

Shops Act 1950

1950 CHAPTER 28

PART IV

SUNDAY TRADING

General provisions in England and Wales

58 Extension of foregoing provisions of Part IV to retail trading elsewhere than in shops

The foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act except—

- (a) those provisions of section fifty-two and section fifty-four which relate to the approval by occupiers of shops of orders made under those sections; and
- (b) paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section fifty-three; and
- (c) the last foregoing section,

shall extend to any place where any retail trade or business is carried on as if that place were a shop, and as if in relation to any such place the person by whom the retail trade or business is carried on were the occupier of a shop:

Provided that the provisions of section forty-seven of this Act shall, as applied by this section, have effect as if there were included in the Fifth Schedule to this Act the sale by fishermen of freshly caught fish (including shellfish) and the sale at a farm, smallholding, allotment or similar place, of produce produced thereon.
