S

An Act to further the conservation and control of red deer in Scotland; to prevent the illegal taking and killing of all species of deer in Scotland; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid. [14th May 1959]

Commencement Information

II Act not in force at Royal Assent see s. 37\(3\)

PART I S

CONSERVATION AND CONTROL OF RED DEER

1 Constitution and general functions of Red Deer Commission. S

[<sup>F1</sup>(1) There shall be constituted a commission to be known as “the Deer Commission for Scotland” (in this Act referred to as “the Commission”) which shall—

- (a) in accordance with the provisions of this Act, further the conservation, control and sustainable management of deer in Scotland and keep under review all matters, including their welfare, relating to deer; and
- (b) exercise such other functions as are conferred on them by or under this Act or any other enactment.

(1A) It shall be the duty of the Commission, in exercising their functions, to take such account as may be appropriate in the circumstances of—

- (a) the size and density of the deer population and its impact on the natural heritage;
- (b) the needs of agriculture and forestry; and
- (c) the interests of owners and occupiers of land.]

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Deer (Scotland) Act 1959 (repealed 18.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Commission shall carry out their functions in accordance with such directions of a general character as may be given by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Commission shall [<sup>F2</sup>be appointed by the Secretary of State and] consist of a chairman and [<sup>F3</sup>such number of other members, being not less than nine nor more than twelve in total, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate to represent the interests of persons or organisations concerned with each of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3A) below; and subsections (3A) and (3B) below] shall apply to the appointment of these members other than the chairman.
- [<sup>F4</sup>(3A) Subject to subsection (3) above and to subsection (3B) below, the Secretary of State may appoint any person who appears to him—
- (a) to have knowledge or experience of one or more of the following matters—
- (i) deer management;
  - (ii) agriculture (including crofting)
  - (iii) forestry and woodland management; and
  - (iv) the natural heritage,
- in so far as that matter may be affected by the Commission’s exercise of their functions; and
- (b) generally, to be an appropriate person,
- to be a member of the Commission; and, subject to subsection (3B)(c) below, of the persons so appointed, at least one third shall be persons having knowledge or experience of deer management.
- (3B) Before making an appointment under subsection (3A) above, the Secretary of State shall—
- (a) afford to such organisations as appear to him to represent the interests of persons concerned with the matters mentioned in subsection (3A)(a) above an opportunity to suggest the name of any person who would in their view be an appropriate person for such an appointment;
  - (b) consider any such suggestions; and
  - (c) where names have been suggested by organisations representing the interests of deer managers, select the one third of the Commission referred to in subsection (3A) above from among those names.]

(6) The provisions contained in the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect in relation to the Commission.

6 Power of Commission to deal with marauding deer. S

[<sup>F15</sup>(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, where the Commission are satisfied—

(a) that deer—

(i) are causing serious damage to woodland, to agricultural production (including any crops or foodstuffs); or

(ii) are causing injury to livestock whether by serious overgrazing of pastures, competing with any such livestock for supplementary feeding, or otherwise; or

(iii) constitute a danger or a potential danger to public safety;

(b) that the killing of the deer is necessary to prevent further such damage or injury or to remove the danger or potential danger; and

(c) that none of their other powers is adequate to deal with the situation, they shall authorise in writing, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the authorisation, any person who in their opinion is competent to do so to follow and kill on such land as may be mentioned in the authorisation such deer as appear to that person to be causing the damage or injury or constituting the danger or potential danger.

(1A) Where, as mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(iii) above, deer constitute a danger or potential danger to public safety, and, in the opinion of the Commission or the person authorised by them, the killing of the deer would itself constitute a potential danger to public safety, the person authorised by the Commission shall instead take and remove the deer from the land in question by such means as are appropriate.]

(2) Where the Commission are satisfied that the deer [<sup>F16</sup>mentioned in subsection (1) above] come from particular land, and that any person having the right to kill deer thereon will forthwith undertake the killing of the deer first-mentioned, the Commission shall make a request to that effect in writing to that person.

(3) Where any such request as aforesaid has been made to a person, the Commission shall not issue an authorisation under this section unless it appears to them that he has become unable or unwilling to comply with the terms of the request.

(4) An authorisation under this section shall remain in force from the date thereof for such period, not exceeding [<sup>F17</sup>28] days, as may be specified in the authorisation.

(5) Where the Commission intend to issue any such authorisation as aforesaid, it shall be their duty to give as soon as practicable to any person who in their opinion is likely to be on any land mentioned therein such warning of their intention as they consider necessary to prevent danger to that person.

