 - (f) fixing, subject to such power of revision as may be provided by the scheme, the conditions on which an office is to be held, ^{F19}...;
 - (g) applying with any necessary modifications, adaptations and exceptions the provisions of the Local Government Act ^{M2} 1929 relating to the transfer, superannuation and compensation of officers;
 - (h) conferring on the [^{F20}proper officer of the non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] powers with respect to—
 - (i) the fixing of the hours of attendance of officers;
 - (ii) the distribution of business between officers;
 - (iii) the transfer of superintendent registrars and registrars of births and deaths within or between districts.
- (3) The local scheme may in addition—
 - (a) make provision, where two or more officers are appointed to act for a single district or sub-district, for the distribution between them of the registration functions to be discharged within that district or sub-district, so, however, that any such distribution shall not render any such officer disqualified from acting at any time or at any place in that district or, as the case may be, sub-district; and
 - (b) confer on the [^{F20}proper officer of the non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] such general powers of supervising the administration within the [^{F18}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] of the provisions of the Registration Acts as may be specified in the scheme.

14 Preparation, submission and approval of local schemes.

- (1) The council of a [^{F21}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] may from time to time prepare and submit to the Minister schemes for all or any of the purposes mentioned in the last foregoing section.
- (2) In the case of any [^{F21}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] created after the commencement of this Act, the council of that [^{F21}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] shall prepare and submit to the Minister a local scheme within such period as the Minister may allow.
- (3) Any scheme under this section shall fix the date or dates on which the scheme is to come into operation and may fix different dates for different provisions of the scheme or for different areas and the dates so fixed may be made dependent on the happening of specified events.
- (4) No such scheme shall be of any effect unless and until it is approved by the Minister, and the Minister, after considering any representations with respect to the scheme which may be submitted to him by any officer affected, may approve the scheme with or without modifications.
- (5) If—
 - (a) it appears to the Registrar General at any time that by reason of special circumstances an immediate adjustment is necessary in the division of any [^{F21}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] into districts and sub-districts; or
 - (b) a council required by subsection (2) of this section to submit a local scheme to the Minister fails to do so within the period allowed by the Minister,the Registrar General may, after consultation with the council of the [^{F21}non-metropolitan county or metropolitan district] concerned, prepare a scheme for the purpose, and any scheme so prepared by him, if approved by the Minister, shall have effect as if it were a scheme submitted by the council and approved by the Minister in accordance with this section.
- (6) Any scheme under this section may contain such incidental, consequential or supplemental provisions as may appear necessary or proper for the purposes of the scheme and may be varied or revoked by a subsequent scheme made in like manner as the original scheme:
Provided that a scheme prepared by the Registrar General and approved by the Minister under the last foregoing subsection may be varied or revoked either by a subsequent scheme so prepared and approved or by a subsequent scheme submitted by the council concerned and approved by the Minister in accordance with this section.

19AC Code of practice

- (1) The Registrar General must issue a code of practice about the disclosure of information under section 19AA.
- (2) The code of practice must be consistent with the code of practice issued under section 52B (data-sharing code) of the Data Protection Act 1998 (as altered or replaced from time to time).
- (3) A civil registration official must have regard to the code of practice in disclosing information under section 19AA.
- (4) The Registrar General may from time to time revise and re-issue the code of practice.
- (5) Before issuing or revising the code of practice the Registrar General must consult—
 - (a) the Minister,
 - (b) the Information Commissioner, and
 - (c) such other persons as the Registrar General thinks fit.
- (6) The Registrar General may not issue the code of practice unless a draft of the code has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (7) Before reissuing the code the Registrar General must lay a draft of the code as proposed to be reissued before Parliament.
- (8) The Registrar General may not reissue the code if, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve it.
- (9) In subsection (8) “the 40 day period” means—
 - (a) the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament, or
 - (b) if the draft is not laid before each House on the same day, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the days on which it is laid before Parliament.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9) no account is to be taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (11) In disclosing information under section 19AA, a civil registration official must have regard to the following codes of practice issued by the Information Commissioner under section 51(3) of the Data Protection Act 1998, so far as they apply to the information in question—
