62 Local enactments relating to the supply of water for canals.

(1) Any local enactment which authorises the British Waterways Board to take water for the purpose (whether express or implied) of using the water for a canal owned or managed by the British Waterways Board, or for purposes which include that purpose, shall have effect as if that purpose included the purpose of selling, or affording the use of, water from the canal; and the British Waterways Board may exercise their powers under Part I of this Act accordingly.

(2) The foregoing subsection shall not be taken as authorising the British Waterways Board—

- (a) to disregard any restriction, whether as regards quantity or rate or otherwise, on the water which may be taken from any source, or
- (b) to affect the level or flow of water in any part of the canal, or in any river or watercourse fed from the canal, to a degree which conflicts with any of the Board’s obligations, and in particular with any statutory obligation to maintain the canal in a navigable condition.

63 Abstraction of water by British Waterways Board.

(1) Subject to this section the British Waterways Board shall not without the consent of the Minister sell water from an inland waterway—

- (a) unless the water is abstracted at a point at which water was being abstracted before the passing of this Act, and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/06/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Transport Act 1962, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) unless the quantity of water sold in the period of twelve months beginning with the vesting date, and in each subsequent period of twelve months, does not exceed the quantity abstracted at that point in the period of twelve months ending with the passing of this Act, and
- (c) unless the land or premises on which the water is used is the same as that on which the water was used before the passing of this Act.
- (2) If on the vesting date the British Waterways Board become subject to an obligation to sell water such that the quantity they are obliged to sell is limited, whether by reference to the average rate of abstraction, or the quantity abstracted in any period, or otherwise, then, so long as the terms of the obligation are not varied, subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to the sale of water in discharge of the obligation.
- (3) F28
- (4) The British Waterways Board shall serve on the persons specified in this section notice of any application made by them for the consent of the Minister, giving sufficient particulars of their proposals and of the terms of the consent applied for, and stating that the person on whom the notice is served should submit any objections to the Minister within twenty-eight days of service of the notice and should within that time send a copy of any such objection to the Board.
- (5) The British Waterways Board shall publish in one or more newspapers circulating in the area in which the point of abstraction is situated a notice of any application made by them for the consent of the Minister, giving sufficient particulars of their proposals and of the terms of consent applied for.
- (6) F28
- (7) In Scotland the persons on whom the notice is to be served shall be—
- (a) the council of the county or burgh in which the point of abstraction is situated,
 - (b) the river purification authority in whose area the point of abstraction is situated and any other river purification authority on whom the Minister after consultation with [F29the Secretary of State for Scotland] directs the notice to be served,
 - (c) any salmon fishery district board on whom the Minister after consultation with [F29the Secretary of State for Scotland] directs the notice to be served, and
 - (d) [F30Scottish Water.]
- (8) The British Waterways Board shall give the Minister such information as he may require to determine whether any directions should be given under the two last foregoing subsections.
- (9) The Minister shall not entertain the application unless he is satisfied that all the required notices have been duly given; and the Minister shall take into consideration any objections duly made by the persons on whom they have been served.
- (10) The Minister in considering the application and the terms in which any consent ought to be given shall have regard—
- (a) to the importance of the uses to which the abstracted water will be put and to the present and future needs of statutory water undertakers, industry and agriculture, and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/06/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Transport Act 1962, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) to the effect which the proposals may have on fisheries, land drainage or public health, or on the inland waterway directly affected or any other inland waterway or stream, and
 - (c) to the extent to which the abstracted water will be returned,
- and shall, before giving his consent as respects any inland waterway in Scotland, consult the Secretary of State.
- (11) The Minister may give his consent either in the terms requested in the application, or in any other terms, but shall not afford terms more favourable than those requested unless he is satisfied that all the authorities concerned have had an opportunity of considering those terms and making objections.
 - (12) The terms of any consent given by the Minister shall be transmitted by the British Waterways Board to each of the persons on whom they are required in pursuance of this section to serve notice of their application for consent.
 - (13) The Commission shall before the vesting date compile for the use of the British Waterways Board a record of all cases in which, in the period of twelve months ending with the passing of this Act, they were abstracting water from inland waterways for use on any land or premises, and shall include in the record particulars of the land or premises on which the water was used, of the points of abstraction, of the total quantities abstracted in the said period, and of any contract under which they were obliged to sell the water.