(6) It shall be the duty of the Commission to give to the owner of any land which is to be mentioned in an authorisation under this section such notice of their intention to issue that authorisation as may be practicable.

(7) Without prejudice to the general provisions of section sixteen of this Act relating to the service of notices, any notice to be served under this section on an owner of land shall, where an agent or servant is responsible for the management or the farming of the land, be duly served if served on the said agent or servant.

(8) The Commission may make in respect of the services of any person authorised by them [<sup>F18</sup>under this section], not being one of their servants, such payment as may be agreed.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Deer (Scotland) Act 1959 (repealed 18.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

[<sup>F19</sup>(9) Where any deer has been killed or taken and removed from land under an authorisation granted by the Commission under this section the Commission shall have power to dispose of it by sale or otherwise.]

and that for the prevention of further such damage, injury or, as the case may be, danger or potential danger, the deer in that locality should be reduced in number they shall form a preliminary view, having due regard to the nature and character of the land in question, as to what measures should be taken for that reduction in number; and, for the purposes of this section, “measures” includes the taking and removal of deer.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above “the natural heritage” includes any alteration or enhancement of the natural heritage which is taking place, or is proposed to take place, either naturally or as a result of a change of use determined by the owner or occupier of the land in question; and “damage” shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) Where it appears to the Commission that the circumstances obtaining in a particular area require the complete exclusion of all deer, or of all deer of any species, from that area, they may form the view that any deer within that area should be taken, removed or killed.
- (4) Thereafter it shall be the duty of the Commission to consult with such owners or occupiers of land as the Commission consider to be substantially interested, to secure agreement—
  - (a) that measures require to be taken;
  - (b) as to what measures require to be taken, and within what time limit;
  - (c) as to who is to carry out such measures; and
  - (d) as to any other matters which appear to the Commission to be necessary for the purposes of such an agreement.
- (5) Where agreement is reached on the matters mentioned in subsection (4) above the Commission shall draw up an agreement (a “control agreement”) specifying the parties to it, and any such control agreement may—
  - (a) describe the control area by reference to a map and specify the approximate extent of that area;
  - (b) specify the measures which are to be taken in relation to the deer in that area or any part thereof;
  - (c) specify, where the deer are to be reduced in number, the number and, if necessary in the opinion of the Commission, the species, sex and class, of the deer to be killed in or taken and removed from the control area or any part thereof, and the limit on the number of deer of each species, sex or class to be allowed to be established in the control area or any part thereof;
  - (d) specify the measures which are to be taken by the owners or occupiers for the time being of land in the control area or any of them for the purposes of the agreement; and
  - (e) set out the time limits within which the owners or occupiers are to take any such measures,and the Commission shall send a copy of the control agreement to all the persons who were involved in the consultation referred to in subsection (4) above.
- (6) The Commission and any of the parties to a control agreement may agree at any time to vary its terms.
- (7) Where the Commission are satisfied—
  - (a) that—
    - (i) it is not possible to secure a control agreement; or
    - (ii) a control agreement is not being carried out; and

- (i) deer have caused and are causing serious damage to woodland or to agricultural production, including crops and foodstuffs, or serious damage, whether directly or indirectly, to the natural heritage, or serious injury to livestock however caused, or have become and remain a danger to public safety; and
  - (ii) action is necessary to prevent such serious damage, serious injury, or danger,
- they shall make a scheme (a “control scheme”) for the carrying out of such measures as they consider necessary for the purposes of subsection (1) or (3) above; and any such scheme before it comes into operation shall require confirmation by the Secretary of State.
- (8) Subsection (7) above does not apply in relation to any control agreement proposed or entered into for the purpose of altering or enhancing the natural heritage.
- (9) In this Act the area to which a control agreement or a control scheme relates is, in relation to that agreement or, as the case may be, scheme, referred to as the “control area”.

