

Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act 1919

1919 CHAPTER 71

2 Provision as to women who have qualified for degrees at universities not admitting women to degrees.

A woman shall be entitled to be admitted and enrolled as a solicitor after serving under articles for three years only if either she has taken such a university degree as would have so entitled her had she been a man, or if she has been admitted to and passed the final examination and kept, under the conditions required of women by the university, the period of residence necessary for a man to obtain a degree at any university which did not at the time the examination was passed admit women to degrees.
