (b) alert the user to content present on the service that is a particular kind of content to which subsection (2) applies.
- (4) A duty to ensure that all features included in a service in compliance with the duty set out in subsection (2) (“control features”) are made available to all adult users and are easy to access.
- (5) A duty to operate a service using a system or process which seeks to ensure that all registered adult users are offered the earliest possible opportunity, in relation to each control feature included in the service, to take a step indicating to the provider that—
- (a) the user wishes to retain the default setting for the feature (whether that is that the feature is in use or applied, or is not in use or applied), or
  - (b) the user wishes to change the default setting for the feature.
- (6) The duty set out in subsection (5)—
- (a) continues to apply in relation to a user and a control feature for so long as the user has not yet taken a step mentioned in that subsection in relation to the feature;

- (b) no longer applies in relation to a user once the user has taken such a step in relation to every control feature included in the service.
- (7) A duty to include clear and accessible provisions in the terms of service specifying which control features are offered and how users may take advantage of them.
- (8) A duty to summarise in the terms of service the findings of the most recent assessment of a service under section 14 (assessments related to the duty set out in subsection (2)).
- (9) A duty to include in a service features which adult users may use or apply if they wish to filter out non-verified users.
- (10) The features referred to in subsection (9) are those which, if used or applied by a user, result in the use by the service of systems or processes designed to effectively—
  - (a) prevent non-verified users from interacting with content which that user generates, uploads or shares on the service, and
  - (b) reduce the likelihood of that user encountering content which non-verified users generate, upload or share on the service.

16 User empowerment duties: interpretation

- (1) In determining what is proportionate for the purposes of section 15(2), the following factors, in particular, are relevant—

- (7) In section 15 and this section—

“disability” means any physical or mental impairment;

- (10) See also, in relation to duties set out in section 15, section 22 (duties about freedom of expression and privacy).

17 Duties to protect content of democratic importance

- (5) A duty to ensure that—
  - (a) the provisions of the terms of service referred to in subsection (4) are clear and accessible, and
  - (b) those provisions are applied consistently.
- (6) In determining what is proportionate for the purposes of subsection (2), the size and capacity of the provider of a service, in particular, is relevant.
- (7) For the purposes of this section content is “content of democratic importance”, in relation to a user-to-user service, if—
  - (a) the content is—
    - (i) news publisher content in relation to that service, or

- (ii) regulated user-generated content in relation to that service; and
  - (b) the content is or appears to be specifically intended to contribute to democratic political debate in the United Kingdom or a part or area of the United Kingdom.

- (9) For the meaning of “news publisher content” and “regulated user-generated content”, see section 55.

18 Duties to protect news publisher content

- (1) This section sets out the duties to protect news publisher content which apply in relation to Category 1 services.
- (2) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (8), a duty, in relation to a service, to take the steps set out in subsection (3) before—
- (a) taking action in relation to content present on the service that is news publisher content, or
  - (b) taking action against a user who is a recognised news publisher.
- (3) The steps referred to in subsection (2) are—
- (a) to give the recognised news publisher in question a notification which—
    - (i) specifies the action that the provider is considering taking,
    - (ii) gives reasons for that proposed action by reference to each relevant provision of the terms of service,
    - (iii) where the proposed action relates to news publisher content that is also journalistic content, explains how the provider took the importance of the free expression of journalistic content into account when deciding on the proposed action, and
    - (iv) specifies a reasonable period within which the recognised news publisher may make representations,
  - (b) to consider any representations that are made, and
  - (c) to notify the recognised news publisher of the decision and the reasons for it (addressing any representations made).
- (4) If a provider of a service reasonably considers that the provider would incur criminal or civil liability in relation to news publisher content present on the service if it were not taken down swiftly, the provider may take down that content without having taken the steps set out in subsection (3).
- (5) A provider of a service may also take down news publisher content present on the service without having taken the steps set out in subsection (3) if that content amounts to a relevant offence (see section 59 and also subsection (10) of this section).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) to swiftly notify the recognised news publisher in question of the action taken, giving the provider’s justification for not having first taken the steps set out in subsection (3),
  - (b) to specify a reasonable period within which the recognised news publisher may request that the action is reversed, and
  - (c) if a request is made as mentioned in paragraph (b)—
    - (i) to consider the request and whether the steps set out in subsection (3) should have been taken prior to the action being taken,
    - (ii) if the provider concludes that those steps should have been taken, to swiftly reverse the action, and
    - (iii) to notify the recognised news publisher of the decision and the reasons for it (addressing any reasons accompanying the request for reversal of the action).
- (8) If a recognised news publisher has been banned from using a service (and the ban is still in force), the provider of the service may take action in relation to news publisher content present on the service which was generated or originally published or broadcast by the recognised news publisher without complying with the duties set out in this section.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a provider is not to be regarded as taking action in relation to news publisher content in the following circumstances—
- (a) a provider takes action in relation to content which is not news publisher content, that action affects related news publisher content, the grounds for the action only relate to the content which is not news publisher content, and it is not technically feasible for the action only to relate to the content which is not news publisher content;
  - (b) a provider takes action against a user, and that action affects news publisher content that has been uploaded to or shared on the service by the user.
- (10) Section 192 (providers’ judgements about the status of content) applies in relation to judgements by providers about whether news publisher content amounts to a relevant offence as it applies in relation to judgements about whether content is illegal content.
- (11) Any provision of the terms of service has effect subject to this section.
- (12) In this section—
- (a) references to “news publisher content” are to content that is news publisher content in relation to the service in question;
  - (b) references to “taking action” against a person are to giving a warning to a person, or suspending or banning a person from using a service, or in any way restricting a person’s ability to use a service.
- (13) In this section references to “taking action” in relation to content are to—
- (a) taking down content,
  - (b) restricting users’ access to content, or
  - (c) adding warning labels to content, except warning labels normally encountered only by child users,
- and also include references to taking any other action in relation to content on the grounds that it is content of a kind which is the subject of a relevant term of service (but not otherwise).

- (14) A “relevant term of service” means a term of service which indicates to users (in whatever words) that the presence of a particular kind of content, from the time it is generated, uploaded or shared on the service, is not tolerated on the service or is tolerated but liable to result in the provider treating it in a way that makes it less likely that other users will encounter it.
- (15) Taking any step set out in subsection (3) or (7) does not count as “taking action” for the purposes of this section.
- (16) See—
- section 19 for the meaning of “journalistic content”;
  - section 55 for the meaning of “news publisher content”;
  - section 56 for the meaning of “recognised news publisher”.

19 Duties to protect journalistic content

- (1) This section sets out the duties to protect journalistic content which apply in relation to Category 1 services.

The duties

  - (b) whether to take action against a user generating, uploading or sharing such content.
- (3) A duty, in relation to a decision by a provider to take down content or to restrict access to it, to make a dedicated and expedited complaints procedure available to a person who considers the content to be journalistic content and who is—
- (a) the user who generated, uploaded or shared the content on the service, or
  - (b) the creator of the content (see subsections (14) and (15)).

- (5) A duty to ensure that—
- (a) if a complaint about a decision mentioned in subsection (3) is upheld, the content is swiftly reinstated on the service;
  - (b) if a complaint about a decision mentioned in subsection (4) is upheld, the action against the user is swiftly reversed.
- (6) Subsections (3) and (4) do not require a provider to make a dedicated and expedited complaints procedure available to a recognised news publisher in relation to a decision if the provider has taken the steps set out in section 18(3) in relation to that decision.
- (7) A duty to include provisions in the terms of service specifying—
- (a) by what methods content present on the service is to be identified as journalistic content;

- (b) how the importance of the free expression of journalistic content is to be taken into account when making decisions mentioned in subsection (2);
  - (c) the policies and processes for handling complaints in relation to content which is, or is considered to be, journalistic content.

- (10) For the purposes of this Part content is “journalistic content”, in relation to a user-to-user service, if—
- (a) the content is—
    - (i) news publisher content in relation to that service, or
    - (ii) regulated user-generated content in relation to that service;
  - (b) the content is generated for the purposes of journalism; and
  - (c) the content is UK-linked.
- (11) For the purposes of this section content is “UK-linked” if—
- (a) United Kingdom users of the service form one of the target markets for the content (or the only target market), or
  - (b) the content is or is likely to be of interest to a significant number of United Kingdom users.
- (12) In this section references to “taking action” against a user are to giving a warning to a user, or suspending or banning a user from using a service, or in any way restricting a user’s ability to use a service.
- (13) In this section the reference to the “creator” of content is to be read in accordance with subsections (14) and (15).
- (14) The creator of news publisher content is the recognised news publisher in question.
- (15) The creator of content other than news publisher content is—
- (a) an individual who—
    - (i) created the content, and
    - (ii) is in the United Kingdom; or

    - (ii) the user considers that the proactive technology has been used in a way not contemplated by, or in breach of, the terms of service (for example, by affecting content not of a kind specified in the terms of service as a kind of content in relation to which the technology would operate).

All services

- (2) A duty, in relation to a service, to take or use proportionate measures relating to the design or operation of the service to effectively—

- (a) mitigate and manage the risks of harm to children in different age groups, as identified in the most recent children’s risk assessment of the service (see section 28(5)(e)), and
  - (b) mitigate the impact of harm to children in different age groups presented by search content that is harmful to children.

