

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULES.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

AMENDMENTS OF 26 GEO. 5 & 1 EDW. 8. C. 31.

- 3 Notwithstanding anything in section six, where a woman who is entitled to an old age pension becomes, in consequence of the death of her husband, entitled to an increase in the rate thereof, pension at the increased rate shall be payable as from the date of the death or from the beginning of the period of three months ending with the date on which notice of the death is given to the Board, whichever is the later:
- Provided that the Board shall not by virtue of this paragraph be required to make any payment in respect of part of a week.