PART I

POWERS TO PROVIDE PUBLIC AMENITIES

1 Power to provide seats and shelters in roads.

(1) Subject to the provisions of section five of this Act, a parish council may provide and maintain seats and shelters for the use of the public and cause them to be installed or erected in proper and convenient situations in, or on any land abutting on, any road within the parish.

(2) In parishes in which the Public Improvements Act, 1860 (in this section referred to as “the Act of 1860”) has effect, the powers conferred by this section shall be in substitution for any powers under that Act to place seats and shelters.

(3) ................................................. F1
2 Power to provide public clocks.

A parish council may provide, maintain and light such public clocks within the parish as they consider necessary, and (subject to the provisions of section five of this Act) may cause them to be installed on or against any premises or in any other place the situation of which may be convenient.

3 Power to light roads and public places.

(1) The council of a parish or community or, in the case of a parish for which there is no parish council, the parish meeting may (subject to the provisions of section five of this Act) for the purpose of lighting the roads and other public places in the parish, or community, or in any part thereof,—

(a) provide and maintain such lamps, lamp posts and other materials and apparatus as they think necessary;

(b) cause such lamps, lamp posts and other materials and apparatus to be erected or installed on or against any premises or in such other places as may be convenient;

(c) contract with any person for the supply of gas, electricity or other means of lighting; and

(d) employ, with or without remuneration, such persons as may be necessary for the maintenance and superintendence of anything provided under this subsection.

In this section “road” includes a highway comprised in the route of a special road (as defined by the Highways Act 1980), being a highway in relation to which a parish council or parish meeting, as the case may be, are exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1) of this section on the date on which a scheme made under section 16 of the said Act of 1980 authorising the provision of the special road comes into force.
Provisions as to consents and access.

(1) A parish council or parish meeting shall not have power by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act to provide any seat, shelter, clock, lamp or lamp post, any other material or apparatus, . . .

(a) on any land or premises not forming part of a road, or in a position obstructing or interfering with any existing access to any such land or premises, except with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the land or premises; or

(b) in any road which is not a highway or in any public path, except with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the land over which the road or path runs; or

(c) in any such situation or position as is described in the first column of the following Table, except with the consent of the persons described in relation thereto in the second column of that Table.

| In any trunk road or any other road maintained by the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation, or on land abutting on any such road. | The Minister. |
| In any road which is a highway (other than a trunk road or a road maintained as aforesaid or a public path) or on land abutting on any such road. | The county council or metropolitan district council. |
| In any road which is a highway belonging to and repairable by any railway, dock, harbour, canal, inland navigation or passenger road transport undertakers and forming | The undertakers concerned. | the approach to any station, dock, wharf or depot of those undertakers.

On any bridge carrying a highway over any railway, dock, harbour, canal or inland navigation, or on the approaches to any such bridge or under any bridge carrying a railway, canal or inland navigation over a highway.

(2) Any consent required by paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall not unreasonably be withheld, but may be given subject to any reasonable conditions, including a condition that the parish council or parish meeting, as the case may be, shall remove any thing to the provision of which the consent relates either at any time or at or after the expiration of a period if reasonably required so to do by the person giving the consent.

(3) Any dispute between a parish council or parish meeting and a person whose consent is required under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section whether that consent is unreasonably withheld or is given subject to reasonable conditions, or whether the removal of any thing to the provision of which the consent relates in accordance with any condition of the consent is reasonably required, shall—

(a) in the case of a dispute between the parish council or parish meeting and the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation, be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be appointed in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers; and

(b) in any other case be referred to and determined by the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation, who may cause a local inquiry to be held for the purpose; and section two hundred and ninety of the Local Government Act, 1933, shall apply in relation to a local inquiry held under this subsection as it applies in relation to such an inquiry held under that Act.

(4) Section six of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1953 (which makes provision as to access to telegraphic lines, sewers, pipe-subways, pipes, wires and other apparatus) shall apply in relation to a . . . thing provided by a parish council or parish meeting under this Part of this Act, and to the council or meeting by which the . . . thing is so provided, as it applies in relation to a shelter or other accommodation provided, and to the local authority by which it is provided, under section four of that Act.

7 Interpretation of Part I.

In this Part of this Act except so far as the context otherwise requires—
   “in” in a context referring to things in a road includes a reference to things under, over, across, along or upon the road;
   “owner” has the meaning assigned to it by section three hundred and forty-three of the M4Public Health Act, 1936;
   “public path” has the meaning assigned to it by section twenty-seven of the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act, 1949;
   “road” means any highway (including a public path) and any other road, lane, footway, square, court, alley or passage (whether a thoroughfare or not) to which the public has access, but does not include a special road (as defined by the Special Roads Act, 1949).
PART II
EXTENSION AND ADAPTATION OF OTHER POWERS

8 Powers to be exercisable without reference to county council.

(1) Every parish council shall be a local authority for the purposes of the Open Spaces Act, 1906, whether or not invested with the powers of that Act by the council of the county within which the parish is situate.

(2) The approval or consent of the county council shall no longer be required for any of the following matters—

(a) by reason that it will involve a loan, for the incurring by a parish council of any other expense or liability; or

(b) for the borrowing by a parish council of such sums as may be required for any of the purposes mentioned in section one hundred and ninety-five of the Local Government Act, 1933.