  - (a) minimise the risk of children of any age encountering search content that is primary priority content that is harmful to children;
  - (b) minimise the risk of children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from other content that is harmful to children (or from a particular kind of such content) encountering search content of that kind.
- (4) The duties set out in subsections (2) and (3) apply across all areas of a service, including the way the search engine is designed, operated and used as well as search content of the service, and (among other things) require the provider of a service to take or use measures in the following areas, if it is proportionate to do so—
  - (a) regulatory compliance and risk management arrangements,

30 Safety duties protecting children: interpretation

- (1) In determining what is proportionate for the purposes of section 29, the following factors, in particular, are relevant—
  - (a) all the findings of the most recent children’s risk assessment (including as to levels of risk and as to nature, and severity, of potential harm to children), and
  - (b) the size and capacity of the provider of a service.
- (2) So far as a duty set out in section 29 relates to non-designated content that is harmful to children, the duty is to be taken to extend only to addressing risks of harm from the kinds of such content that have been identified in the most recent children’s risk assessment (if any have been identified).
- (3) The reference in section 29(3)(b) to children in age groups judged to be at risk of harm from content that is harmful to children is a reference to children in age groups judged to be at risk of such harm as assessed by the provider of a service in the most recent children’s risk assessment of the service.
- (4) The duties set out in section 29(3) are to be taken to extend only to content that is harmful to children where the risk of harm is presented by the nature of the content (rather than the fact of its dissemination).
- (5) The duties set out in section 29 extend only to such parts of a service as it is possible for children to access.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a provider is only entitled to conclude that it is not possible for children to access a service, or a part of it, if age verification or age estimation is used on the service with the result that children are not normally able to access the service or that part of it.
- (7) In section 29 and this section “children’s risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 28.
- (8) See also, in relation to duties set out in section 29, section 33 (duties about freedom of expression and privacy).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (ii) the interested person considers that the proactive technology has been used in a way not contemplated by, or in breach of, the provider’s policies on its use (for example, by affecting content not of a kind specified in those policies as a kind of content in relation to which the technology would operate).

Services likely to be accessed by children

CHAPTER 4

CHILDREN'S ACCESS ASSESSMENTS

35 Children’s access assessments

- (1) In this Part, a “children’s access assessment” means an assessment of a Part 3 service—
- (a) to determine whether it is possible for children to access the service or a part of the service, and
  - (b) if it is possible for children to access the service or a part of the service, to determine whether the child user condition is met in relation to the service or a part of the service.
- (2) A provider is only entitled to conclude that it is not possible for children to access a service, or a part of it, if age verification or age estimation is used on the service with the result that children are not normally able to access the service or that part of it.
- (3) The “child user condition” is met in relation to a service, or a part of a service, if—
- (a) there is a significant number of children who are users of the service or of that part of it, or
  - (b) the service, or that part of it, is of a kind likely to attract a significant number of users who are children.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)—
- (a) the reference to a “significant” number includes a reference to a number which is significant in proportion to the total number of United Kingdom users of a service or (as the case may be) a part of a service;

- (b) whether the test in paragraph (a) of that subsection is met is to be based on evidence about who actually uses a service, rather than who the intended users of the service are.
- (5) In this Chapter—
- (a) references to children are to children in the United Kingdom;
  - (b) references to a part of a service do not include any part of a service that is not, or is not included in, a user-to-user part of a service or a search engine.

36 Duties about children's access assessments

- (1) A provider of a Part 3 service must carry out the first children's access assessment at a time set out in, or as provided by, Schedule 3.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply to a provider of a Part 3 service during any period when the service is not treated as likely to be accessed by children (see section 37).
- (3) The provider must carry out children's access assessments of the service not more than one year apart.
- (4) The provider must carry out a children's access assessment of the service—
  - (a) before making any significant change to any aspect of the service's design or operation to which such an assessment is relevant,
  - (b) in response to evidence about reduced effectiveness of age verification or age estimation that is used on the service as mentioned in section 35(2), or
  - (c) in response to evidence about a significant increase in the number of children using the service.
- (5) If a person is the provider of more than one Part 3 service, children's access assessments must be carried out for each service separately.
- (6) Children's access assessments must be suitable and sufficient for the purposes of this Part.
- (7) A provider must make and keep a written record, in an easily understandable form, of every children's access assessment.

37 Meaning of "likely to be accessed by children"

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a Part 3 service is to be treated as "likely to be accessed by children" in the following three cases (with the result that the duties set out in sections 11 and 12, or (as the case may be) sections 28 and 29, apply in relation to the service).
- (2) The first case is where a children's access assessment carried out by the provider of the service concludes that—
  - (a) it is possible for children to access the service or a part of it, and
  - (b) the child user condition is met in relation to—
    - (i) the service, or
    - (ii) a part of the service that it is possible for children to access.

This subsection is to be interpreted consistently with section 35.

- (3) In that case, the service is to be treated as likely to be accessed by children from the date on which the children's access assessment is completed.

- (4) The second case is where the provider of the service fails to carry out the first children’s access assessment as required by section 36(1).
- (5) In that case—
  - (a) the service is to be treated as likely to be accessed by children from the date by which the first children’s access assessment was required to have been completed (see Part 1 of Schedule 3), and
  - (b) the service is to continue to be treated as likely to be accessed by children by reason of subsection (4) until such time as the provider completes the first children’s access assessment of the service.
- (6) The third case is where, following an investigation into a failure to comply with a duty set out in section 36, OFCOM determine that a service should be treated as likely to be accessed by children: see section 135(4) and (5).
- (7) In that case, the service is to be treated as likely to be accessed by children from the date of, or specified in, the confirmation decision given to the provider of the service (as the case may be: see section 135(5)).

CHAPTER 5

DUTIES ABOUT FRAUDULENT ADVERTISING

38 Duties about fraudulent advertising: Category 1 services

- (1) A provider of a Category 1 service must operate the service using proportionate systems and processes designed to—
  - (a) prevent individuals from encountering content consisting of fraudulent advertisements by means of the service;
  - (b) minimise the length of time for which any such content is present;
  - (c) where the provider is alerted by a person to the presence of such content, or becomes aware of it in any other way, swiftly take down such content.
- (2) A provider of a Category 1 service must include clear and accessible provisions in the terms of service giving information about any proactive technology used by the service for the purpose of compliance with the duty set out in subsection (1) (including the kind of technology, when it is used, and how it works).
- (3) In relation to a Category 1 service, an advertisement is a “fraudulent advertisement” if—
  - (a) it is a paid-for advertisement (see section 236),
  - (b) it amounts to an offence specified in section 40 (construed in accordance with section 59: see subsections (3), (11) and (12) of that section), and
  - (c) it is not regulated user-generated content (see section 55) in relation to the service.
- (4) If a person is the provider of more than one Category 1 service, the duties set out in this section apply in relation to each such service.
- (5) In determining what is proportionate for the purposes of this section, the following factors, in particular, are relevant—

- (a) the nature, and severity, of potential harm to individuals presented by different kinds of fraudulent advertisement, and
  - (b) the degree of control a provider has in relation to the placement of advertisements on the service.
- (6) In the case of a Category 1 service which is a combined service, the duties set out in this section do not extend to—
- (a) fraudulent advertisements that may be encountered in search results of the service or, following a search request, as a result of subsequent interactions with internet services, or
  - (b) anything relating to the design, operation or use of the search engine.

But if the service is also a Category 2A service, the duties set out in section 39 apply as well as the duties set out in this section.

- (7) The duties set out in this section extend only to the design, operation and use of a Category 1 service in the United Kingdom.
- (8) For the meaning of “Category 1 service”, see section 95 (register of categories of services).

39 Duties about fraudulent advertising: Category 2A services

- (1) A provider of a Category 2A service must operate the service using proportionate systems and processes designed to—
- (a) prevent individuals from encountering content consisting of fraudulent advertisements in or via search results of the service;
  - (b) if any such content may be encountered in or via search results of the service, minimise the length of time that that is the case;
  - (c) where the provider is alerted by a person to the fact that such content may be so encountered, or becomes aware of that fact in any other way, swiftly ensure that individuals are no longer able to encounter such content in or via search results of the service.
- (2) A provider of a Category 2A service must include clear and accessible provisions in a publicly available statement giving information about any proactive technology used by the service for the purpose of compliance with the duty set out in subsection (1) (including the kind of technology, when it is used, and how it works).
- (3) In relation to a Category 2A service, an advertisement is a “fraudulent advertisement” if—
- (a) it is a paid-for advertisement (see section 236), and

- (3) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft—
  - (a) OFCOM must not issue the code of practice in the form of that draft, and
  - (b) OFCOM must prepare another draft of the code of practice under section 41.
- (4) If no such resolution is made within that period—
  - (a) OFCOM must issue the code of practice in the form of the draft laid before Parliament, and
  - (b) the code of practice comes into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (5) “The 40-day period” is the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House of Parliament on the same day, the later of the days on which it is laid).
- (6) In calculating the 40-day period, no account is to be taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (7) Subsections (1) to (6) apply in relation to a draft of amendments of a code of practice prepared under section 41 as they apply in relation to a draft of a code of practice prepared under that section.
- (8) This section is subject to section 48 (minor amendments of codes of practice).
- (9) Subsection (11) applies to—

- (11) OFCOM must submit a draft to which this subsection applies to the Secretary of State under subsection (1) within the period of 18 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.
- (12) If OFCOM consider that it is necessary to extend the period mentioned in subsection (11) in relation to a draft mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of subsection (9), OFCOM may extend the period in relation to that draft by up to 12 months by making and publishing a statement.
- But this is subject to subsection (15).
- (13) A statement under subsection (12) must set out—

44 Secretary of State’s powers of direction

  - (c) public health, or
  - (d) relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom.
- (3) The Secretary of State may direct OFCOM to modify a draft of a terrorism or CSEA code of practice submitted under section 43(1) if the Secretary of State believes that modifications are required—

- (b) for exceptional reasons relating to public health or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom.
- (4) But if a draft of a terrorism or CSEA code of practice is submitted under section 43(1) following a review under section 47(2), the Secretary of State may only direct OFCOM to modify the draft if the Secretary of State believes that modifications are required for reasons of national security or public safety.
- (5) If, following a review of a terrorism or CSEA code of practice under section 47(2), OFCOM submit a statement to the Secretary of State under section 47(3)(b) (“OFCOM’s review statement”), the Secretary of State may direct OFCOM to modify the code of practice if the Secretary of State believes that modifications are required for reasons of national security or public safety.
- (6) A direction given under subsection (5)—
- (a) must be given within the period of 45 days beginning with the day on which OFCOM’s review statement is submitted to the Secretary of State, and

- (7) A direction given under this section—
- (a) may not require OFCOM to include in a code of practice provision about a particular measure recommended to be taken or used by providers of Part 3 services,
  - (b) must set out the Secretary of State’s reasons for requiring modifications, except in a case where the Secretary of State considers that doing so would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom, and
  - (c) must, as soon as reasonably practicable, be published and laid before Parliament.
- (8) If the Secretary of State considers that publishing and laying before Parliament a direction given under this section would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom—
- (a) subsection (7)(c) does not apply in relation to the direction, and
  - (b) the Secretary of State must, as soon as reasonably practicable, publish and lay before Parliament a document stating—
    - (i) that a direction has been given,
    - (ii) the kind of code of practice to which it relates, and

- (10) The Secretary of State may give OFCOM one or more further directions requiring OFCOM to modify the draft of the code of practice.
- (11) Such further directions may only be given for the reasons set out in subsection (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) (as the case may be), and subsections (7) to (9) apply again in relation to such further directions.
- (12) When the Secretary of State is satisfied that no further modifications to the draft are required, the Secretary of State must, as soon as reasonably practicable, lay before Parliament—
  - (a) the modified draft,
  - (b) any document submitted by OFCOM as mentioned in subsection (9)(c), and
  - (c) in the case of a direction under subsection (5), OFCOM’s review statement.
- (13) Before laying OFCOM’s review statement before Parliament, the Secretary of State may, with OFCOM’s agreement, remove or obscure information in the statement (whether by redaction or otherwise) in order to prevent the disclosure of matters that the Secretary of State considers would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom.
- (14) This section applies in relation to a draft of amendments of a code of practice submitted under section 43(1) as it applies in relation to a draft of a code of practice submitted under that provision.
- (15) In this section “terrorism or CSEA code of practice” means a code of practice under section 41(1) or (2).

45 Procedure for issuing codes of practice following direction under section 44

- (1) This section sets out the procedure that applies where a draft of a code of practice is laid before Parliament under section 44(12).
- (2) If the draft contains modifications made following a direction given under section 44(1), (2) or (3)(b), the affirmative procedure applies.
- (3) If the draft contains modifications made following a direction given under section 44(3)(a), (4) or (5), the negative procedure applies.
- (4) The “affirmative procedure” is as follows—
  - (a) a code of practice in the form of the draft laid before Parliament must not be issued by OFCOM unless the draft has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament;
  - (b) if the draft is so approved, the code of practice comes into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it is issued;
  - (c) if the draft is not so approved, OFCOM must prepare another draft of the code of practice under section 41.
- (5) The “negative procedure” is as follows—
  - (a) if, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft—

- (i) OFCOM must not issue the code of practice in the form of that draft, and
  - (ii) OFCOM must prepare another draft of the code of practice under section 41;
- (b) if no such resolution is made within that period—
  - (i) OFCOM must issue the code of practice in the form of the draft laid before Parliament, and
  - (ii) the code of practice comes into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (6) “The 40-day period” has the same meaning as in section 43 (see subsections (5) and (6) of that section).

- (2) Where amendments of a code of practice are issued under either of those sections, OFCOM must publish the amended code of practice within the period of three days beginning with the day on which the amendments are issued.
- (3) Where a code of practice is withdrawn, OFCOM must publish a notice to that effect.

47 Review of codes of practice

- (1) OFCOM must keep under review each code of practice published under section 46.
- (2) The Secretary of State may require OFCOM to review a terrorism or CSEA code of practice published under section 46 if the Secretary of State considers a review to be necessary for reasons of national security or public safety (and the Secretary of State must notify OFCOM whether the reasons fall into the category of national security or public safety).
- (3) OFCOM must carry out a review of the code of practice under subsection (2) as soon as reasonably practicable, and when it is completed—
  - (a) if OFCOM consider that changes are required, they must prepare a draft of amendments to the code of practice or a draft of a replacement code of practice under section 41, or
  - (b) if OFCOM consider that no changes are required, they must submit to the Secretary of State a statement which explains the reasons for that conclusion.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if—
  - (a) OFCOM submit a statement under subsection (3)(b) to the Secretary of State,
  - (b) the period of 45 days beginning with the day on which the statement was submitted has elapsed, and
  - (c) the Secretary of State has not given a direction under section 44(5).

- (5) OFCOM must publish the statement as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (4)(b), making it clear which code of practice the statement relates to.
- (6) In advance of publication, the Secretary of State may make representations to OFCOM about the desirability of removing or obscuring information in the statement (whether by redaction or otherwise) in order to prevent the disclosure of matters that the Secretary of State considers would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom (and see also section 116(3)).
- (7) In this section “terrorism or CSEA code of practice” means a code of practice under section 41(1) or (2).

48 Minor amendments of codes of practice

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) OFCOM propose to amend a code of practice under section 41, and
  - (b) OFCOM consider that the minor nature of the proposal means that—
    - (i) consultation is unnecessary, and
    - (ii) the proposed amendments should not be required to be laid before Parliament.
- (2) OFCOM must notify the Secretary of State of the proposed amendments.
- (3) If the Secretary of State agrees with OFCOM that it is appropriate—
  - (a) the consultation requirements set out in section 41(6) and (7) do not apply in relation to the proposed amendments, and
  - (b) section 43 does not apply to the amendments, once prepared.
- (4) If the Secretary of State agrees with OFCOM as mentioned in subsection (3), OFCOM may prepare and issue the amendments of the code of practice.

Alternative measures

- (5) A provider of a Part 3 service who seeks to comply with a relevant duty by acting otherwise than by taking or using a measure described in a code of practice or a fraudulent advertising code of practice which is recommended for the purpose of compliance with the duty must have particular regard to the importance of the following (where relevant)—
  - (a) protecting the right of users and (in the case of search services) interested persons to freedom of expression within the law, and
  - (b) protecting the privacy of users.
- (6) When assessing whether a provider of a Part 3 service is compliant with a relevant duty where the provider has acted otherwise than by taking or using a measure described in a code of practice or a fraudulent advertising code of practice which is recommended for the purpose of compliance with the duty, OFCOM must consider the extent to which the alternative measures taken or in use by the provider—

83 Duty to notify OFCOM

- (1) A provider of a regulated service must notify OFCOM in relation to a charging year which is—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (a) the first fee-paying year in relation to that provider, or
  - (b) any charging year after the first fee-paying year where—
    - (i) the previous charging year was not a fee-paying year in relation to the provider, and the charging year in question is a fee-paying year in relation to the provider, or
    - (ii) the previous charging year was a fee-paying year in relation to the provider, and the charging year in question is not a fee-paying year in relation to the provider.
- (2) A “fee-paying year”, in relation to a provider, means a charging year where both of the following conditions apply—
- (a) the provider’s qualifying worldwide revenue for the qualifying period that relates to that charging year is equal to or greater than the threshold figure that has effect for that charging year (see section 86), and
  - (b) the provider is not exempt (see subsection (6)).
- (3) A notification under subsection (1) in relation to a charging year must include details of all regulated services provided by the provider, and where it is a notification under subsection (1)(a) or (b)(i), it must also include—
- (a) details of the provider’s qualifying worldwide revenue for the qualifying period that relates to that charging year, and
  - (b) supporting evidence, documents or other information as required by regulations made by OFCOM under section 85.
- (4) Section 85 confers power on OFCOM to make regulations about the determination of a provider’s qualifying worldwide revenue, and the meaning of “qualifying period”, for the purposes of this Part.
- (5) A notification under subsection (1) must be provided to OFCOM—
- (a) in relation to the initial charging year, within four months of the date on which the first regulations under section 86 come into force (first threshold figure);
  - (b) in relation to subsequent charging years, at least six months before the beginning of the charging year to which the notification relates.
- (6) OFCOM may provide that particular descriptions of providers of regulated services are exempt for the purposes of this section and section 84 where—
- (a) OFCOM consider that an exemption for such providers is appropriate, and
  - (b) the Secretary of State approves the exemption.
- (7) OFCOM may revoke such an exemption where they consider that it is no longer appropriate and the Secretary of State approves the revocation.
- (8) Exemptions, or revocations of exemptions, which are approved by the Secretary of State are to take effect from the beginning of a particular charging year.
- (9) Details of an exemption or revocation must be published by OFCOM at least six months before the beginning of the first charging year for which the exemption or revocation is to have effect.
- (10) But subsection (9) does not apply in relation to any exemptions which are to have effect for the initial charging year.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (11) For the purposes of this section and section 84, the “provider” of a regulated service, in relation to a charging year, includes a person who is the provider of the service for part of that year.