- (1) Where a person does any act, in accordance with an authorisation given under subsection (2) or (3) below, which would otherwise be an offence under subsection (1) or (3A) of section 23 of this Act, he shall not be guilty of an offence under the said section 23.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in any agreement between an occupier of agricultural land or of woodland and the owner thereof, but subject to subsections (7) to (10) below, the Commission may authorise such an occupier or any person nominated in writing by such an occupier to take or kill, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, any deer on any such land or woodland during the period specified in section 23(1) of this Act, where they are satisfied that the taking or killing is necessary to prevent serious damage to crops, pasture, human or animal foodstuffs, or to woodland, and no other means of control which might reasonably be adopted in the circumstances would be adequate.
- (3) Subject to subsections (7) to (10) below, the Commission may authorise the owner of any land which deer are on, or any person nominated in writing by him, to use any vehicle to drive deer in order to take or kill them for the purposes of deer management; and, for the purposes of this section—
  - “deer management” does not include driving deer in the course of any sporting activity, and
  - “vehicle” does not include any aircraft or hovercraft.
- (4) Where a person does any act, in accordance with an authorisation given under subsection (5) or (6) below, which would otherwise be an offence under section 21(5) of this Act, he shall not be guilty of that offence.
- (5) Without prejudice to section 33(3) of this Act, notwithstanding anything in any agreement between an occupier of land and the owner thereof and subject to subsections (7) to (10) below, the Commission may authorise the owner or occupier of any land or any person nominated in writing by either of them to take or kill, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, any deer found on that land during the period specified in relation to that species and sex of deer in an order under section 21 of this Act, where they are satisfied that the taking or killing is necessary—
  - (a) to prevent serious damage to any unenclosed woodland which forms part of that land, or serious damage, whether direct or indirect, to the natural heritage generally; or
  - (b) in the interests of public safety,and no other means of control which might reasonably be adopted in the circumstances would be adequate.
- (6) Subject to subsections (7) to (10) below, the Commission may, for any scientific purpose, authorise any person to take or kill deer during the period specified in relation to that species and sex of deer in an order under section 21 of this Act.

- (7) The Commission shall not grant an authorisation under subsection (2), (3), (5) or (6) above unless they are satisfied that the person concerned is a fit and competent person to receive an authorisation under that subsection.
- (8) An authorisation shall—
- (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) specify the duration of its validity.
- (9) No authorisation shall be granted under subsection (2) or (3) above unless a relevant code has been published under subsection (11) below, and any such authorisation shall contain a condition that the person concerned shall comply with the relevant provisions of any such code.
- (10) An authorisation may contain such conditions, other than that mentioned in subsection (9) above, as the Commission thinks fit.
- (11) The Commission shall prepare and publish, and from time to time revise, a code of practice for—
- (a) night shooting; and
  - (b) the use of vehicles for the purposes of deer management,

SECOND SCHEDULE S

PROVISIONS AS TO CONTROL SCHEMES

PART I S

Procedure for making control schemes

- 1 Where the Commission decide to make a control scheme they shall—
  - (a) serve on every owner and every occupier of land on whom the scheme proposes to impose any requirement a copy of the said scheme, together with a notice stating that any such owner or occupier may, within twenty-eight days of the service of the notice, object to the Secretary of State in such manner as may be specified in the notice to the scheme or to any provision contained therein; and
  - (b) in two successive weeks publish in the Edinburgh Gazette and in one or more newspapers circulating in the district in which the control area is situated a notice stating that a control scheme has been prepared, describing the said area, naming a place within the district where a copy of the said scheme and of the map referred to therein may be inspected at all reasonable hours, and stating that any person may, within twenty-eight days of the first publication of such notice, object to the Secretary of State in such a manner as may be specified in the notice to the said scheme or to any provision contained therein.
- 2 If no objection is duly made under the last foregoing paragraph or if all objections so made are withdrawn, the Secretary of State may confirm the control scheme either in the form submitted to him or, subject to paragraph 4 of this Schedule, with modifications.
- 3 If any objection duly made as aforesaid is not withdrawn, the Secretary of State shall, before deciding whether to confirm the control scheme, cause a public inquiry to be held, and after considering the objection and the report of the person who held the inquiry may confirm the scheme either in the form submitted to him or, subject to paragraph 4 of this Schedule, with modifications.
- 4 The control scheme shall not be confirmed with any modification unless either—
  - (a) every person served with a copy of the scheme by virtue of paragraph 1 of this Schedule has been served with notice of the proposal to make the modification and any other person on whom the modification, if made, would impose a requirement, has been served with a notice of the proposal to make the modification along with a copy of the said scheme, and either has consented thereto or has not, before the expiry of fourteen days from the service of the notice, notified the Secretary of State in writing that he objects thereto; or
  - (b) the modification arises from representations made at an inquiry held under paragraph 3 of this Schedule or from the findings or recommendations of

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Deer (Scotland) Act 1959 (repealed 18.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

the person holding that inquiry, and every person in respect of whom the modification, if made, would vary or impose a requirement has been served with a copy of the scheme as aforesaid and been afforded an opportunity to appear and be heard at the inquiry.

