

Registration Service Act 1953

1953 CHAPTER 37 1 and 2 Eliz 2

Registrar General, etc.

2 General Register Office.

The offices of the Registrar General shall be known as the General Register Office and any place in which any registers or records in the custody of the Registrar General by virtue of this or any other Act are deposited by direction of the Registrar General with the approval of the Treasury shall, so long as those registers or records are there deposited, be deemed to be part of the General Register Office.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Registration Service Act 1953, Section 2.