84 Duty to pay fees

- (1) OFCOM may require a provider of a regulated service to pay a fee in respect of a charging year which is a fee-paying year.
- (2) Where OFCOM require a provider of a regulated service to pay a fee in respect of a charging year, the fee is to be equal to the amount produced by a computation—
- (a) made by reference to—
    - (i) the provider’s qualifying worldwide revenue for the qualifying period relating to that charging year, and
    - (ii) any other factors that OFCOM consider appropriate, and
  - (b) made in the manner that OFCOM consider appropriate.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and section 83—
- (a) the amount of a provider’s qualifying worldwide revenue for a qualifying period, or
  - (b) the amount of a fee to be paid to OFCOM, or of an instalment of such a fee, is, in the event of a disagreement between the provider and OFCOM, the amount determined by OFCOM.
- (4) When determining fees payable under this section, OFCOM must do so in accordance with a statement of principles as mentioned in section 88(1).
- (5) Where a person is the provider of a regulated service for part of a charging year only, OFCOM may refund all or part of a fee paid to OFCOM under this section by that provider in respect of that year.
- (6) In this section, “fee-paying year” has the same meaning as in section 83.

85 Regulations by OFCOM about qualifying worldwide revenue etc

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, OFCOM may by regulations make provision—
- (a) about how the qualifying worldwide revenue of a provider of a regulated service is to be determined, and
  - (b) defining the “qualifying period” in relation to a charging year.
- (2) OFCOM may by regulations also make provision specifying or describing evidence, documents or other information that providers must supply to OFCOM for the purposes of section 83 (see subsection (3)(b) of that section), including provision about the way in which providers must supply the evidence, documents or information.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) may provide that the qualifying worldwide revenue of a provider of a regulated service (P) who is a member of a group during any part of a qualifying period is to include the qualifying worldwide revenue of any entity that—
- (a) is a group undertaking in relation to P for all or part of that period, and
  - (b) receives or is due to receive, during that period, any amount referable (to any degree) to a regulated service provided by P.

- (4) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) may, in particular—
- (a) make provision about circumstances in which amounts do, or do not, count as being referable (to any degree) to a regulated service for the purposes of the determination of the qualifying worldwide revenue of the provider of the service or of an entity that is a group undertaking in relation to the provider;
  - (b) provide for cases or circumstances in which amounts that—
    - (i) are of a kind specified or described in the regulations, and
    - (ii) are not referable to a regulated service,are to be brought into account in determining the qualifying worldwide revenue of the provider of the service or of an entity that is a group undertaking in relation to the provider.
- (5) Regulations which make provision of a kind mentioned in subsection (3) may include provision that, in the case of an entity that is a group undertaking in relation to a provider for part (not all) of a qualifying period, only amounts relating to the part of the qualifying period for which the entity was a group undertaking may be brought into account in determining the entity’s qualifying worldwide revenue.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) may make provision corresponding to paragraph 5(8) of Schedule 13.
- (7) Before making regulations under subsection (1) OFCOM must consult—
- (a) the Secretary of State,
  - (b) the Treasury, and
  - (c) such other persons as OFCOM consider appropriate.
- (8) Before making regulations under subsection (2) OFCOM must consult the Secretary of State.
- (9) Regulations under this section may make provision subject to such exemptions and exceptions as OFCOM consider appropriate.
- (10) In this section—
- “group” means a parent undertaking and its subsidiary undertakings, reading those terms in accordance with section 1162 of the Companies Act 2006;
  - “group undertaking” has the meaning given by section 1161(5) of that Act.

86 Threshold figure

- (1) OFCOM must carry out a consultation to inform the setting of the threshold figure for the purposes of sections 83 and 84, consulting such persons as they consider appropriate.
- (2) After the completion of the consultation, and having taken advice from OFCOM, the Secretary of State must make regulations specifying the threshold figure for those purposes.
- (3) The Secretary of State must keep the threshold figure under review.
- (4) If the Secretary of State considers that it may be appropriate to revise the threshold figure, the Secretary of State may request OFCOM to carry out a further consultation, and subsections (1) and (2) apply again.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (5) Regulations must provide that a threshold figure is to take effect from the beginning of a particular charging year.
- (6) Regulations specifying a threshold figure must be in force at least nine months before the beginning of the first charging year for which that figure is to have effect.
- (7) But subsection (6) does not apply in relation to the first regulations made under this section.

87 Secretary of State’s guidance about fees

- (1) The Secretary of State must issue guidance to OFCOM about the principles to be included in a statement of principles that OFCOM propose to apply in determining fees payable under section 84 (see section 88).
- (2) The Secretary of State must consult OFCOM before issuing, revising or replacing the guidance.
- (3) The guidance may not be revised or replaced more frequently than once every three years unless—
  - (a) the guidance needs to be corrected because of an amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Part, or
  - (b) the revision or replacement is by agreement between the Secretary of State and OFCOM.
- (4) The Secretary of State must lay the guidance (including revised or replacement guidance) before Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State must publish the guidance (and any revised or replacement guidance).
- (6) In exercising any functions under this Part, OFCOM must have regard to the guidance for the time being published under this section.

88 OFCOM’s fees statements

- (1) OFCOM may not require a provider of a regulated service to pay a fee under section 84 unless there is in force a statement of the principles that OFCOM propose to apply in determining fees payable under that section.
- (2) Those principles must be such as appear to OFCOM to be likely to secure, on the basis of such estimates of the likely costs as it is practicable for them to make—
  - (a) that on a year by year basis, the aggregate amount of the fees payable to OFCOM under section 84 is sufficient to meet, but does not exceed, the annual cost to OFCOM of the exercise of their online safety functions;
  - (b) that the fees required under section 84 are justifiable and proportionate having regard to the functions in respect of which they are imposed;
  - (c) that the relationship between meeting the cost of the exercise of those functions and the amounts of the fees is transparent.
- (3) A statement of principles mentioned in subsection (1) must (among other things)—
  - (a) include details relating to the computation model used to calculate fees payable under section 84, including details of factors mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(ii) of that section (if any),

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (b) include details about the meaning of “qualifying worldwide revenue” and “qualifying period” for the purposes of this Part, and
  - (c) specify the threshold figure contained in regulations under section 86.
- (4) Before making or revising such a statement of principles, OFCOM must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.
- (5) Such a statement of principles may make different provision in relation to different kinds of regulated services.
- (6) OFCOM must publish such a statement of principles (and any revised or replacement statement).
- (7) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each charging year, OFCOM must publish a statement setting out, in respect of that year—
  - (a) the aggregate amount of the fees payable under section 84 for that year that has been received by OFCOM,
  - (b) the aggregate amount of the fees payable under that section for that year that remains outstanding and is likely to be paid or recovered, and
  - (c) the cost to OFCOM of the exercise of their online safety functions.
- (8) Any deficit or surplus shown (after applying this subsection for all previous years) by a statement under subsection (7) must be carried forward and taken into account in determining what is required to satisfy the requirement imposed by virtue of subsection (2)(a) in relation to the following year.
- (9) For the purposes of this section OFCOM’s costs of the exercise of their online safety functions during a charging year include the costs of preparations for the exercise of their online safety functions incurred during that year.

89 Recovery of OFCOM’s initial costs

Schedule 10 makes provision about fees chargeable to providers of regulated services in connection with OFCOM’s recovery of costs incurred before the first day of the initial charging year.

90 Meaning of “charging year” and “initial charging year”

In this Part—

“charging year” means any period of 12 months beginning with 1 April, except such a period that falls before the initial charging year;

“initial charging year” means the period of 12 months beginning with 1 April specified by OFCOM in a notice published for the purposes of this Part.

CHAPTER 2

REGISTER OF CATEGORIES OF REGULATED USER-TO-USER SERVICES AND REGULATED SEARCH SERVICES

94 Meaning of threshold conditions etc

(1) Schedule 11 contains provision about regulations specifying the threshold conditions that a Part 3 service must meet to be included in the relevant part of the register established by OFCOM under section 95, and associated provision about the publication of OFCOM's advice.

(2) In this Chapter, “Category 1 threshold conditions”, “Category 2A threshold conditions” and “Category 2B threshold conditions” have the same meaning as in Schedule 11 (see paragraph 1(1), (2) and (3) of that Schedule).

(3) For the purposes of this Chapter—

- (a) references to a service meeting the Category 1, Category 2A or Category 2B threshold conditions are to a service meeting those conditions in a way specified in regulations under paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 (see paragraph 1(4) of that Schedule);
- (b) a regulated user-to-user service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions if those conditions are met in relation to the user-to-user part of the service;
- (c) a regulated search service or a combined service meets the Category 2A threshold conditions if those conditions are met in relation to the search engine of the service;
- (d) a regulated user-to-user service meets the Category 2B threshold conditions if those conditions are met in relation to the user-to-user part of the service;
- (e) a regulated user-to-user service meets the conditions in section 97(2) if those conditions are met in relation to the user-to-user part of the service;
- (f) references to OFCOM assessing a service (to determine if it meets, or no longer meets, the relevant threshold conditions or the conditions in section 97(2)) are accordingly to be read as references to OFCOM assessing the relevant part (or parts) of a service.