PART II S

Procedure for varying or revoking control schemes

- 5 On the application of the Commission, the Secretary of State may make a scheme varying a control scheme or may revoke a control scheme.
- 6 Before making any such variation or revocation the Secretary of State shall—
- (a) serve on every owner and every occupier of land on whom the control scheme has imposed any requirement or would, if varied as proposed, impose any requirement, a draft of the scheme varying the control scheme or, as the case may be, an intimation of the proposed revocation together with a notice stating that any such owner or occupier may, within twenty-eight days of the service of the draft scheme or the intimation, as the case may be, object to the Secretary of State in such a manner as may be specified in the notice to the variation or revocation of the control scheme; and
  - (b) in two successive weeks publish in the Edinburgh Gazette and in one or more newspapers circulating in the district in which the control area is situated a notice stating that the control scheme is to be varied or revoked and that any person may, within twenty-eight days of the first publication of such notice, object in such manner as may be specified in the notice to the making of the variation or revocation, and in the case of any such variation naming a place within the district where a copy of the scheme as proposed to be varied and any map referred to therein may be inspected at all reasonable hours.
- 7 If no objection is duly made under the foregoing paragraph or if all objections so made are withdrawn, the Secretary of State may vary or revoke the control scheme, as the case may be.
- 8 If any objection duly made as aforesaid is not withdrawn, the Secretary of State shall, before deciding whether to make the variation or revocation as the case may be, cause a public inquiry to be held, and after considering the objection and the report of the person who held the inquiry may make the variation, either in the form of the draft or with modifications, or the revocation, as the case may be.
- 9 A variation of a control scheme shall not be made with any modification unless either—
- (a) every person served with a copy of the draft scheme by virtue of paragraph 6 of this Schedule has been served with notice of the proposal to make

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Deer (Scotland) Act 1959 (repealed 18.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

the modification and any other person on whom the modification, if made, would impose a requirement has been served with a notice of the proposal to make the modification along with a copy of the said draft scheme, and either has consented thereto or has not, before the expiry of fourteen days from the service of the notice, notified the Secretary of State in writing that he objects thereto; or

- (b) the modification arises from representations made at an inquiry held under the last foregoing paragraph or from the findings or recommendations of the person holding that inquiry, and every person in respect of whom the modification, if made, would vary or impose a requirement has been served with a copy of the draft scheme as aforesaid and been afforded an opportunity to appear and be heard at the inquiry.

PART III S

General Procedural Provisions

- 10 Notwithstanding anything in paragraph 3 or 8 of this Schedule, the Secretary of State may require any person who has made an objection to state in writing the grounds thereof, and may disregard the objection for the purposes of this Schedule if he is satisfied that the objection is frivolous.
- 11 The provisions of [<sup>F123</sup>subsections (2) to (8) of section 210 of the <sup>M5</sup>Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1973] (which relate to the holding of local inquiries) shall apply in relation to a public local inquiry held under paragraph 3 or 8 of this Schedule as they apply in relation to local inquiries held under the said section [<sup>F123</sup>210].

PART IV S

Provisions as to the validity of control schemes and of variations or revocations of such schemes

- 12 On confirming a control scheme or on varying or revoking such a scheme the Secretary of State shall forthwith—
- (a) serve on every person on whom a notice was required to be served under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 1 or under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 4 of this Schedule or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 6

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/1996.

or under sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 9 of this Schedule a notice stating that the scheme has been confirmed or, as the case may be, that a variation or revocation of such a scheme has been made;

- (b) publish in the Edinburgh Gazette and in one or more newspapers circulating in the district in which the control area is situated a notice stating that the scheme has been confirmed or varied or revoked, as the case may be, and naming a place within the district where a copy of the scheme or, as the case may be, the scheme as varied, and of any maps referred to therein, may be inspected at all reasonable hours.

- 13 If any person aggrieved by a control scheme or by any variation or revocation thereof desires to question its validity on the ground that it is not within the powers of this Act or that any requirement of this Act has not been complied with, he may, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of the last foregoing paragraph, make an application for the purpose to the Court of Session, and if any such application is duly made the Court, if satisfied that the scheme or any variation or revocation thereof is not within the powers of this Act or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by a failure to comply with any requirement of this Act, may quash the scheme or any variation or revocation thereof, either generally or in so far as it affects the applicant; but except as aforesaid the scheme or any variation or revocation thereof shall not at any time be questioned in any proceedings whatsoever.