The British Waterways Board shall give reasonable facilities for the inspection of the record by representatives of the authorities described in subsections (6) and (7) of this section, and shall, at the request of any such authority, give them any information as to the contents of the record.

- (14) In this section—
 - [^{F31} “ local water authority ” has the meaning given by section five of the ^{M3}Water (Scotland) Act 1946;]
 - “river purification authority” has the same meaning as in Part III of the ^{M4}Rivers (Prevention of Pollution) (Scotland) Act 1951;
 - “salmon fishery district board” means the district board for a fishery district for the purposes of the ^{M5}Salmon Fisheries (Scotland) Act 1862, and the Commissioners appointed under the ^{M6}Tweed Fisheries Act 1857;
 - “statutory water undertakers” has the meaning given by subsection (1) of section fifty-nine of the ^{M7}Water Act 1945;
 - “stream” includes any river or watercourse whether natural or artificial.

(15) ^{F28}

- (16) References in this section to the sale by the British Waterways Board of water from an inland waterway include references to any arrangements whereby the Board for valuable consideration abstract, or authorise the abstraction of, the water of an inland waterway for use by some other person, whether or not the water is returned after use.
- (17) The granting of consent under this section shall not be taken as authorising the British Waterways Board to do anything which they would not have power to do apart from the provisions of this section.

65 The railway savings banks.

(1) In this section—

“the railway savings banks” means the savings banks established under—section twenty-three of the ^{M8}Metropolitan Railway Act 1873, section forty-five of the ^{M9}Great Western Railway Act 1885, section eighteen of the ^{M10}Taff Vale Railway Act 1895, section sixty-one of the ^{M11}London, Midland and Scottish Railway Act 1924, section ninety-nine of the ^{M12}Southern Railway Act 1924, and section three of the ^{M13}London and North Eastern Railway Act 1944, and any other savings bank for which the Commission was responsible before the vesting date and which primarily served those employed by the Commission on their railways;

“the appropriate Board” means—

- (a) in relation to the savings bank established under the ^{M14}Metropolitan Railway Act 1873, [^{F33}the London Transport Executive]
- (b) in relation to any other railway savings bank, the Railways Board.

(2) Part II of this Act shall not apply to the property, rights and liabilities of the Commission so far as held and subsisting for the purposes of any railway savings bank, but all such property, rights and liabilities shall by virtue of this section be transferred on the vesting date to the appropriate Board and held assumed by that Board subject in all respects to the duties and obligations to which the Commission were subject immediately before the vesting date.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/06/2010.

- (3) As from the vesting date, for references to the Commission in the enactments listed in subsection (1) of this section and in any other statutory provision, so far as that provision relates to a railway savings bank, there shall be substituted references to the appropriate Board, and for references in any such enactment to any officer or servant of, or person appointed by, the Commission there shall be substituted a reference to such person as the appropriate Board may appoint or, in default of appointment, in the case of references to any officer or servant of the Commission, to the officer or servant of that Board who corresponds as nearly as may be to the first mentioned officer or servant.
- (4) Subject to this section, the persons entitled to deposit money in the railway savings banks established under section forty-five of the ^{M15}Great Western Railway Act 1885, section sixty-one of the ^{M16}London Midland and Scottish Railway Act 1924, section ninety-nine of the ^{M17}Southern Railway Act 1924, and section three of the ^{M18}London and North Eastern Railway Act 1944, shall be—
- (a) existing depositors,
 - (b) persons employed by the Railways Board,
 - (c) persons who, owing to incapacity arising from ill health or on reaching retirement age, have retired from service with the Railways Board or the Commission or the railway company by which the savings bank was established,
 - (d) members of the families of persons of any of the foregoing descriptions,
 - (e) any group, society or association the members of which consist, or mainly consist, of persons of any of the foregoing descriptions.
- (5) The persons entitled to make deposits in any railway savings bank other than those to which the last foregoing subsection applies shall be the persons who are depositors in that bank on the vesting date, and, where any such depositor is a man who dies leaving a widow, his widow during her widowhood.
- (6) So much of the enactments listed in the definition of railway savings banks in subsection (1) of this section as relates to the charging of deposits on the undertaking or profits of any body shall cease to have effect.

