

Chevening Estate Act 1959

1959 CHAPTER 49 7 and 8 Eliz 2

1 Confirmation of vesting deed and trust instrument.

- (1) The vesting deed and the trust instrument are hereby confirmed, and shall have effect, and be deemed to have had effect as from the execution thereof, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity which apart from this subsection would have affected their validity:
Provided that this subsection shall not affect any right or interest in respect of any of the property comprised in the vesting deed or the trust instrument, being a right or interest to which a person other than the Settlor was entitled immediately before the execution of the vesting deed.
- (2) The vesting deed shall be taken to comply with the requirements of section five of the ^{M1}Settled Land Act 1925 (which relates to the contents of vesting deeds) notwithstanding that it does not contain all the statements and particulars mentioned in that section.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of section one hundred and six or subsection (2) of section one hundred and eight of the ^{M2}Settled Land Act 1925 (which relate respectively to provisions for limiting the exercise of powers conferred by that Act and to cases of conflict between the provisions of a settlement and the provisions of that Act), in so far as the trust instrument provides for the application of any provisions of, or powers conferred by, that Act, those provisions or powers shall apply subject to any modifications or restrictions specified in relation thereto in the trust instrument.
- (4) Section twenty-two of the ^{M3}Administration of Estates Act 1925 (which relates to the appointment of special executors in respect of settled land) shall apply in relation to the trust instrument subject to the provisions of that instrument relating to that section.
- (5) It is hereby declared that this Act is the Act referred to in the trust instrument as the intended Act of Parliament confirming that instrument.