95 Register of categories of certain Part 3 services

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the first regulations under Schedule 11 come into force, OFCOM must comply with subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) OFCOM must establish a register of particular categories of Part 3 services with—
  - (a) one part for regulated user-to-user services meeting the Category 1 threshold conditions,
  - (b) one part for regulated search services and combined services meeting the Category 2A threshold conditions, and
  - (c) one part for regulated user-to-user services meeting the Category 2B threshold conditions.
- (3) OFCOM must assess Part 3 services, as follows—
  - (a) OFCOM must assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 1 threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions;
  - (b) OFCOM must assess each regulated search service and combined service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 2A threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions;
  - (c) OFCOM must assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 2B threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions.
- (4) If OFCOM consider that a service meets the relevant threshold conditions, they must add entries relating to that service to the relevant part of the register established under subsection (2).
- (5) But—
  - (a) if OFCOM consider that a regulated user-to-user service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions and the Category 2B threshold conditions (only), entries relating to that service are to be added to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(a) (only);

- (b) if OFCOM consider that a combined service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions, the Category 2A threshold conditions and the Category 2B threshold conditions, entries relating to that service are to be added to the parts of the register established under subsection (2)(a) and (b) (only).
- (6) If OFCOM consider that a combined service—
- (a) meets the Category 2A threshold conditions, and
  - (b) meets either the Category 1 threshold conditions or the Category 2B threshold conditions (but not both),
- entries relating to that service are to be added to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(b) and to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(a) or (c) (whichever applies).
- (7) Each part of the register must contain—
- (a) the name, and a description, of each service that, in OFCOM's opinion, meets the relevant threshold conditions, and
  - (b) the name of the provider of each such service.
- (8) OFCOM must publish the register.
- (9) When assessing whether a Part 3 service does, or does not, meet the relevant threshold conditions, OFCOM must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to obtain or generate information or evidence for the purposes of the assessment.
- (10) In this Act—
- (a) a “Category 1 service” means a regulated user-to-user service for the time being included in the part of the register established under subsection (2)(a);
  - (b) a “Category 2A service” means a regulated search service or a combined service for the time being included in the part of the register established under subsection (2)(b);
  - (c) a “Category 2B service” means a regulated user-to-user service for the time being included in the part of the register established under subsection (2)(c).

96 Duty to maintain register

- (1) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 11 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force—
- (a) assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 1 threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and
  - (b) make any necessary changes to the register.
- (2) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 11 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force—
- (a) assess each regulated search service and combined service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 2A threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and
  - (b) make any necessary changes to the register.

- (3) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 11 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force—
  - (a) assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 2B threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and
  - (b) make any necessary changes to the register.
- (4) At any other time, if OFCOM consider that a Part 3 service not included in a particular part of the register is likely to meet the threshold conditions relevant to that part, OFCOM must—
  - (a) assess the service accordingly, and
  - (b) (subject to section 95(5)) if they consider that the service meets the relevant conditions, add entries relating to that service to that part of the register.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) requires OFCOM to assess a Category 1 service to determine whether the service meets the Category 2B threshold conditions.
- (6) A provider of a Part 3 service included in the register may at any time request OFCOM to remove entries relating to that service from the register, or from a particular part of the register.
- (7) If OFCOM are satisfied, on the basis of evidence submitted by a provider with such a request, that since the registration day there has been a change to the service or to regulations under paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 which appears likely to be relevant, OFCOM must—
  - (a) assess the service, and
  - (b) notify the provider of OFCOM's decision.
- (8) OFCOM must remove entries relating to a Part 3 service from the relevant part of the register if, following an assessment of the service, they consider that it no longer meets the threshold conditions relevant to that part.
- (9) Section 95(9) applies to an assessment under this section as it applies to an assessment under section 95.
- (10) OFCOM must re-publish the register each time a change is made to it.
- (11) See section 167 for provision about appeals against a decision to include a service in the register (or in a particular part of the register), or not to remove a service from the register (or from a particular part of the register).
- (12) In this section—
  - “the register” means the register established under section 95;
  - “the registration day”, in relation to a Part 3 service, means—
    - (a) the day on which entries relating to the service were added to the register, or to the particular part of the register in question, or
    - (b) if later, the day on which OFCOM last completed an assessment of the service under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (7).

97 List of emerging Category 1 services

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the first regulations under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 11 come into force (regulations specifying Category 1 threshold conditions), OFCOM must comply with subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) OFCOM must assess each regulated user-to-user service which does not meet the Category 1 threshold conditions and which they consider is likely to meet each of the following conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet them—
  - (a) the first condition is that the number of United Kingdom users of the user-to-user part of the service is at least 75% of the figure specified in any of the Category 1 threshold conditions relating to number of users (calculating the number of users in accordance with the threshold condition in question);
  - (b) the second condition is that—
    - (i) at least one of the Category 1 threshold conditions relating to functionalities of the user-to-user part of the service is met, or
    - (ii) if the regulations under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 11 specify that a Category 1 threshold condition relating to a functionality of the user-to-user part of the service must be met in combination with a Category 1 threshold condition relating to another characteristic of that part of the service or a factor relating to that part of the service (see paragraph 1(4) of Schedule 11), at least one of those combinations of conditions is met.
- (3) OFCOM must prepare a list of regulated user-to-user services which meet the conditions in subsection (2).
- (4) If the regulations under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 11 specify that a service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions if any one condition about number of users or functionality is met (as mentioned in paragraph 1(4)(a) of that Schedule)—
  - (a) subsection (2) applies as if paragraph (b) were omitted, and
  - (b) subsections (3) and (8) apply as if the reference to the conditions in subsection (2) were to the condition in subsection (2)(a).
- (5) The list must contain the following details about a service included in it—
  - (a) the name of the service,
  - (b) a description of the service,
  - (c) the name of the provider of the service, and
  - (d) a description of the Category 1 threshold conditions by reference to which the conditions in subsection (2) are met.
- (6) OFCOM must take appropriate steps to keep the list up to date, including by carrying out further assessments of regulated user-to-user services.
- (7) OFCOM must publish the list when it is first prepared and each time it is revised.
- (8) When assessing whether a service does, or does not, meet the conditions in subsection (2), OFCOM must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to obtain or generate information or evidence for the purposes of the assessment.
- (9) An assessment for the purposes of this section may be included in an assessment under section 95 or 96 (as the case may be) or carried out separately.

CHAPTER 3

RISK ASSESSMENTS OF REGULATED USER-TO-USER SERVICES AND REGULATED SEARCH SERVICES

98 OFCOM's register of risks, and risk profiles, of Part 3 services

- (1) OFCOM must carry out risk assessments to identify and assess the following risks of harm presented by Part 3 services of different kinds—
  - (a) the risks of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by illegal content present on regulated user-to-user services and by the use of such services for the commission or facilitation of priority offences;
  - (b) the risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by search content of regulated search services that is illegal content;
  - (c) the risk of harm to children in the United Kingdom, in different age groups, presented by content that is harmful to children.
- (2) The risk assessments must, among other things, identify characteristics of different kinds of Part 3 services that are relevant to such risks of harm, and assess the impact of those kinds of characteristics on such risks.
- (3) OFCOM—
  - (a) may combine assessment of any or all of the risks of harm mentioned in subsection (1), or may carry out separate assessments of those risks;
  - (b) in the case of the risk of harm mentioned in subsection (1)(c), may assess regulated user-to-user services and regulated search services separately or together.

- (3) A notice relating to a user-to-user service (or to the user-to-user part of a combined service) may also require a provider to operate an effective complaints procedure allowing for United Kingdom users to challenge the provider for taking down content which they have generated, uploaded or shared on the service.
- (4) A notice relating to a search service (or to the search engine of a combined service) may also require a provider to operate an effective complaints procedure allowing for an interested person (see section 227(7)) to challenge measures taken or in use by the provider that result in content relating to that interested person no longer appearing in search results of the service.
- (5) A notice given to a provider of a Part 3 service requiring the use of accredited technology is to be taken to require the provider to make such changes to the design or operation of the service as are necessary for the technology to be used effectively.

- (2) OFCOM may also give a provisional notice of contravention to a person on either of the grounds in subsection (3).
- (3) The grounds are that—
  - (a) the person has been given an information notice and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with either of the duties set out in section 102(8) (duties in relation to information notices), or
  - (b) the person is required by a skilled person appointed under section 104 to give assistance to the skilled person, and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with the duty set out in subsection (7) of that section to give such assistance.
- (4) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must—
  - (a) specify the duty or requirement with which (in OFCOM’s opinion) the person has failed, or is failing, to comply, and

  - (d) in relation to a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, specify or describe the period for which OFCOM propose that the penalty should be payable, and
  - (e) state the reasons for proposing a penalty of that amount, including any aggravating or mitigating factors that OFCOM propose to take into account.
- (8) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must—
  - (a) state that the person may make representations to OFCOM (with any supporting evidence) about the matters contained in the notice, and
  - (b) specify the period within which such representations may be made.
- (9) A provisional notice of contravention may be given in respect of a failure to comply with more than one enforceable requirement.
- (10) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given in respect of a continuing failure, the notice may be given in respect of any period during which the failure has continued, and must specify that period.
- (11) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given to a person in respect of a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (“the first notice”), a further provisional notice of contravention in respect of a failure to comply with that same duty or requirement may be given to the person only—
  - (a) in respect of a separate instance of the failure after the first notice was given,
  - (b) where a period was specified in the first notice in accordance with subsection (10), in respect of the continuation of the failure after the end of that period, or

132 Confirmation decisions

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) OFCOM have given a provisional notice of contravention to a person in relation to a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (or with duties or requirements), and
  - (b) the period allowed for representations has expired.
- A duty or requirement to which the provisional notice of contravention relates is referred to in this section as a “notified requirement”.
- (2) If, after considering any representations and evidence, OFCOM decide not to give the person a notice under this section, they must inform the person of that fact.
- (3) If OFCOM are satisfied that the person has failed, or has been failing, to comply with a notified requirement, OFCOM may give the person a notice under this section (a “confirmation decision”) confirming that that is OFCOM’s opinion.
- (4) A confirmation decision and a notice under section 121(1) may be given in respect of the same failure.
- (5) A confirmation decision given to a person may—
- (a) require the person to take steps as mentioned in section 133;
  - (b) require the person to pay a penalty as mentioned in section 137;
  - (c) require the person to do both those things (or neither of them).
- (6) See sections 134 and 135 for further provision which a confirmation decision may include in cases of failure to comply with duties about risk assessments or children’s access assessments.