- (1) The Railways Board [^{F35}may] make bylaws regulating the use and working of, and travel on, their railways, the maintenance of order on their railways and railway premises, including stations and the approaches to stations, and the conduct of all persons, including their officers and servants, while on those premises, and in particular bylaws—
 - (a) with respect to tickets issued for entry on their railway premises or travel on their railways and the evasion of payment of fares and other charges,
 - (b) with respect to interference or obstruction of the working of the railways,
 - (c) with respect to the smoking of tobacco in railway carriages and elsewhere and the prevention of nuisances;
 - (d) with respect to the receipt and delivery of goods, and
 - (e) for regulating the passage of bicycles and other vehicles on footways and other premises controlled by the [^{F36}Board] and intended for the use of those on foot.
- (2) The Railways Board may make bylaws in relation to passengers and goods conveyed in or on ships operated by the Board, and as to their embarkation and disembarkation.

^{F37} [^{F38}(2A)]

- ^{F39}(3) Any bylaws made under this section may provide—
 - (a) in the case of byelaws made by virtue of subsection (1) above, that any person contravening them shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding [^{F40}level 3 on the standard scale] for each offence; and
 - (b) in the case of byelaws made by virtue of subsection (2) above, that any person contravening them shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F40}level 2 on the standard scale] for each offence and, in the case of such a contravention which continues after conviction, to a fine not exceeding £10 for each day on which the offence so continues.]
- (4) Without prejudice to the taking of summary proceedings under the last foregoing subsection, if the contravention of any bylaw having effect under this section is attended with danger or annoyance to the public, or hindrance to a Board in the lawful use of their railway, it shall be lawful for the Board in question summarily to interfere to obviate or remove the danger, annoyance or hindrance.
- (5) Bylaws under this section shall not come into operation until they have been confirmed by the Minister.
- (6) At least twenty-eight days before application for confirmation of any bylaws is made the Board in question shall publish in such manner as may be approved by the Minister a notice of their intention to apply for confirmation and of the place at which and

- (7) For at least twenty-four days before application for confirmation of any bylaws is made under this section, a copy of the bylaws shall be kept at the principal office of the Board and shall at all reasonable hours be open to public inspection without payment.
- (8) The Board shall supply a copy of any such bylaws to any person who applies for a copy thereof on payment of such sum not exceeding [^{F41}50p] as the Board shall determine.
- (9) The Minister may confirm with or without modification, or may refuse to confirm, any of the bylaws submitted under this section for confirmation and, as regards any bylaws so confirmed, may fix a date on which the bylaws shall come into operation; and if no date is so fixed the bylaws shall come into operation after the expiration of twenty-eight days after the date of confirmation.
- [^{F42}(9A) The Minister may charge the Board such fees in respect of any bylaws submitted for confirmation under this section as he may consider appropriate for the purpose of defraying any administrative expenses incurred by him in connection therewith.]
- (10) A copy of the bylaws when confirmed shall be printed and deposited at the principal office of the Board and shall at all reasonable hours be open to public inspection without payment, and the Board shall supply a copy of any such bylaws to any person who applies for a copy thereof on payment of such sum not exceeding [^{F41}50p] as the Board shall determine.
- (11) The production of a printed copy of bylaws confirmed under this section on which is indorsed a certificate purporting to be signed by the secretary of the Board or of some person authorised by the Board to act in his stead in that behalf, stating—
 - (a) that the bylaws were made by the Board or by the Commission,
 - (b) that the copy is a true copy of the bylaws,
 - (c) that on a specified date the bylaws were confirmed by the Minister, and
 - (d) the date when the bylaws come into operation,shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.
- (12) The power of making bylaws under this section shall include power to vary or repeal any bylaws previously made under this section.
- (13) Sections one hundred and eight and one hundred and nine of the ^{M19}Railways Clauses Consolidation Act 1845, sections one hundred and one and one hundred and two of the ^{M20}Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845, section thirty-two of the ^{M21}Railways Clauses Act 1863, and section seven of the ^{M22}Regulation of Railways Act 1889, shall cease to have effect, but any bylaws under any of those enactments which were in force immediately before the vesting date and which applied in relation to any of the railways belonging to the Commission, or in relation to the ships operated by the Commission, shall continue in force and have effect as if made under this section, and subject to the provisions of Part II of this Act so far as applicable.
- [^{F43}(14)]
- (15) In the bylaws made by the Commission under the said Acts of 1845 which relate to the railways of the Commission other than those of [^{F44}London Regional Transport] which 72 General provisions as to terms and conditions of employment of staff.

