

---

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

SCHEDULES

FOURTH SCHEDULE

PROVISIONS AS TO PERFORMING RIGHT TRIBUNAL

- 8 Without prejudice to any method available by law for the proof of orders of the tribunal, a document purporting to be a copy of any such order, and to be certified by the chairman of the tribunal to be a true copy thereof, shall, in any legal proceedings, be sufficient evidence of the order unless the contrary is proved