

Marine Insurance Act 1906

1906 CHAPTER 41 6 Edw 7

THE POLICY

28 Unvalued policy.

An unvalued policy is a policy which does not specify the value of the subject-matter insured, but, subject to the limit of the sum insured, leaves the insurable value to be subsequently ascertained, in the manner herein-before specified.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Insurance Act 1906, Section 28.