

Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries (Protection) (Scotland) Act 1951

1951 CHAPTER 26

PART IV

LEGAL PROCEDURE

20 Disposal of fish seized under the Act

Where under this Act any fish is seized as liable to forfeiture the person by whom it is seized may sell it and the net proceeds of the sale shall be liable to forfeiture in the same manner as the fish sold:

Provided that no person shall be subject to any liability on account of his neglect or failure to exercise the powers conferred on him by this section.