

Crown Proceedings Act 1947

1947 CHAPTER 44 10 and 11 Geo 6

PART III

JUDGMENTS AND EXECUTIONS

24 Interest on debts damages and costs.

- (1) Section seventeen of the ^{M1}Judgments Act 1838 (which provides that a judgment debt shall carry interest) shall apply to judgment debts due from or to the Crown.
- (2) Where any costs are awarded to or against the Crown in the High Court, interest shall be payable upon those costs unless the court otherwise orders, and any interest so payable shall be at the same rate as that at which interest is payable upon judgment debts due from or to the Crown.
- (3) [^{F1}Section 35A of the Supreme Court Act 1981 and [^{F2}section 69 of the County Courts Act 1984] (which respectively empower the High Court and county courts to award interest on debts and damages) and section 3 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1934 (which empowers other courts of record to do so)] shall apply to judgments given in proceedings by and against the Crown.