133 Confirmation decisions: requirements to take steps

- (1) A confirmation decision may require the person to whom it is given to take such steps as OFCOM consider appropriate (including steps relating to the use of a system or process) for either or both of the following purposes—
  - (a) complying with a notified requirement;
  - (b) remedying the failure to comply with a notified requirement.
- (2) But see section 136 in relation to OFCOM's power to include in a confirmation decision requirements as described in subsection (1) relating to the use of proactive technology.
- (3) A confirmation decision may impose requirements as described in subsection (1) only in relation to the design or operation of a regulated service—
  - (a) in the United Kingdom, or
  - (b) as it affects United Kingdom users of the service.
- (4) A confirmation decision that includes requirements as described in subsection (1) must—
  - (a) specify the steps that are required,
  - (b) give OFCOM's reasons for their decision to impose those requirements,
  - (c) specify which of those requirements (if any) have been designated as CSEA requirements (see subsections (6) and (7)),
  - (d) specify each notified requirement to which the steps relate,
  - (e) specify the period during which the failure to comply with a notified requirement has occurred, and whether the failure is continuing,
  - (f) specify a reasonable period within which each of the steps specified in the decision must be taken or, if a step requires the use of a system or process, a reasonable period within which the system or process must begin to be used (but see subsection (5) in relation to information duties),
  - (g) (if relevant) specify the period for which a system or process must be used,
  - (h) contain details of the rights of appeal under section 168, and
  - (i) contain information about the consequences of not complying with the requirements included in the decision (including information about the further kinds of enforcement action that it would be open to OFCOM to take).
- (5) A confirmation decision that requires a person to take steps for the purpose of complying with an information duty may require the person to take those steps immediately.
- (6) If the condition in subsection (7) is met in relation to a requirement imposed by a confirmation decision which is of a kind described in subsection (1), OFCOM must designate the requirement as a "CSEA requirement" for the purposes of section 138(3) (offence of failure to comply with confirmation decision).
- (7) The condition referred to in subsection (6) is that the requirement is imposed (whether or not exclusively) in relation to either or both of the following—
  - (a) a failure to comply with section 10(2)(a) or (3)(a) in respect of CSEA content, or in respect of priority illegal content which includes CSEA content;
  - (b) a failure to comply with section 10(2)(b) in respect of an offence specified in Schedule 6 (CSEA offences), or in respect of priority offences which include such an offence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (8) A person to whom a confirmation decision is given has a duty to comply with requirements included in the decision which are of a kind described in subsection (1).
- (9) The duty under subsection (8) is enforceable in civil proceedings by OFCOM—
- (a) for an injunction,
  - (b) for specific performance of a statutory duty under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988, or
  - (c) for any other appropriate remedy or relief.
- (10) In this section—
- “CSEA content”, “priority illegal content” and “priority offence” have the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 59);
  - “information duty” means a duty set out in section 102(8);
  - “notified requirement” has the meaning given by section 132.

134 Confirmation decisions: risk assessments

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) OFCOM are satisfied that a provider of a Part 3 service has failed to comply with a risk assessment duty,
  - (b) based on evidence resulting from OFCOM’s investigation into that failure, OFCOM have identified a risk of serious harm to individuals in the United Kingdom arising from a particular aspect of the service (“the identified risk”), and
  - (c) OFCOM consider that the identified risk is not effectively mitigated or managed.
- (2) A confirmation decision given to the provider of the service—
- (a) if the identified risk relates to matters required to be covered by an illegal content risk assessment, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 10(2)(b) or (c) or 27(2) (as the case may be) applies as if an illegal content risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk;
  - (b) if the identified risk relates to matters required to be covered by a children’s risk assessment, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 12(2)(a) or 29(2)(a) (as the case may be) applies as if a children’s risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk.
- (3) A confirmation decision which includes a determination as mentioned in subsection (2) must—
- (a) give details of the identified risk,
  - (b) specify the duty to which the determination relates, and
  - (c) specify the date by which measures (at the provider’s discretion) to comply with that duty must be taken or must begin to be used.
- (4) A determination as mentioned in subsection (2) ceases to have effect on the date on which the provider of the service complies with the risk assessment duty with which the provider had previously failed to comply (and accordingly, from that date the duty to which the determination relates applies without the modification mentioned in that subsection).
- (5) In this section—

135 Confirmation decisions: children’s access assessments

- (1) This section applies if OFCOM are satisfied that a provider of a Part 3 service has failed to comply with a duty set out in section 36 (duties about children’s access assessments).
- (2) If OFCOM include in a confirmation decision a requirement to take steps relating to the carrying out of a children’s access assessment of a service, they must require that assessment to be completed within three months of the date of the confirmation decision.
- (3) OFCOM may vary a confirmation decision which includes a requirement as mentioned in subsection (2) to extend the deadline for completion of a children’s access assessment.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if, based on evidence that OFCOM have about a service resulting from their investigation into compliance with a duty set out in section 36, OFCOM consider that—

    - (i) the service, or
    - (ii) a part of the service that it is possible for children to access.
- (5) OFCOM may include in the confirmation decision given to the provider of the service—

136 Confirmation decisions: proactive technology

- (1) This section sets out what powers OFCOM have to include in a confirmation decision a requirement to take steps to use a kind, or one of the kinds, of proactive technology specified in the decision (a “proactive technology requirement”).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (2) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision if—
  - (a) the decision is given to the provider of an internet service within section 80(2), and
  - (b) the decision is imposed for the purpose of complying with, or remedying the failure to comply with, the duty set out in section 81(2) (provider pornographic content).
- (3) The following provisions of this section set out constraints on OFCOM's power to include a proactive technology requirement in a confirmation decision in any case not within subsection (2).
- (4) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision only if the decision is given to the provider of a Part 3 service.

  - (a) user-generated content communicated publicly, and
  - (b) metadata relating to user-generated content communicated publicly.
- (7) Before imposing a proactive technology requirement in relation to a service in a confirmation decision, OFCOM must particularly consider the matters mentioned in subsection (8), so far as they are relevant.
- (8) The matters are as follows—
  - (a) the kind of service it is;
  - (b) the functionalities of the service;
  - (c) the user base of the service;
  - (d) the prevalence of relevant content on the service and the extent of its dissemination by means of the service, or (as the case may be) the prevalence of search content of the service that is relevant content;
  - (e) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by relevant content present on the service, or (as the case may be) search content of the service that is relevant content, and the severity of that harm;

  - (i) whether the use of any less intrusive measures than the proactive technology specified in the decision would be likely to result in compliance with, or would be likely to effectively remedy the failure to comply with, the duty in question.
- (9) A confirmation decision that imposes a proactive technology requirement on a provider may also impose requirements about review of the technology by the provider.
- (10) A confirmation decision relating to a service which requires the use of technology of a kind mentioned in subsection (6) must identify the content, or parts of the service that include content, that OFCOM consider is communicated publicly on that service (see section 232).
- (11) In this section—

  - (c) state the date from which the penalty begins to be payable, which must not be earlier than the day after the compliance date;
  - (d) provide for the penalty to continue to be payable at the daily rate until—
    - (i) the date on which the notified requirement is complied with,

144 Service restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an order under this section (a “service restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that—
  - (a) the grounds in subsection (3) apply in relation to the service, or
  - (b) in the case of a Part 3 service, the grounds in subsection (4) apply in relation to the service.
- (2) A service restriction order is an order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an ancillary service (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (11)).
- (3) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are that—
  - (a) the provider of the regulated service has failed to comply with an enforceable requirement that applies in relation to the regulated service,
  - (b) the failure is continuing, and
  - (c) any of the following applies—
    - (i) the provider has failed to comply with a requirement imposed by a confirmation decision that is of a kind described in section 133(1) relating to the failure;
    - (ii) the provider has failed to pay a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision relating to the failure (and the confirmation decision did not impose any requirements of a kind described in section 133(1));
    - (iii) the provider would be likely to fail to comply with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision if given;
    - (iv) the circumstances of the failure or the risks of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom are such that it is appropriate to make the application without having given a provisional notice of contravention, without having given a confirmation decision, or (having given a confirmation decision imposing requirements) without waiting to ascertain compliance with those requirements.
- (4) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are that—
  - (a) the provider of the Part 3 service has failed to comply with a notice under section 121(1) that relates to the service (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), and
  - (b) the failure is continuing.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) An application by OFCOM for a service restriction order must—
- (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”),
  - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
  - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
  - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed,
  - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such ancillary service provided,
  - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and
  - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (6) The court may make a service restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied—
- (a) as to the grounds in subsection (3) or the grounds in subsection (4) (as the case may be),
  - (b) that the person provides an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service,
  - (c) that it is appropriate to make the order for the purpose of preventing harm to individuals in the United Kingdom, and the order is proportionate to the risk of such harm,
  - (d) in the case of an application made on the ground in subsection (3)(c)(iii) or (iv), that it is appropriate to make the order before a provisional notice of contravention or confirmation decision has been given, or before compliance with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision has been ascertained (as the case may be), and
  - (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice.
- (7) When considering whether to make a service restriction order in relation to the relevant service, and when considering what provision it should contain, the court must take into account (among other things) the rights and obligations of all relevant parties, including those of—
- (a) the non-compliant provider,
  - (b) the person or persons on whom the court is considering imposing the requirements, and
  - (c) United Kingdom users of the relevant service.
- (8) A service restriction order made in relation to the relevant service must—
- (a) identify the non-compliant provider,
  - (b) identify the persons on whom the requirements are imposed, and any ancillary service to which the requirements relate,
  - (c) require such persons to take the steps specified in the order, or to put in place arrangements, that have the effect of withdrawing the ancillary service to the extent that it relates to the relevant service (or part of it), or preventing

