

Civil List Audit Act 1816

CHAPTER 46

CIVIL LIST AUDIT ACT 1816

- Certain Sums heretofore paid to a Part of the Royal Family out of the Civil List to be hereafter payable out of Consolidated Fund.
- II Allowances to the Royal Family to be paid at the Exchequer without Fee & Reward.
 - III Sums to be appropriated to the Payment of the respective Classes of the Civil List, and to be applied in the First Instance in Payment thereof in Preference to all other Payments.
 - IV Treasury may direct the Savings in any Class to be applied at the End of the year, in Aid of the other Classes.
 - V Application of Exchequer Fees to be repealed, and a fixed Sum carried to the Civil List Revenue, and the Remainder to the Consolidated Fund.
 - VI So much of an Act of the 50 G.3 c.117 as directs the Deficiency of the Fee Funds of certain Offices to be paid out of the Civil List, repealed.
 - VII Treasury to direct the Officers of the Exchequer to pay to Persons named in any Warrant, any Pension, Fee, or Salary which did not become due in consequence of the Death of the Person to whom the same was directed to be paid.
 - VIII Treasury may appoint an Officer to audit the Civil List Accounts; such Officer not to fit in Parliament.
 - IX Treasury to prepare Instructions for the Guidance of such Officer.
 - X Officer may summon Persons, and require Books, Accounts, and Vouchers, and examine upon Oath.
 - XI Penalty on Persons giving false Evidence before Auditor.
 - XII Officer, after Examination, to make out States according to Instructions. Treasury may remit for further Examination, or allow any Warrant under Sign Manual upon such Allowance, to be a final Discharge.
 - XIII In case of Exceeding Particulars to be laid before Parliament.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

The SCHEDULE to — ESTIMATE of the probable future Annual Charge on The Civil which this Act refers List