- (1) It shall be the duty of each Board, except as far as they are satisfied that adequate machinery exists for achieving the purpose of this subsection, to seek consultation with any organisation appearing to the Board to be appropriate, with a view to the conclusion between the Board and that organisation of such agreements as appear to the parties to be desirable with respect to the establishment and maintenance of machinery for—
 - (a) the settlement by negotiation of terms and conditions of employment of persons employed by the Board, with provision for reference to arbitration in default of such settlement in such cases as may be determined by or under the agreements, and
 - (b) the promotion and encouragement of measures affecting the safety, health and welfare of persons employed by the Board and the discussion of other matters of mutual interest to the board and such persons, including efficiency in the operation of the Board’s services.
- (2) Where the Board conclude such an agreement as is mentioned in the foregoing subsection or any variation is made in such an agreement, the Board shall forthwith transmit particulars of the agreement or the variation to the Minister and [^{F54}the Secretary of State].
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting a Board from taking part together with other employers in the establishment and maintenance of machinery for the settlement of terms and conditions of employment, and the promotion and encouragement of measures affecting the health, safety and welfare of their workers, and the discussion of other matters of mutual interest to them and their workers.

74 Minister's power to make orders about pensions.

- (1) The Minister may make orders—
 - (a) with respect to the provision of pensions by the Boards and the Holding Company and by the subsidiaries of the Boards and of the Holding Company for or in respect of—
 - (i) their employees, or persons who have been in their employment, or
 - (ii) persons who have been in the employment of the Commission or of any subsidiary of the Commission or of any body whose undertaking or part of whose undertaking was transferred to the Commission under or by virtue of the ^{M26}Transport Act 1947, or
 - (iii) persons who have been employed in connection with the Caledonian and Crinan Canals or Holyhead Harbour, or by or in connection with the Railway Clearing House;
 - (b) for the establishment and administration of existing or future pension schemes and pension funds for any of the purposes of the foregoing paragraph;and the Boards and the Holding Company shall exercise the powers conferred on them by the last foregoing section subject to any order under this section.
- (2) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by the foregoing subsection, the Minister may make orders—
 - (a) for enabling employees of any of the Boards or the Holding Company or a subsidiary of any of the Boards or the Holding Company to participate or continue to participate in any pension scheme in which employees of the Commission or a subsidiary of the Commission participated before the vesting

- date, or in any pension scheme established under this section, and requiring their employers to make payments under that scheme,
- (b) for modifying any pension scheme the participants in which include persons of any of the descriptions in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph (a) of the foregoing subsection, so as to ensure that changes cannot be effected in the pension scheme without the approval of the Minister,
 - (c) for varying the rates of the contributions to be made under any pension scheme by employees of any of the Boards or the Holding Company or a subsidiary of any of the Boards or the Holding Company, as well as the rates of employers' contributions and the benefits under the scheme, and
 - (d) for re-arranging, amalgamating, simplifying and assimilating pension schemes the participants in which include any such persons.
- (3) An order under this section may in particular provide—
- (a) for altering or winding up any pension scheme,
 - (b) for varying any trust or transferring any pension fund, or obligations or liabilities under a pension scheme,
 - (c) for requiring a Board or the Holding Company to make payments to the persons administering a pension scheme so as to convert the pension scheme from an unfunded scheme into a funded scheme,
 - (d) for establishing any body to administer or assist in administering a pension scheme,
 - (e) for enabling all or any of the participants in a pension scheme to become instead participants in another pension scheme,
 - (f) for empowering the persons responsible for administering any pension scheme established for the purposes of an undertaking carried on by persons other than the Boards, the Holding Company or any subsidiary of any Board, or of the Holding Company, to carry out any arrangements for the participation in the scheme of a person who has been an employee of the Commission, or of the Boards or of the Holding Company, or of any subsidiary of any of those bodies,
 - (g) as to the manner in which questions arising under the order are to be determined,
- and may contain such supplemental, incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the Minister expedient.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, an order under this section may contain provisions authorising any person who, having pension rights to which an order under this section relates, becomes a member of a Board, or the Holding Company, or a director of a subsidiary of a Board or of the Holding Company, to be treated for the purposes of a pension scheme as if his service as such a member or director were service in the employment of such a body, and as if, where that service immediately precedes or follows other service which is, or is to be treated as, service in that employment, the two periods of service were continuous.
- (5) An order under this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in—
- (a) any local enactment, or
 - (b) any regulations or other instrument made under the ^{M27}Transport Act 1947, or the ^{M28}Transport Act 1953, and continued in force by this Act, or
 - (c) the Truck Acts, 1831 to 1940, or the ^{M29}Shop Clubs Act 1902, or

