

Road Traffic Act 1930

1930 CHAPTER 43

PART V

RUNNING OF PUBLIC SERVICE VEHICLES BY LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

101 Power to run public service vehicles.

- (1) A local authority who under any local Act or Order are operating a tramway, light railway, trolley vehicle, or omnibus undertaking, may as part of that undertaking run public service vehicles on any road within their district and also with the consent of the traffic commissioners for the traffic area in which any other road is situate, on that road.
- (2) Nothing in this act shall authorise a local authority to run any public service vehicle—
 - (a) as a contract carriage; or
 - (b) on any road on which they are for the time being prohibited by any local Act or Order from running omnibuses; or
 - (c) except with the consent of the authority, on any road vested in a statutory dock authority as such or in a statutory harbour authority as such; or
 - (d) except with the consent of the company on any premises (not being part of a highway) belonging to a railway company and adjoining or giving access to a railway station.

102 Provisions with respect to consents to be granted by traffic commissioners under this Part.

- (1) A local authority by whom an application is submitted to the traffic commissioners of any area for consent to the ranning of public service vehicles on any road within that area shall publish in manner hereinafter directed a notice stating that the application has been made, describing each route to which it relates and specifying the time within which, and manner in which, objections may be made to the commissioners by any other local authority, by the council of any county, or by any persons who are already providing transport facilities on, or in the neighbourhood of, any part of any route to which the application relates.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

A notice for the purposes of this subsection shall be published in the London Gazette if any part of any route to which the application relates is situate in England, in the Edinburgh Gazette if any part of any such route is situate in Scotland, and also in such newspaper or newspapers on such number of days as the commissioners may direct, and the date specified in the notice as the latest date for the making of objections shall be a date which will allow for the making of objections not less than fourteen days calculated from the day on which publication of all notices required by or under this subsection to be published is complete.

- (2) The commissioners, before deciding any application, may, and if any objection is duly received by them from a local authority, from the council of any county, or from any such person as is mentioned in the last preceding subsection, shall hold a public inquiry into the application and shall give not less than fourteen days' notice of the holding of any such inquiry to the applicants and to any local authority, any county council, and any such person as aforesaid by whom objection has been duly made.
- (3) The commissioners, after holding a public inquiry in any case in which they consider it desirable, or in which they are by the last preceding subsection required, to hold such an inquiry, may either grant or refuse the consent applied for, or may grant a consent in such modified form, or subject to such conditions, as they think fit.
- (4) The commissioners, in considering any application shall have regard to the extent to which the requirements of the applicants' district will be served, either directly or indirectly, by a service of vehicles on the route to which the application relates.
- (5) The commissioners may at any time revoke or modify any consent, or modify any conditions attached to any consent, previously granted by them to a local authority, but, before doing so, they shall give to the local authority and to any authority, county council, or person who appeared at the inquiry as an objector to the application an opportunity of being heard before them.
- (6) Notice of the commissioners' decision upon any application for a consent and of their decision to revoke or modify a consent or to modify any conditions attached to a consent shall be given to the local authority concerned and to any authority, county council, or person who appeared at the inquiry as an objector against the application, and any authority, county council or person upon whom such a notice is served may within fourteen days after receipt thereof appeal to the Minister against the decision of the commissioners, and the Minister's decision upon any such appeal shall be final, and the commissioners shall give effect thereto.
- (7) A decision of the commissioners to grant any consent shall not become operative until after the expiration of one month, and a decision to revoke or modify a consent, or to modify any conditions attached to a consent, shall not become operative until after the expiration of three months from the date of the commissioners' decision, and if at the expiration of that period an appeal to the Minister is pending the decision of the commissioners shall not become operative until the appeal has been determined.

103 Further provision as to omnibuses.

For the purposes of this Part of this Act a local authority may purchase and maintain such vehicles as may be necessary and may purchase by agreement, take on lease, and hold lands and may on any lands so purchased by or leased to them or any lands lawfully appropriated by them for the purpose erect such buildings, sheds, and conveniences and may provide such plant and appliances as may be requisite or expedient for the establishment, running, equipment, maintenance and repair of their public service vehicles.

104 Fares and charges.

- (1) A local authority authorised to run public service vehicles under this Part of this Act may demand and take for passengers and parcels carried on such vehicles such fares and charges as they may think fit :

Provided that every passenger may take with him personal luggage not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight without extra charge.

- (2) A local authority authorised to run public service vehicles under this Part of this Act may if they think fit carry on such vehicles small parcels not exceeding fifty-six pounds in weight and dogs in the care of passengers, the charge for any such dog to be a sum not exceeding the fare payable by the passenger, but they shall not carry on such vehicles any other goods or animals.
- (3) A local authority authorised to run public service vehicles under this Part of this Act shall perform in respect of services of such vehicles on any route authorised under this Part of this Act such services in regard to the conveyance of mails as are prescribed by the Conveyance of Mails Act, 1893, in respect of a tramway to which that Act applies.
