

Local Government (Scotland) Act 1947

1947 CHAPTER 43

PART V

ADMINISTRATIVE SCHEMES, COMMITTEES AND JOINT COMMITTEES.

Certain Statutory Committees of Local Authorities.

110 Roads committee in county.

- (1) Every county council shall have a committee for the purposes of their functions relating to roads, which committee shall be known as the roads committee.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the roads committee of every county council existing at the commencement of this Act shall be the roads committee of the council.
- (3) Such matters as may be specified in the administrative scheme of the county council relating to roads shall stand referred to the roads committee of the council, and the council before exercising any function relating to a matter so standing referred shall, unless in their opinion the matter is urgent, receive and consider the report of the roads committee with respect to the matter in question.
- (4) Save as otherwise provided in this Part of this Act, a county council may delegate to the roads committee of the council, with or without restrictions or conditions as the council think fit, any of their functions relating to roads.
- (5) For the purposes of this section the functions of a county council relating to roads shall be deemed to include any functions relating to roads delegated to the council under any enactment.
