

Education (Scotland) Act 1962

1962 CHAPTER 47 10 and 11 Eliz 2

PART VII S

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Employment

136 Children not to be employed in factories, mines, or quarries. S

No child shall be employed—

- (a) in any factory to which the ^{M1}Factories Act 1961 applies; or
- (b) at any mine or quarry within the meaning of the ^{M2}Mines and Quarries Act 1954;

and those Acts respectively shall have effect as respects Scotland as if this section, so far as it relates to the subject matter thereof, were incorporated therein.

[^{F1}137 Power of education authorities to prohibit or restrict employment of children. S

- (1) If it appears to an education authority that the employment of a child attending a school under their management is or is likely to be prejudicial to his health or otherwise to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him, the authority shall serve upon the parent and upon any person who is employing him for the time being a notice prohibiting the employment of the child in any employment or imposing such restrictions upon the employment of the child as appear to them to be expedient in the interests of the child:

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Scotland) Act 1962, Part VII. (See end of Document for details)

Provided that if the parent or the employer feels aggrieved by the prohibition or restriction, he may appeal to the Secretary of State, who shall have power to confirm, vary or annul the notice as he thinks fit.

- (2) An education authority may, by notice in writing served upon the parent or employer of any child attending a school under their management, require the parent or employer to provide the authority, within such period as may be specified in the notice, with such information as appears to the authority to be necessary for the purpose of enabling them to ascertain whether the child is being employed in such a manner as to be or to be likely to be prejudicial to his health or to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him.
- (3) Any person who knowingly employs a child in contravention of any prohibition or restriction imposed under subsection (1) of this section, or who fails to comply with the requirements of a notice served under subsection (2) of this section, shall be guilty of an offence against this section, and liable on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction to a fine not exceeding [^{F2}level 3 on the standard scale], or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, not exceeding [^{F2}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (4) Subsections (1) and (3) of section thirty-six of the Act of 1937 (which relate to powers of entry for the enforcement of the provisions of Part III of that Act with respect to the employment of children), shall apply with respect to the provisions of any notice served under this section as they apply with respect to the provisions of the said Part III.]
