

Criminal Justice Administration Act 1914

1914 CHAPTER 58

Bail and Remand

24 Declaration of law as to mode of entering into recognisance

For removing doubts it is hereby declared that where as a condition of the release of any person he is required to enter into a recognisance with sureties, the recognisances of the sureties may be taken separately and either before or after the recognisances of the principal, and if so taken the recognisances of the principal and sureties shall be as binding as if they had been taken together and at the same time.