- the ancillary service from promoting or displaying content that relates to the relevant service (or part of it) in any way,
- (d) specify the date by which the requirements in the order must be complied with, and
  - (e) specify the date on which the order expires, or the period for which the order has effect.
- (9) The steps that may be specified or arrangements that may be required to be put in place—
- (a) include steps or arrangements that will or may require the termination of an agreement (whether or not made before the coming into force of this section), or the prohibition of the performance of such an agreement, and
  - (b) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements relating to the operation of the relevant service as it affects United Kingdom users.
- (10) OFCOM must inform the Secretary of State as soon as reasonably practicable after a service restriction order has been made.
- (11) For the purposes of this section, a service is an “ancillary service” in relation to a regulated service if the service facilitates the provision of the regulated service (or part of it), whether directly or indirectly, or displays or promotes content relating to the regulated service (or to part of it).
- (12) Examples of ancillary services include—
- (a) services, provided (directly or indirectly) in the course of a business, which enable funds to be transferred in relation to a regulated service,
  - (b) search engines which generate search results displaying or promoting content relating to a regulated service,
  - (c) user-to-user services which make content relating to a regulated service available to users, and
  - (d) services which use technology to facilitate the display of advertising on a regulated service (for example, an ad server or an ad network).
- (13) In this section “the court” means—
- (a) in England and Wales, the High Court or the county court,
  - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or a sheriff, and
  - (c) in Northern Ireland, the High Court or a county court.

145 Interim service restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an interim order under this section (an “interim service restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that—
- (a) the grounds in subsection (3) apply in relation to the service, or
  - (b) in the case of a Part 3 service, the grounds in subsection (4) apply in relation to the service.
- (2) An interim service restriction order is an interim order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an ancillary service (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (9)).
- (3) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are that—
- (a) it is likely that the provider of the regulated service is failing to comply with an enforceable requirement that applies in relation to the regulated service, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (b) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it would not be appropriate to wait to establish the failure before applying for the order.
- (4) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are that—
  - (a) it is likely that the provider of the Part 3 service is failing to comply with a notice under section 121(1) that relates to the service (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), and
  - (b) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it would not be appropriate to wait to establish the failure before applying for the order.
- (5) An application by OFCOM for an interim service restriction order must—
  - (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”),
  - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
  - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
  - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed,
  - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such ancillary service provided,
  - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and
  - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (6) The court may make an interim service restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied—
  - (a) as to the ground in subsection (3)(a) or the ground in subsection (4)(a) (as the case may be),
  - (b) that the person provides an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service,
  - (c) that there are prima facie grounds to suggest that an application for a service restriction order under section 144 would be successful,
  - (d) that the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (4)(a) (whichever applies), and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it is not appropriate to wait for the failure to be established before making the order, and
  - (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice.
- (7) An interim service restriction order ceases to have effect on the earlier of—
  - (a) the date specified in the order, or the date on which the period specified in the order expires (as the case may be), and
  - (b) the date on which the court makes a service restriction order under section 144 in relation to the relevant service that imposes requirements on the same persons on whom requirements are imposed by the interim order, or dismisses the application for such an order.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (8) Subsections (7) to (10) of section 144 apply in relation to an interim service restriction order under this section as they apply in relation to a service restriction order under that section.
- (9) In this section, “ancillary service” and “the court” have the same meaning as in section 144 (see subsections (11), (12) and (13) of that section).

146 Access restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an order under this section (an “access restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that—
- (a) the grounds in section 144(3) or (4) apply in relation to the service, and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) a service restriction order under section 144 or an interim service restriction order under section 145 has been made in relation to the failure, and it was not sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, or
    - (ii) the likely consequences of the failure are such that if a service restriction order or an interim service restriction order were to be made, it would be unlikely to be sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, and in this paragraph, “the failure” means the failure mentioned in section 144(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be).
- (2) An access restriction order is an order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an access facility (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (10)).
- (3) An application by OFCOM for an access restriction order must—
- (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”),
  - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
  - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
  - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed,
  - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an access facility in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such access facility provided,
  - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and
  - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (4) The court may make an access restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied—
- (a) as to the grounds in subsection (1),
  - (b) that the person provides an access facility in relation to the relevant service,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) that it is appropriate to make the order for the purpose of preventing significant harm to individuals in the United Kingdom, and the order is proportionate to the risk of such harm,
  - (d) in the case of an application made on the ground in subsection (3)(c)(iii) or (iv) of section 144 (by virtue of subsection (1)(a)), that it is appropriate to make the order before a provisional notice of contravention or confirmation decision has been given, or before compliance with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision has been ascertained (as the case may be), and
  - (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice.
- (5) When considering whether to make an access restriction order in relation to the relevant service, and when considering what provision it should contain, the court must take into account (among other things) the rights and obligations of all relevant parties, including those of—
- (a) the non-compliant provider,
  - (b) the person or persons on whom the court is considering imposing the requirements, and
  - (c) United Kingdom users of the relevant service.
- (6) An access restriction order made in relation to the relevant service must—
- (a) identify the non-compliant provider,
  - (b) identify the persons on whom the requirements are imposed, and any access facility to which the requirements relate,
  - (c) require such persons to take the steps specified in the order, or to put in place arrangements, to withdraw, adapt or manipulate the access facility in order to impede users' access (by means of that facility) to the relevant service (or to part of it),
  - (d) specify the date by which the requirements in the order must be complied with, and
  - (e) specify the date on which the order expires, or the period for which the order has effect.
- (7) The steps that may be specified or arrangements that may be required to be put in place—
- (a) include steps or arrangements that will or may require the termination of an agreement (whether or not made before the coming into force of this section), or the prohibition of the performance of such an agreement,
  - (b) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements that impede the access of United Kingdom users, and
  - (c) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements that do not affect such users' ability to access any other internet services.
- (8) OFCOM must inform the Secretary of State as soon as reasonably practicable after an access restriction order has been made.
- (9) Where a person who provides an access facility takes steps or puts in place arrangements required by an access restriction order, OFCOM may, by notice, require that person to (where possible) notify persons in the United Kingdom who attempt to access the relevant service via that facility of the access restriction order (and where a confirmation decision has been given to the non-compliant provider, the notification must refer to that decision).

- (10) For the purposes of this section, a facility is an “access facility” in relation to a regulated service if the person who provides the facility is able to withdraw, adapt or manipulate it in such a way as to impede access (by means of that facility) to the regulated service (or to part of it) by United Kingdom users of that service.
- (11) Examples of access facilities include—
- (a) internet access services by means of which a regulated service is made available, and
  - (b) app stores through which a mobile app for a regulated service may be downloaded or otherwise accessed.
- (12) In this section—
- “the court” means—
    - (a) in England and Wales, the High Court or the county court,
    - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or a sheriff, and
    - (c) in Northern Ireland, the High Court or a county court;
  - “facility” means any kind of service, infrastructure or apparatus enabling users of a regulated service to access the regulated service;
  - “internet access service” means a service that provides access to virtually all (or just some) of the end points of the internet.

147 Interim access restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an interim order under this section (an “interim access restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that—
- (a) the grounds in section 145(3) or (4) apply in relation to the service, and
  - (b) either—
    - (i) a service restriction order under section 144 or an interim service restriction order under section 145 has been made in relation to the likely failure, and it was not sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, or
    - (ii) the likely consequences of such a failure would be such that if a service restriction order or an interim service restriction order were to be made, it would be unlikely to be sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure,
- and in this section, “the likely failure” means the likely failure mentioned in section 145(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be).
- (2) An interim access restriction order is an interim order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an access facility (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (8)).
- (3) An application by OFCOM for an interim access restriction order must—
- (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”),
  - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
  - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM's opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed,
  - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an access facility in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such access facility provided,
  - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and
  - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (4) The court may make an interim access restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied—
- (a) that the ground in section 145(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be) applies in relation to the service,
  - (b) as to the ground in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii),
  - (c) that the person provides an access facility in relation to the relevant service,
  - (d) that there are prima facie grounds to suggest that an application for an access restriction order under section 146 would be successful,
  - (e) that the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it is not appropriate to wait for the failure to be established before making the order, and
  - (f) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice.
- (5) An interim access restriction order ceases to have effect on the earlier of—
- (a) the date specified in the order, or the date on which the period specified in the order expires (as the case may be), and
  - (b) the date on which the court makes an access restriction order under section 146 in relation to the relevant service that imposes requirements on the same persons on whom requirements are imposed by the interim order, or dismisses an application for such an order.
- (6) Subsections (5) to (8) of section 146 apply in relation to an interim access restriction order under this section as they apply in relation to an access restriction order under that section.
- (7) Where a person who provides an access facility takes steps or puts in place arrangements required by an interim access restriction order, OFCOM may, by notice, require that person to (where possible) notify persons in the United Kingdom who attempt to access the relevant service via that facility of the interim access restriction order.
- (8) In this section, “access facility” and “the court” have the same meaning as in section 146 (see subsections (10), (11) and (12) of that section).