- (d) section eighty of the ^{M30}London Passenger Transport Act 1933 (which contains transitional provisions concerning superannuation funds affected by that Act),
- and may amend or repeal any such enactment or instrument as is mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.
- (6) (a) Orders under this section shall be so framed as to secure that no person other than the Boards, the Holding Company and any subsidiary of any Board, or of the Holding Company, is placed in any worse position by reason of the order.
- (b) An order shall not be invalid by reason that in fact it does not have the result of securing that all such persons are not placed in any worse position by reason of the provisions of the order, but if the Minister is satisfied or it is determined as hereinafter mentioned that any such order has failed to secure that result, the Minister shall as soon as may be make the necessary amending order.
- (c) Any dispute arising between the Minister and any person as to whether or not the said result has been secured by any order under this section shall be referred to a referee or board of referees appointed by the Minister of Labour after consultation with the Lord Chancellor [^{F56}and the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales], or, where the proceedings are to be held in Scotland, after consultation with the Secretary of State, for his or their determination thereof.
- (d) The Minister of Labour may, with the consent of the Treasury, pay out of money provided by Parliament—
- (i) to any referee or to the members of any board of referees appointed under this subsection such fees and allowances as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine, and
- (ii) to persons giving evidence before any such referees or board such allowances as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine.
- (e) For the purposes of this subsection no person shall be regarded as being placed in a worse position because an order provides that any changes in a pension scheme are not to be effected without the consent of the Minister.
- (f) Nothing in [^{F57}any of sections 1 to 15 of and schedule 1 to the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 or][^{F58}Part I of the Arbitration Act 1996], shall be construed as applying to any proceedings before a referee or board of referees appointed under this section.
- (7) An order under this section may be made so as to have effect from a date prior to the making of the order, so, however, that so much of any order as provides that any provision thereof is to have effect from a date prior to the making of the order shall not place any person other than the Boards, the Holding Company or any subsidiary of any Board, or of the Holding Company, in a worse position than he would have been in if the order had been made to have effect only from the date of its making.
- (8) The power of making orders under this section shall be exercised by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and the power of making orders under this section shall include power to vary or revoke a previous order.
- (9) ^{F59} an order under this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in regulations made under the said Act before the order was made.

or loss or diminution of emoluments or pension rights, or whose position is worsened, in consequence of the reorganisation effected by this Act.

- (2) The regulations may apply to any such person whether or not he continues in the employment of the Commission until the vesting date and whether or not he is a party to an agreement for the rendering of personal services to the Commission which is modified by section thirty-four of this Act.
- (3) Different regulations may be made under this section in relation to different classes of persons, and any such regulations may be so framed as to have effect from a date prior to the making thereof, so, however, that so much of any regulations as provides that any provision thereof is to have effect as from a date earlier than the making thereof shall not place any person (other than the body paying compensation) in a worse position than he would have been in if the regulations had been made to have effect only as from the making thereof.
- (4) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) may prescribe the procedure to be followed in making claims for compensation, and the manner in which and the person by whom the question whether any or what compensation is payable is to be determined, and
 - (b) may in particular contain provisions enabling appeals from any determination as to whether any or what compensation is payable to be brought, in such cases and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the regulations, to a referee or board of referees appointed by [^{F64}the Secretary of State], after consultation with the Lord Chancellor [^{F65}and the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales], or, where the proceedings are to be held in Scotland, after consultation with the Secretary of State.
- (5) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) [^{F64}The Secretary of State] may, with the consent of the Treasury, pay out of money provided by Parliament—
 - (a) to any referee or to the members of any board of referees appointed by him in pursuance of regulations under this section such fees and allowances as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine, and
 - (b) to persons giving evidence before any such referee or board such allowances as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine.
- (7) Nothing in [^{F66}any of sections 1 to 15 of and schedule 1 to the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 or][^{F67}Part I of the Arbitration Act 1996], shall be construed as applying to any proceedings before a referee or board of referees appointed in pursuance of regulations under this section.

