

Road Traffic Act 1960

1960 CHAPTER 16

PART VI

THIRD-PARTY LIABILITIES

Compulsory Insurance or Security against Third-Party Risks

206 Avoidance of certain exceptions to policies or securities

- (1) Where a certificate of insurance or certificate of security has been delivered under the last foregoing section to the person by whom a policy has been effected or to whom a security has been given, so much of the policy or security as purports to restrict, as the case may be, the insurance of the persons insured by the policy or the operation of the security by reference to any of the following matters, that is to say,—
- (a) the age or physical or mental condition of persons driving the vehicle, or
 - (b) the condition of the vehicle, or
 - (c) the number of persons that the vehicle carries, or
 - (d) the weight or physical characteristics of the goods that the vehicle carries, or
 - (e) the times at which or the areas within which the vehicle is used, or
 - (f) the horsepower or cylinder capacity or value of the vehicle, or
 - (g) the carrying on the vehicle of any particular apparatus, or
 - (h) the carrying on the vehicle of any particular means of identification other than any means of identification required to be carried by or under the Vehicles (Excise) Act, 1949, shall, as respects such liabilities as are required to be covered by a policy under section two hundred and three of this Act, be of no effect:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall require an insurer or the giver of a security to pay any sum in respect of the liability of any person otherwise than in or towards the discharge of that liability, and any sum paid by an insurer or the giver of a security in or towards the discharge of any liability of any person which is covered
