

Post Office Act 1953

1953 CHAPTER 36

Conveyance of mail bags by ships and aircraft

25 Outward bound ships

- (1) Every master of a ship outward bound shall receive on board his ship every mail bag tendered to him by an officer of the Post Office for conveyance, and having received it shall deliver it, on arriving at the port or place of his destination, without delay.
- (2) If the master of any such ship fails to comply with this section he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds.