

Patents and Designs Act 1907

1907 CHAPTER 29

PART I

PATENTS

Application for and Grant of Patent

1 Application

- (1) An application for a patent may be made by any person who claims to be the true and first inventor of an invention, whether he is a British subject or not, and whether alone or jointly with any other person.
- (2) The application must be made in the prescribed form, and must be left at, or sent by post to, the patent office in the prescribed manner.
- (3) The application must contain a declaration to the effect that the applicant is in possession of an invention, whereof he, or in the case of a joint application one at least of the applicants, claims to be the true and first inventor, and for which he desires to obtain a patent, and must be accompanied by either a provisional or complete specification.
- (4) The declaration required by this section may be either a statutory declaration or not, as may be prescribed.