148 Interaction with other action by OFCOM

- (1) Where OFCOM apply for a business disruption order in respect of a failure by a provider of a regulated service to comply with an enforceable requirement, nothing in sections 144 to 147 is to be taken to prevent OFCOM also giving the provider—
  - (a) a confirmation decision in respect of the failure, or
  - (b) a penalty notice under section 139 in relation to a confirmation decision in respect of the failure.
- (2) Where OFCOM apply for a business disruption order in respect of a failure by a provider of a Part 3 service to comply with a notice under section 121(1) (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), nothing in sections 144 to 147 is to be taken to prevent OFCOM also giving the provider either or both of the following—
  - (a) a further notice under section 121(1) (see section 126);
  - (b) a penalty notice under section 140(5).
- (3) In this section, a “business disruption order” means—
  - (a) a service restriction order under section 144,
  - (b) an interim service restriction order under section 145,
  - (c) an access restriction order under section 146, or
  - (d) an interim access restriction order under section 147.

  - (b) is otherwise not appropriate for publication.
- (4) A matter is confidential under this subsection if—

Guidance

- (2) The statement is a statement prepared by the Secretary of State that sets out strategic priorities of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom relating to online safety matters.
- (3) The statement may, among other things, set out particular outcomes identified with a view to achieving the strategic priorities.
- (4) This section does not restrict the Secretary of State's powers under any other provision of this Act or any other enactment.
- (5) A statement designated under subsection (1) must be published in such manner as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) A statement designated under subsection (1) may be amended (including by replacing the whole or a part of the statement with new material) by a subsequent statement designated under that subsection, and this section and sections 92 and 173 apply in relation to any such subsequent statement as they apply in relation to the original statement.
- (7) Except as provided by subsection (8), no amendment may be made under subsection (6) within the period of five years beginning with the day on which a statement was most recently designated under subsection (1).
- (8) An earlier amendment may be made under subsection (6) if—

- (a) must make any changes to the draft that appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary in view of responses to the consultation, and
  - (b) must then lay the draft before Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State must then wait until the end of the 40-day period and may not designate the statement if, within that period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve it.
- (6) “The 40-day period” is the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House on the same day, the later of the days on which it is laid).
- (7) In calculating the 40-day period, no account is to be taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.

PART 10

COMMUNICATIONS OFFENCES

False and threatening communications offences

179 False communications offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
  - (a) the person sends a message (see section 182),
  - (b) the message conveys information that the person knows to be false,
  - (c) at the time of sending it, the person intended the message, or the information in it, to cause non-trivial psychological or physical harm to a likely audience, and
  - (d) the person has no reasonable excuse for sending the message.
- (2) For the purposes of this offence an individual is a “likely audience” of a message if, at the time the message is sent, it is reasonably foreseeable that the individual—
  - (a) would encounter the message, or
  - (b) in the online context, would encounter a subsequent message forwarding or sharing the content of the message.
- (3) In a case where several or many individuals are a likely audience, it is not necessary for the purposes of subsection (1)(c) that the person intended to cause harm to any one of them in particular (or to all of them).
- (4) See section 180 for exemptions from the offence under this section.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for summary offences or a fine (or both);

- (6) In subsection (5)(a) “the maximum term for summary offences” means—
  - (a) if the offence is committed before the time when section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, 6 months;
  - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks.
- (7) Proceedings for an offence under this section may be brought within the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the prosecutor to justify the proceedings comes to the prosecutor’s knowledge.
- (8) But such proceedings may not be brought by virtue of subsection (7) more than 3 years after the commission of the offence.
- (9) A certificate signed by the prosecutor as to the date on which the evidence in question came to the prosecutor’s knowledge is conclusive evidence of the date on which it did so; and a certificate to that effect and purporting to be so signed is to be treated as being so signed unless the contrary is proved.

180 Exemptions from offence under section 179

- (1) A recognised news publisher cannot commit an offence under section 179.
- (2) An offence under section 179 cannot be committed by the holder of a licence under the Broadcasting Act 1990 or 1996 in connection with anything done under the authority of the licence.

181 Threatening communications offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
  - (a) the person sends a message (see section 182),
  - (b) the message conveys a threat of death or serious harm, and
  - (c) at the time of sending it, the person—
    - (i) intended an individual encountering the message to fear that the threat would be carried out (whether or not by the person sending the message), or
    - (ii) was reckless as to whether an individual encountering the message would fear that the threat would be carried out (whether or not by the person sending the message).
- (2) “Serious harm” means—
  - (a) serious injury amounting to grievous bodily harm within the meaning of the Offences against the Person Act 1861,
  - (b) rape,
  - (c) assault by penetration within the meaning of section 2 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, or
  - (d) serious financial loss.
- (3) In proceedings for an offence under this section relating to a threat of serious financial loss, it is a defence for the person to show that—
  - (a) the threat was used to reinforce a reasonable demand, and
  - (b) the person reasonably believed that the use of the threat was a proper means of reinforcing the demand.
- (4) If evidence is adduced which is sufficient to raise an issue with respect to the defence under subsection (3), the court must assume that the defence is satisfied unless the prosecution proves beyond reasonable doubt that it is not.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);

  - (b) causes a letter or a thing of any other description to be—
    - (i) sent, or
    - (ii) given to an individual.
- (4) But a provider of an internet service by means of which a communication is sent, transmitted or published is not to be regarded as a person who sends a message.
- (5) “Encounter”, in relation to a message, means read, view, hear or otherwise experience the message.
- (6) It does not matter whether the content of a message is created by the person who sends it (so for example, in the online context, an offence may be committed by a person who forwards another person’s direct message or shares another person’s post).
- (7) In the application of sections 179 to 181 to the sending by electronic means of a message consisting of or including a hyperlink to other content—
  - (a) references to the message are to be read as including references to content accessed directly via the hyperlink, and
  - (b) an individual who is a likely audience in relation to the hyperlink for the purposes of section 179 is to be assumed to be a likely audience in relation to the linked content.
- (8) In the application of sections 179 to 181 to the sending of an item on which data is stored electronically, references to the message are to be read as including content accessed by means of the item to which the recipient is specifically directed by the sender (and in this subsection “sending” includes “giving”, and “sender” is to be read accordingly).
- (9) In the online context, the date on which a person commits an offence in relation to a message is the date on which the message is first sent by the person.
- (10) “Recognised news publisher” has the meaning given by section 56.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (11) “Multiplex licence” means a licence under section 8 of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006 which authorises the provision of a multiplex service within the meaning of section 42(6) of that Act.
- (12) “On-demand programme service” has the same meaning as in the Communications Act (see section 368A of that Act), and a person is the “provider” of an on-demand programme service if the person has given notification of the person’s intention to provide that service in accordance with section 368BA of that Act.

- (12) In this section—
- (a) references to sending a communication include references to causing a communication to be sent;

PART 11

SUPPLEMENTARY AND GENERAL

Providers' judgements about the status of content

192 Providers' judgements about the status of content

  - (b) a risk assessment required to be carried out by Part 3, or
  - (c) an assessment required to be carried out by section 14, involves a judgement by a provider about whether content is content of a particular kind.
- (2) Such judgements are to be made on the basis of all relevant information that is reasonably available to a provider.
- (3) In construing the reference to information that is reasonably available to a provider, the following factors, in particular, are relevant—
  - (a) the size and capacity of the provider, and
  - (b) whether a judgement is made by human moderators, by means of automated systems or processes or by means of automated systems or processes together with human moderators.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) In making such judgements, the approach to be followed is whether a provider has reasonable grounds to infer that content is content of the kind in question (and a provider must treat content as content of the kind in question if reasonable grounds for that inference exist).
- (6) Reasonable grounds for that inference exist in relation to content and an offence if, following the approach in subsection (2), a provider—
  - (a) has reasonable grounds to infer that all elements necessary for the commission of the offence, including mental elements, are present or satisfied, and
  - (b) does not have reasonable grounds to infer that a defence to the offence may be successfully relied upon.
- (7) In the case of content generated by a bot or other automated tool, the tests mentioned in subsection (6)(a) and (b) are to be applied in relation to the conduct or mental state of a person who may be assumed to control the bot or tool (or, depending what a provider knows in a particular case, the actual person who controls the bot or tool).
- (8) In considering a provider’s compliance with relevant requirements to which this section is relevant, OFCOM may take into account whether providers’ judgements follow the approaches set out in this section (including judgements made by means of automated systems or processes, alone or together with human moderators).
- (9) In this section—
  - “fraudulent advertisement” has the meaning given by section 38 or 39 (depending on the kind of service in question);

- But this is subject to subsection (6).
