Textual AmendmentsF17 S. 25 repealed by Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973 (c. 36), Sch. 6 Pts. I, II26 Provisions as to land purchase annuities.

(1) Purchase annuities payable in respect of land situate in Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland respectively, including any arrears thereof due or accruing due on the appointed day, shall be collected by the Governments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland, and the amounts so collected shall be paid into their respective Exchequers, but nothing in this Act shall confer on either such Government any powers with respect to the redemption of purchase annuities.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Government of Ireland Act 1920 (repealed 2.12.1999). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In each year a sum equal to the amount payable in that year in respect of purchase annuities shall be paid into the Irish Land Purchase fund or account, or other appropriate fund or account, out of moneys provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
- (3) Where after the appointed day an existing purchase annuity is redeemed, a sum equal to the annuity shall be paid out of moneys provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom to the Exchequer of Northern Ireland, in each year so long as the purchase annuity would, if not redeemed, have continued to be payable.

(4) ^{F18}

(5) For the purposes of this Act—

the expression “purchase annuities,” . . . ^{F19}, includes annuities for the repayment of advances made under any of the Land Purchase Acts prior to the ^{M2}Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act 1891, and annuities for the repayment of advances made under the ^{M3}Labourers (Ireland) Act 1906 or under any other Act relating to land purchase in Ireland;

the expression “existing purchase annuity” means a purchase annuity payable in respect of an advance made in pursuance of a purchase agreement entered into, or, in the case of a purchase annuity payable under the ^{M4}Labourers (Ireland) Act 1906 in pursuance of a scheme approved before the passing of this Act;

the expression “new purchase annuity” means a purchase annuity payable in respect of an advance made in pursuance of a purchase agreement entered into or, in the case of a purchase annuity payable under the ^{M5}Labourers (Ireland) Act 1906 in pursuance of a scheme approved, after the passing of this Act.

29 Provisions against double stamp duties.

- (1) Where an instrument is chargeable with stamp duty in Great Britain and in Northern Ireland, and has been stamped in any one of those countries, the instrument shall, to the extent of the duty it bears, be deemed to be stamped in the other country: Provided that, if the stamp duty chargeable on any instrument in such other country exceeds the stamp duty chargeable in respect of that instrument in the country in which the instrument has previously been stamped, the instrument shall not be deemed to have been duly stamped in such other country unless and until stamped in accordance with the laws of that country with a stamp denoting an amount equal to such excess.
- (2) Where composition for stamp duty is made or agreed to be made in any one of such countries, any instrument which by virtue of the composition is exempt from the payment of duty in that country shall, for the purposes of this section, be treated in any other such country as having been stamped in the first-mentioned country with a stamp denoting the amount of duty which, but for the composition, would have been chargeable on that instrument: Provided that, if the legislature of such other country has imposed any conditions on the recognition therein of any composition made or agreed to be made in the first-mentioned country, this subsection shall not apply unless those conditions are complied with.