86 Application of Town and Country Planning Acts.

- (1) It is hereby declared that for the purposes of the Town and Country Planning Acts anything done by any of the Boards—
- (a) in the exercise of the powers conferred by section eleven of this Act so far as that section relates to development of land for use otherwise than for the purposes of the business of the Board; or
 - (b) in the exercise of the powers conferred by section twelve of this Act so far as that section relates to pipe-lines which are not required for the purposes of the business of the Board other than the operation of pipe-lines,
- does not constitute the carrying on by the Board of their statutory undertaking and, in particular, that land which is used, or in which an interest is held, by a Board exclusively for the purpose of exercising those powers does not constitute operational land.
- (2) Without prejudice to the foregoing subsection and subject to the next following subsection, any development of operational land by a Board in the exercise of the said powers shall not for the purposes of the said Acts constitute development of operational land.
- (3) The last foregoing subsection shall not apply to development if—
- (a) the development comprises development by the Board for the purpose of carrying on their statutory undertaking or is development for a purpose which includes that purpose; and
 - (b) the development is such that so much of it as is exclusively referable to the exercise by the Board of the said powers cannot fairly be treated for the purposes of the said Acts as separate development.
- (4) Any question under the last foregoing subsection whether part of any development can fairly be treated as separate development shall be determined by the local planning authority to whom application is made for permission for the development in question, or, where an application for permission for the development in question is referred to the Minister ^{F75}or, in the case of the British Waterways Board in respect of any development in Scotland, the Scottish Ministers], by the Minister ^{F76}or, as the case may be, by the Scottish Ministers] . . . ^{F77}; and where part of any development is so treated this section and the said Acts shall apply to the parts of the development in all respects as if they were separate development.
- (5) If an applicant is aggrieved by a determination of a local planning authority under the last foregoing subsection, he may appeal to the Minister ^{F78}or, in the case of the British Waterways Board in respect of any development in Scotland, to the Scottish Ministers], . . . ^{F77}

The provisions of the said Acts and of any development order as to the time and manner for appealing to the Minister ^{F78}or, in the case of the British Waterways Board in respect of any development in Scotland, to the Scottish Ministers] against planning decisions of local planning authorities shall apply, subject to any necessary modifications, to an appeal under this subsection.

- (6) The provisions of the said Acts as to the validity, and proceedings for challenging the validity, of decisions of the Minister [or, in the case of the British Waterways Board in respect of any development in Scotland, to the Scottish Ministers] on applications for planning permission referred to him under those Acts or on appeals to him under those Acts against planning decisions of local planning authorities shall apply to any determination of the Minister [or, in the case of the British Waterways Board in respect of any development in Scotland, to the Scottish Ministers] . . . ^{F77} under this section as if a reference to this section were included in those provisions.

[^{F79}(6A) In Scotland any question to be determined by the Minister under subsection (4) above and any appeal under subsection (5) shall be determined by [^{F80}the Secretary of State for Scotland acting jointly with [^{F81}the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government]]]

[^{F82}(6B) Subsection (6A) above does not apply to the British Waterways Board.]

^{F83}(7)

(8) In this section . . . ^{F77}“the Town and Country Planning Acts” mean . . . ^{F77} the Town and Country Planning Acts, 1947 to 1959, or, in relation to Scotland, . . . ^{F77} the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Acts, 1947 to 1959; and, subject to this section, any other expression in this section which is used in those Acts has the same meaning as in those Acts.
