

Celluloid and Cinematograph Film Act 1922

CHAPTER 35

CELLULOID AND CINEMATOGRAPH FILM ACT 1922

- 1 General safety provisions
- 2 Purposes to which the Act applies
- 3 Penalties for infringement of foregoing provisions
- 4 Execution of Act by local authorities
- 5 Power of entry
- 6 Power to take samples
- 7 Obstruction of officers
- 8 Power of county court to modify agreements and to apportion expenses
- 9 Definitions
- 10 Application to Scotland and Ireland
- 11 Short title, commencement, & c

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE —

- PART I — RAW CELLULOID STORES
- PART II — PREMISES WHERE CINEMATOGRAPH FILM IS KEPT OR STORED
- PART III — FIRE-RESISTING STORE-ROOMS

SECOND — Procedure for making Orders, &c SCHEDULE

- 1 Before the Secretary of State makes any order, he shall...
- 2 Every objection must be in writing and state—
- 3 The Secretary of State shall consider any objection, made by...

- 4 Where the majority of the occupiers of the premises affected...
- 5 The Secretary of State may appoint a competent person to...
- 6 The inquiry shall be held in public, and any person...
- 7 The witnesses on the inquiry may, if the person holding...
- 8 Subject as aforesaid, the inquiry and all proceedings preliminary and...
- 9 The fee to be paid to the person holding the...
- 10 The order shall be laid as soon as possible before...
- 11 Notice of any order having been made and of the...